

TAXES IN TUSCOLA ON UPWARD GRADE

State, County and Township Tax
Totals in 1927 All Show
Greater than in 1926.

State, county and township taxes are on the upward grade in Tuscola county. This is apparent by a perusal of the proceedings of the board of supervisors who concluded the October session of that body on Saturday.

Tuscola's share of the state tax in 1927 is $127,905.43. This is $26,608.83 higher than in 1926. The county tax this year totals $199,801.75. This is $10,280.29 higher than last year. A new item in the county tax this season is the sinking fund, for a new court house. This item amounts to $33,164.89 in 1927.

The township tax in the 23 townships of the county totals $674,996.82 this year as compared with $623,686.82 in 1926, a difference of $51,310.00. Eight townships—Akron, Arbela, Columbia, Dayton, Denmark, Koylton, Wells and Wisner—report a decrease in their township tax this year. The other 15 townships have a larger township tax. A comparison of the township taxes in 1926 and 1927 is given in the following table:

Outstanding Event of the Season

An outstanding event of the season was the musical program given by four students from the University School of Music, Ann Arbor, at the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, Oct. 21. The concert was sponsored by the Cass City Music Study Club and was without a doubt one of the best concerts ever given in Cass City. Although the audience was not as large as it should have been for a program of that excellence, those who did attend were well repaid and realized that the object of the local club to promote greater interest in better music had been accomplished.

Miss Kate Keith Field possesses a clear soprano voice of excellent quality and wide range. Miss Mary Alice Chase is a violinist of unusual appeal and her numbers were played with a mastery touch, while Miss Marion Johnson's piano accompaniments were one of the strong features of the entertainment.

Miss Virginia Tice, pianist, was announced recently as the winner of the semester cup of the Symphonic League for excellence in scholarship.

Her record for last semester was 22 hours of all "A". Sixteen hours of this were in her regular university classes and six were in the University of Music. Not only was Miss Tice able to maintain a big scholastic standing in her work in the literary college, at the University of Michigan, where she is a junior this year, but found time to teach 16 music students each week, to discharge her duties as member of two sororities, to practice her music three hours daily, and to do other things of a musical nature.

Punch and wafers were served at the close of the concert here Friday evening to give the audience an opportunity to meet the young ladies who entertained them so well.

DAIRY CATTLE IN BIG DEMAND NOW

$835 Average Brought in Satisfactory Holstein Dispersal Sale.

One hundred and eight head of Holstein cattle nationally known as the Hollyhook herd, owned by Col. Gustav Pabst, Oconomowoc, Wis., sold in a dispersal sale this fall for a total of $90,220 or an average of $835 a head in one of the most satisfactory dispersal sales of purebred cattle held in years.

Hollyhook Piebke Fobes, grand champion cow at the 1926 National Dairy show, was purchased by R. V. Rasmussen, Deerfield, Ill., for $10,000, this being the highest price paid for a Holstein cow for many years. One-third of the money taken in at the sale came from Minnesota Holstein breeders who purchased cattle which totaled more than $30,000.

Mrs. F. E. Murphy, wife of the editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, bought a number of animals, among which was May Pieterjie Homestead Ormsby. Mrs. Murphy paid $6,000 for this cow.

With pure-bred dairy cattle selling for an average of $100 more a head than they have for the past few years, a larger demand for grade cows at $150 to $200 than can be filled, with milk at a price that enables dairymen to make a profit and the demand for both pure bred and grade dairy cattle going unsatisfied because owners refuse to sell, the dairy cattle business in the United States is in better condition today than it has been in years, according to Earl J. Cooper, director of extension of the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

"At no time since I can remember," said Mr. Cooper, "has the demand for dairy cattle been so great or as general over the United States. During the past 30 days we have received inquiries for Holsteins from 28 states and five foreign countries. One of the reasons for this demand for high producing dairy cattle is the fact that there is an intense interest in dairying everywhere in the southern states. Within the last year 11 new condensaries have been opened in a comparatively small number of counties in the south. Farmers and breeders in the northern dairy states are not offering their animals in sufficient amounts to meet the demand of buyers."

Men who have been in the dairy cattle business for more than 40 years look on this dairy prosperity as a goal to which they have been looking for a long time. The dairy cow, they say, is coming into her own.

Dairy products are in more evidence on the family table and at soda fountains. In the last five years the per capita consumption of dairy products in the United States has increased 27 per cent and this, according to Mr. Cooper, is one of the reasons why the dairy farmers are wanting to keep their cows. "It would be difficult to point to another farm product which has increased in popularity as a food," said Mr. Cooper.

Men who have been in the dairy cattle business for more than 40 years look on this dairy prosperity as a goal to which they have been looking for a long time. The dairy cow, they say, is coming into her own.

FARMING AND FINANCE

Babson Park, Mass. (Special)—Stormy weather in Europe is having something of a bullish effect in the wheat market, but there are to be found plenty of people who do not think that the price of wheat has yet made its seasonal bottom although admittedly not far from it.

During the past few years, our wheat crop has grown steadily larger. In 1925 it amounted to but 676.4 million bushels against 832.8 million in 1926 and some 860 million bushels suggested in 1927.

Undoubtedly the late season has had something to do with the lateness in some of the grains, wheat among them, making their low price for the year. One noticeable thing, though, has been the far greater speed with which the grain has been marketed. Probably the effects of the combines are now coming more strongly to light.

One very good reason why any movement of consequence at all in the case of farm land values must be upward, is due to the simple fact that farm land values undoubtedly have been thoroughly deflated.

Yet the situation is not without its Turn to page 2.

Many Wells Unsafe Shown by Analyses

That the water supply in many Michigan rural communities is contaminated, is shown by analyses made at the state laboratories in Lansing.

The water samples were submitted for analysis by farmers from six counties that were visited by specialists from the agricultural engineering and home economics departments of Michigan State College. These specialists urged that farmers take advantage of modern means of disposing of household sewage.

In one Michigan county, the samples of water analyzed showed that 64.5 per cent of the wells tested were contaminated. In another county, only 19.1 of the wells showed contamination.

Members of the agricultural engineering department believe that the deeper wells furnish a safer supply of drinking water. The analyses made show that the largest per cent of unsafe wells were in counties that are low and in which there are many shallow wells.

Reports made by county agricultural agents show that farmers are installing many septic tanks, which furnish an inexpensive and safe way of sewage disposal.

Cass City State Bank Changes Furniture

More modern furniture has displaced the equipment which has for many years served the Cass City State Bank. It was placed in the bank building the first of the week and bank employees and the bank's customers are well pleased over the change which is not only pleasing to the eye but is an aid in more efficiently accomplishing the work of the bankers.

The bank counter with rounding corner encloses the banking office. The lobby extends on two sides of the room and is made larger than formerly. The counter has a marble base, three wickets, and plenty of storage space for supplies and room for holding the ledgers and other record books of the institution at a convenient place for reference. The lobby contains two customers' desks and a desk for a bank official.

Walls of the banking office have been redecorated and the floor covering of new linoleum adds to the attractiveness of the room.

danger. Foolhardy purchases of farm lands just now might spoil everything, at least if indulged in to any great extent throughout the nation as a whole.

As yet the farmer's business is not out of the woods by any means. It is merely a more hopeful path that is now in sight. For the experienced person, the way out is now considerably easier. To the party unacquainted with surrounding conditions, the way of the average farmer is still fraught with much danger. Experience counts.

Perhaps, after all, it is not without some justifiable sighs of relief that we realize that the vast preponderance of city workers still shy from farm life.

Corn Belt Optimism Continues.

There continues, not without reason, much optimism throughout most of the states in the so-called "Corn Belt." For one thing, the weather during September gave corn a boost that is distinctly encouraging to farmers.

No less than four of the most prominent farm papers in that great section of our country are apparently now convinced that agricultural prosperity has returned.

If such publications say so, it is likely to be the case, for they are in a position to know and are dependent for their very existence upon the goodwill of those whom they serve—the farmers of that section of the country and those doing business with them.

Substitution of Mechanical Power.

A primary element in the movement of people a few years ago away from the farms—since the slump of 1920-21, to be exact—has been the substitution to a large extent of mechanical for animal power, both in the cities and on the farms.

Had the animal population increased in the same proportion as the human population, the demand for agricultural products would have been considerably better—greater. Instead, city workers in the motor factories got the business.

Is it strange that the farm products used almost solely for human food—meats and poultry, fruits, dairy and vegetables—have done better the past year or two than the grain products which are used partly for feeding animals? No, less animals have to be fed.

Australian Lambs Had Heavy Mortality.

Australia has always been noted for its sheep-raising. But this year, the Australian output of lambs for export is expected to amount to only about 1,000,000 carcasses as compared with over 1,900,000 last season. There was a heavy mortality by reason of the drought in Australia that lasted this year from March until August. This will probably result in a holding off of any serious drop in the price of lambs in the United States.

Weighing Value of Corn Stalks

We seem to be entering upon an era which the corn stalk may prove an extremely valuable farm product as compared to its position at the present time. Chemists are experimenting to see if a stalk of corn really can make such necessary things as lumber, paper, building blocks, artificial silk, etc., in a satisfactory way.

Some rather wild predictions are being made, that need to be taken with a grain of salt, but these experiments are of the highest value apart from being interesting. They will bear watching.

First Through Canal

On August 15, 1914, the Panama canal was opened to the world. The first passage after the declared opening was made by the steamship Ancon of the Panama railroad service. The time of the passage was nine hours.

State News in Brief

Manistee—Henry Larsen, 19 years old, blew away part of his left hand while duck hunting. He picked up his shotgun by the muzzle. The hammer caught in some twigs and fired.

Pompeii—George Jurek, 39 years old, was instantly killed and his son, John, 11, died in an Alma hospital a few hours later when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a truck driven by Clifford Cowdrey of Ithaca, at a road intersection 3 1/2 miles northwest of here.

Mt. Clemens—Harry Lasky and Stanley Kalosinski, both 20 years old, have been held here in connection with the robbery of the Memphis State bank of $6,000. They were arrested in Detroit and brought to the county jail here. Henry Brown, cashier of the Memphis bank, said they were the bandits who held him up.

Ann Arbor—Leo De Beaumont, 24 years old, of River Rouge, was killed here when a cave-in occurred in a gravel pit on the New Pleasant Lake road where he was working. He was buried under about five feet of gravel. Fellow workmen attempted to dig him out but it was necessary to use a scraper to remove the earth from the body. No inquest was held.

Traverse City—Traverse City resort proprietors and business men of Leelanau, Benzie, Antrim, Kalkaska and Grand Traverse counties met here recently to plan for the Grand Traverse region's 1928 resort season. They were addressed by Carroll Sweet, Grand Rapids banker; A. H. Landwehr, Holland manufacturer; Hugh J. Gray, secretary of the Michigan Tourist and Resort association, and former Congressman Diekmann.

Lansing—Higher rates on lumber shipments from Baraga, L'Anse and Chassel to Detroit will become effective November 1, according to an order by the public utilities commission. A rate of 27 1/2 cents a hundred was ordered some time ago but the Worcester Lumber company secured a suspension of the new schedule. The former rate was 20 cents. The commission announced the suspension will end November 1.

Lansing—That interest in the Fred Palm case in which the local man was sentenced to a life term at Jackson for possessing a pint of gin has become world-wide was evidenced by the receipt of a letter from Dr. R. Herold, director of the International Bureau Against Alcoholism, with headquarters at Lausanne, Switzerland, for information in regard to the case. The letter was received by Mayor Laird J. Troyer.

Lansing—Governor Fred W. Green may have to summon the legislature back to Lansing in extraordinary session within a few weeks if the state supreme court sustains the opinion of Circuit Judge Guy A. Miller that the 3-cent gasoline tax law is unconstitutional. This developed here when a discussion in the state attorney general's department disclosed the probability that should the high court agree with Miller there would be no gasoline tax at all.

St. Ignace—Remains of a tragedy of at least three years ago were uncovered here recently when Raymond Mailhot, a railroad employe, found the body of a man in the woods near the city. County authorities said it had been there for at least three years. A little penciled note, tightly corked in a bottle, in one of the pockets told the story. It read: "Please bury me where I fall. Premeditated suicide. No friends." That the body had lain so long without being found caused considerable comment by authorities.

Lansing—The State Administrative Board has refused to pay a bill for $7,291.25 tendered by the City of Detroit for the maintenance of 430 state prisoners in the Detroit House of Correction at $1.25 a day from August 18 to August 31. The Legislature passed a law empowering the State to enter into a contract with the City of Detroit for care of state prisoners. O. B. Fuller, auditor-general, pointed out the law did not become operative until Sept. 5, and as yet no contract had been entered into for the upkeep of prisoners.

Algonac—Arthur La Ponsa, 25 years old, of St. Clair Flats, was accidentally shot and killed by Henry Sampier, while hunting ducks along Lake St. Clair recently. It was the second hunting fatality in the same district in two days. Each of the men had shot once at the ducks which were flying overhead. As Sampier fired a second time, La Ponsa rose in the boat and received the charge in the side of the face, dying almost instantly. In the first accident, Clarence G. Valentine, a Detroit salesman, was killed by John W. Knorr, also of Detroit.

Mt. Clemens—Theodore Bardecki, 16 years old, of Meade, became the first victim of the hunting season in Macomb County recently, when he received the full charge of a shotgun in his body. The gun was fired accidentally by Fred Goigick, a companion, who had been hunting with Bardecki. Goigick, overcome with grief, turned the gun on himself, but the weapon was wrested from his hands by Henry Bardecki, 10-year-old brother of the dead boy, before it was discharged. The accident happened at the Bardecki farm.

Port Hope—Caleb Richardson, 67 years old, Port Hope resident, was instantly killed when his shotgun accidentally discharged in his home. The charge of shot entered his chest. For 50 years Richardson had lived in and near this place.

Ann Arbor—William L. Clements, of Bay City, regent of the University of Michigan, has purchased a collection of British headquarters papers as an addition to the historical antiquities in the Clements library here. Among these papers are maps showing encampments and forts of Gen. "Mad Anthony" Wayne.

Ann Arbor—Hyman J. Brown, of Chicago, a junior in the literary college of the university, paid a fine and costs of $30.60 in justice court here after pleading guilty to a charge of ticket scalping. Brown was the second student to be apprehended. James J. Jerome, of Saginaw, was the first to be arrested and fined.

Lansing—The State Administrative Board has approved the continuation of the services of Dr. R. E. Palmer as the state physician at Beaver Island at a salary of $3,500 a year. Dr. Guy L. Kiefer, commissioner of the state department of health, had recommended the discontinuance of employment of a physician for the island at state expense. A number of residents of the island entered a protest.

Springport—Fire recently swept over three farms north of Springport, destroying all the buildings and a considerable amount of grain and livestock. The flames were discovered first on the farm of William Caldwell, and from there they spread to farms owned by William Burgess and James Briggs. The loss is estimated at $17,000. Albion and Springport fire departments responded, but the fire had gained too great headway.

Mt. Clemens—State approval of a $100,000 bridge across the Clinton river at Jefferson avenue has been announced by county highway officials following a conference with the state administrative board. Approval of plans by the war department and by the county board of supervisors is now sought pending construction of the span which will relieve Gratiot avenue of Detroit-Port Huron traffic and complete the link in a scenic lake shore drive.

Mt. Clemens—Consideration of a new $750,000 Macomb county court house 10 stories high, was announced here following the appointment of a building committee by the board of supervisors. A special one mill tax was levied at the fall election a year ago to provide funds over a five year period for the erection of the new county building. The property on which the court house now stands was deeded to the county by Christian Clemens, founder of this city, 118 years ago.

Detroit—Airplane passenger service between Detroit and Cleveland will be inaugurated Nov. 1 by the Stout Air Services, Inc., according to an announcement made by N. W. Ayer & Son, advertising agents handling the Ford Motor Co. account. The equipment of the new line will consist of Ford tri-motored metal monoplanes, according to the announcement. Each plane will have a carrying capacity of 10 passengers with baggage, and a cruising speed of 100 miles an hour, it was stated.

Ypsilanti—Martin McKenna, 19 years old, was kidnapped recently by two men who drove up to McKenna as he was walking on the street and forced him at the point of a gun to enter their car. He was bound and gagged and taken to the south part of the city, where the robbers jumped him out after searching his pockets and taking 60 cents, all the money he had. McKenna crawled to a nearby residence where he thumped against the door and aroused the residents, who released him from the ropes with which he was bound.

Adrian—Walter Huyck, of Fruit Ridge, a cheesemaker, recently wrecked an automobile south of Adrian as he was returning home. A member of the sheriff's force, driving behind him, stopped to give assistance and noted that the license plates bore numbers of a car that had been reported stolen shortly before. Huyck looked at the plates and admitted they were not his. He was brought back to Adrian and found his own car, of the same make and model, parked on a downtown street. The car he wrecked belonged to another.

Harrisville—Lyman Massey and Verne Shook pleaded guilty in Circuit Court here to a charge of stealing a deer last fall from the hunting camp of W. L. Culver, of Grand Rapids, in the Hubbard Lake region of Alcona County. Fines of $200 each and suspended sentences of three years were imposed. Culver offered $500 reward for the apprehension of the thieves and several months later in the shop of a taxidermist at Vassar he identified a head as that of the missing buck heralded as being "the largest ever shot in Michigan."

Ann Arbor—Temporary admission to the United States has been granted Dr. P. M. Jack, of the University of Aberdeen, Scotland, who last summer was named to head the department of rhetoric at the University of Michigan. Dr. Jack had been refused admission because of a technicality in immigration laws which specify that a professor to be eligible for admission under the non-quota provision must have followed his profession for two years prior to application. Dr. Jack had been engaged in research work for a semester.

Keep Kidneys Active!

You Can't Feel Well When Kidneys Act Sluggishly.

TO feel always tired, lame and achy is too often a sign of improper kidney action. When the kidneys act sluggishly, waste poisons remain in the blood, and are apt to make one languid, stiff and achy, with dull headaches, dizziness and often nagging backache. A common warning that the kidneys are not acting right is scanty or burning secretions. Assist the kidneys with Doan's Pills. Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, increase kidney activity. Are endorsed from coast to coast. Ask your neighbor!

Are You "Knowledgeable"?

Europe has a new word to play with. Every year or so it coins one or picks up an old one used in a new way. This year it is the thing to use "knowledgeable" in lieu of "learned" or words of similar meaning. One may be "knowledgeable" in music, horses, politics, women or anything else.

Potato Meetings Were Successful

Four potato meetings were held the past week, Thursday and Friday, at Stanley Stokes, Kingston, Lee Fowlers, Watertown, F. A. Mertz, Fremont, and Geo. Hensey, Millington. G. M. McCrary, potato specialist, from Michigan State College, was present at these field meetings where the groups of growers were shown how to hill-select potatoes for seed and also how to pick correct type of potatoes for show purposes.

The outstanding thing of the meeting was the part good seed played in getting a good crop of potatoes. In fact, good seed gives as much increase yield as does spraying over unsprayed, or fertilized over unfertilized. The best yield from good seed is planted on ground properly fitted and fertilized and then sprayed.

There was a good deal of interest in securing good seed and an attempt will be made to introduce some good certified seed into the county aside from the amount which will be for sale by the three growers in the county.

Those growing certified seed potatoes in Tuscola county are Morris Mount and R. V. Marsh of Dayton township and Lee Fowler of Watertown. There is a great deal of interest in the potato show at Mayville and a number expressed intentions of showing some. Tuscola growers who can pick out reasonably good samples, should plan to show as the Thumb of Michigan Potato Show means more to our potato growers than any other single event of the year.

A Boy's Essay on Pants.
Pants are made for men and not for women. Women are made for men and not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, that makes a pair of pants. Pants are like molasses, they are thinner in hot weather and thicker in cold weather. There has been much discussion as to whether pants is singular or plural. Seems to us that when you wear pants it is plural, and when you don't wear them it is singular. If you want to make pants last, make the coat first.

One pound of Calf Chow and a gallon of warm water takes the place of a gallon of milk in feeding a calf. You can raise a calf on Calf Chow for about 1-3 the cost of whole milk and that is the reason that we are selling more Calf Chow than ever this fall.

We've noticed that the ladies who ride in open cars these days have no need for rouge.

Reliable poultry men will tell you that there is more poultry diseases caused from worms than any one source. Barnes' Worm Emulsion stops this loss.

Purina Cow Chow mixed with home-grown grains make a balanced feed and lowers the cost of producing milk. Our oldest feeders of Cow Chow will bear us out in this.

Tommy—"That's what I'd like to know."

We received a car of salt this week. Our salt is kiln dried and in new cotton sacks.

They buried a man in a western city not long ago. In a spirit of fun, he stuck his head into the window of a bootlegger's hang-out and yelled "Fire." And they did.

Another car of Cream of Wheat flour this week. Regardless of politics, use Cream of Wheat flour.

The only successful substitute for brains, we guess, is silence.

You can trust a woman's taste in everything but men.

Another reason why we don't like to have our photograph taken is because it makes us look like we were having our photograph taken.

Our next car of Purina Chows will arrive about Nov. 5.

GETTING eggs narrow down to making eggs. You have the feed as the raw material, the hen as the factory and the egg as the finished product. The number of eggs you get is determined by the quantity and the proper balance of the egg-making materials you furnish in what you give the hen to eat and drink.

PROTEINS, which a hen gets from Chicken Chowder, goes to make up the white of an egg. Fat, supplied by Purina Her Chow, makes the yolk. The minerals, part of which is furnished in oyster shell and grit, make the shell. Chowder also provides the life-giving vitamins so essential in eggs for hatching and food purposes.

You'll never know how many eggs your hens are capable of laying until you feed them Purina Poultry Chows. Put Purina to the test and find out the easiest way to get eggs when you want them at a lower cost of production.

The Spanish Revelers

The clash of the tambourine, the snap of the castanets, tinkling guitars and plaintive violins, combined with the beauty of fresh young voices, give unique charm to the program of The Spanish Revelers.

Costumed in the dress of a wandering minstrelsy, with tinkling coins and gaudy colors, they sing alluring songs of the open road, the flickering fires of vagrant camps, twinkling stars and velvet shadows of the night.

These young musicians know the type of music that will make the most popular appeal. Into the interpretation of this music they put all their native ability, years of training and youthful ardor.

An interesting group of players and singers is The Spanish Revelers. There is an individuality of character about their program that finds its way into the heart of every listener.

Did you ever suspect that two prominent members of the junior class have false teeth? And, worse still, did you ever hear them try to talk without them! If you haven't, you have a treat in store for you when you see the junior play which is scheduled to take place some time in November. Members of the cast are working hard, and good results should be forthcoming.

The girls' physical training classes are deriving both pleasure and benefit from their work which up to the present time has included volley ball, indoor base ball and calisthenics.

There will be class meetings this week to elect captains for each class for interclass meets in volley ball, basket ball and indoor base ball.

Boys from rural districts who remain at school for lunch have organized for play in the gymnasium during the noon hour. This week they have been playing volley ball.

A commercial club has been organized among the students enrolled in the commercial course. Approximately thirty attended the preliminary meeting. A constitution is being drafted and will be presented at the business meeting Monday. At the first meeting it was suggested that a business meeting be held on the first Monday of every month and a social meeting one evening during the month.

Members of the junior class have "said it with flowers" in expressing their sympathy for Clara Bond who is ill in the Morris-Cridland hospital.

The senior class held its roast on Friday, Oct. 14, one mile south and one-half mile west of town. There were about 25 of the 27 seniors and about six members of the faculty members present. Entertainment was provided by games and singing to ukelele accompaniment. Then the group gathered around the fire and listened to several amusing stories told by Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Campbell is offering 25 cents as a prize for the largest potato brought in by a student. Where are those large potatoes? Let's see them!

A potato show will be put on in the agricultural department later in the semester. Generous prizes will be offered. Anyone taking agriculture may enter any number of displays consisting of ten potatoes each.

A. G. Kettunen, State 4H club leader, has just notified Mr. Campbell that he is to speak on the evening of Mar. 5 as part of a club program which is to be put on Jan. 2 to April 25, over WKAR, Lansing.

The chemistry classes have been making charcoal, wood alcohol, coke, coal gas, and coal tar in the laboratory during the past week.

The high school art class is studying the principles of letter cutting. Later the class will make posters for the operetta, "The Crimson Eyebrows," to be put on under the direction of the Cass City Music Study Club assisted by the girls' high school glee club.

Europe is the subject for the seventh grade geography class. The sixth grade has commenced making Halloween decorations. "The Bell of Atri" by Longfellow has been dramatized in the reading class. Cyclone, storm and weather maps help the geography class to understand physical conditions in the countries which they study.

After reading Helen Hunt Jackson's "October's Bright Blue Weather," the fifth grade has been writing original October poems. Billy McGinn from Detroit, Sherrill school, has joined our grade.

Patty Pinney has won the most jack-o-lanterns as a reward for having 100% in spelling. It's much more fun to travel across the United States in an automobile, seeing the country and the crops and learning about the weather, than it is to study geography any other way. When we finish our Cross Country Geography trip, we shall be able to tell you anything you wish to know about the United States. The fourth grade arithmetic class is learning how to multiply by two numbers.

Cass City high school lost the annual football game with Caro here Wednesday by a score of 18-6. On the opening play of the game, Cass City scored a touch down on a delayed forward pass—McKenzie to Edgerton. Edgerton caught the pass on his finger tips and raced about 30 yards to the touch down. Brown failed in the try for point. Cass City held the heavier county seat team the remainder of the quarter, but in the second quarter the steam roller offense of Caro got under way and marched to a touch down and failed in try for point. Score at the half 6-6.

In the third quarter, Caro's backs punched the Cass City line at random and scored two touch downs, one on a blocked punt and one on a wide run. In the last quarter, Cass City twice threatened to score and both times, uncompleted passes gave the ball to their opponents. Final score, 18-6.

The locals play the undefeated Sebewaing team next Friday at Sebewaing.

Bell Music Oldest

The oldest musical instrument is the bell, according to Liberty. Bronze bells have been found in Assyrian excavations and in mummy cases, centuries old, in Egypt.

Silly

Correct Pronunciation

The word "suite" is always correctly pronounced "sweet," no matter whether it means a set or series, a series of connected rooms, or a train or retinue. It is frequently confused with "suit," which in many cases has a similar meaning.—Exchange.

First American Oil Well

The first oil well in the United States was discovered in 1627 by a Franciscan missionary, who found on the site of the present Seneca Indian reservation, near Cuba, N. Y., a spring out of which oil was bubbling, according to an answered question in Liberty.

Other Man's Shoes

Among ancient Norsemen, when a man adopted a son, the person adopted puts on the shoes of the adopter. The phrase, "To stand in another man's shoes," means "to occupy the place or lay claim to the honors of another."—Literary Digest.

Famous Island

The volcanic island of Saint Helena in the south Atlantic, 1,200 miles off the coast of Africa, has a population of 3,703. The island was made famous as the place of exile of Napoleon, and is now a British admiralty coaling station.

How Crops Are Hastened

Lettuce was ready for market in March from an outdoor garden in Sweden this year, a result of heating the soil with electricity. That the product may be matured earlier is considered a probability and further tests are planned. A main object is to obtain a ground temperature which will correspond to the comparatively high air temperature in spring says Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Long-Life Trees

The white oak, button-wood, white pine and hemlock are long-lived trees, says the American Tree association, and the poplars, willows, some cherries, and a few oaks are short-lived. Some of the sequoias of California exceed the 3,000-year mark, and the big cypress tree of Tule, growing in the state of Oaxaca, Mex., has been estimated from 4,500 to 5,000 years.

Peck—Claude S. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Detroit, and a life-long resident here until two years ago, was shot in a holdup Monday night in a gas station, which he operates on John R. street in Detroit. About three years ago Mr. Murray is said to have felt the call to the ministry and since that time he had been quietly studying and preparing himself for the work which he felt he should do.

Bad Axe—Benito Gutierrez has been freed by a jury on the charge of murdering Tony Rodriguez, a fellow best weeder, last July. The defense was self preservation. Following the finding of a quantity of moonshine whiskey, the owners of a farm residence located near East Dayton, Arthur and Helen Vogel, were apprehended. Alton Cavely, Roy Arndt, and David Cavely, who were in the place at the time of the raid were also arrested. The quintet was brought to Bay City and were held at the Bay county jail pending their arraignment before the U. S. commissioner on charges of sale and possession of liquor. Both furnished bail and were released.

Upon arraignment before U. S. commissioner Frank Q. Quinn, Palowski pleaded not guilty and demanded an examination which was set for October 31. He was remanded to the Bay county jail in default of bonds of $1,500. The defendant was arrested after a search of his hotel revealed a copper tank of whiskey, cleverly concealed in the walls of the hotel, George Schultz, of Caseville, charged with violation of the prohibition law, was also turned over to the federal authorities by the Bad Axe sheriff. Schultz admitted his guilt and was held to the grand jury on bonds of $1,500, which he furnished.

Sandusky—The trial of Elwood B. Lauderbach of Bay City, charged with conspiracy in connection with the robbery of the Shabbona bank in May, 1926, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the illness of John J. Maher, attorney of Detroit, who is defending Lauderbach.

Sandusky—Sanilac county will pay an increased state tax of about $29,000 although the valuation of the county was reduced about three percent. The county tax is estimated to be $106,000 more this year than last.

Bad Axe—George Loosemore was sentenced to two years in Jackson by Judge Boomhower Tuesday. Loosemore pleaded guilty. This was his third conviction on the charge of violating the prohibition laws.
