

TAX PAYMENTS ARE MADE PROMPTLY HERE

Collectors Do Good Work; No Return Tax Payments to Elkland or Cass City.

That the taxpayers of the Township of Elkland and the Village of Cass City made prompt payments of their municipal obligations and treasurers of the township and village were good collectors in recent years has been proven in the office of County Treasurer McDurmon. This has been particularly noticeable in the last six months. Mr. McDurmon sent out checks this week covering delinquent tax payments to all the townships of the county except Elkland and to all the villages except Cass City. The total amount of delinquent tax payments sent to the 22 townships was $17,128.26 and to the several villages $724.93. The highest payment to any one township was $2,084.91 to Gifford. These amounts are payments for the second quarter of 1928.

In the first quarter of this year, Elkland township received but $20.73 in delinquent tax payments and none were forthcoming for the Village of Cass City in that period.

L. P. Koepfgen Realizes Dream

Tuesday was a happy day for Leslie P. Koepfgen, son of Mrs. P. A. Koepfgen of Cass City, for at that time he realized his ambition to secure an adequate airport and air mail for Bay City. Mr. Koepfgen is chairman of the aviation committee of the Bay City Chamber of Commerce.

For three years Mr. Koepfgen has worked with this end in mind. Time and again he has met with rebuffs but they only served to make him work harder.

Mr. Koepfgen is himself a pilot, having served with distinction in the World War, and more than one German plane felt the fire from his machine and fell to earth. Mr. Koepfgen holds a captain's commission in the reserve air forces of the United States and takes training each summer.

Mrs. Holcomb Honored at C. S. T. C.

Mrs. Mary Holcomb of Cass City earned a place on the spring term honor roll at Central State Teachers' College at Mt. Pleasant. Five other students from the three Thumb counties are included with the honor students, according to announcement made this week by officials of the college.

The names of the Thumb students who earned these places include: Cass City, five subjects, Mary Holcomb.

Caro, four subjects, Evelyn Lumley, Deckerville, four subjects, Geo. Moore.

Elkton, five subjects, Wager Clunis, Fairgrove, four subjects, Wilbur Gordon.

Unionville, four subjects, Edwinea Beckfeld.

Mrs. Holcomb will be the instructor of the fourth grade in the Cass City Schools the coming year.

STONE-PIERCE.

Miss Thelma Stone, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Stone of Cass City, was united in marriage to Mr. Chas. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Pierce of Detroit, on Wednesday, July 11, at the Wesley Methodist church in Detroit. Dr. David Glass solemnized the marriage.

The bride was dressed in a pale blue chiffon dress and gray hat, and wore a corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

They will be at home at 2019 West Philadelphia Ave., Detroit.

TREADGOLD-PEARSON.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Vernita Treadgold, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Treadgold of Detroit, and William Pearson. The marriage took place on Saturday, July 14, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Treadgold at 8,998 N. Martindale St., Detroit. The Treadgold family formerly resided in Cass City. Mr. Pearson is a civil engineer from Maryland.

Miss Blanche Fuller, who teaches in the Royal Oak schools, spent two weeks of her summer vacation with Miss Beatrice Koepfgen. Accompanied by Miss Koepfgen, Miss Fuller left Cass City for her home in Madison, Wisconsin. Miss Koepfgen will be a guest at Miss Fuller's home for two weeks and then the two young ladies will spend some time at a lake resort near Madison.

TALLMADGE REUNION.

The old farm home owned by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tallmadge was the scene of a happy gathering Sunday when their five children and their husbands and wives and nine grandchildren took possession of the old place for the day.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tallmadge of Cass City, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Campbell of Lapeer and daughters, Miss Elsie of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Floyd Spencer of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Callan and daughter, Miss Thelma, of Mt. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hulbert and daughter, Phyllis, of Lapeer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Livermore and daughters, Carol and Margaret of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tallmadge and children, Grant, Donald and Helen, residing on the farm.

A pot-luck dinner was served and the day was spent visiting in the shade of the old apple trees and playing on the old play ground.

LESS IDLE CROP LAND IN STATE THIS YEAR

Oats and Barley Condition Is Much Above the Average.

Michigan farmers are cropping one and one-half per cent more acres of land this year than they did in 1927 according to a report issued by Herbert E. Powell, commissioner of agriculture and Verne H. Church, agricultural statistician for Michigan. There is less idle crop land in the state this year than last, and an unusual amount of fall plowing was a factor in allowing the increased acreage of crops to be planted. There are some new farmers this year, and many are more optimistic because of higher prices for several farm products and lower wages for hired help. The increased acreage in crops would have been greater had it not been for the marked reduction in hay left standing following severe winter damage.

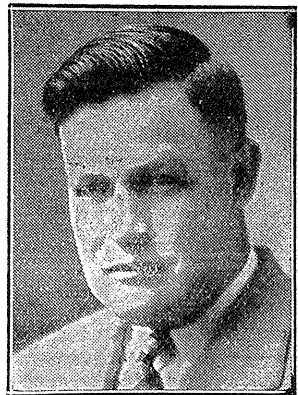

Oats and barley condition is much above average; and with the increased acreage, the production will be larger than last year. Although there are some good wheat and rye fields in the state, these crops have not fully recovered from winter killing in the southern counties so that the production of each will be considerably less than last year. Corn acreage is two per cent larger than last year, but the condition is but little better than a year ago so that the production forecast is only four per cent greater. With a short acreage and also a low condition, the hay crop will be short compared with last year and less than average.

For the third consecutive year, the state's potato acreage increased. The increase this year was eight per cent, but the condition of the crop on this early date is below average. Mary beans were planted early, and replanting was necessary in many fields. Some fields were ruined and abandoned following heavy rains in important bean growing sections. For the state the acreage increase was not as large as expected but 600,000 acres remain for harvest with a low condition which forecasts a production ten per cent larger than that realized last year. The stand and growth of sugar beets is good, and the 92,000 acres planted promises about an average yield.

Michigan's important fruit crops are better than last year except winter apples. The production forecast for peaches, pears, and grapes is larger than the ten-year average. Cherries range from fair in the south to good in the north with promise of two-thirds of a full crop for the entire state.

A production of 5,200,000,000 bushels of wheat, corn, oats, rye, and barley is forecast for the United States on July 1st. This is 419,000,000 bushels in excess of the July forecast last year, and 22,000,000 bushels more than the final 1927 returns. The July 1 United States forecast is for 443,640,000 bushels of potatoes and 16,671,000 bushels of beans.

COSTS REAL MONEY TO BE GOVERNOR

Scribe Estimates Gov. Green Will Spend $100,000 in Four Years.

If Gov. Fred W. Green is given another term in office his services to Michigan as chief executive will cost him $100,000 before the end of his fourth year, according to some interesting figures and facts recently compiled by a political writer of the United Press staff.

In estimating what it costs to be governor and whether or not a poor man could afford to accept the job, the writer says:

What does it cost to be governor of Michigan? Numerous Michigan officials, confronted with this question, declined to be quoted, but from the number of "don't quote me, but—" answers it was concluded that with the precedent set in this state the job is not one for a poor man, or even one with moderate means.

Michigan's chief executive receives $5,000 a year—just that, and nothing more. Theoretically he gets in addition an allowance for all his traveling expenses when on official business, but for at least the 20 years in which Oramel B. Fuller has been auditor general, not a penny for traveling expenses has been claimed by a governor.

Comment on the cost of being governor varied widely, ranging from $10,000 to $25,000 a year in addition to his $5,000 salary. These estimates took into consideration the earning power of a man capable of being governor of Michigan in addition to the salary received.

A close friend of Gov. Green said it would cost him perhaps $100,000 to occupy the chair for four years, if he is elected to succeed himself. He made his statement specific by saying the governor would have $100,000 less at the end of his two terms than he would have had if he had continued in private life.

All agreed the price of being governor is heavy, both in money and physical wear and tear and that it would be impossible, without revolutionizing custom, for any but a wealthy or moderately wealthy man to fill the governor's chair satisfactorily.

Farmers' Day Tour to M. S. C.

Every year, for several years, Tuscola County farmers have gone to Michigan State College to attend the annual Farmers' Day and to visit the plots to get first-hand information as to what the college is doing. This year bids fair to be exceptionally interesting. County Agr'l Agent, D. B. Jewell, will meet the Tuscola County farmers at the grove near the car line at 1:00 p. m. Thursday, July 25, for the purpose of a personally conducted tour over the test plots and through the barns at the college.

Go to the grove back of the Weather Bureau. Those wishing lodging for the night should write to Ralph Tenney, Supt. of Short Courses, Michigan State College, East Lansing. Those wishing to tent for the night

FORT INSTALLS ICE CREAM MFG. MACHINE

Local Dealer Plans to Wholesale and Retail Product Next Season.

Alfred Fort has installed a Champion ice cream manufacturing machine in the basement of his store and is now manufacturing a portion of the ice cream that is being served in his ice cream parlors. This machine is driven by electric power and has a capacity of 10 gallons every quarter hour. Cream is secured from Mr. Fort's farm in Elmwood township where he has a herd of seven registered Jersey cows.

The local manufacturing has been done for the past three weeks as an experiment and will be continued for the remainder of the season. Probably next year, when Mr. Fort will have a larger herd of Jersey cows on his farm, he will be able to manufacture sufficient cream to supply the entire demands of his business. He also plans to wholesale as well as retail his ice cream products.

George H. Quick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Quick of Cass City, and Miss Margaret Gleason of Flint were quietly married Monday, July 9, at Flushing. They will make their home in Flint where Mr. Quick is employed.

REPUBLICANS CONTEST FOR THREE OFFICES

Two Want Sheriff Nomination, Two for Judge of Probate, Three for Clerk.

What looked like a quiet campaign in the ranks of the Republican party in Tuscola county for nominations to county offices at the primary on Sept. 4 has developed into contests for three offices—sheriff, clerk and judge of probate.

L. S. McElowney, who is completing his first term as sheriff, will be opposed for the nomination at the Republican primary by Jay A. Colling of Caro, who held that office previous to Mr. McElowney's election.

Guy G. Hill, who is serving his first term as judge of probate, will have a competitor in the person of Giles Whitlock of Caro, now chairman of the board of supervisors.

Three men have filed nominating petitions for the office of county clerk. They are Wm. G. Hurley of Cass City, the present incumbent, Guy Ormes of Tuscola township, and Stephen W. Morrison of Dayton township. Both Mr. Morrison and Mr. Ormes are members of the board of supervisors.

E. C. Robertson of Fostoria, a supporter of the nomination for state representative.

There will be no opposition at the Republican primary for the following gentlemen now holding the offices here named: Orlo J. McDurmon of Caro for county treasurer; Stanley Osburn of Caro for register of deeds; Chester W. Chesnut of Vassar for circuit court commissioner; Geo. D. Sutton of Caro and C. M. Race of Caro for coroners; W. N. Leonard of Caro for surveyor; Conrad Mueller of Richville for drain commissioner; Roland O. Kern of Caro for prosecuting attorney.

Tuscola Democratic Nominees.

The following are the names which will appear on the Democratic ticket at the September primary:

State representative, John G. Jeffery.

Sheriff, Robt. C. Jacoby.

County clerk, Raleigh Bush.

County treasurer, Jas. O. Coan.

Drain commissioner, Martin Hornlocker.

Register of deeds, John F. Roberts.

Coroner, Henry A. Bishop.

150 ENJOYED DILLMAN SCHOOL REUNION

Alumni Presented Picture, "The Last Supper," to the School Saturday.

Under the able management of Frank Reid, president of the reunion association, 150 of the past and present pupils, patrons and teachers of the Dillman school, 1 3-4 miles west of Cass City, had a delightful day at the reunion Saturday in spite of inclement weather.

After the basket dinner, all assembled in the schoolhouse and enjoyed a varied program. The speaker of the afternoon was D. B. Jewell, county agricultural agent, who spoke of the benefit of such a gathering to a community and to the individual. He praised the work of the rural districts in spite of the many handicaps they encountered. Many of the old school songs were sung, using the familiar Knapsacks.

Mrs. McElowney of Caro gave a toast of welcome to the teachers. The following teachers responded by having their pupils rise and meet in the usual way at the old recitation seats for spelling and reading: Nelson Perry, Mrs. A. J. Knapp, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Alvin Beach and Mrs. Frank Nash. Needless to say the previous good discipline of these teachers was not in evidence on Saturday. However, John Dillman, Fred Reid and Roy Allen revealed the fact that they had good instructors in these subjects and were not to be outdone by the younger pupils. Floyd Reid deserved especial commendation in that he could always spell the longest and hardest words right and he said "he didn't peek in the teacher's book."

After classes had been dismissed, Mrs. A. J. Knapp in well chosen words, presented the school with a large sepia picture, "The Last Supper," a gift of the alumni, in memory of Mrs. May Reid Evans, who was a pupil of the school during the time that Mrs. Knapp was teacher.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: President, James D. Tuckey; vice president, Roy Allen; secretary and treasurer, Miss Beryl M. Koepfgen. It was voted to have the next reunion on the second Saturday in July in 1929. The program in the school building closed by the repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Everyone was then invited to assemble outdoors where James D. Tuckey, Roy Allen, Emory Lounsbury and Hugh McBurney ably showed their ability to plan athletic stunts for such a gathering.

The men's race was won by R. Reagh, the boys' race by Alvin Reid, the ladies' race by Miss McNeil, and the two girls' races by Elaine Reid and Miss Horner. James Tuckey threw the auto tire the farthest distance and A. Reagh the milk can. The tug of war was decided a tie, due to the breaking of the rope. Alvin Beach and John Dillman were captains. Had the rope broken 1 1/2 inches nearer, Mr. Beach's team would have been the winning side. Prizes were awarded individual winners of the events.

The most thrilling event was the base ball game. The untrained men soon found they could steal bases as they did 20 years ago. This was probably due to the clever coaching of A. J. Knapp. The score was 19 to 5, Dillman's team winning from Beach's nine. Due to the lateness of the afternoon, the ladies' game was postponed until the 1929 reunion.

Those from out of town who attended the reunion included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reid of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dillman and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gettgey and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nash, and Glenn Reid, all of Detroit, Willard Nash and son, Donald, of Saginaw, and Mrs. Otto Richter of Bay City, Willard Wells of Flint, Mrs. J. Russell of Pekin, Ill., Mrs. L. S. McElowney and daughter of Caro, Robert Dillman of Ann Arbor, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McBurney of Lapeer.

"The Classic" Is New Name for Business

"The Classic" is the new name under which the Gowen confectionery store and ice cream parlor will be conducted in the future by the new proprietor, Harry Sutton. Samuel Gowen, who purchased the business a few months ago from his brother, Bert Gowen, has found it advisable to sell because of the illness of Mrs. Gowen. Mr. and Mrs. Gowen will move to their farm south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton recently sold their restaurant business in Santa Rosa, Calif. Previous to that, Mr. Sutton was in business in Detroit.

State News
in Brief

Charlevoix—A plant to cost $1,000,000, is to be erected here by the Newaygo Portland Cement Co., it was announced recently. Work will begin immediately.

Moline—Shirley Smith, 11 years old, was killed when she became entangled in the rope attached to a hay fork and was drawn by a team she was driving for her father at his Green Lake farm.

Ecorse—Losing his balance as he stood on a dock over the Detroit river while watching a soaring airplane, Charles Liko, 13 years old, of Ecorse, lost his balance, fell into the river and was drowned. Members of the harbor-master's crew recovered the body.

Mt. Clemens—The army pilot who aided the Bremen fliers at Greenly Island and who carried food to Vermont flood victims will be transferred to Selfridge Field, September 1, according to word received at the local airport. He is Lieutenant Richard E. Cobb, now attached to the East Boston airport.

Ann Arbor—Miss Ruth E. Banfield, of Ironwood, Mich., is regarded as "the perfect scholar" by officials of the University of Michigan. Miss Banfield who completed the literary course at the university this year, was an All-A student during the four years of her university career, having received perfect marks in all subjects.

Pontiac—Fifteen minutes after Arthur Teggs reported his automobile had been stolen from his home in the Huron Gardens Subdivision, west of the city, the automobile was recovered and Alton Cline, 30 years old, was under arrest. Cline was arrested as he drove from Sanderson into Oakland avenue, two miles from where the car was taken.

Buchanan—Levi Batten, life-long resident of this vicinity, is dead. Batten, during eight years as justice of the peace here, steadfastly refused to perform marriage ceremonies. Shortly after he took office he married a couple. The marriage did not turn out happily and after that the justice refused all requests of couples desiring to be married. Batten died on his 75th birthday.

Grand Rapids—Results of the leaf spot which has made heavy inroads in Michigan cherry orchards this year despite warnings to the growers, will not only be apparent this year in a reduced crop but for one or two years to come. Prof. R. V. Gardner, head of the horticultural department and director of experimental stations at the Michigan State College, told fruit growers here recently. He said control of the disease is not difficult.

Marshall—Funeral services for Carl Weber, believed to be the country's oldest baker, were held here recently. Mr. Weber was 92 years old and had been in active service at the Kuechle Bakery here until a week before his death. He had been in the baking business for 79 years, and was employed in the same shop for the last 60 years. In that time he had not been off duty for more than four weeks at a time nor for more than 10 weeks altogether.

Jackson—That Clara Wade Tillotson, well known Jackson business woman and former president of the Business and Professional Women's Club here, is Mrs. John Lee Lamont and has been for the last 15 years, became known here recently when announcements were mailed to Mrs. Lamont's friends. The marriage took place in Detroit Oct. 18, 1913. Since the marriage Mr. Lamont has been living at the home of his wife and her mother and was known to friends as a roomer there.

Lansing—The State probably will build more highways this year than in 1927, according to estimates based on a report for the first six months, prepared by Frank D. Fitzgerald, business manager of the Highway Department. Up to the last week in June 68.4 miles of concrete and 10 miles of asphalt and other hard surface had been completed, as compared with 67.3 miles of concrete in the same period in 1927. Indications are the State will spend at least $3,000,000 more for highway construction than it did in 1927.

New Haven—Two rows of venerable hitching posts line the main street of this village and the question of retaining them has become such a matter of public interest that the Business Men's Association deliberated at length on the question recently. It was pointed out by those who favored the retention of the posts that an occasional horse and buggy is still driven to town on Saturday night. Those who would remove the posts claim they take space that should be allowed for parking automobiles and that the posts are only used as leaning posts.

Battle Creek—Walter Jarowski, 38 years old, a local factory worker, was killed in a pistol duel with Irving Compton, 45 years old, after he had attempted to slay Mrs. Virginia Losey, 40 years old, when she refused to marry him. Jarowski went to Mrs. Losey's residence and upon her refusal to marry him, fired four shots at her, none of which struck her. Compton, a boarder at Mrs. Losey's home, engaged Jarowski in a pistol battle on the front porch of the place, killing him and receiving a slight wound on his face.

Infalible Method

An amateur farmer answered an advertisement headed "A Sure Way to Make Hens Lay." This is what he got for his money: "Tie a stout string around the hen's body, place the bird on her side on a board and fasten the string underneath. If it is thought desirable, a pillow may be placed under the hen's head."—Boston Transcript.

Royalty's Resting Place

The Great pyramid of Egypt is said to have been built by Cheops more than 50,000 years ago. It measures at the base 755 feet on each of the four sides. It is 451 feet high and covers 12½ acres of land. About 6,000,000 tons of stone were used in building it. Herodotus states that it occupied 100,000 men for twenty years. It was used as tombs for kings.

Deadly Plant

It is fairly well established that the poisonous plant responsible for the old-fashioned milk sickness which developed in cows and in human beings who drank the milk of cows so affected was one variously known as richweed, white snakeroot, pool wort, poc' root, white sanicle, Indian sanicle, deer wort, squaw weed, white top, or sterla.

MRS. JESSE GOODALL LAID TO REST HERE SUNDAY

Mrs. Jesse Goodall passed away Thursday, July 12, at the home of her son, Jennings Stinehauser, at Freeland, Michigan. Mrs. Goodall will be better known to Cass City people as Mrs. Michael Stinehauser.

Louisa Muntz was born in the year 1860 about two miles north of Cass City. Mr. Stinehauser passed away 23 years ago. Five years later she was united in marriage to Jesse Goodall.

Mrs. Goodall was taken to the home of her son at Freeland two months ago when she became ill and has since that time gradually grown weaker. The body was brought to Cass City Sunday and short services were held at the grave. A minister from Freeland officiated. Beside her husband, Jesse Goodall, of Hale, Michigan, she leaves six children Mrs. Tillie Townsend, Mrs. Kate Eastman, Mrs. Emma Shires, and Frank Stinehauser, all of Detroit; Fred Stinehauser of Cleveland, and Jennings Stinehauser of Freeland, and one sister, Mrs. Tillie Bills of Bad Axe. Two daughters preceded the mother in death, Mrs. Maude Eastman and Mrs. Lillie Shepard.

Those from a distance who attended the service at Cass City were the husband and all of the children and Mrs. Jennie Beach of Kalamazoo; Mrs. Tillie Bills, Mr. and Mrs. John Muntz and daughter, Helen, of Bad Axe; Mr. and Mrs. William Seeger and son, and Fred Shires of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. John Shires of Atwater.

Angler Catches Rabbit

A Scot who was fishing in a quiet back water of the Tweed during a recent flood was surprised by the arrival of a wheat sheaf on which a young rabbit was a passenger down stream. Throwing his line across the strange raft, the angler hooked it successfully and landed both sheaf and rabbit. Bunny was none the worse for his trip.

What Ed Howe Likes

I love accomplishments, good taste, success. The greatest enjoyment I find in a "show" is the cleverness of those who attract the audience. I like to see people attract attention; display taste and sense, earn large wages, and be worth their big pay.—E. W. Howe's Monthly

Not Much Attraction

"We shall be changed in form perhaps," our favorite radio preacher recently declared, "but otherwise immortality will find us the way we are." Comforting to many, no doubt; but don't tell that to a man with hay fever and expect him to cheer.—Farm and Fireside.

Westminster Abbey

The proper official title of Westminster abbey, that by which it is described in all legal documents, is "The Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster."

Many "Bird Dogs"

Breeds of bird dogs commonly include pointers, English setters, Irish setters and Gordon setters. Under the bird dog classification, however, might come Chesapeake bays, Irish water spaniels, and the retrievers, including the curly-coated, flat-coated and Labrador retrievers.

Gentle Warning

"Anything to see in this gosh-forsaken hamlet?" asked a New York salesman who was in San Diego for the week end. "Well, yes," responded the doorman of the San Diego hotel. "Every once in a while you can see a funeral goes by—and occasionally it's the funeral of some feller that thought he was smart, and got what was coming to him."—Los Angeles Times.

Greenhouses

On the south coast of England, growing fruit and vegetables under glass has become a great industry; there are about 44 miles of greenhouses in the Worthing district, in which are figs, peaches, tomatoes, beans, cucumbers, etc.

Bird Long Extinct

The moa was a wingless bird found in New Zealand, somewhat like an ostrich in appearance. It varied from the size of a turkey to birds 12 feet in height. They were edible, and their extermination more than 500 years ago is probably due to this fact.

Height of Happiness

A cynical columnist wants to know whether the happy hero in the Woman's Home Companion story who "felt as if he would spatter himself against the moon," was less happy than the cow which jumped over it.

Boise's Distinction

Boise, Idaho, is believed to be the only city in the world having a natural hot-water system.

To Avoid Howling

In running a length of wire from the receiver proper to the loud speaker, if the latter is separated any distance from the former, be careful to keep this wire away from the aerial lead-in. If the two are too close together, a very persistent and annoying howl will develop.—Radio News.

POOR GEORGE

"So you are going to set up house-keeping as soon as you're married? I thought you had made up your mind to board."

"Yes, but George is equally determined to have a house of our own."

"And so you are going to keep house in order to please George?"

"No, I'm going to keep house so that George will be glad to board."

These Military Thespians

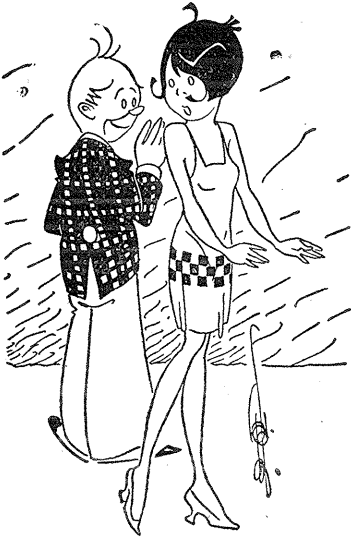

It was the sweet young thing's first visit to a military camp and she was in a gushing mood.

"And what rank did you hold in the war?" she asked.

"I was an acting corporal," answered the grizzled vet.

"Oh, how lovely! What part did you play?"—American Legion Magazine.

RACY STORIES

"I won $100 on the races yesterday."

"Did thank you to keep your racy stories to yourself?"

Earliness

The early bird, as all affirm, is to rejoice in stirred. But how about the early worm? That feeds the early bird?

Strategy

First Clubman (after midnight)—Good heavens! I've just remembered that I haven't my latch key with me.

Second Clubman—Won't your wife get up and let you in?

First—I'll make her. I'll scratch on the door and whine and she'll think her pet dog has been locked out.

Avoiding Troubles

"Do you think that riches bring happiness?"

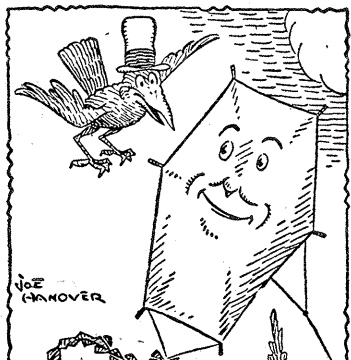

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "if a man can keep his dollars occupied strictly in business and prevent them from fooling around in politics."—Washington Star.

Fish Story

This is just a fishing tale, seems the fisher caught a whale, seems he hooked it as the schooner took a tack.

It was 40 feet in length and it taxed his utmost strength. "It's a baby," said the captain, "Throw it back."

PUZZLED

Bird—I don't see how you fly—you haven't any wings or any feathers!

Goodly Outside

How many people as they pass will smile as they deceive! The most agreeable, alas, Are those you can't believe!

Let's See

The Adventurer—There were six giant gorillas, and they surrounded me.

Mae—How did you escape?

The Adventurer—Well, if I remember right, I killed them.

Consistent

"That florist surely keeps in touch with his slogan, 'Say it with flowers.'"

"What's his method?"

"Well, I know he has sent me a bunch of forget-me-nots with each bill."

Similar

Alice—Why don't you tell Rod frankly that you don't like him as well as Ted?

Jean—I can't. I'm not sure that Ted will propose.

Doubted It

Gray—They say a man's first thousand dollars is hardest to get. Green—I can't agree with that. An oil stock promoter got mine easily enough.

Something to See

Oliver—I see that this new prize fighter has a reach of 7 feet 3 inches. Ira—That's nothing! You ought to see the new guy at our boarding house.

The Fascinating "Mr. Sunday"

By MARTHA M. WILLIAMS

(Copyright.)

"HENRY'S blood was real blue—you can't deny that," Squire Crane said defensively to his wife, who retorted instantly: "Blue as skim milk—and as poor. So poor I can't see why they're so set up over it."

"Why, they don't put on airs over it—it's the rest of us sorter look up to 'em for what they are. Been top of the pot ever since way back in Revolutionary times—yet there ain't no friendlier folks in the county."

"Not strange—considering the county keeps them, voting the colonel in office time on time, regular as election comes round. And that's how he's managed to get his two boys in West Point and Annapolis."

"Well! They've got to live somehow—and that farms so poor is won't sprout black-eyed peas unless you move 'em," the squire chuckled. His wife snorted: "That maybe saves the county at large something—but it's a bit rough on the neighbors—when the Henrys have company. They've got it now, you tell me—staying company. That means I'll have to lend a ham, and a coop of broilers, and eggs, butter, and preserves, to say nothing of being asked to bake a cake and pies. And poor Miss Rachel will part with jars and jars of things—Henry's'll order them—with never a notion of how the bill can be paid. Seems to me they might make such truck themselves—five girls in the family, all big enough and old enough and anxious enough to be married. Betsy's twenty-seven—I know her age by my John's—she might a-been married and got a good start on a family if she hadn't turned her nose up so rough when my nephew, Sandy Allen, tried to court her. And she'll never have a better chance. See how he's got on—ain't a better catch in the county. But Ma Henry couldn't see him in her family because he worked at the lumber yard with his own hands—as well he might, knowing Uncle Ben was going to will it to him. Betsy's fine lookin'—I ain't denyin' that—but she's getting on—"

"The Lord will provide—maybe," Squire Crane chuckled. "Looks like he had begun this very week. The Mr. Sunday Pat Henry has fetched home with him, I hear, is the real thing—northern man with money in both pockets, out to see what he can find to spend it for down here in the South—"

"H-h! I wonder how come Pat to find him?" Mrs. Crane sniffed.

"That's no mystery," from the squire. "They met in a hotel, just as Pat was planning his start—got talking together—Sunday told how he had a bran' new car and was keen to come South in it—so they hitched horses and agreed to come together. First Sunday asked after hotels—Pat wouldn't hear to that—telegraphed the colonel to get ready for company—"

"—and now all hands are as tickled as beeswax that things have fallen out so."

Mr. Sunday, it appeared, was a rapid worker. Three days later he proposed to Betty.

Later sensation crowded sensation—he had given Betty out of hand a solitaire almost too big and brilliant, a diamond bracelet, a rope of pearls, a set of summer furs, and a mesh bag of degree—trifles all, he declared, but there was time enough ahead for better things.

Ten days was the time limit for the wedding—he was due many miles away on important business. Not quite so important, of course, as making sure of Betty, but something it would be costly to neglect.

Fate has, it appears, a sense of cosmic justice. Else why should Sandy Allen, glancing idly through a chance newspaper, have lighted upon accounts of a smooth embezzler who had bought a new car and said he was going to Canada, but was more than suspected of heading another way? No picture. But somehow the description fitted the fascinating Mr. Sunday—enough to set Sandy investigating—there was a reward—five thousand dollars—but that was nothing compared to what might develop. Sunday went half way to meet the sleuths—brought them home with him so cannily nobody suspected anything.

So at eight o'clock that night, instead of bonds matrimonial, Mr. Sunday, alias Richard Green, the flashiest spender in the Night club circuit, found himself hampered with bonds of steel. Sandy managed affairs quite magnanimously—Betty should not be shamed before expectant guests. The arrest was made on the dead quiet—it was not until the car bearing Mr. Sunday to receive his desserts was well away that Sandy showed his hand. And then only to Colonel Henry himself, to whom he said: "Here's an open and shut proposition—I've saved your daughter from marrying a thief—in reward will you give her to a fellow who is at least reasonably honest? She don't exactly hate me—I love her enough for two. Don't cheat the neighbors of a wedding after all the trouble they've taken to have a proper one. I'm heeled—got a new license back in town—the preacher's waiting all wised up as to what's wanted—now what d'you say?"

"The only thing possible to a man of sense. A double-barreled 'Yes!'" quoth the colonel. Whereafter if all did not go merry as a marriage bell, Mrs. Henry somehow managed to escape hysterics.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules
Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without gripping and harm to the system.

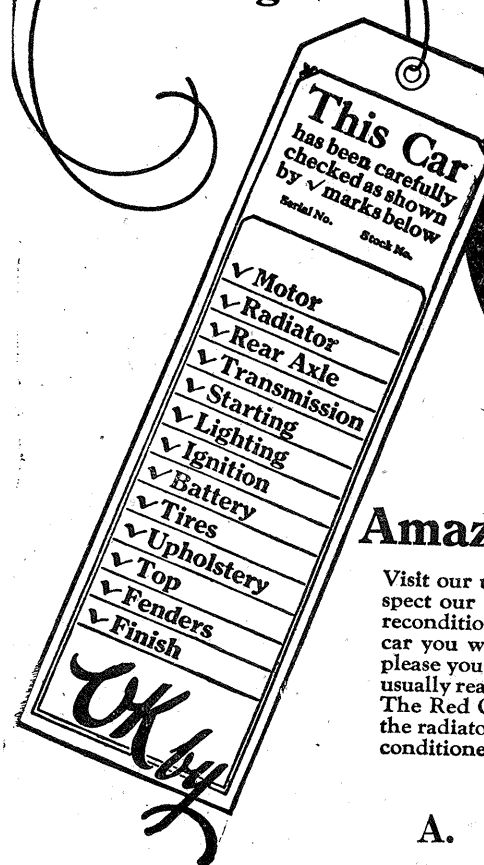

J. B. Caldwell, M.D.
AT AGE 83

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Be not soft and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

PAUL'S EARLY MINISTRY

LESSON TEXT—Acts 9:19-30; 11:25, 26.

GOLDEN TEXT—And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues that he is the Son of God.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Begins to Work for Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's First Work for Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Saul Champions an Unpopular Cause.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Years of Growing Experience.

I. Saul Preached Christ in Damascus (vv. 19-22).

1. Saul's fellowship with the disciples (v. 19).

After Saul was baptized he remained certain days with the believers in Damascus (v. 19). How beautiful to think of the transformation which took place—the one who was so passionately bent on their destruction was now enjoying fellowship with the disciples.

2. Straightway preaching in the synagogues (v. 20).

Saul, like every one who is really converted, begins to tell of the newly found Savior. As soon as he is saved he goes to save others.

3. The people amazed (v. 21).

They knew that the very one that had been the ringleader in persecuting the Christians in Jerusalem, and had come to Damascus for the express purpose of bringing them bound to the chief priests, was now passionately advocating that which he had so vehemently sought to destroy.

4. The Jews confounded (v. 22).

Saul retired into Arabia for three years. During this time he was taught the full truths of his ministry.

II. Saul Escapes From the Jews (vv. 23-25).

He used the Scriptures with such skill that the Jews could not answer him. Finding that the argument was against them, the Jews took counsel how they might destroy Saul. So intent were they upon killing him that they watched the gates of the city day and night that they might take him. When this became known to the disciples, they let him down from the wall by night in a basket.

III. Saul Visits Jerusalem (vv. 26-29).

This journey to Jerusalem was in strange contrast with the one from Jerusalem to Damascus. The one was as a leader of an important expedition under the authority of the Jewish officers with the prospect of a place of distinction in the council of the Jewish nation. Now he is an outcast, disowned by his countrymen, and fleeing for his life.

1. Suspected by the disciples (v. 26).

The believers at Jerusalem had not heard fully about Saul's conversion. They knew nothing of his sojourn in Arabia, and his preaching at Damascus after his return. Therefore they regarded him as a spy.

2. Barnabas' confidence in Saul (v. 27).

Barnabas was a man filled with the Holy Spirit (Acts 11:24), therefore able to discern the reality of Saul's conversion. He was in reality a "Son of consolation" and in this instance showed his kind spirit.

3. Saul in fellowship with the disciples (v. 28).

They went in and out together. Peter received him in his home where he abode fifteen days (Gal. 1:18).

4. Saul disputes with the Grecians (v. 29).

He was not content merely to visit with the brethren. He spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

IV. Saul Sent to Tarsus (v. 30).

A conspiracy similar to that one at Damascus was formed against Saul. When the brethren knew of it they sent him to Tarsus. Saul's life was in danger everywhere except among the Gentiles. He now is back at the place of his birth. The first a d best place for one's testimony is in his home. Saul's conversion was typical of the conversion of the Jewish nation. Their eyes will be opened by a personal revelation of Jesus Christ to them, and when they accept Him as their Savior and Messiah, they will go forth as witnesses to the Gentiles.

V. Saul Teaching at Antioch (11:25, 26).

The work at Antioch so prospered in the hands of Barnabas that he went to Tarsus for Saul to help him in the work. Saul returned with Barnabas and ministered for a whole year. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch. This name resulted from Paul's teaching. Instead of being given in derision, as is frequently taught.

God's Program

The program of God is not concerned with time. With Him a thousand years are as a day. We are too short-lived to criticize His providence. In the rolling years He has wrought wonders, but a short sight fails to see it.—Methodist Protestant.

Women Delight
in its marvelous handling ease

Offering smartness and distinction never before attained in any low-priced six and reflecting exceptional good taste in appointments and upholstery, the Pontiac Six is a car which invariably wins feminine admiration. And that admiration turns to sheer delight when they leave the back seat and drive the car themselves.

They know the Pontiac Six is a dependable car. And they quickly discover an ease of handling that makes every mile a pleasure. The powerful four-wheel brakes answer the lightest touch. The big motor is smooth, quiet and responsive, and the clutch and transmission are exceptionally easy acting.

Every day you see more and more women at the wheels of Pontiac Sixes—because Pontiac provides at a price within reach of almost every purse, everything that women demand in a motor car of their own.

DEFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Counsel of Delaware came Wednesday to visit a week with the latter's brother, E. A. Cones.

W. C. T. U.

That's the Answer to the Wail of the Wets!

For every saloon keeper we used to see riding around on the cushions of a high powered limousine, we now see ten families of average income riding around in their flivvers; where, a few years ago, we saw big war wages being squandered for liquor and other high life amusements, today we receive reports from merchants that thousands of dollars are being spent for shoes, clothing and household furnishings. That's the answer to the wail of the liquor interests that prohibition is putting the country on the bun. —Superintendent Flanagan of the Bridgeport Police Force.

No More Saloon Brawls
Hugh M. Alcorn, State's Attorney in Hartford County.

"Prohibition has bettered conditions in Hartford County," wrote Hugh Alcorn, state's attorney for Hartford county. "I used to have to deal with many cases of murder, assault with intent to kill, etc., most of them resulting from saloon brawls. I have none of that now."—Advertisement.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Reinhard Hollatz, eleven years old, was brought to the hospital Thursday, July 12, and had both legs amputated, the result of an accident. Dr. Malloy of Gagetown was called to do the operating because of the absence of Dr. McCoy.

Mrs. George Healy of Caro was admitted Sunday, July 15, and underwent an operation the same day. Miss Hildegard Empeke of Port Austin underwent a minor operation Wednesday.

Mrs. Angus, wife of Rev. Angus of Hay Creek, underwent an operation for exophthalmic goiter on Thursday. The little son of Rev. and Mrs. Angus was operated on for hernia on Thursday.

Mrs. Lora Evans and Mrs. B. L. Middleton are still patients at the hospital and doing nicely.

Miss Edna Quast of St. Mary's hospital, Saginaw, is doing general duty at the hospital.

Miss S. Myrl Burdett of Saginaw General is Mrs. Middleton's special nurse.

GAGETOWN.

At the home of Fred J. Finkbeiner on Sunday, July 8, the married children came home with well filled baskets and set a long table on the lawn under the fine maple trees. After the bountiful meal, all helped in the washing of the dishes and placing them all back in mother's cupboard. Pictures were taken and the afternoon spent in visiting. Friends and relatives were present from Decker, Flint, Detroit and Unionville. All hope to be able to gather in reunion again next summer.

Odd Breakfast Menu

Among breakfast dishes listed by the Romans in the time of Commodus we find: A dish of marrow bones, a dozen larks on a dish, a neat's tongue, a dish of fowl, a silver grill with hot sausage, peahens' eggs

Cause of Winds

Winds are due to the tendency of air to pass through a place of higher to one of lower pressure, as along the earth's surface, toward a place where the heat of the sun has caused an ascending current

Lakes Legal "Seas"

The Great lakes possess every essential characteristic of seas and in a decision of the United States Supreme court, October term 1933, it was held that the Great lakes are seas in a legal sense of the term

From the French

The expression "To sleep like a top" is a translation of the French expression "Dormir comme une taupe," which means to "sleep like a mole." The "taupe" has been carried over into the English.

Thumb of Michigan Ass'n News Letter

Roger M. Andrews, manager of the Detroit Times has been added to the list of speakers at the Algonac meeting on Friday, the 20th. He is one of the greatest boosters in Michigan and a friend of the Thumb.

In its issue of June 8, The Detroit Times devoted the first page of its Automotive Section to a suggested tour of The Thumb. Eight photographs of from various parts of the Thumb—from Algonac to Pointe aux Barques—assembled in an attractive group and overlaid by a map of The Thumb shore roads introduced an article entitled "Scenic Highway Offers Rare Beauties."

In the article the Times tourist editor takes the reader from Detroit up the shore, through Algonac, following along the St. Clair River and the shore of The Thumb all the way to the tip of The Thumb, returning via Bay City and Flint, or as an alternative, by Cass City, Inlay City and Romeo on M58.

The Thumb has seldom received better publicity than The Times has given it in co-operation with the Publicity committee of The Thumb of Michigan Association.

The various county track meets and district track meets that have been held in The Thumb are good things to support. They mean a great deal more than merely fun and sport for the young people. Such things tend to promote harmony, co-operation, and community spirit. The older business man may not be directly interested in track meets, jumping, shot putting, etc., but he and all of us should remember that these younger fellows in another year or two will be coming Omolene fed horses are always ready for a good day's work—and they'll stand up under it day after day under conditions that would put many animals on the sick list.

A certain business man of our acquaintance has been a summer widower for ten days or so, and brags that he hasn't had to wash a breakfast dish. He drinks milk out of the bottle, takes the toast off the toaster, and butters it from the butter package. Bananas are eaten from the peeling. The butter knife is held under the faucet, and breakfast is over. And everybody knows a coffee percolator should never be washed.

You can put those broilers on the market a little quicker and mature those pullets quicker by feeding Purina Chick Growers.

We would like the fellow who knows it all much better if he would forget part of it.

We had the term "mixed choir" explained to us yesterday. Some of 'em can sing, and some of 'em can't.

Pig Chow added to home grains make those grains worth more. That's why the pound is the cheapest.

Wouldn't it be fine if those who have money would use it in the way those who haven't money think they would use it if they had it?

When the pasture begins to dry up feed Cow Chow and Bulky Las. Bulky Las is sometimes called "pasture in a bag."

Here's a little reparation that happened in our place of business the other day: "I can't hear myself think." "Well, you're not missing much."

Purina Cow Chow on pasture means no milk slump this fall.

"There were dozens of people at the train to see me off." "Did you pay any of them?"

Hot, fat, lazy hens that are allowed to sizzle in summer will not lay next winter. Feed your birds a ration balanced for summer. Feed less grain feed—it is heating. Keep your hens cool and comfortable in hot weather and they'll reward you with lots of eggs when winter comes. Feed cooling Chicken Chowder.

Well, marriage is a great old game. One fellow remarked in here the other day that marriage is like a railroad crossing sign. When you see a pretty girl, you stop. Then you look. And after you are married, you listen. And then the other fellow next to him remarked that it always has struck him that marriage is like going out to take a picture; you don't know what you will find, but you hope it will turn out well.

Before they were married he told her he would move heaven and earth for her. And now he's raising hell.

WALTER L. MAIN CIRCUS NOW ON 48TH ANNUAL TOUR REGARDED AS A NATIONAL INSTITUTION

Top—A section of the Circus Kitchens and the Blacksmith.
Below—Miss Louise Cottrell, Noted Rider.

With only a few more days remaining before the appearance of the Walter L. Main Circus considerable interest is being manifested, not only by the younger generation, but also by many of the older "boys." The big Walter L. Main circus, now on its 48th tour of the United States, is regarded as a national institution. Year after year the big show comes for its annual visit. Each season has seen an improvement, until finally it is believed that the pinnacle of success has been reached.

The Walter L. Main circus, which comes to Bad Axe on Saturday, July 28, and Caro, Tuesday, July 31, affords a complete program of the newest and most novel circus features available today. Down through the long years of its history the cream of the show world has been picked to select the numbers for its program and each year the good is weeded from the bad and kept for a new season. In the manner of very best circus entertainment to be found in the world can be found with the Walter L. Main Circus.

Among the features this season are flying aerialists, a sextette of dancers who cavort gracefully on a lofty wire;

Australian whip-crackers and bushmen, two herds of educated elephants, three troupes of Chinese acrobats and acrobats, and forty clowns whose laugh provoking antics have been unparalleled in American circus history. Foremost among the equestrians to be seen with the big show this season is the Cottrell-Powell Family, with their tango horses from the London Hippodrome; Miss Bessie Hollis, a new comer in circus ranks who looks more the part of a debutante than a somersault rider, and who is the product of one of the most fashionable girls' finishing schools; Capt. Raymond DeVry, who comes from the Crystal Palace Theater, Budapest, with a novel tandem act; Mile. Doree, with her stable of high school horses, recently a feature of the Folies Bergere, Paris, France, and scores of others equally as gifted and well known but whose names cannot be mentioned here for lack of space.

A spectacular street parade will be seen on the downtown streets at 11 a. m., preceding the first exhibition. Doors to the big show open at 1 and 7 p. m. and the performances start promptly at 2 and 8 p. m.—Advertisement.
