GOVERNMENT TRACTORS TO PLOW FARMS HERE

Cass City Grain Co. and Rep. Robertson Secure 12 for Use of Local Farmers.

Through the efforts of the Cass City Grain Co., assisted by E. C. Robertson of Fostoria, representative in the state legislature from Tuscola county, farmers in this community will have the opportunity to secure government tractors for their fall plowing. These were secured from the Federal Farm Board and 12 tractors were shipped from Toledo, Ohio, on Monday. One-half of these will be unloaded at Deford and the remainder at Cass City. It is expected that the tractors will arrive here this week end.

The local organization interested in this project is the Tuscola County Better Farming Association which was formed Monday night with Dan Hennessy of Cass City as president and Geo. McIntyre of Deford as secretary-treasurer.

Farmers desiring to use these tractors are required to pay a $5.00 freight and expense charge and 10 cents an acre as a field man or service charge. For example, if a farmer desires to plow 25 acres, the cost, outside of kerosene and the operator's time, would be $7.50.

Several farmers have already signed up for the tractor service and the prospects are that it will be a popular movement here. Farmers may use the tractors in the order in which they sign up for them, but no farmer is permitted to use a tractor more than four days at a time if there are others on the waiting list.

More information regarding the use of these government tractors may be secured if farmers will consult the Deford or Cass City branches of the Cass City Grain Co.

Because of the illness of Conrad Mueller, Tuscola county drain commissioner, and the fact that two of the special commissioners appointed in Huron county are disqualified, the letting of the Sebewaing River Drain and Branches has been delayed. ## SCORED HIT IN WOMANLESS WEDDING

Actors' Antics Ticked Large Audiences at Home Talent Play Last Week.

Some folks like grand opera, others want jazz. Certain people enjoy the drama, others must have their musical comedies. One class demands high art, another hankers for burlesque, but all of them troop together to the same playhouse when given the opportunity to see and laugh at a home talent show in which 75 men expose themselves in the glare of the footlights to parade and prance in various stages of male, female and infantile dress.

Such was the "Womanless Wedding" sponsored by the Cass City Parent Teachers Association and witnessed at the high school auditorium last Thursday and Friday nights by large audiences which included the wives, sweethearts, children, grandchildren, sisters, cousins and aunts of the fellows on the stage, together with a liberal sprinkling of other friends outside the relationship of the actors. The gross receipts were approximately $550.00.

While the audience laughed, the players suffered, especially those who submitted to female attire. Consider the pain of many feet doubled up in six ladies' shoes; imagine the embarrassment of slipping shoulder straps, sagging silk hose, and other dainty unmentionables; think of the danger of high heels and the torture of scratching ear-rings and tight-fitting wigs. These distressing circumstances emphasized the "manly" fortitude of the lady impersonators.

There were only two rehearsals before the first night's presentation but without question no other home talent play in years has contained so many laughs and so much merriment.

ELKLAND PIONEER ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Mrs. Charlotte Martin Came to Elkland Twp. from Oakland County in 1871.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, a pioneer resident of Elkland township, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Bohnsack, in Cass City, on Wednesday, Oct. 30, at the age of 80 years. She had been ill less than a week. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Bohnsack residence. Rev. M. E. Munger of Saginaw officiated, assisted by Rev. C. W. Lyman of Cass City. Interment was made in Elkland cemetery.

Charlotte Martin was born May 16, 1849, in Highland, Oakland county, Michigan, her parents being Henry and Eunice Bush. On Jan. 1, 1866, she was married to George Martin, who had risked his life for four years in the War of the Rebellion.

She was a woman whose deeds speak loud. Her life was one long sacrifice to her husband and her children. What she sought was not for herself but for them, and their lives speak for her "Who, being dead, yet liveth." She was the product of that pioneer life which has given the nation much of the goodness and greatness that exist today in national life.

After five years on a farm near White Lake, Oakland county, where her three oldest children were born, she followed the wishes of her husband and came with him to a farm in the woods of Elkland township, four miles north of Cass City, and there passed through all the vicissitudes of that pioneer life with which the older members of this community are so well acquainted. She

The debate will be held in the high school auditorium. Cass City Schools will be represented by Joanna Sandham, Bernita Taylor and Horace Piney. This team is coached by Miss Florence Lewis of the high school faculty. Miss Taylor was on the team last season. The other two members had their first experience in this work in a practice debate with a Saginaw team here last evening.

OVER 200 AT P. T. A. MEETING MONDAY

State President, Mrs. J. K. Pettingill, Spoke on "Parent-Teacher Movement."

The Parent Teachers' Association held an enjoyable meeting Monday evening when over 200 met at the high school auditorium and listened to a most profitable program. Musical numbers included two vocal solos, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" by Miss Veda Bixby, accompanied by Mrs. McNamee at the piano, and a piano solo by Miss Eleanor McCallum.

The speaker of the evening, Mrs. J. K. Pettingill of Lansing, state P. T. A. president, took as her subject "Parent-Teacher Movement." Mrs. Pettingill summed up the parent-teacher task in three steps—to know, to do and to be. To know—The parent-teacher people first should know the child, second they should know the community, third, they should know the curriculum. To do—Parent-teachers' tasks should be continuing. Second, they should not overlap. Third, they should center on the child and the school. To be—They must be the things they try to teach their children to be, such as citizenship. She pictured the P. T. A. as a small child with one hand reached out to the parent and the other hand to the teacher and all three climbing. Mrs. Pettingill ended her talk by giving

THIEVES LOOTED UNIONVILLE STORE

Thieves made way with merchandise valued between $400 and $500 from the John Beatenhead general store at Unionville early Tuesday morning, but made no attempt to open the safe. This is the fourth time in five years that thieves have broken into this store.

Officers are investigating the robbery and it is understood they have secured fingerprints and clues that may lead to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for the theft. Entrance was forced by breaking the front door glass of the building. Clothing and provisions composed the loot. In the three previous robberies similar articles were stolen.

22 CHILDREN AT FIRST COMMUNION

During the morning service Sunday at St. Pancratius church, 22 children made their first communion and three converts were taken into the church. At the close of the meeting, all were invited to the recently improved basement of the church where a breakfast was served to a company of 150 people. The basement completed last week has a dining room 15 by 30 feet in size, a kitchen 13 by 20 and a cloak room 15 by 15 feet.

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

The new enrollment of the Boy Scouts already shows 26 members. Several others are coming in. The boy who does not attend the meetings weakens the report of his own patrol. Six boys, with the Scoutmaster, went to the woods and found a very secluded spot in which to erect a wigwam for over-night hikes. The framework was erected, and plans are being laid for a self supporting bridge across the river at this spot.

George Landane, District Boy Scout executive of the Bay City district, and Jack A. Krier, Field Boy Scout executive, attended the Cass City Boy Scout meeting Monday evening at the Baptist church. Both men gave very interesting talks to the boys. The boys are planning to build a wigwam in the woods.

DEFORD COUPLE MARRIED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hicks Have Resided in Novesta Twp. for Forty Years.

Comparatively speaking, it is not given to many to enjoy half a century together as husband and wife. It is a long span of life and those who are permitted to accomplish the journey with the perspective apparently unimpeded for perhaps many milestones of contented, blissful travel, are extremely favored and quite naturally are the subjects of sincere and enthusiastic congratulations on the part of their friends and kinfolk. No more conspicuous an example of such a rare experience has come to the community's notice than that in which Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hicks of Deford were the principal figures. Their arrival at the golden cycle was most happily celebrated on Tuesday, Nov. 5, at the Hicks farm home, 3½ miles southeast of Deford, which is a mile from the place where Mr. and Mrs. Hicks settled when they came to Novesta township 40 years ago. Their son, Archie Hicks, now resides on the farm and in late years his parents have lived in the village of Deford.

The color scheme throughout the spacious rooms of the farm residence was in white and gold for the golden wedding Tuesday. Before a bank of autumn leaves and tall baskets of white and gold chrysanthemums in the living room, the bride and groom of 50 years ago took their places as Mrs. Carless of Kingston played Lohengrin's Wedding March. Here the nuptial vows were again spoken at high noon and the full ring service used. Rev. Carless, pastor of the Deford M. E. church, was the officiating clergyman. Mr. G. N. Loyst, a brother of the bride, who a half century ago, served as best man, again had the honor to be the groomsmen. Mrs. Fred Marriot of Sarnia, Ont., a relative of Mr. Hicks, was bridesmaid. The bride appeared charming in royal blue satin and Irish lace and carried a shower bouquet of gold chrysanthemums. Time has dealt gently with Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and both looked too young to have been married 50 years.

The bride's table in the dining room was made beautiful with a large pyramid wedding cake as a centerpiece. This was done in white and gold and surmounted by two golden doves. Here the bridal party was seated at one o'clock, while guests were placed at small tables throughout the rooms. An elaborate four-course luncheon was served by three daughters and six daughters-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and the dexterity and facility of the servers brought out many expressions of laudation from the guests.

Robert Brown presided as chairman at a short program following the

GREAT INTEREST IN W. C. T. U. MEET

Mrs. Bell M. Waters of Lum Re-elected President of Seventh District Union.

When the 49th annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the seventh district opened Wednesday, Oct. 30, for a two-day session in the Caro M. E. church, a good interest was shown by the large attendance. The church was made beautiful for the occasion by ferns and flowers.

Mrs. Bell M. Waters of Lum, district president, presided in a pleasing manner. Interesting talks, reports of directors, and demonstrations were given. A discussion of narcotics from the viewpoint of a physician was led by Dr. Geo. Bates of Kingston; of an educator, by County School Commissioner B. H. McComb; of a preacher, by Rev. H. W. Kuhlman of the Caro M. E. church, and an address on "The Unprivileged Child" was given by Dr. R. L. Dixon of the Michigan Farm Colony. All held the close attention of the audience, Mrs. Stella B. ## CASS CITY DEFEATED HURON CO. CHAMPS

Edgerton Intercepted Two H. B. Passes and Planks Down Two Scores.

Cass City defeated Harbor Beach, Huron County champs, here Friday by a 19-0 score, dumping the Huron county team from the leading position in the Upper Thumb Athletic Association.

By virtue of this win, the locals go into a tie with Caro for the leadership.

Cass City kicked off and a Harbor Beach fumble gave them the ball in mid-field. Going off tackle and around end, the ball was advanced to the 20-yard line and Gowen raced around the left end to register the first score. Edgerton's place kick for extra point was blocked. Score, Cass City 6, Harbor Beach 0.

Harbor Beach received and carried the ball well past mid-field on a flat zone pass that the locals could not stop. With the Beachers passing from Cass City's 20 yard line to start the second quarter, Edgerton picked off a flat pass and romped 85 yards to score the second touchdown. Reagh plunged for the point. Score, Cass City 13, Harbor Beach 0.

Harbor Beach, tried another pass late in this quarter. Edgerton again intercepted a wide pass and ran, this time 60 yards, for his second score. Gowen's place kick for the point was again low. Score, Cass City 19, Harbor Beach 0.

Harbor Beach tried desperately to overcome this lead in the second half but always were halted before getting across the double stripe.

Cass City got the breaks but the Huron County champs fought a game and dogged fight. It was one of the best games of the year and the maroon team looked the best of the season. Blocking was good, although the tackling leaves lots to be desired.

In the league, two games remain for the local team, Bad Axe and Sebewaing. Caro also has two games—Sebewaing and Vassar. Should both teams win their games, a tie will ensue, and if either team loses, the other becomes champ of the Thumb.

Cass City meets Sebewaing today and a hard fought game is in the offing.

Bay rum, if real, is made from the berries of the West Indian bay tree, with alcohol added. When the virtues of the berries were first discovered, rum—the cheapest alcohol—was used. Hence "bay rum."

FRUIT AND OTHER NICE SUNDAES AT HOME

Ice Cream Makes Fine Foundation for Sundae.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The children enjoy pretending they are having something at home that has first been sampled elsewhere. The idea of a "sundae" at home suggests all the joys of the soda fountain with none of the distraction of nearby trays of candy and chewing gum.

French vanilla or custard ice cream is particularly good as a foundation for any sort of fruit "sundae," with sweetened crushed fresh fruit served over it, such as strawberries, raspberries or fresh peaches, according to the season. Chocolate or butterscotch sauce, maple sirup or honey may also be used with french vanilla ice cream or sundaes. This is a good ice cream, too, to serve with pies "a la mode," which means simply pie with a dip of vanilla ice cream on top. It can be used with sponge cake to make an "ice cream sandwich." The eggs in a custard ice cream are excellent for the children, supplementing the other nutritious ingredients of the ice cream by adding to the day's supply of vitamins and minerals.

The bureau of home economics gives the following directions for making it:

French Vanilla Ice Cream.
1 quart milk 3/4 cup sugar
1/2 pint double cream 1/4 tsp. salt
4 eggs 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Prepare as for custard by pouring some of the heated milk into the lightly beaten eggs and then cooking the milk and eggs with the sugar and salt in a double boiler until the custard coats the spoon. Cool, add the double cream, mix well and freeze. For the freezing mixture use one part of salt to 4 to 6 parts of ice. Turn the crank slowly during freezing.

COOKING OMELETS IN VARIOUS WAYS

Secret of Success Is in Using Moderate, Even Heat.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The secret of making a good omelet of any kind is the same secret that applies to all successful cooking of eggs and dishes in which eggs predominate: Cook slowly at moderate, even heat, says the bureau of home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. The basic ingredients for any kind of omelet are the same: One egg for each person, one tablespoonful of milk for each egg, and salt to taste. Beat the egg yolks and whites separately for a fluffy omelet; beat them together for a flat omelet.

To make a fluffy omelet for an average family use from four to six eggs. Add as many tablespoonfuls of milk as you have eggs. If preferred, the milk may be heated. It will cook the yolks slightly when it is added hot and give the mixture a smoother consistency. Or, one-half cup of hot white sauce of medium thickness added to four egg yolks will make a larger omelet with more body. Fold the yolk mixture gradually and carefully into the stiffly beaten whites containing the salt—one fourth teaspoonful of salt for each four eggs. Have ready and hot a smooth heavy omelet pan containing one tablespoonful or a little more of butter and pour the egg mixture into the pan.

The omelet can be cooked in three different ways, but in any case start it on top of the stove at moderate heat. If a small-sized gas or oil burner is used, move the pan about so that the omelet will cook around the edge at the same rate as in the center. As soon as the omelet has browned slightly on the bottom, place it in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) and bake for ten minutes. Or, continue the cooking on top of the stove until the mixture sets, and place under a low broiler flame for two or three minutes. Or, if preferred, cover the pan during the whole period and so cook the top of the omelet with steam. When the omelet is done crease it through the center fold it over with a spatula, and roll it onto a hot platter without attempting to lift it from the pan. Pour over the omelet melted butter containing finely cut parsley and serve at once.

For a flat omelet beat the eggs with one tablespoonful of milk for each egg and salt to taste. Pour a thin layer of the mixture into a hot buttered omelet pan and cook slowly and evenly. When brown on the bottom roll the omelet in the pan and turn it out onto a hot platter.

Omelets with different names are simply variations of plain omelets, made by adding chopped ingredients to the egg mixture before it is cooked or spread over half of the cooked omelet before it is folded and turned onto the platter. Chopped fried ham or bacon, grated cheese, or a cooked vegetable such as peas, mushrooms or asparagus, or a combination of chopped onion, green pepper, celery, and parsley delicately fried in butter, are some suggestions for variations of plain omelet. Sweet omelets spread with jelly and containing sugar to the egg mixture, are sometimes served for dessert.

SUMMER SQUASH OF DELICATE FLAVOR

Especially Delicious When Seasoned With Butter.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Young, tender, summer squash, be it yellow or white and called crook-neck or cymling, is of delicate flavor, especially when seasoned liberally with butter before serving. It need not be watery if properly cooked. Below are two recipes from the bureau of home economics for preparing summer squash. Summer squash may also be sliced, dipped in flour or egg and bread crumbs, and fried as eggplant is fried, or baked, or steamed in a regular steamer or a colander over hot water. When cooked in any of these ways without added water the full flavor of the squash is retained and the texture is more satisfactory to many people than when the squash is boiled, drained, and served mashed.

Casserole Squash.
2 quarts diced summer squash 1 cup buttered mer squash 1 cup crumbs
3 tbs. melted butter 2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper

Select young, tender, summer squash, wash, cut into small cubes, put into a greased baking dish, season with salt and pepper and sprinkle the buttered crumbs on top. Put on the cover of the dish and cook in a moderate oven for about one hour. When the squash is tender remove the lid and let the crumbs become golden brown before serving.

Panned Squash.
1 1/2 quarts diced summer squash 1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper 3 tbs. butter

Select young, tender squash wash, well, and remove the tips from each end. Dice the squash in 3/4 inch pieces, leaving the skin on unless it is very tough. Melt the butter in a skillet until slightly brown, put in the squash, sprinkle with salt and pepper, cover and cook for ten or fifteen minutes at medium heat. Remove the cover and cook a little longer for the liquid to evaporate. Serve hot.

Joy of Feeling Fit
The joy of feeling fit physically is reflected in a clearer and more useful mind.

You may read and study forever, but you come to no more important truthful conclusions than these two:

1. Take care of your body (eat and exercise properly), and your mind will improve.

2. Work hard, and be polite and fair, and your condition in the world will improve.

No pills, tablets, lotions, philosophies, will do as much for you as the simple formula I have outlined.

A woman who with mere beginnings of an education in a backwoods school has given such a roster of good citizens and sterling characters to the world has accomplished that which words can scarcely cover. These children were educated not alone in common school, but in high school, normal school and state university and this task was accomplished with but the resources of a pioneer farm behind her. It was by her fervent admonition and stern determination that

ADVISE BUYING EWES DURING FALL MONTHS

Recommendation that breeding ewes be bought in October and November is made by the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College because ewes can usually be obtained at a lower price during those months and the buyer also has a larger number of ewes from which to make his selection.

The purchase of ewes from breeders who live near the buyer is also advised, if the buyer sees the animals before they become his property, many misunderstandings can be avoided. The buyer can also examine the ewes under which the animals have been kept and can judge whether the flock is apt to be free from parasites.

Wests ewes can often be purchased more cheaply than native stock. These animals are not native to Michigan and the buyer is unable to see them before he receives them on his farm.

Two three-year-old ewes are most desirable. They are proved breeders and their owner may expect less trouble at lambing time. The animal should be healthy and should carry a good udder. A firm dense fleece attached to a pink skin indicates good condition.

Good breed type and an absence of coarseness in body conformation are other points which should be noted before the ewe is bought.

Ten years later—on Saturday, Oct. 19, at two o'clock, to be exact—they "landed" in Novesta township, Tuscola county, where they have since resided. With industry and a willingness to work hard, they carved out a home in Novesta's pioneer days and their many friends are glad for the comforts they enjoy in the later years of life.

"The Whole Family Reads It" As an advertising force, the country weekly is regarded by many prominent manufacturers as the leading medium in America. Although there are still many who have not discovered its possibilities it does hold a unique position among periodicals. A writer has listed a number of the advantages of the community paper. His points follow: "At one sitting the average reader scans all the pages of the local paper. No other publication has all its pages read as carefully by so large a percentage of its readers. "There is no publication that reaches so many families in a given trade territory as does the local paper. No other is read by as many people for each subscriber. The whole family reads it. "An advertisement in the local paper backs up the sales effort of the local retailer far more effectively than any other medium." For these reasons the country weekly is able to serve, not only its advertisers, but every worthy cause for the betterment of the entire country. USE YOUR HOME PAPER
