will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 7, commencing at eight o'clock. Mrs. A. A. Ricker, the president, will introduce the subject "Christian Citizenship" and will be followed by Guy G. Hill, judge of probate of Tuscola county, who will speak on the theme as it relates to juvenile delinquency and other problems which confront the public today. Mr. Hill informed the program committee that he was willing to lead a discussion on the duty of the state and the community for a more wholesome community life for its children. The committee hopes all present will feel free to present ON THUMB SCHEDULE all present will feel free to present particular problems and ask questions. Musical numbers will be a violin solo by John Day, accompanied by his mother, and a group of two numbers by the sixth grade girls' glee club. Miss Tarnoski will play a violin obligato in the club's numbers. Following the formal program, Mr.

Curtis will conduct a brief social period the P. T. A., as the speaker for the Nov. 4 meeting. She will speak on the program and accomplishments of the society in its national and state work. On Monday, Dec. 2, two subjects will be considered, "The Pre-school Age Child" and "Vocational Guidance." Prof. Misner of the State Normal College at Ypsilanti is expected as the speaker of the evening. In connection with his visit here, he will hold personal interviews with high school puoils and conferences with teachers during the day. January 6 is "Reciprocity Night." While teachers, officers and patrons of surrounding rural schools are always welcome at P. T. A. meetings here, they are especially invited to attend this session. Mrs. A. J. Knapp will prepare the program to be presented by representatives of rural schools of the community and will have general charge of this meeting. "Music" will be the subject of the Feb. 3rd program. Miss Elynore Bigelow, in charge of public school music here, will speak on methods of teaching music and will explain to parents how they may cooperate with her in this line of study. The committee also expects to have Mr. Church, director of music in the North Branch and Brown City schools, as a speaker that evening on the subject, "Musical Training of Children." Turn to page 4.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH STORE ROBBERY

Ignatz Szyszka and Stanley Kuchciak were brought to the Tuscola county jail this week from Jackson by officers of Sheriff McEldowney's department charged with breaking and entering in connection with the robberies of the Berman Dept. Store at Kingston and the Ernest Haas store at Mayville last December.

Both Szyszka and Kuchciak have been confined in Jackson prison, being sent there from Washtenaw county. A new trial on the charge of breaking and entering revealed a lack of evidence and the two men were released from the state prison on probation. On their release, they were apprehended by Tuscola county officers to answer to the charge of being connected with the Berman and Haas store robberies.

Sylvester Swanky pleaded guilty to participating in the robberies of these

CLEAN GROUND IS BEST FOR RANGES

One of Most Important Points in Growing Pullets.

Clean ground for ranging is one of the most important points in the growing of healthy pullets which will become vigorous and profitable layers, it is pointed out by the poultry husbandry department of the Ohio State university.

"A large percentage of the mortality in the growing flock, as well as in the matured laying flock, is caused either directly or indirectly by intes tinal parasites," P. B. Zumbro, poultry specialist, says in a recent extension service publication. "These parasites, as well as many disease germs, are carried over from year to year in the soil."

Zumbro urges that chick ranges be on land on which no other chicks have been raised or old hens ranged. for at least two years. Alfalfa, he says, makes one of the best chick ranges. Clover is almost as good, and blue grass comes next.

"Many poultry men think an alfalfa or clover field is too valuable for rearing chicks. This is a mistake. Poultry grown on good range will give a return equal to that from any live stock, or better. Good results can be obtained by having two or more ranges, and a crop can be grown in the meantime. This method will provide clean range and will enable the owner to have the brooder house near the farmhouse, saving time in going to and from the house. When this method is used, one acre of land should be provided for each 500 chicks."

Wonderful Feats With

Turkeys Are Reported Really wonderful results with turkeys are reported from the Ontario government turkey farm in Norfolk county. Years ago this province used to raise turkeys by the thousands but disease got in and flocks have been diminishing to such an extent that each year thousands of birds are brought in from the West. The disease puzzled people and except where there was unlimited range the raising of turkeys languished. Even in the places where there was plenty of range, such as in the rocky districts on the edge of forest lands, difficulties in the shape of foxes and wolves were encountered. It looked for a while as if there would be practically no turkeys raised in Ontario. But Prof. W. R. Graham took hold of the disease came from the ground and the germs were so hardy that they could live over in the coldest weather. He adopted the plan of feeding everything in troughs and moving these troughs each day and his results have been unusually successful. Losses

Tapeworms have been named as the cause of death of 50 per cent of the chickens in some flocks.

Changing breeds every year has never yet been found a safe foundation for a profitable poultry business.

A month lost in growing out pullets means the loss of a month's production next fall when eggs are a good price. * * *

Any variety of wheat is good for poultry. In fact, small undeveloped shriveled wheat if dry is even better than the fully developed kernel.

The farmer who produces eggs of uniform color, weighing an average of 23 ounces per dozen, and which are held in a cool cellar, can ship to eastern markets by express to advantage.

The profit from the farm flock depends to a large extent on the number of eggs the hens lay.

Hens cannot lay eggs without protein. Skim milk is one of the best forms of protein for use with all classes of poultry.

CASS CITY CHRONICLE

CHAPTER III—With Miriam, Mr. Tolliver leaves for Chicago. Eddy Jackson brings another friend, Alex-ander Murdock, who he says has just returned from a tour of the world, to the parsonage. Ginger, whose heart is set on her two sisters making rich marriages (Helen is engaged to a pro-fessor of mathematics, Horace Lang-ley, poor in the world's goods), is at first elated, but becomes chilled at the announcement that Murdock is work-ing in a "chain" grocery store. Obvious-ly no "catch," Ginger thinks, and snubs him. Mr. Tolliver returns, his eyes unimproved and the doctors giv-ing him little hope. whom you have confidence? When your child is constipated, biltous, has colic, feverish-breath, coatedtongue, or diarrhea, a teaspoonful of genuine "California Fig Syrup" sweetens the stomach and promptly cleans the bowels of poisons, gases, bile, sour-ing food and waste. Never cramps or overacts. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Children love its delicious taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine 'Citifornia Fig Syrup" which has full di-rections for babies and children of all ages, plainly printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

WHAT DR. CALDWELL LEARNED IN 47 YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipa-tion will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for consti-pation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system In a practice of 47 years he Then when Alice sends her dollar to the company, for the four she sold, they send her a solid silver one. Just lovely."

"Did you promise to sell four?" "Yes. I had to. And when I sell them, I send my dollar to the company, and they send me a sterling silver one. Isn't it : cute idea?" "It is like the old chain letter sell four more-"And it all started from one. One, single, solitary, little one."

The girls talked on and on. But Ginger drew herself away from them, sat enwrapped in impenetrable thought. She remembered the old chain letters. They had come with some frequency a few years ago, prayers for almost everything, for the sick, for foreign missions, for prohibition, for fundamentalism, for the second coming of the Lord, for the release of anarchistic prisoners condemned to death-

"And everybody sends it on to so many more, and every one of them sends it to so many more, and they send it-"

Ginger got up suddenly and went out of the room. She walked dizzily. She went upstairs, got the short ladder from the linen closet, and balanced it against the wall under the trapdoor. She noticed that her hands trembled. But she climbed carefully -the ladder was old-pushed up the trapdoor, and pulled herself through the opening. From force of habit, for she was not then thinking of trapdoors, she locked it behind her, and made her way carefully over the beams to her sanctuary under the dormer window. There she sat down heavily, to think. She thought, and thought, and thought, until herb"

Ginger's unfailing resource in an emergency was the daily press. She got the last issue of the Burlington Hawkeye, and studied its columns. Now, theoretically, a chain should start from a single link, but she was not willing to trust the foundation of her fortunes to one small dime which might not be forthcoming.

She decided upon three as a fair start. "Three links are better than one," she said thoughtfully. "And if it starts three chains, so much the better."

When ever she came to the name of a woman mentioned prominently, she put her finger on the place, closed her eyes, and tried to get a vibration about it. Finally the three letters were written, enclosed in envelopes, addressed, and Ginger took them at once to the corner mail box, and put them in.

"Ah," she breathed ecstatically, as she turned back toward the parsonage. Her heart was as light as the wings of a butterfly, it seemed to carry her home. Already the old house looked a new place to her, a rosy place, bright with flowers, fresh paint, new furni-Thousands upon thousands, ture. Helen herself had said it. Thousands upon thousands-

Parents, don't try to do without good old Castoria! It isn't fair to the baby, and it makes things hard for you. You can't give Baby medicine meant for grown-ups—or shouldn't! Castoria is the solution. It is always safe. It al-ways does the work. And although it acts as swiftly as an opiate or a narcotic, it contains neither. Castoria is purely vegetable. Give it whenever there's constipation, colic, diarrhea.

No less than five million modern mothers have come to depend on Cas-toria, for twenty-five million bottles were bought last year! Get yours to day; don't wait for some night when it's needed, and the drugstore is closed!
