RED CROSS YEAR'S COST $21,366,255

DISABLED WAR VETERANS' AID IS PARAMOUNT; NEARLY $4,000,000.

Nearly $12,000,000 Devoted to Helping Victims of Great Japanese Earthquake.

Washington.—More than $21,000,000 was the total of funds expended in all activities of the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year. Ended June 30, says a statement issued by the National organization. This expenditure was almost one-sixth of the amount of money disbursed by the Red Cross in the war year, July, 1917, to June, 1918. Of this extraordinary sum $11,631,303 was America's contribution to the Red Cross for relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. This was increased to $11,768,303 by appropriations from general funds of the Red Cross, and it represented probably the largest spontaneous outpouring of beneficence of a single nation in the history of the world.

Over 3,000 active Chapters expended during the year $4,869,000. The National organization disbursed $16,497,255.35, making the total $21,366,255.35—all for humanitarian work which reached practically around the world. In announcing the year's record of American Red Cross industry the executive officials at Washington emphasize the fact that the extensive and never-ending work of the Red Cross depends almost wholly upon the nation-wide support of the organization from the memberships enrolled during the annual roll call which this year will be in progress from Nov. 11 to 27, when everyone is asked to join or renew their membership in the American Red Cross.

Soldier Service Paramount

Service in behalf of the disabled veterans of the World War and their families is a paramount obligation of the Red Cross. The organization, through its Chapters, is constantly in touch with this duty in 2,609 communities throughout the United States—the Chapters alone during the year expended in service for veterans about $2,000,000. The National organization expended $1,735,825—a total of $3,735,825 applied to assisting war sufferers toward recovery from disability and distress.

CASEVILLE AND OAK BLUFF THREATENED BY FOREST FIRE

Back-firing and Plowing Stops Progress of Fire Along the Bay Shore.

Caseville and Oak Bluff were in the path of a forest fire Saturday which threatened to wipe both places out of existence. A southwest wind hurried the flames along the shore of Saginaw Bay and it was only by back-firing and plowing that the fire was checked within a half mile of Oak Bluff.

The Cass City Summer Home club has about 30 cottages at the Oak Bluff resort valued at approximately $24,000 and members of the club who made a hurried trip from Cass City to Caseville had faint hopes of saving their property early Saturday afternoon.

Five hundred automobiles were parked in the vicinity of Oak Bluff that afternoon, residents of near-by towns coming to the place to assist in staying the progress of the flames.

Four Tuscola Co. Men Sentenced to Detroit House of Correction by Federal Judge Tuttle.

The creamery plant of the Decker-ville Farm Produce Co. has suspended operations for lack of funds to meet current obligations after being in operation about seven months. The suspension is primarily due to a lack of patronage on the part of the farmers and dairymen and the competition of the numerous cream stations doing business in the town and surrounding country.

One of the oldest and best known pioneers of Bad Axe passed away on Saturday, October 25, in the death of Mrs. Catherine Philp, wife of the late Robert Philp, the first general merchant in the early village of Bad Axe. She was nearly 72 years old and had been sick for a long time.

Five ladies of Caro Rebekah lodge were honored with the degree of "Chivalry" at the Grand assembly of Rebekahs and Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Alpena. They were Mrs. W. E. Owen, Miss Lizzie Mercer, Mrs. David McKinley, Mrs. John Able and Mrs. Ray Dyer. The degree is conferred only at meetings of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment.

Four Tuscola county men will commence sentences soon in the Detroit house of correction for violations of the prohibition law, all having pleaded guilty before Judge Arthur J. Tuttle in the federal court for the eastern district of Michigan at Bay City, Wednesday. All were given the alternative of paying a fine of $1,000 each, which none were able to do. The men were Leo Adamski of Wells, George Kurish of Wells, Paul Przeworski of Wells, and Sylvester Ratz of Arbella. The terms of their sentences were 100 days, 94 days, 98 days and 92 days for each in the order named.

The Fashion Shop at Bad Axe, a ladies' clothing store owned by Joseph Hirschberg, was damaged by fire to the extent of $25,000 at a late hour Saturday night. The building was damaged to the amount of $1,000.

The Miller Top Co. at Caro has been forced into the hands of a receiver just because closed cars have put their product out of business. It is expected that some other commodity can be manufactured in the factory and an effort will be made to do so.

Completion of the Earle Memorial highway has been put on the state's highway program for 1925. At a meeting of the state administrative board, the members approved the construction of 20 1/2 miles of road-work on M-53 in Sanilac county which will complete the only unimproved stretch between Detroit and Bad Axe.

The Masonic orders of Sanilac county joined in observing a Washington memorial service at the McDonald auditorium at Sandusky on Tuesday evening. The memorial service was in recognition of the 172nd anniversary of George Washington's initiation as an entered apprentice in the Masonic lodge at Frederick, Va., Nov. 4, 1752. The service was open to the public.

Mrs. Elwood Ward and Miss Lizzie Bueger were in Alpena last week to take the degree of chivalry at the Rebekah assembly. These ladies were the first to take this degree from Lapeer county and they felt quite honored over the event.

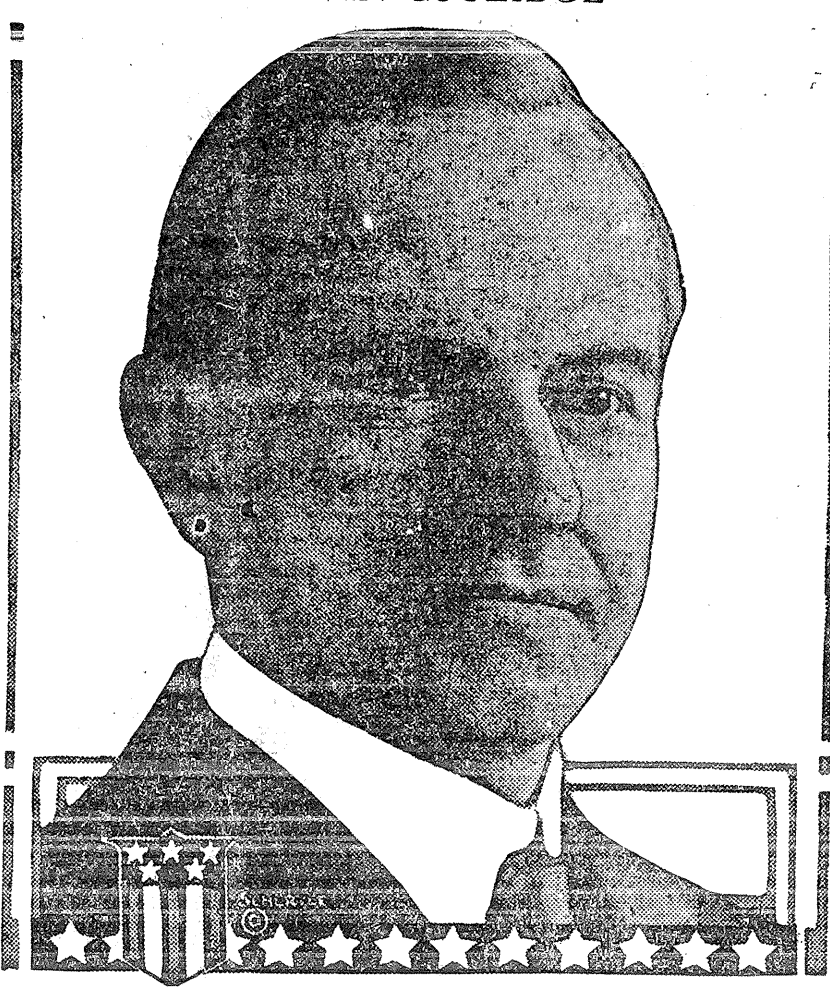

Sanilac county's board of supervisors passed the following resolution by a 25 to 3 vote: "Resolved, by the board of supervisors of Sanilac county, that it is the expression of this board that the county road commission expend no county road money for the removal of the snow from the state trunk lines and county roads, except the use of a disc or equivalent tool for cutting off cones or high ridges of snow and ice when the snow is thawing in the spring of the year. As to the removal of snow and ice during the winter months it would be impractical and a waste of public money."

The Harbor Beach public school was set afire two evenings in succession. On Thursday evening, the building was found to be on fire in the same place as the previous evening and under the same conditions. On Wednesday evening a bottle of coal oil was found near the scene and on the next night the door of the coal bin was found to be highly saturated with the oil. The building was set on fire both evenings without a doubt, the motive for which is not known.

The Huron county road commission this year has decided that overloading wagons and trucks on the improved highways in Huron county must stop and to that end notices have been posted at all beet weighing stations throughout the county, calling attention to the law on that subject.

Huron county, the largest bean growing section in the world, will harvest about 70,000 acres of beans this fall, David Woodman, county farm agent says. The recent fine weather experienced, dry and of proper temperature, has made it possible for growers to gather and thresh their product without excessive loss due to rains and moisture. The cull beans will probably not exceed three or four pounds to the hundred, Mr. Woodman said.

PRES. COOLIDGE WINS BIG MAJORITY OVER OPPONENTS

President Returns to White House by Decisive Popular Vote; LaFollette Fails to Make Showing Expected of Him.

Detroit—Coolidge and Dawes were swept to victory by a large majority of both popular and electoral votes in the election Tuesday.

On the basis of returns Wednesday Senator Robert M. LaFollette has carried only his home state of Wisconsin. He lost Iowa, South Dakota, Nebraska, Idaho, Washington, California, all states that he hoped to carry, and he also ran behind President Coolidge in Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana, although with a chance that belated returns from the strongly progressive farming districts may swing these three states into the progressive column.

The maximum electoral vote LaFollette can possibly hope for is 34.

The collapse of the Democratic ticket, outside of the Solid South, was little less complete. Of the border states, Coolidge won Maryland, Kentucky and John W. Davis' home state of West Virginia.

Mr. Davis apparently won Oklahoma and Tennessee, while the race in Missouri was neck and neck.

New Mexico is the only other state, not strictly classed as "South" that the Democratic ticket seems to have a chance to carry.

In 1920 Mr. Cox received 127 electoral votes. There is a chance that the Davis total will drop as low as 136 whereas his maximum hope, as now indicated, is only 157.

President Coolidge is assured of at least 329 electoral votes—63 more than a majority—with a prospect that his total may reach close to the high mark of 404 electoral votes registered for Warren G. Harding in 1920.

The landslide of votes for Coolidge also has improved the situation of his party in Congress, although it is doubtful if the changes will be sufficiently numerous to give the Republicans a decisive majority as against the Democratic-Progressive combination in either Senate or House.

Smith Defeats Roosevelt

Overcoming a Republican presidential sweep that reached nearly a million plurality, Alfred E. Smith was re-elected governor of New York defeating his Republican opponent, Theodore Roosevelt. As a vote-getter, the governor surpassed his performance of four years ago, when, in the Harding landslide, he went down to defeat, although running more than a million votes ahead of his national ticket.

By an enormous city vote, the governor overcame a heavy handicap, for Colonel Roosevelt swept everything before him in the rock-ribbed Republican counties upstate.

While the governor was taking the measure of his gubernatorial opponent, President Calvin Coolidge carried the state by a plurality of over 900,000.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette running for president on a third party ticket, polled about 450,000 votes in the state, but ran only third best, Mr. Davis receiving a total of about 300,000.

While Governor Smith was elected by a safe margin there was considerable uncertainty as to the fate of the rest of the state Democratic ticket. Lieutenant Governor George R. Lunn appeared to be safe, although he ran fully 50,000 votes behind the governor. The rest of the ticket was forgotten in the counting of votes for the governorship.

Although it was a see-saw race early in the evening, with early returns indicating that Colonel Roosevelt was piling up a tremendous majority in the upstate Republican districts, when the returns from the Tammany strongholds in the greater city began to be heard from it began to look brighter for the governor. The governor's estimated plurality of 525,000 in the five boroughs completely overcame and offset what his opponent was doing upstate.

G. O. P. Controls House

Control of congress was in doubt on the basis of incomplete returns from various states. That the radical group would retain the balance of power in the senate with the Republicans holding a nominal but not an actual majority appeared a certainty. The heavy Coolidge vote seemed to point to a sufficient Republican gain in the house to insure actual Republican control by a small margin.

Present LaFollette-Republican members of the house numbering about 15, were re-elected but their power will be broken to a large extent if the complete returns show regular Republicans with an actual majority.

The LaFollette forces had but few independent congressional candidates. Their influence was shown chiefly in the congressional returns in the north-west where farmer labor candidates were in the field and in various districts where they endorsed Democrats. The early returns pointed to the election of at least two and possibly as many as six Farmer Labor house candidates in Minnesota.

Representative Berger, Socialist, Wisconsin, the only member of his party in the present House, was re-elected.

No Women in Senate.

Although up to 10 women were contending for congressional seats none of them were expected to have won. It will be the first time in several years that the house will have no woman in its membership. Mrs. Mae Nolan, Republican, California, the only woman in the present house, was not a candidate for re-election.

That approximately two-thirds of the house and senate will be present appeared a certainty.

There were nine Republican Democratic senatorial nominees whose election had not been considered in doubt and who appear to have won with comparative ease.

The two radical Republican senators up for re-election, Senators Norris, Nebraska, and Brookhart, Iowa, seem to have obtained their expected large majorities.

Other Republican nominees elected without doubt on the basis of the early returns included Charles S. Deneen, Illinois, whose Democratic opponent was A. A. Sprague; Senator Couzens, Michigan, whose Democratic opponent was Mortimer E. Cooley; Senator Capper, Kansas, who defeated James Malone, Democrat; Senator Warren, Wyoming, who encountered rather stiff opposition from Robert J. Rose, Democrat; Senator McNary, Oregon, who had an easy time winning over Milton A. Miller, Democrat; Senator Borah, Idaho, who had no difficulty in downing his Democratic opponent, Frank Martin, and Senator Keyes, New Hampshire, who easily won over George E. Ferrand, Democrat.

The nine Democratic senatorial nominees whose election was conceded were from the southern states where nomination is equivalent to election. They include Senators Heflin, Alabama; Robinson, Arkansas; Harris, Georgia; Ransdall, Louisiana; Harrison, Mississippi; Sheppard, Texas; Glass, Virginia, and Simmons, North Carolina, and former Governor Cole Bleasie, South Carolina, who defeated Senator Dial in the primaries.

Present House Leaders Win

Many of the recognized leaders of the house were re-elected without much difficulty. Representatives Longworth, Republican, Ohio, the majority leader in the house, was re-elected as was Representative Garrett, Democrat, Tennessee, the minority leader.

Chairmen of important committees who were re-elected included Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee; Green, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the ways and means committee; Graham, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the judiciary committee; Porter, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the foreign affairs; Kahn, Republican, California, chairman of the military affairs committee; Butler, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the naval affairs committee; Johnson, Republican, Washington, chairman of the immigration committee; Haugen, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the committee on agriculture; McFadden

Michigan Happenings

The first of 15 power boats to be built at Bay City for the United States Coast Guard left a few days ago for New York, where it will be immediately put into service in the war on rum runners. The craft is known as the C. C. 115. It is 75 feet long, 11 feet beam and draws 4 feet, two inches of water. It is equipped with double screw propellers, operated by two specially constructed 200 horsepower motors and will be armed with a small cannon. The voyage to New York was made via the Erie Canal from Buffalo.

Relocation of the state sanitarium at Howell is recommended in a report made by Dr. R. M. Olin, state commissioner of health to the state administrative board. Dr. Olin told the board that because of the poor and uninviting conditions at the institution hundreds of sufferers from tuberculosis, who should have state care, have made no application for admittance. All the buildings should be razed and an entirely new plant built.

Fred Seale, was seriously burned and two motor busses of the White Motor Coach line were destroyed in Birmingham, when the garage gasoline tank exploded, setting fire to the structure and contents. Seale was employed by the company. Eye witnesses reported he was standing near the tank when a spark from a motor bus exhaust ignited the gasoline. Total damage was estimated at $50,000.

Investigation by officials of the Citizens bank of Bear Lake, a village 20 miles north of Manistee, shows that professional burglars, who drilled their way into the vault with an acetylene torch escaped with $3,750 in cash, $1,250 in negotiable securities and from $12,000 to $15,000 in registered bonds and certificates. The burglars entered through a rear window.

Led by a faithful beagle hound, Under Sheriff A. K. Nixon found the body of Rodney Degura, 28 years old, in the woods near Cassopolis, where he had been killed by a stray bullet while hunting. The body was found under a clump of bushes near a log. The bullet had struck the hunter in the head, apparently while he was sitting on the log.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Calhoun County Agricultural society total indebtedness was computed at $10,436.36. It was decided to sell 5,000 membership tickets at $2 each to wipe out the indebtedness. These ticket holders will receive the face value of the tickets plus 10 per cent pro rata share of profits of fair next year.

Peter Mortensen, saw mill owner, of Spaulding, Menominee county, was killed instantly when his head was crushed beneath a tractor which he was using to pull loads of gravel from a pit. Backing the caterpillar tractor at the time, his right foot caught in the drive chain, wrenching him from the machine and hurling him underneath it.

Police Commissioner Frank E. Croul, of Detroit, announced that an additional ralling will be placed on Belle Isle bridge as the result of the recent plunge of an automobile through the railing, which cost two lives. The new railing will cost $50,000 and will protect pedestrians from motor traffic.

Although the 1924 West Michigan state fair turned a profit of $5,000, expenses carried over from the 1923 fair, which the association was compelled to meet on the first day of the fair this fall, have more than consumed the profit and has left the organization again in debt.

Jacob Chapman, 50 years old, of Grand Rapids, was killed almost instantly at Brooklyn, when one of the ropes holding a scaffold on which he was working on the new high school building broke and he fell 20 feet to the ground. Chapman was a carpenter.

Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, president of the Michigan Agricultural college, addressing the convention of the Michigan State Grange at Petoskey, advocated changing the name of the institution to the Michigan State college.

Herbert Van Hov, 4-year-old son of a family living at Wisner, set his clothing on fire while playing with matches in their door-yard and was burned to death.

Consolidation of the Piston Ring company of Muskegon, said to be the largest piston ring manufacturers in the world, with the No-Leak-O-Piston Ring company, also of that city has been announced.

Fred Rohlf, a farmer living a mile north of Fairgrove, was killed instantly when a team he was driving became frightened and threw him under the wheels of the wagon, loaded with sugar beets, which passed over his body.

Brent Glasscock, alias Howard, and his wife, Avis, who have been popular members of the social set at the Battle Creek sanitarium, were arrested by federal officers, the man as the last of the six principals in the Doudout, Ill., $2,000,000 rail robbery of June 12, and the woman as a conspirator sharing his guilt. Glasscock is said to have admitted to post office inspectors his identity and the facts of his previous long criminal record, but defied officers to prove the present charge against him and his wife.

Stopping to investigate when he noticed a man's body lying by the roadside, Edward Koster, 18 years old, Grand Rapids, was held up and shot by an armed bandit. The bullet pierced his left arm. Koster was returning home in his automobile when headlights showed the body. As he stopped the man jumped up and required Koster to leave the car. The bandit's revolver was discharged as Koster attempted to save his watch. The robber escaped with $15.

Con Feeley, formerly of the United States Aviation Service, now a Benton Harbor air pilot, wrecked his plane and risked the lives of himself and mechanic at Berrien Springs when a 14-year-old boy stepped in the path of the machine as Feeley was taking off. To avoid killing the boy, the flier swerved his machine, lifted it over the heads of the panic-stricken crowd and crashed through a rough field. Feeley and his mechanic suffered only minor bruises.

Andrew Lesny, 45 years old, of Sterling, died shortly after he fell from a roof at 5546 Chopin avenue, Detroit. Lesny, a farmer, came to Detroit only a few hours before his death, after a friend offered him a contract to repair the roof. Lesny slipped while working on the repairs and fell to the ground. He is survived by a widow and five children, who live in Sterling.

Cecil, 17-year-old son of Henry Cunningham, farmer, living north of Homer, was instantly killed when his gun discharged. He had been rabbit hunting and was pounding a double barrel shotgun in a ditch on his father's farm, using the butt end. The jarring caused the gun to explode and the charge blew off the top of his head.

Melvin Parish, 22, a lineman, was electrocuted while repairing a telephone wire at South Saginaw street and the city limits. Parish had been clamped to the top of the pole. Fellow workmen climbed the pole and carried his body to the ground. Parish, who was unmarried, lived in Reed City.

Fire of an undetermined cause destroyed the Buckeye House, at Petoskey, a noted gathering place for fishermen, with a loss of $80,000. The building was the oldest and largest summer hotel on Burt Lake, and was near the summer home of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, baseball commissioner.

Julia Ann Boehrings, 2 years old, died from burns suffered at the home of her parents in James township, near Saginaw. She was left alone in the kitchen and opened a door of a lighted oil stove, the flames igniting her clothing and burning her body severely from the waist up.

Struck on the head by an automobile top bow, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kleis, who live near Martin, was almost instantly killed. The accident occurred when the Kleis automobile was struck near Otsego by another.

The body of Leon Pasquale, 22 years old, killed by lightning while swimming in Lake Erie at Monroe piers a year ago last summer, which had been buried in Monroe, has been shipped to Buenos Aires, Argentine, his former home.

August Curas, 14 years old, living at Foleyville, was seriously wounded while hunting near his home. He stated that his shotgun accidentally discharged.

Several million feet of hardwood lumber in the yards of the J. W. Wells Lumber Co., Menominee, were destroyed by fire with a loss estimated at $200,000.

The price of bread has been advanced in Kalamazoo one cent a loaf for both large and small loaves. The increase, it was stated, was due to the recent advance in the price of wheat. It is claimed that there is no thought of a return to former prices until after the 1925 harvest.

Jay L. Hitchcock, of Pontiac, reported to the sheriff that a large bull attacked him while driving his automobile near Four Towns. The animal charged the car and did $25 damage.

The Man Who Succeeds
Give me the man who can hold on when others let go; who pushes ahead when others turn back; who stiffens up when others weaken; who advances when others retreat; who knows no such word as "can't" or "give up"; and I will show you a man who will win in the end, no matter who opposes him, no matter what obstacles confront him.

A Helping Hand
When you rise in the morning form a resolution to make the day a happy one to a fellow creature. It is easily done; a left-off garment to the man who needs it, a kind word to the sorrowful, an encouraging expression to the striving—trifles in themselves light as air—will do it at least for the 24 hours.

A Dollar a Year

It's pretty hard to believe, isn't it, that a dollar deposited each year at compound interest for a period of fifty years amounts to $307.75?

That's just an example of how money grows, and if a dollar a year for fifty years amounts to that sum how large the sum would be if, instead of depositing a dollar a year, a dollar A WEEK were deposited. Think this over and see if you don't come to the conclusion that systematic saving is the plan for you to follow.

We will gladly discuss a definite plan with you, and we will assist you in every way possible.

HELP US TO PLAY THE MAN

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

IT IS early in the morning as I write this. The sun is just coming up, and as I look out upon the world, there is a peace and a quiet and a beauty that thrills me. But suddenly there come to my mind all the things I must do—all I should like to do.

Labor with what zeal we will, something yet remains undone. Something unaccomplished still waits the rising of the sun.

My courage fails me for a moment. I should like to run away from it all; I should like to go out into the woods and forget the irritations and the complaints, and the troubles, and the ceaseless routine of requests that the postman and the telephone and the tramping feet bring to my desk.

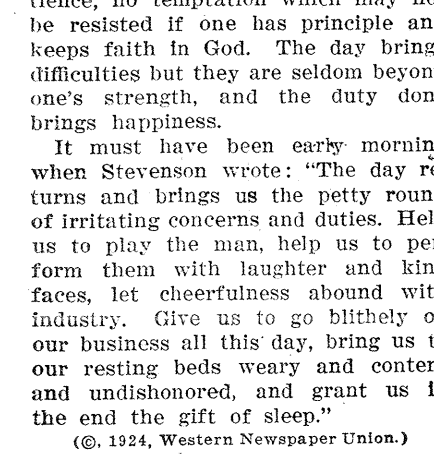

And then I think of Spencer, and the way he is meeting his difficulties. He's a handsome young fellow only nineteen. He has a trade, a very exacting trade, at which he is earning his living. Every moment of his day is taken up. He has no pleasures excepting the pleasure he derives from hard work and from doing the irritating tasks that hold him six days in the week. He has all of the desires of youth for friends and pleasure and recreation, few of which he can gratify. He never complains, he never curses his lot. He's always smiling, always with a cheerful word on his lips. At home there are father and mother and a family of brothers and sisters leaning on him, needing his help, requiring his aid; and he gives it cheerfully and manfully.

I know when I think of him that there is no task which one cannot perform if he has courage, no irritation which may not be overcome with patience, no temptation which may not be resisted if one has principle and keeps faith in God. The day brings difficulties but they are seldom beyond one's strength, and the duty done brings happiness.

It must have been early morning when Stevenson wrote: "The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man, help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces, let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us to go blithely on our business all this day, bring us to our resting beds weary and content and undishonored, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep."

The Gagetown high school held a Halloween party Friday, October 31, at the high school building. On entering the building, everyone passed through a "Cave of Winds" which was a very mysterious adventure and caused much screaming and excitement but were finally led to the assembly room safely by a ghost. Here everyone began working their cross word puzzle by trying to figure out who every one else was. People soon found their partners and formed into a grand march which led them through several other obscure and secret places such as Hades. Games and contests made a merry evening. ### Simple School Frocks Varied by Fabrics

If it were not for the great variety of patterns which manufacturers of popular clothes have presented this season, styles in frocks for little school girls would become monotonous. The vogue is for dresses made on the simplest lines, like that shown in the picture and dress after dress shows no variation of this style. But popular fabrics save the day with stripes, plaids, cross-bar and other patterns when plain materials are used designers enliven them with pipings, facings and bright touches of embroidery.

The dress pictured is made of striped flannel in blue and tan with collar and cuffs of plain linen. It may be taken as a criterion of good style for the young school girl and for her older sister also. This simplicity in day frocks is not confined to the younger generation.

San Francisco is "The City of the Golden Gate," "The Golden City" and "The City of the Hundred Hills." Philadelphia has a great variety of claims to a character all its own, but most of the names refer to its early history. It probably would express a preference for "The City of Brotherly Love" or "The Quaker City."

I. O. O. F. HONORS MICHIGAN MAN

HERBERT A. THOMPSON, GRAND
SIRE, FORMER PUBLISHER OF COUNTRY WEEKLY.

ADMISSION AGE NOW 10 YEARS

Great Strides Made in Odd Fellowship
—Relief Work for Past Year
Nearly $8,000,000.

At the recent session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held in Jacksonville, Fla., Michigan was made the hub of Odd Fellowship, so to speak, when Herbert A. Thompson, editor and publisher of The American Odd Fellow at Williamston, was unanimously elected as Grand Sire, the highest rank and office in the world of Odd Fellowship.

As a mark of appreciation on behalf of the Order in Michigan, a banquet was tendered to the entire body and their ladies in attendance at the

HERBERT A. THOMPSON

session in Jacksonville. It was the finale of a dynamic drive that had been started in 1914, when Mr.
Thompson first entered the Sovereign Grand Lodge as a representative of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, which he had served a year previously as Grand Master, making a record that stands out as a year of wonderful attainments.

Possibly there never was a session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge that so completely gave itself over to one grand jurisdiction as did the 1924 session to Michigan. In fact the dynamic force that had so completely won the Sovereign Grand Lodge over to the candidacy of Mr. Thompson for deputy Grand Sire at Detroit in 1922, was still felt on all sides at Jacksonville. Michigan was simply bubbling over with joy for the honors that had come to it, the first in the history of the Order, and the committee in charge of the affair "stepped on the gas" and set a pace that will be difficult for any future session to equal,
which brought forth favorable comment in the press throughout the entire civilized world where Odd Fellowship exists.

In his new office Mr. Thompson has jurisdiction not only in the United States and Canada, but in Europe and all other countries where the Order has been established. He is the executive head of an organization numbering nearly 4,000,000.

As a fitting expression to its Commander-in-Chief, over ten thousand Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from Michigan and Ontario gathered in the City of Detroit, Oct. 4. Among the events was a complimentary banquet at the Hotel Statler at which more than five hundred sat down to a banquet to its honored fellow member. A monster parade was held in the evening, followed by a mass meeting at which Grand Master, John A. Wilde; Grand
Patrician, W. H. Bennetts; Governor
Alex Groesbeck and others made addresses of welcome, which were responded to by Grand Sire Thompson in a very eloquent and masterly manner. At the session of the Grand Lodge held at Alpena, Oct. 20 to 24, the new Grand Sire was received in a manner befitting the occasion of honoring one whose authority extends to the furthest parts of the earth.
The reception was in every way expressive of the keen appreciation Michigan Odd Fellowship felt.

Mr. Thompson is the self-made type of man. He was born on a farm at Stockbridge, Ingham County, Michigan, on July 26, 1872. He was educated in the public schools and colleges of Michigan, and was actively engaged in educational work for six years. He then purchased The Williamston Enterprise at Williamston, Michigan, and later The American Odd Fellow, a fraternal magazine of national reputation, and has continued as the editor and publisher until the present time, his son, Theodore A.
Thompson, being in active charge of the plant. During that time he became and is now actively affiliated with several financial and insurance companies, as well as other business interests. He has always taken an active part in public matters, and as a public speaker is known all over the state where his friends are legion.
In politics he is a republican, and has served on the state central committee for a number of years. He has served as chairman of his congressional committee and his home county committee. He has been honored with the presidency of the International I. O.

O. F. Press Association, president of the Michigan Press Association and membership in the University Press Club. He comes to his duties as Grand Sire with splendid training for a big job. He is now living in Detroit, where he has recently built a home.

Mr. Thompson has been an Odd Fellow for over 28 years, and an active worker in all its branches. After serving his subordinate lodge in the several stations, he entered the Grand Lodge where he served on important committees, including the committee on laws. In 1915 he entered the Sovereign Grand Lodge as the "permanent" representative from the Michigan Grand Lodge, his associates in the Grand Lodge believing that the time was ripe for Michigan to make its bid for a Grand Sire. The Michigan Grand Lodge had confidence in his ability to make good and bring this honor to the state. He has attended each session since 1915, serving on such important committees as legislation and on several important special committees. During 1923, he was delegated as the representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to make a complete survey of the Order in Cuba, and upon his findings a Grand Lodge charter was granted to Cuba at the recent session in Jacksonville. In the ten years he served in the Sovereign Grand Lodge his friends became universal. Posses-sessed of a genial personality, democratic manner, yet dignified as becomes one in his position, and having the faculty for remembering names and faces, he soon was able to greet the membership without constant inroductions, which won him friends from all quarters of the world of Odd Fellowship, and who soon learned to know him, just as his brothers in Michigan know him, by his first name,
"Herb."

One of the big problems that has been before the Sovereign Grand Lodge and which was solved at its recent session, was the much discussed question whether the Order should establish a juvenile branch or reduce the age of admission. After viewing both questions from all sides, the Sovereign Grand Lodge decided on reducing the age of admission to 18 years. The new law goes into effect January 1st next, and it is hoped will add thousands of young men to this splendid fraternal society.

Odd Fellowship in Michigan has made wonderful advancement in recent years, until now its membership numbers 92,000 in 550 subordinate lodges. In addition to this it has the Rebekah branch with a membership of 64,000 in 485 lodges. Further honoring its Grand Sire, it is proposed to make an intensive drive to increase the membership to 100,000. With the new field of young men to draw from it is proposed to make a special effort by designating a certain time in which to initiate classes of young men between the ages of 18 and 21.

Odd Fellowship is purely a fraternal society. While it pays to its sick and injured members, certain benefits that is by no means its predominant feature. It seeks to be a helpful factor in the civic life of every community, building up a better citizenship and rendering aid where most needed. Its social activities are leading factors in the life of the Order, and it has expended magnificent sums in lodge building alone. Its relief work for the past year reached the splendid sum of $158,570. That is Michigan's record alone. Any society that carries on a worthy work of this nature not only does credit to itself but relieves the community in which it exists from performing a duty that would naturally fall upon it.

Several years ago, the Grand Lodge recognized the necessity of making provision for those of its members who, because of adverse circumstances would become the objects of charity;
therefore an Odd Fellows Home was established at Jackson, Michigan that now has a main adult building, an orphanage and other buildings, with 190 acres of farm lands of a value of $250,000. There are 120 residents at the Home, and an annual appropriation of $50,000 is made for its maintenance. An endowment fund was established a few years ago into which is paid all voluntary contributions made to the Home and on several occasions prominent members of the Order have made provision in their wills for certain sums of money or property to go in this fund, until today it has reached the sum of $107,000.

Going into the broader field of its activities we find that $7,808,913.47
was spent during the past year for relief work by the Order at large. But the great field of Odd Fellowship is pure fraternity, where men get a contact with one another that ripens into the finest friendships. Odd Fellowship offers the broadest field for working out many of the problems of the day, where the man or the woman can get the broader touch and wider field of activity through organized effort.

When one looks back to the foundation of Odd Fellowship in America and finds that its inception was the efforts of but five men, he is reminded that there surely must have been something more than the ordinary that built up a membership of such stupendous numbers. When we review its splendid activities during the years that are past, we recognize that it has an abiding place in the life of every community to make it worthy of the best thought of every citizen who desires to play a part in the elevating of human character and the building up of a higher and better citizenship. In almost every community in Michigan, may be found one or more Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges. These organizations are among the great influences that make for a stable citizenship. Where an Odd Fellow Lodge exists there law reigns and order is the watchword of its citizenship.

RED CROSS IS URGING BETTER-HEALTH BATTLE

Tireless in Services Advancing Cause of Freedom from Human Suffering.

Not alone in preparedness for emergencies, but in a tireless offensive battle for better health is the American Red Cross nurse maintaining in peace time the high tradition of her war service. As in war, the same self-effacing service for humanity goes on its quiet, effective way continent in its accomplishments, seeking no public acclaim. Enrolled in the Red Cross Nursing Service are 40,638 of these missionaries of health, nearly 1,000 carrying the message of a finer public health to as many communities and 1,100 teaching large classes in home hygiene and care of the sick.
Exactly 100 Red Cross nurses are still on duty overseas, helping the struggle forward toward the high standard of American nurse efficiency in many countries.

In the Government services 3,117 enrolled Red Cross nurses are on duty with the Army, Navy, Public Health Service and the Veterans Bureau, while the entire active enrollment is maintained as a reserve for the Army Nurse Corps and available to the Navy in a national defense emergency.
Nine hundred nurses were added to the roll the last year.

Red Cross nursing, however, has perhaps its finest expression out in the places laid waste by fire, flood and storm, and in the back reaches far from the centers of population. In every disaster the Red Cross nurse is first called for, first to respond, and the last to leave her post of duty among the suffering victims. In the isolated sections of Alaska, North Carolina, Virginia, Idaho, and among the bleak islands of Penobscott Bay, Me., her ministrations are making hard lives easier and working for a brighter future for the children. Her part in the human drama of the time is increasingly important, although it is subdued by the very nature of her work.

The policy of the American Red Cross to establish under Chapter control public health nursing services in communities lacking such facilities has been justified and this pioneering work is everywhere endorsed by authorities who are quick to take it over as a proper municipal function and a duty of taxpayers. The Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick program has further penetrated into the schools as a definite part of curriculums. During the year 29,000 school pupils took this Red Cross course. Three telephone corporations adopted it and graduated 960 employe students.

As good health depends upon right eating the Red Cross Nutrition Service continued to promote individual and community health, particularly the health of mothers and children. This service reached nearly 150,000 persons during the year and found work to do for several thousand Red Cross volunteer workers.

Red Cross Fighting First Aid Battle To Conserve Life

Reliable records establish the fact that more than 75,000 accidental deaths occur every year in the United States. The records show that 206 American citizens are killed every day; that 38 of these deaths are due to automobiles, 35 to falls, 19 to drownings, 16 to burns.

Facing such distressing sacrifice of life is the First Aid Service of the American Red Cross, fighting through education and demonstration to instill a consciousness of safety in the public mind and teaching approved methods which assure that competent hands will care for injured persons until the arrival of doctors. Trained service in the first few minutes is vital in serious accidents and saves many precious lives.

One of the most encouraging signs of the past year is the record of the Red Cross First Aid Insurance Car
No. 1 which traveled 9,700 miles along trunk lines, stopping at 137 places.
The car's staff of surgeons gave 911 demonstrations to audiences composed of 42,150 railroad men, 71,000 high school and college students, 13,000 industrial workers, 2,000 members of clubs, and nearly 18,000 policemen, firemen, and other municipal employees, a total of 147,000.

Red Cross First Aid certificates were conferred upon 13,865 persons who took the course last year, an increase of 4,000 over 1923. Telephone, gas and electric companies, public service corporations and other large employers of the country adopted the Red Cross course, and their team contests everywhere were witnessed by huge crowds with as much interest as develops at popular athletic games.

In the industrial field the growth of First Aid practice to fight to reduce preventable accidents and unnecessary loss of life has received wide recognition. The promise of an unprecedented advance in this fine cause lies in the evidence of the great strides systematic instruction in First Aid has made throughout the country through the Red Cross Chapters and the work of the experts in this service under direction of the national organization.

Sign the American Red Cross roll
this year for humanity's sake.

Clear Thinking

To do much clear thinking a man must arrange for regular periods of solitude when he can concentrate and indulge his imagination without distraction. Working at night always appealed to me, because then most people are minding their own business by going to sleep.—Edison.

"Just Average" Persons

People who continue to be "just average" do so because they are saturated with the belief that they can never be any more. They have thus "fenced in" their talents so they cannot get into the pastures green of greater achievement.

Concluded from first page.

artisans, camps, soldiers' homes, in the community. For example, in helping disabled men and women in places where they were transient residents $173,076 from national funds alone was required to help solve their problems. Every Red Cross service is ever at hand ready to meet the individual need of these men and women.

The enlisted men in the Regular Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps, with their home ties, mean a never-ending Red Cross service which figures cannot fully interpret. In this work a total of $635,285 was applied in meeting an obligation under the Red Cross charter which has been fulfilled for over 20 years.

Domestic Operations Extensive

In the past year Red Cross operations were almost wholly confined to continental United States and the insular possessions. Relief work following disasters called for immediate activities in 192 places and a total of $737,693.87 was spent in this service alone. In 33 major disasters trained workers were kept at the work of rehabilitation for many months.

In carrying on the health activities a total of $444,886.66 from Red Cross national funds, and $808,000 from Chapter treasuries—approximately $1,252,886 in all—was applied, giving some idea of the extent of Red Cross service in the fields of public health nursing, nutrition instruction, and spreading knowledge of personal hygiene and care of the sick in the home.

For advancing the cause of human safety, the First Aid instruction, locally by Chapters and over extensive national territory by the Red Cross instruction car covering trunk line railroads, and in teaching water safety and increasing the membership of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps. The total cost was $238,234.71, of which $216,234.71 came out of national funds.

Army of Over 5,500,000

The Junior Red Cross in the schools—with over 5,500,000 in its "T Service"—was aided with $233,510.73 to which it is estimated the Chapters added some $277,000—a total of $510,510.73. In various other domestic activities the Red Cross spent $233,473.19, and the Chapters in their numerous voluntary services expended an additional $1,048,000 during the year.

Foreign obligations, aside from Japan, were met with national funds as follows: Relief of refugees in Greece, $206,887.18; Junior Red Cross projects, $99,579.75; League of Red Cross Societies, $165,000; other insular and foreign work, $221,855.31. The American Red Cross budget for 1924-25 is $4,647,790.85, or $683,286.96 less than the budget for the year ended last June 30.

In good deeds for all peoples in time of distress the American Red Cross never rests. Help this work with your membership dollar—Join on Armistice Day.

In music we are learning the song, "There's a Big Fat Turkey Out on Grandpa's Farm."

Fifth Grade.

We are progressing finely with the rapid drills in multiplication in our arithmetic class. Miss Hatchadourian gave us a very interesting talk about Armenia and the importance of the American flag over there on Tuesday morning.

Sixth Grade.

We are very proud that we won the punctuality banner for the month of October. We do wish to keep it, so we are working harder than ever to have less tardy marks than usual.

Last week the following people visited us: Laura Nesbitt from Pontiac, and Lucile and Elizabeth Knight and Willard Muntz from the district school. When Miss Hatchadourian came in Tuesday morning, many of us remembered her, for she visited us last year, also. We were much interested in her talk. In arithmetic we are studying thought problems.

You are gone but not forgotten. And dawn another day In sweet Jesus' arms we trust you, That we all meet again. Sadly missed by his loving wife and children, Mrs. Wm. Barnes and family, Bennett, Wis. 11-7-1

IN LOVING MEMORY of Mrs. Anthony Murray, who passed away Nov. 7, 1923: In a cold and silent grave yard, Not so very far away, There we laid our darling mother Just one year ago today. Folks may think we have forgot her, When they see us smile, But in our hearts there is that longing. If she only could come home. For we miss our darling mother. And we miss her loving care For a home without a mother Is a home without a care. But God needed one more angel, So He called our darling one And He took her up to heaven. With Him to that place we love so dear. Yes, He took our darling mother Which we never will forget. But still our hearts are somewhat gladder When we think of where she dwells. Paul Murray, Levi Murray.

Hangings Stopped Growth

There stands in a field near "Capp's Lodge," not far from Burford, Oxfordshire, an oak with the inscription on its trunk, "H. D.: T. D., 1784." It is this tree on which the bodies of Henry and Thomas Dundson were gibbeted after being hanged at Gloucester for highway robbery. They were leaders of the "Dundson Gang," who once terrorized that countryside. It is not a large tree. Local superstition declares that it has ceased to grow since being put to that use.

Michigan Happenings

The state will investigate the killing of Herman Hoppa by Sheriff Noble A. McKinley, of Newaygo county, April 13, 1923, according to Major Elton R. Eaton, secretary to Gov. Alex. J. Groesbeck. Hadley was elected president and Russell McLachlan was elected secretary and treasurer of the association for a period of one year.

The Marshall branch of the Izaak Walton league won another victory when special commissioners appointed by Probate Judge Blaine W. Hatch, to determine the necessity of Mud creek and Fanning outlet drain and branch in Newton township, filed their findings. More than 5,000 gallons of oil were showered over the surrounding neighborhood, with a loss of about $800. Pressure from a sudden shifting of the tank caused one end to blow out.

Cold Conquers Plague

Prevalence of plague diminishes in cold weather, probably because the lower temperatures reduce the fleas to such small numbers that they are unable to keep up the transfer of virus. The existence of plague is roughly limited to a zone girdling the globe between the thirty-fifth parallels of north and south latitude. In the last 25 years 99.8 per cent of plague cases have been from areas with mean mid-winter temperatures of 56 degrees F.—Nation's Health Magazine.

The Truthful Man

Many business deals are closed on the golf links. A traveling salesman went around in 125 and the merchant with him said pleasantly: "You are a little of your usual game." "No, this is my usual game." "Well," stated the other, "you may be no golfer but you're an honest man. I'll just sign that contract you were speaking of."

Green Gold

The term green gold originated in the early days when someone declared that metals went through a process of evolution and ripened at last to a finished product. The originator of this false theory claimed to have the secret that aided gold in refining. Green gold is an alloy. When 17 per cent silver is mixed with gold, a green color is produced.

"AMERICA"

Now Playing the Largest Theatres in the United States

You That Have Suffered---

YOU that have suffered for years—a thousand. YOU that have embittered the earth with your tears. YOU that have wept by the wailing walls of Jerusalem; and the cruel nations of the earth have made you take these walls with you wherever you journey, so that your bitter tears have watered the lands of the world, from east to west. YOU that have found in the land of AMERICA at least a better shelter than in any other land, not perfect; no, not perfect, but at least better than before. Come and see how this country that has given you shelter was made. See how it, with its precious freedom, was gained through tears and sacrifice and sorrow. Come, for you will find there laughter, tremendous thrills, and you will see the great sacrifices of the first Americans, their sorrows and triumphs, and you will see how they wailed by their walls of mourning at Valley Forge, Lexington and Bunker Hill, and how they, the first Americans arose to the tremendous heights that you have arisen to. The country they made, they made for all. This country is now yours as well as theirs. You must help to keep it that the lights of freedom may not die out. Help to keep this land of America free from intolerance, from hatred; a refuge for all the oppressed for ever and ever; your land, the land of all people: AMERICA! AMERICA! All this you will see, all this you will feel as truth in D. W. Griffith's play of that name "AMERICA."

ALSO SEE "THERE HE GOES," A VERY CLEVER COMEDY.

First show starts promptly at 7:15—Children 20c; Adults 50c.

There will be a Matinee Saturday, November 15 at 2:30—Children 10c; Adults 25c.

Theodore Roberts and Gloria Swanson in "Prodigal Daughters"

See the modern jazz-mad girl at her dizziest pace. Have modern parents lost control of their daughters? Where are the silken, thrill-seeking darlings headed? You'll be thrilled and shocked by this picture.

The most daring expose of the flapper and her age of jazz ever seen upon the screen. "We'll break all the ten commandments—if somebody will only show us a new way of doing it." Is that the modern flapper?

The comedy, "Bonehead," is very funny. Children, 10c. Adults, 30c.

Coming Soon: "THE HUNCHBACK"—"MAIN STREET"—"THE COVERED WAGON"

"Shadows"

What would you do if you suddenly learned you were illegally married?

Would you renounce your right to happiness or would you try to live a lie?

This was the problem that confronted the Rev. John Malden and his wife, Sympathy.

It is one of the big moments in the greatest story ever told in motion pictures.

Also see a very funny comedy.

Nothing like Dr. Burnham's SAN YAK

for stomach and heart trouble. San Yak gives you the pep in restoring health from rheumatics and bad nerves. You could scarcely have kidney or bladder trouble under the 90 mark by occasionally taking a dose at night. Try it to limber up the stiff joints and muscles. To relieve high blood pressure and paralysis take one or two teaspoonfuls of San Yak in a glass of water 30 minutes before breakfast.

Sample of Thousands of Personal Letters. Dr. L. P. Bailey, of McBride, Mich., says of San Yak: It will do all you claim. It is fine medicine for the blood and has cured rheumatism of long standing. When one treats the kidneys with San Yak he is renewing the whole body. One can always depend on San Yak.

Sybaris

Sybaris (home of the Sybarites), is an ancient Greek colony in south Italy on the west side of the Gulf of Tarentum, founded by immigrants from Achaia and Troezen about 720 B. C. The city became proverbial for its wealth and luxury. The people of the neighboring Croton destroyed it thoroughly in 510 B. C., turning the river Grathis over the site.

Habits of the Gorilla

The gorilla, chimpanzee and orang-outang are alike in being destitute of any rudiment of a tail, in having no cheek-pouches and no naked spaces at the base of the trunk, and in the habit of resting on the knuckles of the hand in walking. Late investigation shows that the gorilla spends more of his time in the trees than on the ground. He makes a rude shelter for his mate and young and himself sleeps with his back to the tree trunk ready for any emergency.

REPUBLICANS EASY VICTORS IN MICHIGAN

ENTIRE STATE TICKET SWEEP INTO OFFICE ON CREST OF COOLIDGE WAVE

GROESBECK AND COUZENS FAIRLY SWAMP OPPONENTS

Three Proposed Amendments to State Constitution Badly Beaten—Record Vote is Cast

Detroit—Michigan gave preponderant majorities to President Calvin Coolidge and Gen. Charles G. Dawes, to Senator James Couzens and Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck, and to the Republican candidates for lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, attorney general, state treasurer, and auditor general. It cast what appears to be the heaviest vote in its history.

GOVERNOR ALEX J. GROESBECK

Coolidge and Dawes led the Democratic and LaFollette tickets practically five to one.

Coolidge's majority, it was estimated on incomplete figures from all 83 counties, will exceed that given to Harding four years ago.

Governor Groesbeck, it was estimated on early returns, won over Edward Frensdorf, his Democratic opponent by at least three to one.

Senator Couzens's victory over Dean Cooley, the Democratic candidate, was also approximately three to one.

It appeared likely that close to 1,250,000 votes were polled, more than 200,000 the number cast when Harding received a landslide in Michigan with a majority of nearly 500,000.

The expectation that the Michigan dries would continue their hostility to Couzens because of his advocacy of old-fashioned beer, was not borne out, however, by the vote of rural constituencies, which went heavily to the senator, notwithstanding the rural districts are conspicuously dry.

Proposed Amendments Meet Defeat.

A sound defeat was administered to all three proposed constitutional amendments.

The state income tax amendment was beaten by better than four to one in sections of the state which had been expected to favor it. The vote in these counties was even a more decisive repudiation of the proposed supplementary tax levy than that recorded two years ago.

The amendment proposed to levy a state tax on incomes exceeding $4,000.

The amendment proposing to abolish the parochial schools of the state also met with defeat at the hands of the voters, although it fared somewhat better than the income tax. In some of the counties this amendment did muster a slight margin, among which were Lapeer, Gratiot, Alcona and Midland counties. In Wayne it was defeated by better than two to one.

Had the amendment carried it would have required all children between the ages of 7 and 16 to attend the public schools, and would have closed all primary, private and church educational institutions.

The reapportionment amendment was proposed and backed almost solely by State Representative John B. Corliss, of Detroit.

The principal criticism against it has been that it sought to attain a greatly desired result by a somewhat questionable route and it had tough sledding in all parts of the state. It was buried by an emphatic majority.

The effects of the amendment had it passed, would have been to give Wayne and other large population centers a representative in the legislature based upon present population.

State Congressmen Republican

The following Republican congressmen were regarded as certain of reelection, on the face of early returns: First district, John B. Sosnowski, Detroit.

Second district, Earl C. Michener, Adrian.

Third district, Arthur B. Williams, Battle Creek.
Fourth district, John C. Ketcham, Hastings.
Fifth district, Carl Mapes, Grand Rapids.
Sixth district, Grant M. Hudson, Lansing.
Seventh district, Louis C. Cramton, Lapeer.
Eighth district, Bird J. Vincent, Saginaw.
Ninth district, James C. McLaughlin, Muskegon.
Tenth district, Roy O. Woodruff, Bay City.
Eleventh district, Frank Scott, Alpena.
Twelfth district, W. Frank James, Hancock, (unopposed.)
Thirteenth district, Clarence McLeod, Detroit.
Michigan Democracy lost her sole Representative in Congress in the Republican landslide. Robert H. Clancy, of Detroit, representing the First District, ran far behind his Republican opponent, John B. Sosnowski.

Detroit Mayor's Race.

John W. Smith was elected mayor of Detroit, in a three-cornered fight. Former Acting Mayor, Joseph A. Martin, former Postmaster, John W. Smith and Charles Bowles, a prominent lawyer and "sticker" candidate were the contestants. Smith's lead over Bowles was approximately 10,000. Martin ran third.

Unusual interest developed early in the campaign, when Mr. Bowles announced he would run on "stickers" after falling of nomination in the non-partisan primaries in September. He justified his decision to use stickers by stating that the newspapers almost completely ignored his candidacy in the primaries; that had they given him any publicity he would have been assured a place on the ballot. Without the support of a single newspaper he lost a regular nomination by less than two thousand votes.

Mr. Martin resigned his office as Acting Mayor to enter the campaign. He was previously Commissioner of the Department of Public Works under Mayor Couzens, and was supported by the Detroit News and the Free Press.

Mr. Smith vacated the postmastership to which he was appointed by the late President Harding and entered the race with the support of the Detroit Times.

Fair Weather Prevails.

Fair weather prevailed throughout the state. Everything was favorable to a big vote. While little interest was taken in the national and state tickets, as it was conceded that the Republicans would sweep the state, the campaign for and against two of the amendments had been bitter and everything possible had been done to get out all of the votes to decide these issues. They were the proposed anti-parochial school amendment, which was defeated four years ago in Michigan by nearly a two to one vote, and the proposed income tax amendment. An income tax pro-

SOIL ACIDITY GIVES LAWN TYPE CONTROL

Different Grass Varieties Said to Thrive on Soils of Different Composition.

He who would develop a lawn of velvety smoothness must first know the quality of the soil in his yard, in order to select the proper grass varieties for the soil, according to Dr. M. M. McCool, head of the soils department at the Michigan Agricultural College.

The fact that some grasses thrive on an acid or "sour" soil, while others require conditions which are exactly the reverse as far as acidity is concerned, is responsible for the importance of adapting grass varieties to the soil type. Ordinary blue grass, sometimes spoken of as June grass, does not thrive on a soil which is very acid, requiring soils which have an appreciable amount of lime. Bent grasses, fescues and red top, on the other hand, will do well on a soil which is too acid for blue grass and clovers.

Another problem the lawn owner must face is the fact that the soil which favors blue grass is also a favorable soil for many weeds, such as dandelions, plantain, and others which cause trouble. The acid soil upon which the other group of grasses will thrive is, however, often too acid for many of the weeds.

Acid soils, of course, are corrected by applications of lime; while soils which are not acid enough for the particular purpose in mind may be made so either by the omission of lime or by adding substances such as ammonium sulphate or sulphur which will make the soil more acid.

Experiments conducted since 1856 on the famous Rothamsted Station near London, England, recently visited by Dr. McCool, show decidedly the effect of acid soils on the growth of grass varieties. Similar results have also been obtained at various stations in the United States.
