

56 TO GRADUATE FROM CASS CITY HIGH

Class of 1929 Numbers Largest Membership in History of School.

Fifty-six students will be graduated from the Cass City High School next June. This will be the largest class ever graduated from the local school. Up to this year, the Class of 1923 with 43 members held this record.

Commencement exercises will be held at the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening, June 12, with A. A. Metcalf, associate professor of education of the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti as the commencement speaker.

Class Day will be held Tuesday evening, June 11. Grace Wylie will give the salutatory; Esther Dilman, the valedictory; Clark Helwig, the class will; Margaret Jondreau, the giftatory; Frederick Brown, the president's address; and Margaret Landon, the class prophecy.

Because local churches have proven too small to seat the large audiences at Baccalaureate services in late years, it has been decided to hold this service in the high school auditorium on Sunday evening, June 9. Rev. Wm. Curtis will deliver the address.

Records of the two members of the class having the highest scholastic honors during their high school career present unusually close standings, the difference in the marks being less than two-tenths of one point. Miss Wylie's marks for the four years averaged 94.5 plus points while those of Miss Dilman's were 94.7.

Members of the Class of 1929 are: Frederick Brown, President. Glenn McCullough, Vice President. Grace J. Wylie, Secretary-treas. Edward Greenleaf. Angus McLeod. Wesley Young. Doris L. Livingston. Marion K. Livingston. Clara B. Bond. Mabel M. Crandell. Marguerite O. Henry. Lorine McGrath. Hazel J. Hower. Martha H. Garety. Esther M. Dilman. Esther L. Schell. Erma Hartwick. George Cole. Elmer Flint.

ATTAINMENT WAS KEYNOTE OF MISSIONARY MEET

The 39th annual meeting of the Presbyterian Society for Missions in Flint Presbytery met in Marlette Thursday and Friday of last week. Cass City was well represented when seventeen ladies from here attended the afternoon and evening sessions. Mrs. Cameron, the president, who presided, was formerly president of Lansing Presbytery. The speakers from outside were Mrs. Mitchell, state president, and Miss Kittridge of New York, Field Secretary of the Foreign Board, and Miss Eakin, director of the Indian school at Chemawa, Oregon. All were very interesting speakers and told in a forceful way of the value of their work in each field.

The keynote of the whole meeting was attainment and all the work of the different sessions urged the expansion of all missionary work in Foreign and National fields. The song services were unusually good and conducted by the professor of Mar-lette public school. The young people's banquet Friday night was a banner meeting with 200 attending. The officers of last year were all re-elected with the exception of three new names, Mrs. H. Cornell of Port Huron, Mrs. Alex. Graham of Bad Axe and Mrs. Archie Crawford of Pt. Huron. The meeting was well attended, 300 being present Friday.

MULTIPLE HITCH DEMONSTRATION

Mr. Moxley of Michigan State College, will be at Chas. Stewart's, one mile north and one-half mile west of Watrousville, on Monday, April 29. The meeting will be called at 1:30 p. m. and will show the proper methods of handling four to six horses or more, for efficient farm work. It will also show correct methods for breaking young horses quickly and effectively. "Anyone handling four horses or more or having colts to break cannot afford to miss these meetings," says D. B. Jewell, county agricultural agent.

PIONEER POSTMASTER HERE ANSWERS CALL

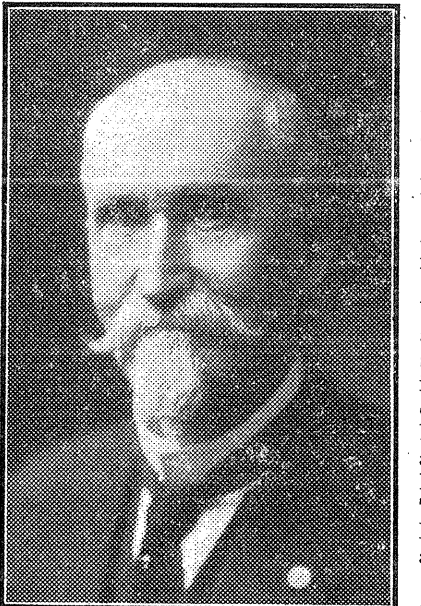

George S. Farrar Passed Away at His Home at Port Austin Sunday.

The community of Port Austin was saddened when the news became current of the death of George S. Farrar, who passed away Sunday morning, April 21.

He was born Jan. 25, 1849, on a farm near Mt. Clemens, Mich., and was left fatherless at the age of two years. He lived with his widowed mother until nine years of age when he went to live in the home of an uncle where he did chores and attended the district school. At 13 years of age, he went to work in a drug store and attended night school.

In January, 1863, Mr. Farrar enlisted in Company H., Eighth Michigan Cavalry, under Lieut. Fred S. Steel. His mother, thinking him too young, withdrew him from the regiment. The following spring, he enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was assigned to the Lower Mississippi Squadron and served on the U. S. Steamer Forest Rose under Capt. A. N. Gould, until the close of the war, when he was given an honorable discharge.

After the close of the Civil War, Mr. Farrar was connected with the surveying expedition at work on Lake Superior, serving as an officer on the ship until 1873. He married in 1874 and purchased a farm one mile west of Cass City which he cleared and improved. Oct. 1, 1885, he was appointed postmaster at Cass City by President Grover Cleveland and was Turn to page four.

41 CATTLE SOLD HERE BRING FARMERS $5,242

Forty-one steers and heifers purchased by Striffler, Krug & Patterson from three Tuscola county farmers brought the neat sum of $5,242.20 the past week. All these cattle were taken by motor truck to Detroit. Had they been shipped by freight, the animals would have made a little better than 1 1/2 carloads.

The first lot of 19 steers weighing 22,135 pounds were purchased from J. L. Purdy of Elkland township for $2,656.20. The next lot of four steers weighing 3,860 pounds were purchased from Geo. Purdy, also of Elkland township, for $463.20. The third lot of 18 steers and heifers weighed 17,690 pounds. These were purchased from Robt. Cowan of Almer township for $2,122.80.

The local buyers sold the 41 head to I. Lavine of Detroit. He disposed of the Purdy cattle to the Swift & Co. packing plant at Detroit.

TWO LOCAL STUDENTS AT DIST. CONTEST

Virginia Day and Bernita Taylor Will Participate at Flint May 1.

The second district finals to select oratorical and declamation representatives in the state title contest at Ann Arbor in about six weeks, will take place Wednesday evening, May 1, at Flint Northern high school. The Cass City high school will be represented in both of the district contests by Virginia Day, a senior student here, was awarded first honors in oratory with her oration, "East Is West," and Bernita Taylor, a freshman at Cass City, was first in declamations. The subject of her declamation was "Toussaint L'Ouverture."

Six will compete in oratory and as many will contest in declamations at Flint May 1. The following is a list of the contestants, the schools they represent, and their subjects:

- Declamations.
1.—Delta Leslie, Tawas City, "Joan of Arc."
2.—Robert Heavenrich, Saginaw, "A Vision of War."
3.—Bernita Taylor, Cass City, "Toussaint L'Ouverture."
4.—Doris Bahr, Flint Central, "A Vision of War."
5.—LeRoy Miller, Marysville, "Pleas of Peace."
6.—Marian Beam, Mt. Clemens, "You are the Hope of the World."

- Oratorical Contest.
1.—Alvera Kaischke, Tawas City, "The American College."
2.—James Widmark, Saginaw A. H., "Dangers of Direct Government."
3.—Virginia Day, Cass City, "East Is West."
4.—Douglas Hill, Flint Central, "A Plea for Peace."
5.—William Fuller, Yale, "Plea for Modern Youth."
6.—Steward Frederick, Ferndale, "What Price Progress?"

SANILAC PIONEER WILL BE 97 ON MAY 1

A resident of Sanilac county since 1863, Mrs. James Watson, sr., will celebrate her 97th birth anniversary next Wednesday, May 1, at her home one mile south of Wickware, where she resides with her two sons, Arthur and William.

Mrs. Watson was born at West Williamson, Canada, in 1832, and came to Sanilac county with her husband, settling in Greenleaf township. In those early days, the nearest market was at Minden City, 15 miles away, and many times Mrs. Watson says she carried butter and eggs to that village to trade them for groceries, returning home the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson suffered the loss of farm buildings and other property in the forest fires of 1871 and 1881. Mr. Watson passed away in 1917. Up until about a month ago, Mrs. Watson was unusually active for her age. At that time, she suffered a slight stroke and since she has been in very poor health. She is the mother of ten children, seven of whom are living. John, 75 years of age, resides at Shabbona, James at Cass City, Mrs. Hugh Jordan in Grant, Mrs. Thos. Nicol in Lansing, Mrs. Ben Ellsworth at Whitmore and Arthur and William with their mother.

SHERIDAN BOY IS LAKE CAPTAIN

Captain William McDonald, recently appointed master of the steamer Eastern States, of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Co., was born in Sheridan township and lived there as a boy, says the Bad Axe Tribune. His mother, Mrs. Peter McDonald lives in Detroit in winter and on a farm in Sheridan in summer.

William McDonald left Sheridan township in 1907 at the age of 14 to become a coal passer on the steamer Russia. In 1914 he became second officer on the steamer St. Ignace, a D. & C boat, and has been with the firm since that time.

LANDSCAPE PLANTINGS FOR NEXT TUESDAY

There will be demonstrational landscape plantings on Tuesday, April 30, as follows: 9:00 o'clock, Fred Dehmel's, one mile south, one mile east of Unionville; at 1:30 p. m., at Frank McCaslin's, Novesta township, one mile west and two miles north of Deford or four miles south and two miles west of Cass City.

The plantings for both these farm homes were laid out by O. I. Gregg, Specialist, Michigan State College, and Mr. Gregg will be present at these meetings.

All people who are interested in this work are invited to be present and see how the work is actually done. Those who are anxious to take the work next year should try to be present at these meetings and give their names to County Agr'l Agent, D. B. Jewell, so that it will be a case of "first come, first served."

The class next year will be limited to not over twelve or fifteen so that the work will be filled up long before the work starts next winter. Twelve people will make at least some plantings this year.

COMING AUCTION.

Frank Stadler has decided to quit farming and will sell live stock and farm tools at auction, 3 3/4 miles west and 1 mile south of Cass City on Monday, April 29, with R. N. McCullough as auctioneer. Full particulars are printed on page three.

THE WEEK IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE

A Resume of the Matters Which Are Claiming Attention of Solons.

Lansing Bureau, Michigan Press Association, April 19, 1929.

Unless you desire a mandatory prison term of at least a year, don't get caught selling booze, or having it in possession for sale or transporting it for sale. The House passed the revamped and reconstructed Cuthbertson bill as returned by the Senate and the bill becomes law when signed by the governor.

Capital punishment is also under way, with the best chance for becoming law which it has had for many years. The Senate has passed a measure providing for electrocution and there is strong probability that the House will approve it. Then if the governor also approves of the measure it will go to a referendum vote of the citizens of the state at the November election next year. Quite a lot of ifs, to be sure, but it must be remembered that the Senate has blocked the measure for several sessions during which time the House has proclaimed itself as favoring it.

The Harnly bill permitting the reading of the Bible in the public schools of the state, which has had a stormy career and has been practically rebuilt, was placed on third reading by the committee of the whole in the House Friday morning by a narrow margin, after a roll call had been demanded on a motion to refer it back to the committee.

A proposal to impose a 50% tax on motion picture screen advertisements has been made a special order of business for Tuesday of next week in the House. A provision is also made that no increase can be made in admission prices on account of this tax.

Bills to allow Wayne county four additional circuit court judges and four more circuit court commissioners went through the House Thursday, and a number of local Wayne county bills also found their way through the mill, but a bill for an additional judge in Macomb county was ditched in the Senate.

The new election code prepared by Turn to page two.

TWO LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS SENTENCED

At a session of the circuit court in Tuscola county Saturday, two pleaded guilty to violation of the prohibition law.

James Parrot of Silverwood was sentenced by Judge Henry H. Smith to serve from nine months to one year at the State Reformatory at Ionia.

Annie Phelps was fined $50.00 costs and placed on probation for one year. She signed a document permitting the search of her premises by officers without the authority of a search warrant.

VASSAR CITIZENS WANT A CATHOLIC CHURCH

Fifty-three business and professional men of Vassar have sent a letter to Rev. Fr. P. J. McSherry of Reese calling attention to the need of a Catholic church in Vassar and the difficulty children in that vicinity have in traveling eight miles to church. Many new residents of Vassar worship according to the Catholic faith.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Melvin Phillips, 26, Deford; Ellen Luella Ashcroft, 20, Wilmot. Edwin Myers, 21, Saginaw; Amelia Suppes, 20, Fairgrove.

STATE MOURNS DEATH OF A LEADING EDUCATOR

Gerrit Masselink, Former Superintendent Here, Passed Away Saturday.

Funeral services for the late Gerrit Masselink, president of Ferris Institute at Big Rapids and a former superintendent of schools at Cass City, were held at the Westminster Presbyterian church at Big Rapids Tuesday afternoon. The body lay in state at the church from ten to two o'clock.

Twice in only a little over a year Big Rapids has been plunged into mourning by the loss of the head of Ferris Institute and two of its leading citizens. Only a little more than a year ago Sen. Woodbridge N. Ferris, president of the institute, died in Washington.

Saturday Gerrit Masselink, who succeeded Senator Ferris as head of the institute, died at Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids, victim of the first illness that had kept him away from his class-room in more than 39 years of teaching.

First stricken with influenza, Mr. Masselink's illness developed into typhoid fever and later pneumonia, which complication caused his death.

Born of Dutch parentage at Owerisel, Michigan, on July 3, 1872, Mr. Masselink received his higher education at the Michigan Agricultural college, being graduated in 1895. He entered the teaching profession immediately upon graduation, and from 1896 to 1898 he was superintendent of schools in Cass City.

He joined the Ferris Institute faculty as a mathematics instructor, but left for a brief period in 1903 to edit the M. A. C. Record, his alma Turn to page four.

MILLIGAN TO TALK IN SWIFT RADIO PROGRAM

James Milligan, a member of the Cass City Livestock Improvement Club, will give two talks on Friday, May 10, in the Swift & Company radio programs of that day.

The noon talk, "Lessons Learned in 4-H Club Work" comes at 12:40, Central Standard time, or 1:40 Daylight Saving time, and will be given from the Swift & Co. studio in the Union Stock Yards at Chicago. The evening talk will be given from the Hotel Sherman studio of WLS. This comes on the air at 7:00 Central Standard time, or 8:00 Daylight Saving time.

Mr. Milligan will be the guest of Swift & Company's officials while in Chicago. These talks are a part of a series of 4-H Club broadcasts sponsored by the Swift company.

This is James Milligan's fifth year in boys' club work under the leadership of Willis Campbell. For three years in succession, James has shown the champion club steer at the Michigan State Fair.

YOUNG LADS WIN, OLD LADS LOSE WEDNESDAY

Cass City high school trimmed Millington easily in the first game of the local team's baseball schedule. The game was played at Millington Wednesday afternoon and the score was 19-2. Cass City ran in 15 scores in the first two innings.

Local volleyball players failed to keep up the standard set by their younger brothers in baseball. The volleyball handlers went to Harbor Beach Wednesday evening. It appears that the lake shore town takes the game much more seriously than Cass City, at least the results of the encounter show that the H. B. teams were going good. Local players, a Chronicle reporter found Thursday morning, have exceedingly poor memories regarding Wednesday night's scores, but one was finally found who admitted that Harbor Beach won five of the six contests.

POULTRY BROODER SCHOOL MEETINGS

It is one thing to hatch your chickens, it is another thing to raise them. J. A. Hannah, specialist from Michigan State College, will be in Tuscola county on the following dates and at the following places to discuss the brooding of chickens. This is an opportune time to get the latest information on the successful rearing of chicks. Mr. Hannah is head of the Poultry Extension work at Michigan State College and has had years of practical experience and is well up on his subject. The schedule for the brooder meetings is as follows:

Wednesday, May 1, 1:30 p. m.—Walter Heckroth, Unionville.
Thursday, May 2, 10:00 a. m.—Nick Prommenchel, Caro.
Thursday, May 2, 1:30 p. m.—Max Little, Cass City.
Friday, May 3, 1:30 p. m.—Harry Burns, Millington.

EDUCATOR SCORES LAX CITIZENSHIP

Scoring citizens who fail to respect the eighteenth amendment, A. L. Cook, superintendent of Harbor Beach schools, told the need of the right example being set before the youth in an address before the Bad Axe Community club in the Irwin house, says the Bad Axe Tribune.

"Common American Community Problems" was the topic of Mr. Cook's talk. He interpreted the common problem as producing good citizens or the problem of education. Besides the school education is concerned with the home and with the power of influence.

"It is our duty as citizens to set an example that will not be a disappointment to those who follow us," Mr. Cook declared. He quoted Roger Babson as saying, "Immortality can be obtained by teaching children to carry on." The kind of citizen in a town 10 years from now depends upon the kind of a home town training we are giving boys and girls.

High Water Proves Hindrance to Autos at Vassar During Flood

Canoes and row boats plying from store to store on a portion of Vassar's business street did not look out of place during the flood period a few weeks ago. Merchants on lower Huron avenue found it expedient to hurriedly move their goods from the floor and floor cabinets to higher storage places in their stores on Friday afternoon when they saw the flood waters creep up toward their buildings. Water stood on the floors of

CO. S. S. CONVENTION AT CASS CITY MAY 8

Addresses by Religious Workers Will Be Given at Three Sessions.

Wednesday, May 8, is the date chosen by officers for the annual Sunday School convention of the Tuscola County Council of Religious Education. The sessions, of which there are three, will be held at the Evangelical church at Cass City.

Speakers at the morning session include Rev. C. F. Smith of Cass City, Dr. Bates of Kingston, R. O. Kern, prosecuting attorney of Tuscola county, Mrs. A. J. Knapp, former president of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Miss Ione Catton.

On the afternoon program are Rev. L. N. Wilson of Fairgrove, Miss Catton, Rev. N. D. Braby of Caro and Rev. Paul J. Allured of Cass City.

Braby of Caro, superintendent of Young People's division; Mrs. Arthur Tonkin of Fairgrove, superintendent of Children's division; Rev. Paul J. Allured of Cass City, superintendent of the Adult division; Rev. B. H. Taylor of Caro, superintendent of General Education division.

INSTALLATION WITNESSED BY MANY

A large number attended the installation ceremonies of Echo Chapter, No. 337, Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday night in Masonic Hall. Mrs. S. B. Young was the installing officer and was assisted by Mrs. E. L. Heller as marshal. Music was furnished throughout the evening by Mrs. A. H. Higgins and Mrs. E. L. Heller. The installing officers were presented with rose buds and the officers elect with carnations, except the star points, who were given bouquets appropriate to their stations. Guests were present from Bethany Chapter, Unionville, and from Uby Chapter. At the end of the meeting, J. H. Bohnsack, retiring worthy matron, was presented with a past worthy matron's pin and Mrs. Young was presented with an electric bedroom lamp. A pot luck supper was served. The officers installed were: worthy matron, Mrs. Mason Wilson; worthy patron, Charles Mudge; associate matron, Mrs. George McArthur; associate patron, George McArthur, conductress, Mrs. Alex. Henry; associate conductress, Mrs. Clara Folkert; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. George West; chaplain, Mrs. Zuleika Stafford; marshal, Mrs. J. H. Michigan Happenings

One employe of the Genesee County Road Commission was killed and three others injured in a grade crossing accident at Flint. Albert Murphy, 40 years old, who lived near Flint, jumped when he saw that a truck on which he was riding was about to be struck by a Grand Trunk freight train at the South Saginaw crossing. He leaped directly in front of the train. George Magle, 62, of Genesee; Frank Jones, 35, of Clinton, and Clyde Evans of Flint, were cut and bruised. Charles Gooding, driver of the truck, was uninjured.

Buried under an avalanche of gravel after falling down the slope of a gravel pit 100 feet deep at Otisville, George E. Gilson, 24 years old, father of four young children, was fatally injured. Gilson, according to fellow employes at the gravel pit, was standing at the edge of the pit when the bank caved and hurled him down the side of the slope. The cascading gravel buried Gilson. His co-workers dug for 10 minutes to remove the gravel from his body.

An increase in power for the Michigan State College radio broadcasting station from 500 to 1,000 watts has been granted by the Federal Radio Commission, according to word received at East Lansing. The station still is limited to daylight broadcasting. Now it will be possible to reach virtually all Michigan farmers with the noon hour programs featuring market quotations and weather reports.

A quarter mile of 1 1/2 inch gill net was lifted by Game Warden Henry Fike in Lake Charlevoix near Ironton. The net contained whitefish, lake trout, brook trout, rainbow trout, perch, herring and bass. This is the third net found in Lake Charlevoix in one week. Harold Hallett hooked the net while trolling for mackinaw trout. Lake Charlevoix is an inland water and closed to netting.

Donald Doak, Sturgis grade school student, has been cited for bravery decoration, the result of saving the life of Edward Ankeny, 24, Sturgis, whom Doak snatched from the path of a fast-traveling car here several weeks ago. H. O. Rounds, director of traffic and safety, Detroit Automobile Club, will present the youthful hero with a medal at a special ceremony in the lad's school at Sturgis.

Fred F. McEachron's bill providing for the establishment of branch offices of the secretary of state for the distribution of automobile license plates, was passed by the Senate at Lansing and now goes to the Governor. The bill provides that one such office must be established in every county seat and one in each city having a population of 10,000 or more.

Eighteen children survive George Kerr, 75, who fell dead on his farm near Lowell. Death was caused by apoplexy while Kerr was participating in the celebration of his wife's fifty-fifth birthday. Among the 18 living children of 21 born to the couple is Jimmy Kerr, who recently won the amateur lightweight boxing championship in Boston.

Another producer was added to the Mt. Pleasant oil field when the Leonard well No. 1, in Chippewa Township, Isabella County, came in with a flow of oil. Drillers said they could not estimate the capacity of the well. Leonard No. 1 came in from the Dundee formation, below the 3,500-foot level. The well is owned by the Leonard Oil Co.

Rep. Joseph C. Armstrong's bill making an appropriation for the employment of a radio engineer to administer to the radio act of 1927, has been passed by the House at Lansing. The particular duty of the engineer would be to battle interference with radio reception. The Senate now gets the bill.

Henry, O'Neil, 21, Lano, Ark., was killed near Muskegon when his auto was sideswiped by a truck driven by Roy Umlor, Cadillac. Both auto and truck were overturned. Umlor was uninjured.

Dr. Gustav Moll, 60 years old, an inmate of the Monroe County poor farm, drowned himself in the River Raisin. His body was found in five feet of water.

Effective May 1, the name of the Orion (Mich.) postoffice will be changed to Lake Orion, Mich. Postmaster O. J. Benaway, has announced.

Earl Douthett, 13-year-old son of L. Douthett, who lives four miles west of Mason, was killed, when he was thrown from a pony. His foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged. His neck was broken. The family moved there from Webberville in November.

Fire destroyed three huge barns on the Steffens farm, east of Fraser, a village near Mt. Clemens. The loss, estimated at $10,000, is only partially covered by insurance.

William P. Rutledge, Detroit police commissioner, and Lieutenant Donald S. Leonard, of the state police, with a delegation of law enforcement officers, appeared before the ways and means committee of the house at Lansing recently, in behalf of the bill which would allow the state to build radio stations for police purposes. The bill, offered by Representative H. Earl McNitt, of Cadillac, is designed to facilitate police work by informing law enforcement agencies of crimes committed.

Daily trips by air over the scenic parts of the Lower Peninsula and week-end trips to the Upper Peninsula, night flying and a flying school are among the services to be added by the Hammond Flying Service, which operates a flying field north of Owosso. Many Owosso business and professional men whose families spend the summer in the northern part of the state are expected to take advantage of the service to visit them over the week-ends.

Three small children of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy M. Curran, of Kalamazoo, and a maid whose name is not known, were burned to death when the Curran home was destroyed by fire. Curran barely escaped the flames when he rushed from the home for help. Mrs. Curran was in the New Borgess Hospital, undergoing treatment for a severe cold. The father collapsed at the scene of the fire and had to be taken to the home of a cousin nearby.

The Senate at Lansing has passed Rep. Milton R. Palmer's bill, creating a State Board of Aeronautics of five members to be appointed by the Governor for terms of four years. The board would have general supervision and control over all airports and landing fields, used for commercial purposes, and all State, county and municipal airports and schools of aviation. The bill has been passed by the House.

Abandonment of the Hillman branch of the Detroit & Mackinac railway, extending about 13 miles from Emerson in Alpena county to Hillman in Montmorency county, has been authorized by the interstate commerce commission at Washington in spite of opposition from a number of residents of that territory. The I. C. C. finds the traffic is insufficient to support a railroad.

Townships may acquire airplane landing fields, under the provisions of a bill introduced at Lansing by Rep. James E. Lawson, of Royal Oak, and passed by the Senate. The bill previously had passed the House. Authority is given for acquiring such fields only by cities, villages and counties at present.

Resources of 580 State banks and 10 industrial banks are $1,550,653,413 while 23 trust companies have total resources of $217,363,077, according to a report by the State banking commissioner at Lansing. Commercial deposits increased $22,098,233 last month, the report shows. Savings accounts increased $43,213,160.

Mrs. C. E. Chapin, of Diamond Lake, Mich., narrowly escaped being burned to death when a car driven by E. W. Tatum, of Grand Rapids, overturned in a ditch near Englishville and caught fire. It was necessary to cut a hole in the top of the car to rescue her. She is in a Grand Rapids hospital.

Rejecting a proposal that the electric chair for murderers be set up at Jackson prison without delay, the state senate at Lansing by a vote of 21 to 10 decided to submit the question of desirability of capital punishment to the electorate of the state at the general election in November, 1930.

A pin scratch on the face which developed an infection, cost the life of Miss Florence Stiles, 20 years old, in the St. Mary's Hospital at Grand Rapids. Miss Stiles, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Stiles, was home on her spring vacation from the University of Michigan.

While members of his family were attending church, Jay Smith, 48 years old, prominent farmer living three miles south of Jackson, ended his life with a shotgun. Ill health is believed to have been the contributing cause.

Lavenne Sampier, 15-year old Pearl Beach boy, was shot and killed when a rifle which was being cleaned by his chum, Thomas Avers, of the same age, was discharged. The boys did not know the rifle was loaded.

Prospects for a good wheat crop in Monroe county are declared to be the best in many years. As a rule it wheat looks good early in April, the farmers look forward to a banner crop.

Mrs. Henry Plummer, 58, of Houghton Lake, who had been visiting relatives at Owosso, died of a heart attack in an automobile at Elsie. She had gone to Elsie with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Skutt, for the ride, and was stricken just as she arrived there.

THE WEEK IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Concluded from first page.

A special commission appointed last year by Governor Green was passed by the Senate Thursday, after having been pretty well clawed to pieces by election committees. The most important feature of the bill provides for a perpetual registration of all voters, with state-wide application, and it also allows for recounts on primary elections, with a host of minor changes. The bill will come up in the House next week.

The divorce bill is expected to be impeded in its grist by the Harnly bill which passed the House Thursday. The bill provides for an interlocutory decree under which remarriage under one year would be barred. The introducer claims the courts hold that this year of elapsed time would result in many tangles being unraveled and the warring couples would again decide to scrap it out outside of the courts. Another important bill introduced by Rep. Harnly eliminates insanity as a defense in criminal cases on trial in courts. Instead of leaving the question of sanity to be decided by the jury, this bill would have it decided before the trial by specialists to be appointed by the court.

The aviation bill introduced by Rep. Claud Millman, providing that all pilots must be licensed by the state, passed the House Thursday, one of a number of aviation bills sponsored by

HOLBROOK.

There is war again over medical bills. Governor Green Saturday vetoed the chiropractor bill providing for examination and licensing of chiropractors by a state board of chiropractic examiners. The bill had passed both houses. The veto came as a surprise to friends of the bill, who are now trying to figure out whether to try to pass the bill over the governor's veto or to endeavor to kill the other medical bills now being held in committee. The war is likely to break into action early the coming week, as all factions are stirring things up in great shape.

Governor Green also vetoed the bill which would have allowed townships to determine for themselves whether they should have the privilege of electing township treasurers for more than two terms.

The McEachron bill providing that branch offices shall be established for the sale of license plates in all county seats and in all cities of more than 10,000 population has passed both houses.

A joint resolution introduced by Rep. Gillett, proposing a constitutional amendment to permit appointment of circuit judges by the governor in case a vacancy occurs, instead of calling an election, was killed in the House, failing to receive the required number of votes.

The Jahnke bill permitting 15-round championship boxing exhibitions has passed the House, the vote being 53 to 30.

The budget bill, which is one of the vital features of the session was now goes to the House for consideration. With this matter disposed of, adjournment by May 4 is thought to be possible.

The repeal of the 5-day marriage law, proposed in a bill by Rep. Darin of Detroit, was killed in the House Monday night.

A house measure providing for a state board of aeronautics, to serve without pay, was approved by the Senate and will undoubtedly be signed by the governor.

Senator Campbell's bill requiring all automobiles to come to a full stop before entering a trunk line highway, to report all accidents involving personal injuries, to police officers within 48 hours and to regulate signal devices, was passed by the House Monday night.

Rep. John Gillett's bill providing for reapportionment, to add 20 new members to the House, to limit Wayne county to 20% of the House membership, was a football in the House Tuesday evening. Rep. Culver said he would agree to the provision limiting Wayne county's representation to one-fifth if Wayne could be exempted from paying more than one-fifth of the state taxes. Rep. Netting wanted to know where Mr. Gillett proposed to enlarge the state house to accommodate the additional members and Rep. Campbell wanted to know whether representation was to be on a basis of the number of citizens or the number of jack pines. However, the bill goes to third reading.

Rep. Johnson sponsors a bill prohibiting advertisements in newspapers, magazines or on bill boards depicting the use of cigarettes by females.

Rep. Culver's biennial whipping post bill is again up for consideration in the House. Mr. Culver claims that in Canada it is proving a great deterrent against crime, as it also is in Delaware, which has a flogging law.

The Senate Thursday decisively defeated Sen. Lennon's cigarette tax bill, which proposed a tax of $1.00 a thousand on cigarettes, and which Mr. Lennon claimed would produce a revenue of $3,500,000. The vote was 19 to 12.

Women lobbyists were given a lashing in the Senate Wednesday by Sen. Rushton, who told them they should "Be home learning to cook, washing dishes and caring for their children." Got to hand it to Senator Rushton for sheer bravery. It takes a lot of nerve to talk like that to a bunch of women. Try it out on one and see how you come out.

The garnishment bill, which has been a bone of controversy in the House ever since its passage in the Senate, went down to defeat Wednesday, the vote being 39 ayes and 48 nays. The bill was referred to the judiciary committee, which is probably its morgue, although there are threats that it may come out again with amendments which will make it more acceptable to its enemies.

Rep. McNitt's bill providing a state radio station at East Lansing for exclusive police use meets with approval in the House and has the approval of police officials throughout the state, and it is pointed out that radio is being successfully used in Wayne county and that Pennsylvania is now establishing a state broadcasting station.

Congressman Grant Hudson protests that an item in our letter of recent date which stated that Senator Hansser scored him in the senate chamber for voting against a tariff increase on sugar from Cuba and the Philippines was incorrect. Mr. Hudson says "I did not vote against a tariff increase on sugar nor did I make such a statement, as no such bill has as yet been before Congress. In the second place, I stated that I should vote for a tariff on sugar, but that I was opposed to a limitation on the amount of sugar which might come in from the Philippine Islands, for the reason that such Islands were under the American flag." We are glad to make this correction.

A birthday surprise party was held on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Moss in honor of Virginia's 14th birthday. A large number of young people enjoyed the games and refreshments, which were served at midnight.

Miss Evelyn Bailey, who has been employed in Detroit the past six months, has returned to her home for the summer.

Clark Jackson and Gerald Simkins were Sunday visitors at the Arthur Ballard home.

Muriel Shagena has purchased a new Ford coupe.

Wm. Wilkinson, who visited with George Jackson in Cass City last week while taking treatments from a doctor, has returned to his home, his condition somewhat improved.

Mr. Holder of Pontiac and Mrs. Richard Raage and daughter, Ina, are visiting relatives in Canada.

Mrs. Lord and son, Charles, are leaving the Kate Thompson farm and are moving onto the John Frantz farm near Uby.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trathen were Saturday night visitors at the home of Albert Hill.

Advertise it in the Chronicle.

Special Honor
The courtesy of the port is extended to foreign diplomats, some consular officers, some distinguished foreign visitors and to members of executive departments who have been abroad on official business. This courtesy is requested by the State department of the Treasury department. The term means that the person to whom this courtesy is extended is permitted to enter without paying duty.

Irregular Fighters
"Foreign Legion" is often used for irregular volunteer corps of foreign sympathizers raised by states at war, often by smaller states fighting for independence. The term "Foreign Legion" is colloquially but incorrectly applied today to the Regimental Etrangers in the French service, which are composed of adventurous spirits of all nations, and which have been employed in many arduous colonial campaigns.

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK.

The first week in May is appointed as "National Music Week." The people never get any too much music, and any city or town that observes this occasion by an interesting program will make itself attractive.

Music is one of the greatest transforming powers of human nature. It will take weary and dispirited people and brighten them up and make them feel that the world is a pretty good place after all.

When you interest your young people in music, you give them an object in life that holds many of them steady at an age when they are inclined to break loose in fantastic projects.

Many people will not be able to understand the point of view of Marian Talley, famous opera star, who recently announced that she was going to give up the operatic career in which she has had such brilliant triumphs.

Many girls in simple circumstances are dreaming of some public career like Miss Talley's and would wear themselves out in the effort for such success if there was any chance for them.

Yet according to the talk of the philosophers, we ought all of us to enjoy these simple tasks and surroundings. They would say that success in any artistic profession calls for physical and nervous strain that breaks down many people.

People obtain the greatest happiness from doing the things that interest them most and which they do particularly well.

Miss Talley will conclude after a few years, that she would find more satisfaction in developing her wonderful gift as a singer, and perfecting herself in the operatic art.

But if developing a fine dairy farm really interests her more, she shows good judgment and will find greater happiness, to work along the line of this ambition, even if it does not produce the same big money rewards that she can so easily gain from her opera singing.

Almost any dog nowadays knows better than to try to cross a road or a street until he has made sure no automobiles are coming.

Even the rabbits that used to promenade along the country roads in horse-and-buggy days have learned that automobiles are apt to catch them unawares, and discreetly keep well to the side of the road until the way is clear.

But some motorists have not yet learned that a train can do more damage to an automobile, and everybody in it, than an automobile can do to a venturesome pup or an unsophisticated rabbit.

They believe it's always the other fellow that gets hit. They drive carelessly over a crossing, laughing and talking, thinking about anything in the world but the chance that a train may be coming.

All too often it happens that a train IS coming and the careless motorist looks up to see the great bulk of the locomotive bearing down upon him; realizes, perhaps, he has taken one chance too many; that he hasn't used the sense God gave him to keep him out of just such danger.

Refreshments were served.

One of the most delightful events of the school year was that held Friday evening when the sophomores entertained the freshmen in the school auditorium. The party was the result of Freshmen Day, February 14, when the freshmen obeyed all the rules laid down by the sophomores. As an entrance ticket, each guest was asked to hand in a poem of at least four lines. Many of these were very humorous. An amusing program was given by members of the sophomore class. Various games were played and salad, sandwiches and hot chocolate were served.

Twelve teachers of the Cass City schools attended the Thumb Round Table meeting at Caro Wednesday evening. At the banquet served at the Episcopal church, Frank Robinson, head of the commercial department at the Mt. Pleasant Normal College, gave an address before the 130 school instructors in attendance. His subject was "A Forward Look into the Future." Mr. Robinson came in place of Webster Pearce, superintendent of public instruction, who could not fill his engagement owing to Mr. Pearce being in conference with Governor Green at Lansing regarding the Turner bill recently passed by the state legislature.

The Detroit Review Club held its annual luncheon Monday noon in the ball room of the Statler hotel. The speaker was Miss Fern Stevenson, who told of her trip through Northern Europe as dramatic director of a group of students from the Pocono People's College in the Pennsylvania mountains. Miss Stevenson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stevenson, former residents of Cass City and now of Vassar. She is a graduate of Vassar High School, having then attended Alma College and afterwards taught in the Vassar High School for a number of years. acknowledged by all, regardless of their political views, of being very efficient and accommodating. He resigned from that office in 1889, and took a four months' prospecting trip in the West, through Kansas, Colorado, Utah, and Montana. On his return, he accepted a position in the auditor general's office at Lansing which he filled for two years. Mrs. Farrar passed away in 1898.

Mr. Farrar was a successful and popular manager of hotels at Cass City, Pigeon, Bad Axe, Bay Port and Point of Pines, Port Austin. At these places he made and retained many friends. He retired from business in 1916.

Mr. Farrar married Miss Esther Butters thirty years ago. She passed away Feb. 25, 1928.

At the time of his death, Mr. Farrar was a member of the board of managers and secretary of the Michigan Soldiers' Home at Grand Rapids. He had been active in this work for eight years. He was vice president and a director of the Mayes Bros. Tool Manufacturing Co., and was president of the village of Port Austin for many years. He attended a board meeting Tuesday evening preceding his death, where he discussed village matters with John Pittswood and reviewed plans for improvements.

Funeral services were held at one o'clock on Tuesday at the residence at Port Austin, Rev. Wm. Firth, pastor of the M. E. church officiating, assisted by Rev. Wood. Burial was in Elkland cemetery at Cass City. The veterans of the World War and the Spanish War performed the burial rites. Taps were sounded and gun salutes given. Two Civil War veterans of Port Austin, men past 90 years of age, accompanied his remains to the resting place. The American flag which covered his bier, that had been in Mr. Farrar's possession over 35 years, was at this time presented by Mr. Farrar's only heir, Clinton Farrar Jackson, of Flint, to the soldier boys of Port Austin. Major Don Ingraham, Fred M. Boylon and O. E. Kilstrom, members of the board of the Soldiers' Home, attended the funeral.

Mr. Farrar is survived by one grandson, Clinton F. Jackson, and one great granddaughter, baby Patricia Ann Jackson, of Flint and his stepdaughters, Mrs. Edith Leipprandt of Detroit and Mrs. Cora Purdy of Gagetown, and a wide circle of friends gained through his never-failing courtesy and cheerfulness.

STATE MOURNS DEATH OF A LEADING EDUCATOR

matr's publication. Rejoining the Ferris faculty, he became vice-president of the institute and served in that capacity until the death of Senator Ferris. He then became president, succeeding Senator Ferris.

In 1926 he ran for lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket and for a number of years was an active dry worker in the state. Mr. Masselink was a member of the Masonic order and an elder of the Presbyterian church of Big Rapids.

Over a quarter of a century ago Mr. Masselink founded a Sunday school class for Ferris institute students that still meets at noon every Sunday, and up to the time of Mr. Masselink's illness had had no other teacher.

In later years he stood fast by the Democratic party, but earlier he allied himself with the prohibitionists, in 1910 having been a nominee for lieutenant governor on that ticket. He began work actively in 1901 in the cause of local option and prohibition until the state and nation went dry.

In 1913 and 1915 Mr. Masselink was candidate for superintendent of public instruction on the National Progressive or Bull Moose ticket. In 1912 and 1914 he took part in the Ferris Democratic campaigns for governor. He ran as lieutenant governor when William A. Comstock was Democratic nominee in 1926.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lavina MacArthur Masselink, whom he married in 1897; two sons, Lawrence Masselink, a Detroit attorney, and Dr. Rollo Masselink, a member of the University of Michigan faculty; a daughter, Mrs. George Wright, of Detroit; four brothers, Dr. Henry Masselink, Zeeland, Mich.; Dr. John Masselink, Kalamazoo; Dr. B. H. Masselink, Grand Rapids; and three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Freeman and Mrs. Henry Meuse, both of Hudsonville, Mich., and Mrs. Jennie Lubbers, of Orange City, Ia.

ALFALFA SEED ADDS TO FARMERS' INCOME

Michigan Farmers Grow Good Crops of Seed from Hardy Alfalfa Varieties.

While the production of alfalfa seed is one of the latest sources of income for Michigan farmers, the increase in the number of bushels harvested last year, as reported to the farm crops department at Michigan State College, show that this crop will be of major importance in a few years.

The largest amount of seed is grown in the Thumb district at the present time but other sections, particularly in the northern part of the state, appear to be well adapted for the production of excellent crops of alfalfa seed.

Michigan grown seed has ranked high in hay production tests on the college experimental plots, and the varieties which mature seed in this state are well adapted to Michigan climatic conditions. Seed which is grown in southern states or which is imported from some foreign countries will not survive severe winters.

Several Michigan growers secured crops of more than five bushels to the acre, and the average yield of the fields which were certified by the Michigan Crop Improvement Association was 3.4 bushels per acre for Hardigan and 2.9 bushels for Grimm.

Michigan growers of alfalfa seed find ready market for their crop, most of it being purchased by neighbors who wish to avoid the introduction of weed species which are sometimes found in alfalfa seed from other sections.

CASEVILLE VETERAN GETS PENSION AFTER 65 YEARS

Sixty-five years after he fought in both navy and army during the Civil War and following 20 years of effort George Henry, 89, of Lake township, Huron county, received his first pension, $8,300. The government check was received by Mr. Henry recently and covered pension due over a long period of years.

For many years Mr. Henry never thought about a pension. He was a prosperous farmer and didn't need the money. It was only after he had lost thousands of dollars in stock purchases and had loans that he felt the need of the pension provided by the government for ex-soldiers.

It seems to be easier to stay married on $3,000 than on $30,000. The annual reports that the fruit is all killed are just about due here at the office. Get the most out of your early pasture. Supply your herd with the milk making materials, by feeding Cow Chow and Bulky-Las. It's cheaper to feed a little Purina now than to wait for a slump, and try to bring them back. Think it over. There's quite a trick in raising a nice lot of Chickens. So many die from disease and exposure. But a Buckeye or Newtown brooder saves a whole lot of chicks that would otherwise die. This is also the time of year when your feet begin to hurt. Miles Dodge bought a Newtown brooder stove this week. They cost a little more and are worth every cent of it. When you dump a sack of Cream of Wheat flour in your flour bin, you're dumping a sack of real baking flour. More and more Cass City women are using Cream of Wheat flour for their baking. Here Comes the Bride! What a joyful moment it is, when the organ sounds the first chords of a wedding march! Every heart is filled with tenderness, as the bride and groom take their place before love's altar. It is the right of every girl to have her wedding beautiful and "correct" in every detail. The young lady in your family is expecting that kind of a ceremony—some day. Until she wishes to make it known, the date must be a secret most precious. But when it is announced, she will be just as particular about having that done properly as about the flowers in her bridal bouquet. When Wedding Invitations and Announcements are entrusted to this office, you may rest assured of three things: Whether printed or engraved, they will be quite in harmony with what you consider best. Their cost will both surprise and please you. And as for keeping a secret—why, even "the lucky man" himself could not bribe us to tell him when it will happen! Cass City Chronicle

CORRESPONDENCE FROM SANILAC COUNTY

The last of the trio alleged to have attempted the holdup of the Argyle bank, which resulted in the shooting of W. Henry Prentiss, cashier, on the night of Oct. 31 has been sentenced in Pennsylvania.

Word received at Sandusky this week stated that Rita Doran alias Mrs. Rose Lewis had been sentenced for highway robbery and kidnapping a state trooper. Wilbur J. Cole and Edward Touhey, two male members of the gang that visited Prentiss' home are serving long terms in an Ohio penitentiary. Cole confessed before being sentenced in Ohio for bank robbery, and implicated Touhey as a member of the Argyle party. Later Touhey implicated Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. Lewis is said to be the member of the bandit trio that prepared breakfast in the Prentiss home, while her companions sought to get the combination to the bank vault from Prentiss.

Custer school district No. 4 has approved the issuance of $4,500 worth of bonds for the construction of a new schoolhouse to be located on the same site as the present Bolesby school.

Plans for erection of a modern structure have been received from the state department of public instruction. Contracts for construction will be asked soon, and building will begin as soon as school adjourns for summer vacation. The building will be in readiness for opening in September.

Bonds to be issued will fall due in $500 lots Apr. 1 of each year over a nine year period.

C. F. Gates, Sandusky attorney, was awarded settlement of $8,850 in attorney fees in Detroit this week in his suit against George W. Dickinson, former state fair board member.

Gates brought suit for $40,000 claimed due for legal services performed. Attorneys agreed on a settlement following completion of testimony.

Four persons were injured last Sunday near Minden City in the first near fatal automobile accident of the spring. Cars driven by Arthur McClure of Detroit and W. R. Hout, Millington, collided head on after skidding in soft gravel. McClure was taken to Detroit with internal injuries.

Dr. Edward Meyer, 59, pioneer physician of Carsonville died in Detroit last Friday after a short illness. Funeral services were held Sunday in Carsonville in charge of the Port Sanilac Masonic lodge, and burial was in the Washington cemetery. Dr. Meyer practiced in Carsonville for 37 years, and was one of the best known and respected physicians in Sanilac.

Construction of Black river drain will begin within a month following award of section two of the project at a meeting of the drainage board last Friday.

Section two, which was withheld from award a week ago was awarded to Carl Erickson of Pinconning for a price of $53,890. Erickson agreed to accept the contract for that figure, which was submitted by Nelson J. Cole and Son of Springfield, Ohio. On rejection of Cole's bid, Erickson agreed to accept at that figure.

Section one construction was awarded to Bernard Curtis and company of Minneapolis for a price of $65,000. A. N. Carley, Sandusky will do the concrete work for $20,850, and the Yaeger Bridge and Culvert company will furnish steel for bridges for $41,848. Total cost of the drain will be $181,086.

The city of Sandusky started action this week at a special meeting of the city council towards a sewage disposal plant ordered some time ago by the state.

W. C. Hirm of Detroit, engineer in charge of preliminary survey submitted a report to the council Monday night in which it was recommended that an Imhoff tank with trickling filter be used. This system was recommended after a study of systems suitable for disposing of milk waste sewage in addition to regular sewage. Estimated cost of the plant is $31,000.

Apportionment of the cost between the city at large and the Sandusky Milk Products company will be determined at a meeting of milk company officials to be held Monday night. The proposed site for locating the plant would be one-quarter mile north and one-quarter mile east of the intersection of Elk and Sanilac avenues. The outlet of the plant would be in the Stone drain located one-half mile north of town. A bypass would be installed to take care of flood waters. Arrangements for a bond issue to be submitted soon will be made as soon as apportionment of cost is determined.

As new and different now as it was when introduced

Recall the scene. A New Oakland All-American Six. Making its bow to the public. And now you see it here . . . there . . . everywhere you go. Other cars have appeared in bewildering succession. But the distinction of the All-American continues . . . unaffected. It's as new and refreshingly different today as it was when introduced. Like a good friend . . . it grows on you . . . impressing you more favorably with every passing week. The better you know it the more you will respect the New Oakland All-American Six.

Prices $1145 to $1375, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Spring covers and Lowley Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers and rear fender guards extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list price when comparing automobile values.

ONE COW VS. ONE DOZEN

"Why milk twelve poor cows when one good cow will do the work of the twelve?" asks the bulletin of the American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission. It declares that analysis of more than 100,000 individual yearly records from cows on test in dairy herd improvement associations indicate that on the average: Cows that produced 100 lbs. butterfat a year returned $14 each over feed cost;

Cows that produced 200 lbs. butterfat a year returned $54 each over feed cost;

Cows that produced 300 lbs. butterfat a year returned $96 each over feed cost;

Cows that produced 400 lbs. butterfat a year returned $138 each over feed cost;

Cows that produced 500 lbs. butterfat a year returned $178 each over feed cost;

In other words, one 500-pound producer will return $10 more over feed cost than twelve 100 lb. producers. This does not take into account, either, the added labor of milking and caring for the larger herd, or the much greater expense of providing stable room for a dozen instead of a single animal. The figures are based on farm prices from all parts of the country.

Have Definite Purpose

Every-day folks may lack the element of greatness that is necessary for great world movements, but how much better it is to choose a purpose within one's powers and accomplish it than it is to drift down the river of life, arriving nowhere and doing nothing.—Exchange

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

Christ the Vine, We the Branches.

John 15:1, 2, 4, 5. I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. 2. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. 4. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. 5. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.

Prayer: Oh thou source of Life and Truth, In These we live, move and have our being.

Food Requisite

The most important mineral substances required in food are the salts of iron, iodine, phosphorus, calcium (lime), manganese, potash and soda. Iron is required for the blood. The red coloring matter, largely composed of iron contained in the red corpuscles, carries the oxygen taken in by the lungs all over the body.

Puzzlin', this language of ours. A bibliophile is a bookworm, but a piscator or angler is not a fishworm. This choice bit of information I gathered from the dictionary while looking up another word. Some of the most interesting bits of information in the dictionary are found while not looking for them.—Portland Oregonian.

Plagues Navy Men

Navy men have noted with interest the number of expressions the civilians have borrowed from the sea-going world to decorate their language. There is one expression which seems especially to appeal to them. When a landlubber wishes to be emphatic and decisive he describes a situation as "shipshape."

Channel Tunnel Begun

About two and a half miles of the tunnel under the English channel were constructed by 1885, in which year the project was abandoned on military grounds. Three-quarters of a mile was completed on the English side, beginning at Stinkespear cliff, Dover, and one and a half miles on the French side.

Music-lovers were astonished at the announcement of Marion Talley, youngest prima donna ever to win a place at the Metropolitan Opera House New York, that she is to abandon her career and become a farmer.

Wealth in Peat Bogs
The Irish bogs are almost as great in extent as those of Germany. While the latter are from 9 feet to 20 feet deep, the Irish variety often reaches 40 feet. It has been calculated that each acre of bog contains 18-231 tons of peatstuff.

Brain Work Exhausting
Four hours of hard thinking exhausts the tissues as much as ten hours of manual labor.

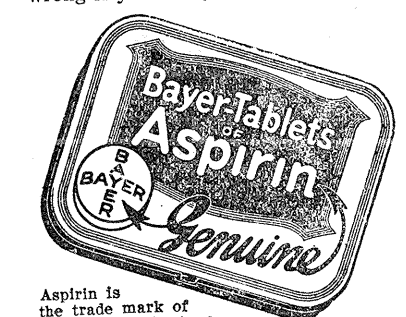

Never Be Without It.
"Baby had a bad cough with each tooth she cut. She is also subject to croup. Our never-failing remedy is Foley's Honey and Tar. It cuts the choking mucus, clears the throat, and stops the bad cough," says Mrs. Agnes Barnes, Altoona, Penna. Contains no opiates, no chloroform, nothing that a careful mother hesitates to give her child. Just the well-known curative virtues of pure pine tar, fresh, clear honey and other valuable cough and tissue healing ingredients. Ask for it. L. I. To Feel Good on Arising!
It is glorious to awake with a lively, healthy, energetic body. It is miserable to drag a stiff, aching, weary body from a restless, sleepless bed. Mr. August Strandell of Sister Bay, Wis., knows. He wrote: "I took Foley Pills diuretic and before long I threw away my crutches, freed of my trouble. A returning twinge sends me back to Foley Pills diuretic and then my troubles clear up at once." NURSES know, and doctors have declared there's nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box:

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

SAME PRESCRIPTION HE WROTE IN 1892

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as today. People lived normal lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings. The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe bowel stimulant. This prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative. It has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds, fevers. At your druggist, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Between You and Me
"Common sense is the most uncommon kind of sense."
By HAROLD BELL WRIGHT

Back Stairs
"There's many a man done got himself lost tryin' to find a short cut to someplace. A fellow has sure got to be dad-burned certain of the neighborhood when he tries to git in the back way."—Preachin' Bill.

I DENY the truth of that old thread-bare maxim, "Where there's a will there's a way." I refuse to accept the assertion of those knowing ones who declare, "There is no such word as can't."

Why, most of us spend half our lives willing to attain ends that are forever beyond our reach. The rest of the time we are finding out the things which we cannot do. Some of us never do find out that for us there is no way to certain things though our wills were strong enough to burn us in a slow fire. And between you and me, that is one reason why so many of us fail to arrive anywhere in particular.

For instance, I know a fine man who stands only about four feet, ten. If will-power could do it that lad would stretch to six feet, at least—he might not be satisfied under seven. But my friend knows there is no way, so he very wisely wastes no strength on the proposition but gives all his attention to making the most of his four feet, ten.

All the will-power in the universe would never have enabled me to sing like Caruso. I was not born with Caruso's singing machinery. Because I discovered this in time, I have wasted no ammunition shooting at that target. The world has not lost a singer because there was no singer there to lose; but I have gained a considerable peace of mind. Do you see?

Now, the chief thing which one cannot do is to accomplish anything like satisfying and enduring success by short-cut, underhand, back-stairs methods.

You remember about the fellow who, "Climbth up some other way." "The same is a thief and a robber."

Yes, I suppose a thief might be a successful thief. One might success-

To have financial success that is real, one must actually own that which one possesses.

It is the person who holds no shares in Life who complains most about scanty dividends.

Make no mistake, you can't bunco Life indefinitely.

fully commit a murder. But you know the kind of success I am discussing. Please don't quibble.

I say, one either walks right up to the front door of the House of Success, rings the bell, and climbs the main stairway to the inner room or, sooner or later, is thrown out for an intruder, a sneak, or a bum.

For instance, no person ever yet climbed to real financial success by the back stairs.

Now, wait a minute!

I do not say that no one ever climbed to large sums of money by the get-rich-quick stairway. But I do say that a fortune so accumulated never in reality belongs to the one who gains it—it still remains the property of those from whom it was taken.

To have financial success that is real, one must actually own that which one possesses. A dollar in your pocket would not necessarily be your dollar; it might be mine. If it were mine the fact that you carried it in your pocket would not make it yours. You might enjoy a certain cheap, uneasy, and momentary thrill by flashing the coin and pretending it was yours. But that would fall far short of what I understand by financial success. And you would soon weary of the attentions you received by such pretense.

When Fear is a guest at the banquet the host does not eat with a hearty appetite. When Dread walks arm in arm with one, Happiness and Contentment are always on the other side of the street. It is a mighty truth that to hold riches which belong to another is not to possess the treasure, but is to be possessed by it.

Yes, "pull" is another back stairway which seems to promise a way into the House of Success. In fact, the almost universal belief that one may quickly and safely sneak up to the inner room by the back stairs of Pull and Influence, is the principal reason why the steps to the front door are never crowded.

The man who, on his way to the main entrance, slips his arm through yours with a cheery, "Going up, brother! Fine! So am I—come along and we will go in together"—well, that is different.

True—One may sometimes gain the second story by the back stairs of Pull. Professional porch climbers accomplish the same end. But no one could, with reason, contend that because the porch climber was in the house he was at home.

One who gains a position by Pull, must of necessity live in uncertainty and be ill at ease—never knowing when the door may be opened to show him out. Such an intruder may snatch a few pieces of silver, or bag a handful of jewels before being forced to vacate, but that is all. To feel comfortably and happily at home in the House of Success, one must be a welcome and an honored guest.

Another thing which cannot be done is to gain a welcome in the House of Success by climbing up the back stairs of Credit.

No, I am not referring to the various methods of paying one's bills from another's bank account. Many people have been fairly successful in having things charged to some one else. But, after all, when you think about it, paying a bill is only an incident in life. I am speaking of life as a whole. I am saying that one cannot accept all the good things which Life offers and have them charged as one would buy a pound of sugar or a new hat, and then dodge the bill forever.

You see, I rather suspect that there is too much watered stock in the average citizen's respectability. I think that is why some of us do not invest more heavily in humanity. When we learn to make common, every-day living worth one hundred cents on the dollar, more of us will believe that there is something in the business.

One who is credited with honesty may sell a phony jewel now and then, but one cannot continue selling glass diamonds and maintain a rating of A-1. However willing we may be to hand out fake living to our fellow-countrymen, there is no way to keep it up indefinitely.

Some even reach the point where they spend the greater part of their religious strength asking for blessings on credit. They beseech the Almighty for things which they know they do not deserve, have no right to expect, and would not rightly use if they got. The rest of the church hour is spent by the preacher giving them advice which he knows they will not follow, and asking them for money he knows they will not give.

Think it over. The person who has nothing invested in Life gets all the returns due him—which are not much. And, as you no doubt have noticed, it is the person who holds no shares in Life who complains most about scanty dividends.

There are some things, you know, which grown-up men do not try to do. Of course, though, some men and a few women never grow up.

A long time ago when we were boys we crawled under the canvas and enjoyed the circus quite as much as if we had paid the half-dollar. But we cannot see Sells Brothers that way now—not if we have grown up. The man who expects to enjoy the realities of life by crawling under the canvas is, to put it mildly, large for his age.

Most of us judge the world by ourselves. The trouble is, we guess wrong as to our own value. We mistake Credit for Capital.

There are too many of these five dollar millionaires—people whose idea of living is to put up a twenty-thousand dollar appearance on an eight-dollar salary. They want Credit, you see, for something which does not exist.

When a man acquires the habit of thinking that the whole scheme of things would go bankrupt if it were not for the nickel's worth which he contributes once in a while, he is trying to live on credit to which he is not entitled. Sooner or later he is sure to overdraw his account.

And have you never heard people pretending to give God the glory when they were in reality only making a loud noise on their own horns? Have you never met the fellow who claims credit for large charities when he is in reality only getting rid of a smooth nickel which he failed to pass on the street car conductor? Well, these are some more of the people who are trying to sneak into the House of Success by way of the back stairs of Credit.

Another of the back stairs kind are the folk who demand fifty dollars' worth of attention for every fifty cents' worth of courtesy. Such short-change artists are bound to hold hazy ideas as to credit.

The one who offers something for nothing is usually a liar. The one who seeks to take advantage of such an offer is at heart either a sharper or a fool—or both.

A person whose living costs nothing, lives just that way. Generally speaking, things cost all they are worth—sometimes more. Free shows are usually worth the price of admission.

Some of us seem always to acknowledge our indebtedness to our fellow-humans with mental reservations. Pay day comes around and when our reservations are subtracted there is nothing left for those we owe but a current expense deficit.

Make no mistake, you can't bunco Life indefinitely.

And never mind if the world sometimes forgets to give the credit which is your due. Be thankful that you are not charged with all that you owe.

No one ever yet gained the inner room in the House of Success by way of the back stairs. The front door is never barred. Better go in that way, or stay out.

First Grade—Spring has come—the frogs have long since croaked, so this week we are studying and making frog booklets, for busywork. The stages of Mr. Frog's life are many. We will begin with the egg life—the pollwog and its development into frog-dom. Billy Spencer has consented to act as our modern Columbus and discover some froggy-marshy spot and secure a cluster of these eggs, so that we can study them first hand. Our work this week, spelling, number work, conversation and penmanship, will savor of froggishness.

Fourth Grade—Mrs. James Crane was a caller in our room on Thursday. Geography is the lesson we are all looking forward to this week. We are named different countries and we have learned all about ourselves. Climate, surface, sea-ports, products, our imports and exports, and now we are ready for international trade. We are doing long division in arithmetic. We have some pretty bright nasturtium blossoms in our window box.

Home Economics—Quick breads are being made by the 7th grade class while the 9th grade and advanced class are working on the contest dresses. The 8th grade will discuss various topics on dress at the W. T. W. meeting, and the 12th grade will make set-in pockets, bound button holes and various finishes.

Eight seniors will present the three-act comedy, "Take My Advice," at the high school auditorium this (Friday) evening.

At a meeting of Richville citizens on April 17, 29 voted in favor of purchasing a fire truck and 13 were in favor of joining with Vassar in the purchase of a fire truck.

The village of Vassar is about to receive bids for the drilling of a ten-inch well. Location of the well will be determined at a later date as there are several good places available.

Henry Frost, aged 69, was found dead sitting at the dining room table in his home at Vassar Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frost had been living in Flint during the winter. He is survived by his widow, two children, Mrs. Earl Marsh and Harold Frost, and two grandchildren, all living at Flint.

Vassar American Legion, Post No. 177, have decided to abandon the drive for an ambulance for Vassar and its territory. The majority of the members thought that the village needs a fire truck and are willing to give up their campaign in favor of the fire protective measure for the time being.

A delegation from Brown City met with State Highway Commissioner Dillman at Lansing to discuss the proposition of improving the eight-mile stretch of road extending from the west end of Brown City to the Marlette road. After a short discussion Mr. Dillman informed the delegation that his department was ready to proceed with the improvement as soon as the Sanilac County road commission voiced its approval.

Orville Jackson is at his home in Burnside recovering from injuries received some time ago when he was struck by a hit-and-run driver on a road near Lapeer. Mr. Jackson had gotten out of his car to clean the headlights when a machine coming from the opposite direction to that in which he was going, struck him and knocked him unconscious.

The Caro village council has voted to buy a new $475 centrifugal pump for use in the waterworks plant at Caro. This pump is to replace one of 50 horse power which is at the end of its usefulness. They also decided to line the big water tank with concrete so the high water, in case of another flood, will not seep through as it did this year. The new pump will have a capacity of 420,000 gallons of water a day.

Two members of the Michigan State Police, from the Bay City division, were in Vassar recently and warned a number of automobile drivers for not having proper lights on their cars.

Slot machines were cleaned up in Sanilac county Monday morning by a county-wide raid of state police. With an apparently well pre-arranged program, the state police in a Hudson car arrived in Sandusky at about 10:00 o'clock and in very brief time had visited half a dozen business places where machines had been in un-molested operation for several years and confiscated the machines. The state police had previously visited Peck and Watertown and went to other towns from Sandusky. The car was seen later passing through Sandusky, loaded with slot machines, some tied on bumpers and running boards.—Republican-Times.

COUNTY GROUPS MARK END OF YEAR'S STUDY

Groups of women in 31 Michigan counties will hold Achievement Days to mark the conclusion of projects in home economics extension, which included the study of clothing, nutrition, home management, and home furnishing.

The groups are organized under the leadership of local leaders in each county and these leaders are instructed by specialists from Michigan State College.

Achievement Day programs include style shows, kitchen tours, plays, dinners and programs of talks. Doctor Caroline Hedger, Chicago, a nationally known speaker on subjects of nutrition, will be on the program in several of the counties. Members of the Michigan State College staff will speak at many of the meetings.

The dates for the meetings are announced as April 24, Berrien county; April 30, St. Clair; May 1, Midland; May 7, Monroe, Eaton, and Huron; May 8, Barry, Sanilac, Branch and Oakland; May 9, Genesee; May 10, Lenawee, Ingham, Ionia, Livingston; and May 14, Washtenaw.

Other dates scheduled for Achievement Days are May 15, Clare; May 16, Isabella; May 17, Calhoun; May 18, Kent; May 22, Wexford; May 23, Charlevoix and Newaygo; May 24, Montcalm and Emmet; May 25, Oceana and Muskegon; May 28, Saginaw and St. Joseph; June 5, Jackson; and June 6, Wayne.

Eaton, Kalamazoo, Bay, and Clinton counties have already completed their home economics projects for the year.

THUMB OF MICHIGAN ASSO. NEWS LETTER

By Ross Mahon.

It may not be good news to some of the people along the shore that we are likely to have still higher water levels this coming summer than we have now.

We have a most peculiar condition of the lake levels this year. The curve of the rise and fall of water for the last sixty-eight years shows annual fluctuations almost as regular as the teeth of a saw, with a maximum water level in July, August and September, and a minimum about 15 inches lower, usually in February, going up again through the spring to the high level again in August.

As everyone along the shore knows, the water level has been rising since its extreme low in the winter of 1925-1926. Last August it was 2 feet higher than it was in the summer of 1926. It reached a maximum in August and went off a little bit. Then instead of keeping on sagging down it came up again to a still higher point in December. It went down a little bit and since that has been coming up again till now it is the highest that it has been since 1922.

Practically the same thing has taken place on Lake Superior, so Lake Superior and all the inland lakes and the millions of acres of land in the Great Lakes drainage basin are full of water, and according to all precedent the level is going to keep on rising from now till August, when, if past records are indications, the level will be from 9 inches to a foot higher than it is at present. It would be well for owners of docks and other shore property to provide for this high level and take precautions accordingly.

Isn't it queer? Three years ago we were complaining about low levels, now some of us complain just as much or more because the water has come back. Hard to suit us all, isn't it?

There seems to be some misunderstanding about this relicited land business. In a syndicate letter sent out from Lansing to the weekly papers regarding legislative matters there was something said about the Atwood bill that was very misleading. It was described as a bill under the terms of which the state would give leases to the relicited land. This is not the tenor of the bill at all.

If this bill passes (and there seems to be no opposition to it) the state will have no claim on the strip between the old meander line and the water's edge. The bill defines the boundary of the upland as at the water's edge and not at the meander line. This will solve the problem of relicited land and put the owners of shore property in the position that they and everyone else have thought they occupied for many years past.

Do you want to do something for The Thumb? You can. You can help bring summer visitors here. How? You have relatives, friends, acquaintances in the central or southern states, people who go somewhere in the summer for a vacation, or send their families away, to get away from the heat.

Why not write to these friends of yours telling about the delightful cool summer climate of the Lake Huron Shore—suggest to them that they can come up here? They can stay in a tourist camp, at a hotel or boarding house, and enjoy the bathing, the cool air, the beauties of the lake shore, the beautiful drives and all the attractions that The Thumb has to offer them. Then they go off on a trip or for a vacation they spend their money somewhere or other. Why not give them the opportunity to spend it in The Thumb?

It's A Tough Road, If Anybody Asks You

Known by Various Names

There are four military terms in use for the flag—flag, color, standard and ensign. Flag is a general term. A color is a flag carried by unmounted units. A standard is a flag carried by mounted or motorized units. An ensign is a flag flown on ships and small boats.

Sailor's Compensation

The sailors of the United States navy during the Eighteenth century received pay that appears ridiculously small compared with that of today. Captains received only $100 a month and seamen received the huge sum of $10. Today seamen's pay is $54 a month.

Wanted Love Gifts Back

Happiness felt by a septuagenarian when he remarried led to an amusing court case at Armagh, Ireland. The old man wanted the return of two goats which he said had been stolen from him, but which he later admitted he had given away in his wedded bliss. The case was dismissed.

IN LOVING MEMORY of my dear husband, Joseph Hack, who died two years ago, April 19, 1927.

Today recalls a memory, Of a loved one gone to rest; And those who think of him today, Are the ones who loved him best. The blow was hard, the shock severe, I little thought his death so near. But only those who loved can tell, The pain of saying a last farewell. The day is sad without him, And nothing seems just right The one I dearly loved so well A heart so kind and light. Friends may think I have forgotten When at times they see me smile, But they little know the heartache, That the smile hides all the while. His loving wife, Mrs. Joseph Hack.

CARD OF THANKS—Words cannot express our thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness during Thelma's operation; also for the fruit and flowers they sent. We also wish to thank the Baptist church for the plant; also Dr. Young, Dr. McCoy and nurses for their kindness. Mrs. Mary Palmer, John, Harry and Sarah.

I WISH to thank my many friends and neighbors, Grant Sunday school and Premo class for flowers, fruit, candy and post cards during my stay at the hospital. Also Dr. McCoy, nurses and Bernice McAlpine. Mildred Reader.

CROWN DENIED ALBION YOUTH BY CROMWELL

From Detroit Free Press. Tragic happenings in seventeenth century England are casting their shadow over the Albion college campus—but the shadow is a pleasant one, tall and full of pep.

But for the activities of Oliver Cromwell, who, in 1649, caused King Charles I. to be beheaded, Frederick Hemerick, of Gageton, a freshman in the Methodist school, would today be the prince of Wales under the Stuart regime. The downfall of Charles I. practically ended the sovereignty of the House of Stuart, although it gave two more kings to the throne. But the family remained, still proud of its traditions.

The Albion student's grandmother was an only child and the last of the Stuarts as far as the name was concerned. She came with her parents to this country and several years later married a man named Hemerick. Their only son, F. D. Hemerick, now lives in Gageton, and but for Cromwell's ambitions would now be king of England. His son is getting a thoroughly American education in Albion and has been occupying himself with studies and with basketball games.

One test of a good prince was put to young Hemerick recently: "Did you ever fall off a horse?" he was asked. And the reply was: "No, but I expect I could."
