TWO DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENT MONDAY

Mrs. Alex Sanson Killed Instantly and Her Little Child Fatally Injured.

Mrs. Alex Sanson of Deford and her little daughter, Martha, are dead and Mr. Sanson and three other children received injuries as the result of an automobile accident on M-53, five miles north of Marlette about 8:30 p. m., on Monday.

The accident occurred when the Sanson car, a Dodge sedan, crashed into a truck belonging to Stanley Fike of Cass City, parked on the side of the highway. Mrs. Sanson was killed instantly and the child that she was holding died about an hour later at the Marlette hospital. Mr. Sanson and the three other children are not seriously hurt and they were taken from the hospital at Marlette to their home in Deford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanson and their four children were returning from Royal Oak where they had visited Mr. Sanson's mother Sunday. Mr. Fike, the truck owner, accompanied by Milton Hoffman, also of Cass City, were coming from Detroit to Cass City, bringing home three horses Mr. Hoffman had purchased in Detroit. Five miles north of Marlette, the truck was parked at the side of the road and Messrs. Fike and Hoffman were engaged in conversation with a farmer. A car passed the truck, going toward Marlette, shortly before the accident. Possibly the dust raised by the first car hid the truck from view. At any rate, Mr. Sanson says he did not see the truck until within about 35 feet from it. He promptly applied the brakes and turned to avoid the truck. He came within six inches of missing it. The body of the car struck the floor boards of the truck, shoving the heavy vehicle for 20 feet, up against a telephone pole. The sedan was driven under the truck and it was extricated with difficulty. The body of the lighter vehicle was completely demolished.

Witnesses said the truck was correctly parked and well lighted. Dr. J. C. Webster of Marlette, Sanilac county coroner, decided no inquest was necessary. Mr. Sanson is manager of the Belle Isle Creamery Co.'s station at Deford. He is the son of the late Wm. Sanson, a former Tuscola county treasurer and representative in the state legislature. Mrs. Sanson, formerly Miss Willoline Walton, was born in Caro in January, 1896. She graduated from the Caro High School in 1914 and later from the Thomas Normal at Detroit. She taught in the primary grades in the Caro school from 1920 to 1922. On Christmas Day in 1921, she was united in marriage with Alex Sanson of Koylton township.

ROBBERS TAKE HERON'S CASH AND CAR

Allen Heron, a young man of Grant township, was held up by highwaymen about 10:30 p. m. Sunday and relieved of his cash and his Ford car, 4 miles east of Ubyly.

Allen had been visiting a friend near Ubyly and as he was driving homeward, a car without lights suddenly shot out of a schoolyard and stopped crossways of the highway. As Allen was bringing his car to a halt to avoid hitting the other automobile, a man stepped on the running board, revolver in hand, and ordered young Heron to "stick 'em up." He was relieved of his cash and then the three robbers drove off both cars, leaving Allen in full possession of the highway, with walking privileges.

The car was found Tuesday 1 1/2 miles from the scene of the robbery. It had been driven about 100 miles the speedometer shows. The robbers kept the car tools.

FOUR SLIGHTLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

A passing car caught the rear fender of Chester Pelton's automobile Sunday at midnight and whirled it around, causing it to strike a culvert abutment and turn over. Mr. Pelton, who lives near Rescue, had his face bruised. Other occupants of the car, Harold Wilson of Detroit and the Misses Lucy Lester and Estella Kuback, both of Wilmot, were bruised and received other minor injuries. Miss Lester was cut above the eye, the wound requiring three stitches to close it.

The occupants of the other car did not stop to learn the extent of the injuries of those in the Pelton car.

Mr. Krueck was born and raised on a farm in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin. He has had extensive experience in managing and operating successfully a large stock farm. He understands exhibiting, feeding and breeding of live stock and poultry.

He graduated from the University of Wisconsin. Taught Animal Husbandry and did extension work at Purdue University, Indiana, for four years.

With this background of practical farming experience, and scientific agricultural knowledge, he can appreciate the farmer's problems and is qualified to give sound practical information. Mr. Krueck has also had three years of experience as County Agent in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.

During the time Mr. Krueck was doing County Agent work the boys and girls in his county under his direction won more State Fair premiums than any other county in the state.—Advertisement.

MANY BIDDERS AT TWO DRAINS

Total Cost of Sebewaung Drain Will Come within $450,000.00.

Bidders were numerous at the letting of contracts of the Allen drain and the Sebewaung River and Branches drain.

Bids were received for the construction of the Sebewaung drain at Sebewaung Wednesday. Approximately 35 contractors left bids for the construction work, some bidding on the whole project while others entered bids for one or more sections of the drain. Fifteen presented bids for the bridges and steel.

Drain commissioners of Tuscola and Huron counties will meet with David Nicol, deputy state chief of drains, on Wednesday, May 21, at Caro to determine the successful bidder. The total cost of the drain will come well within $450,000, the estimate made by Conrad Mueller, Tuscola drain commissioner, and his assistants, it is said.

Assessments on property in Tuscola county will be subject to review on Saturday, May 24, at Caro. Property in Huron county will be reviewed at Bad Axe on May 22.

Only two bidders sent representatives to Caro Friday to attend the sale of bonds of the Sebewaung drain. Stranahan, Harris & Otis, Inc., and Blanchard, Bowman & Wood, both Toledo, Ohio, firms, offered to purchase bonds up to $480,000.00, with interest at 6%. The two bidders proposed to each take half of the issue, with the provision that the contractors awarded the jobs on the drain met with their approval.

J. & E. Proctor of Mt. Morris were awarded the construction work on the Allen Drain at $25,526.40. Kenneth Youngs of Ypsilanti entered the next lowest bid at $26,775.46.

E. G. Wiley of Caro was awarded the bridge and steel contracts on the Allen drain at $13,180.15.

There were 26 bidders on the construction work and six on the bridges on this drain.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING HERE ON MAY 22

An educational meeting will be held in Pastime Theater, Cass City, on Thursday evening, May 22, at eight o'clock.

The subjects discussed will be handled in a practical manner and many definite suggestions will be given that can be put into practice at small cost and with very profitable results.

The meeting is free to everyone and is being held under the direction of Mr. Walter B. Krueck, Service Man for the Wayne Feed Mills with the co-operation of the County Agricultural Agent.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

Urged on by the enthusiastic spectators and admirers of the play, the Cass City Alumni will repeat "Thank You" next Tuesday night at the high school auditorium.

The play was so well taken by the audience, many of them buying tickets to see the show the second time, and because of a deficiency in completing payment of the stage fixtures donated by the Alumni, the "Thank You" cast have offered to repeat their performance on next Tuesday night, May 20.

You should see our new rector, Frederick Pinney with his pious appearance, oratorical ability and clerical apparel missed his calling when he took up banking as a profession. Andrew Bigelow in the role of a millionaire lacks only the money. To see Bud Burt as the drunkard one would swear that the Volstead Act had already been repealed. He is a scream. This will probably be the last time that we will see Jim Lewis perform for us as the rich man's son and the ardent lover. He does it beautifully. Lois Folkert, as the belle from Paris, with wonderful costumes, is a second Mary Pickford.

We urge all those who did not have an opportunity to see this play to be sure and not miss it next Tuesday night at the high school auditorium.—Advertisement.

Mr. Geo. W. Clark and Geo. Ingstrum, both of Detroit, were guests of Mrs. Flora McLachlan, on Wednesday.

VASSAR MAN APPOINTED STATE BANK EXAMINER

Chas. E. Williams of Vassar has been appointed state bank examiner. Mr. Williams went to Vassar last year to take a position in the Michigan State Bank. Previous to that, he was employed at the state college in Pennsylvania. Due to ill health of his wife, they moved to Arizona and later moved to Vassar where they have since resided. Mr. Williams became vice president of the bank at the beginning of the year. He is a son-in-law of W. J. Spears of Vassar.

KELLEY-WAGG.

Roy Wagg, son of Mrs. Samuel Wagg, and Miss Freida Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelley, were united in marriage on May 6 at the M. E. parsonage at Kingston, Rev. E. L. Carless officiating. Both young people are graduates of the Cass City High School. They will reside on the Wagg farm in Novesta township.

VASSAR WOMAN ADMITTED TO BAR

Tuscola Attorneys Give Eulogies of the Late J. D. Brooker of Cass City.

Mrs. Daisy S. Barrie of Vassar was admitted to the bar in the Tuscola county circuit court on Monday. She has the honor of being the first woman in Tuscola county to practice law.

Mrs. Barrie has been in the office of W. J. Spears, Vassar attorney, for several years and studied law while in his employ. She is a graduate of Vassar High School and of Ypsilanti Normal College. She passed the examination for admission to the state bar at Lansing in April.

On Monday, the first day of the May term of court, a resolution was presented by Prosecuting Attorney Roland O. Kern expressing the regret of Tuscola county attorneys of the passing of James D. Brooker, for many years a member of the Tuscola county bar. H. P. Orr seconded the motion to adopt the resolution and John A. Loranger and Judge Henry H. Smith also spoke eulogies of the late Mr. Brooker.

The following is the resolution adopted by the bar: "Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from among us the Hon. James D. Brooker of the Village Turn to page 4.

FARM BUILDINGS TRUCK TO VISIT COUNTY

Will Be Exhibited at Eight Points in Tuscola Next Week.

A truck carrying building models which graphically show good construction practices and ways to lower costs in erecting farm structures is being sent by Michigan State College into Tuscola county according to county agricultural agent, D. B. Jewell. Stops will be made by the truck as follows:

Frank Biles, 2 miles west of Akron, 1:30 p. m., May 20. James Kirk, 1/2 mile south of Fairgrove, 7:30 p. m., May 20. John Marshall, 4 miles east of Gagetown, 1:30 p. m., May 21. Melvin H. Graham, 2 miles south, 1 mile west of Colwood, 7:30 p. m., May 21.

Frank Macomber, 1 mile north of East Dayton, 1:30 p. m., May 22. Maxam school, 1 mile east, 5 miles south of Kingston, 7:30 p. m., May 22. Mayville, 1:30 p. m., May 23. Bert Thurston, 2 1/2 miles north-west of Vassar, 7:30 p. m., May 23. Meetings at which agricultural engineering specialists will discuss building practices will be held at each of these stops. A dwelling house, barns, poultry houses, a brooder house, milk houses, a hog cot, self feeders, and a bull pen are the farm structures represented by the models on the truck. Bulletins which contain plans for constructing any of these will be distributed at the meetings.

Michigan has hundreds of millions of dollars invested in farm buildings and many of the actual building problems which arise are the result of remodeling old buildings to suit present requirements. The plans which are carried by the truck can be utilized in remodeling old buildings as well as in constructing new ones. Providing insulation for some types of farm buildings is one of the newer phases of construction work. Ventilating systems are another problem in modern farm construction work. Models of insulating materials will be carried by the truck and ventilating systems will be explained by speakers at the meetings.

PLAN FOR Y. M. C. A. WORK IN TUSCOLA

Plans for the organization of Y. M. C. A. boys' work in the towns of Saginaw and Tuscola counties are to be made at a dinner meeting in Saginaw Y. M. C. A., May 20.

Dr. A. G. Studer, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Detroit, will be the principal speaker. Fred B. Freeman, state secretary for Michigan, will also be on the program.

The plan as outlined in earlier meetings will make possible the organization of boys' clubs, such as Hi-Y Clubs and Friendly Indian and Pioneer Clubs. The summer camp will be available for boys from the towns of Saginaw and Tuscola counties. A trained boys' secretary will be employed to direct this boys' work.

The proposition to bond the school district for $50,000 to repair the old school building in Kingston village and build an addition to the school was defeated Wednesday by a vote of 62 to 80.

TO REPEAT "THANK YOU" COMEDY MAY 20

Many Requests Come for Second Presentation by Talented Home Cast.

Yielding to the importunities of many; the cast of the comedy, "Thank You," will repeat its presentation at the high school auditorium next week. The date set for the second showing is Tuesday evening, May 20. The proceeds of this play, like those of the first, will be used for stage equipment for the high school auditorium.

"Thank You" as presented under the auspices of the high school alumni Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable and best-portrayed local talent plays in Cass City in many years. The scene was in Dedham, Conn., and the play dealt with the experiences of a clergyman and his niece who were forced to practice economy on the minister's meager salary and the many opportunities for increasing the preacher's field of usefulness when the financial stress was unexpectedly removed.

The play was interesting and exceptionally well presented by the following cast: Alice Lammers, Lulu Barton, Clarence Quick, Frederick Pinney, Clarence Burt, Mrs. A. A. Ricker, Dorothy Tindale, Glen McCullough, Mrs. Lois Folkert, M. B. Auten, Robt. McConkey, C. L. Graham, Cameron Wallace, James Lewis, Andrew Bigelow and Raymond McCullough.

Much credit for the success of the play can be given to Virgil Logan under whose capable direction the cast were able to present "Thank You" in such a fine manner.

C. C. C. DIRECTORS ELECTED TUESDAY

Ladies Were Guests of Club Members at May Meeting of Society.

The activities of the Cass City Community Club for the coming year will be under the management of Chas. L. Robinson, Earl Douglas, Stanley Stridler, Guy Landon, M. E. Kenney, Audley Rawson and Frank Reid. These gentlemen are members of the board of directors unanimously elected by the society on Tuesday night, the last meeting of the club until the fall season. Pastors of the local churches and the superintendent of schools are ex-officio members of the board of directors.

During the business session, James Lewis spoke of the plans for the organization of Y. M. C. A. boys' work in villages in Saginaw and Tuscola counties. The Saginaw City Y. M. C. A. has extended the privileges of the Y summer camp near Houghton Lake to boys of the two counties. The cost is $14.00 for 14 days. The camp is under expert supervision and trained leaders.

Dr. Ralph C. McAfee of Detroit was the speaker of the evening. As executive secretary of the Detroit Council of Churches, he was in close touch with the unity program of churches in the state metropolis and he described it to his audience and the benefits derived from the co-operation of efforts.

Church membership in the United States the past year was increased by 300,000 new members as compared with a million increase in 1928. There has never been a period since 1800 when the churches have not shown a greater percentage of growth than that indicated by census figures of the country's population.

"Churches must achieve increasing unity or be content with decreasing influence" is the quotation of a leading authority which Mr. McAfee presented to his audience. Four churches working together, the speaker said, can accomplish what 40 working separately can never do.

Bert and Leonard Elliott played Hawaiian guitar selections during the evening. They were greeted with generous applause and responded with encores. Light refreshments were served by the hospitality committee. Wives of members were guests at this meeting of the club.

Cass City won in a triangular meet Monday, the Cass City track team won first place in a triangular meet at Caro with 66 1/2 points. Caro was second with 53 and Marlette, third, with 21 1/2 points. Caro was weakened by the absence of Rajkovich, a prominent athlete of that school. Results were:

INSTRUCTING THE MOTORIST

The American people may have thought, when they reached adult age, that they had finished their education. But now that some 25,000,000 of them are driving automobiles, they have to go to school again, with traffic cops, licensing authorities, and courts, as teachers.

Many of them are dull pupils, deserving a good long seat on the dunce school. Many are so stubborn, that one can imagine them as soon emerging quite fearful from a special session with the teacher.

Complaint is made that some of the officers who officiate as their instructors, bowl them out too roughly.
But if such critics had been dealing for years with motorists who think anything goes provided no officer sees them, they might not preserve all their fine party manners.

Constant violation of well known traffic rules must wear the patience of the officers, down to the last thread. The authorities of a town will erect No Parking signs in places where a clear street is necessary, but many motorists can't see these notices. Having such poor vision, they do not seem fit to operate cars on the road.

Or they will often park cars directly against a fire hydrant, which might cause very harmful delay if the firemen were called to the spot.
They ignore traffic signals set against them, if no officer is looking. Speed limit laws they regard as humorous literature.

What shall we do with all these lawless folks? If they were back in school, they would be sent home for parents to deal with. Now it is assumed that they have graduated from the bad boy stage, and wish to qualify as real citizens. If they are still kids in adult disguise, they should expect the discipline that is handed out to refractory children.

YOUR HOME-PLACE.

The time for spring improvements has come. As you pass some handsome residence, telling its story of success and plenty, do you feel a bit of envy? Then reflect, that you can have just as much beauty around your home place, and for almost nothing so far as money goes.

You can't afford costly improvements? But just the same, you can have the loveliness of foliage and flowers, and nature's beauty surpasses anything human hands create.
The charm of a dwelling does not depend on its cost. Some expensive ones are not attractive, and many modest ones are very beautiful, because tasteful and home loving people decorated them with fascinating gardens.

Don't expect any beauty while disorder and decay linger. The folks who clean up their front grounds by removing rubbish to the back yard, belong in the same class with the boy who refuses to wash behind his ears.

Shabby paint and tumble down fences put a house in the down and out class. Sow some grass on those bare spots. Those dirty holes are as inappropriate as wearing your old soiled coat to some dress-up party.

After the paint brush, the rubbish cart, the rake, comes the spade. Exercise it on some new garden spots.
The brightness of flowers outshines
any man made products.

Now, in these lovely spring days,
is the time. You say these improvements mean work? Yes, but the work saves your health from slipping down hill. It will brighten dull days, and postpone old age. Your neighbors also will give three cheers.

Cultivate Patience

Patience serves us against insults
precisely as clothes do against cold.
For if you multiply your garments as the cold increases, cold cannot hurt you; in the same way increase your patience under great offenses
and they cannot hurt your feelings.
—Leonardo da Vinci.

Apple Flavors

The flavors of apples are natural to different varieties, but can be influenced by water and excessive tree growth. Much wet weather and heavy growth shading the fruit will cause the flavor to become less pronounced.
Colors are natural to fruit and can only be changed by shading or pruning to let in more light.

A Billion Dollar Target
Chicago's Big Gain
Successful Miss Hollins
Mr. Wells' Chimpanzee

On the ferry from Jersey City to Liberty street one morning recently you saw flocks of airplanes above the money district reaching from the East to the North rivers and from the Battery to Canal street.

Lazily floating in the air above the water were two big blimps and the navy's giant Los Angeles.

Later you learned that New York was bombed, skyscrapers and banks destroyed by 140 military planes, and,
most interesting, the navy's great fleet parading below had been sent to the bottom of the water.

That was theoretical. But if it had been real war there would have been no theory; instead, a great city and fleet wiped out.

If 140 planes, one dirigible and two blimps could work such havoc, what could a real fighting air fleet do, such as the French fleet, for instance, with 5,000 airplanes?

"Nearly complete" census figures
give Chicago more than 3,350,000 inhabitants.

That is a gain of 648,000 since the last census and almost 13,000 more than Chicago's Association of Commerce expected.

And Chicago hasn't "shown anything yet." Wait until 5,000 seaplanes coring from Europe on one side, Asia on the other, drop daily on the smooth waters of Lake Michigan.
That is coming, and then Chicago will have a real population, spreading to Milwaukee on one side, Gary on the other.

Pope Pius, who has installed a broadcasting station in the Vatican, will, according to an Associated Press dispatch, initiate the use of the station with a personal address sent to the faithful everywhere.

That scientific miracle would have amazed the ancient popes.

Charles M. Schwab, in pleasant optimism, says 1930 will be a year of normal progress. "Business is better today than it was six or nine months ago," says he.

A million women, burning with the desire to be "independent," although nobody is independent, will be interested in Miss Marlon Hollins. Years ago she was champion female golfer.
Now she takes her place in big business as an able "oil woman." She made up her mind that if men could do it she could, went into oil financing, and a recent sale netted her $2,500,000.

Did you read H. G. Wells' interesting statement about the higher apes?
They can "think ahead" a little. No other animal except man, not even monkeys with tails, can do it.

Without being taught, a chimpanzee will take one stick, insert it in the hollow of another stick, and with the added length of stick, draw a banana into his cage.

Since the beginning of time no other animal but man could think as much as that.

Consider what man does now, weighing the stars, measuring the electrons inside of an atom, and only 12,000 years ago he was using sharp flints for weapons, not far ahead, mentally, of the chimpanzee. What will he do 10,000,000 years hence?

News from Burma tells of many deaths by earthquake and tidal wave.
Ancient pagodas were rocked to destruction. From the top of one, the Shwe-Dagon pagoda, there fell a huge weather vane of solid gold said to be worth $1,200,000.

Many devout Burmese doubtless asked themselves what particular god had become annoyed, just what had annoyed him and how he could be placated.

This country's workers and industrialists need protection, and should have it.

Our people come first, other people
second.

But intelligence should control even the tariff. It is possible to overdo the business of discouraging friendly nations with whom we deal.

President Musy of the Swiss republic wires President Hoover: "I am compelled to call attention to the fact that your watch and lace duties will, eventually, paralyze our industries."
The Swiss National Chamber of Commerce recommends the boycott of American goods, especially autos.

That suggestion means little to us.
But we should take seriously the danger of hopelessly discouraging Swiss industries, offending and injuring the good people of Switzerland.

She lives apart and few will know when her career ends.
But Caneclaise, Jersey cow of Mount Kisco, New York, is a champion female worthy of honor.
Last year she produced 1,072.7
pounds of butterfat, and 18,822 pounds
of milk.
Such cows could help to solve the farm problem. They are, in their way, as remarkable as machinery in mass production factories.

HARKING BACK TO OLD SAILING DAYS

(From Sebeawaing Blade).

Capt. Wm. H. Riggs, for many years a resident of Sebeawaing, now of Saginaw, who made a short visit here Wednesday, told the writer that he is one of the last of 24 ship captains who years ago sailed out of the Sebeawaing harbor. There were the Munseys, H. D. Stockman, "Stub," Thomas, A. C. Pierce, Jack and Fred Sharpsteen, Rufus Colbath, John Miller and many others, most of whom have long sailed to their last port. In more recent years Daniel Dutcher and George E. Davis passed on while P. W. Selee died only last winter.

Besides Capt. Riggs, Carl Lee is another of the old-timers, who is still living, on a farm at Hubbard Lake, near Alpena, while Henry D. Loomis, who, by the way, is observing his ninety-second birthday today, is the last of these to be living at Sebeawaing.

Thirty to forty years ago water shipping was an important industry here and it was a common sight to see several schooners in the river at one time. A great deal of the farm produce raised here, as well as flour from the John C. Liken & Company roller mill, was transported to northern Michigan ports by water, and returning, the boats would bring back timber and lumber from the northern saw mills.

Among the earliest of the boats plying between Sebeawaing and other ports were the steamers Mary Martini, J. C. Liken and C. W. Liken and the schooners, Red Cloud, the Mary D., the George Penniman, the Mary Miller, the Ed Valley and later the R. T. Lambert, the Lulu Whiting, the Farmer Boy, the A. C. Pierce, the Jessie Maggie, the G. R. Durkee, the Viola, the scow Ellen, and the H. J. Davis, the last named being the last of the "windjammers" to be built here, and she was equipped with an auxiliary gasoline engine for use in calm weather.

PROHIBITION POLL.

(From Christian Union Herald.)

Twenty-three years ago McClure's Magazine, in an article on "Drink in Chicago," said: "The average consumption of beer for every man, woman and child in Chicago in 1906 was two and one-quarter barrels, and the average for spirituous liquor was four gallons."

The wets would make us believe that people are drinking more than this amount under Prohibition.

MICHIGAN 1930 MAPLE PRODUCTION

The 1930 maple season was one of the best that Michigan producers have ever experienced, according to the report released today by Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician for the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service, and Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Weather conditions were favorable throughout the main producing sections, and this fact, coupled with cheaper labor and attractive prices seems to have encouraged a renewed interest in this industry. It is estimated that 930,000 trees were tapped this year or 105 per cent of the number for 1929. This is the largest number since 1918.

Warm weather prevailed quite generally from the 17th to the 25th of February and many producers started tapping at this time. Alternate freezing and thawing during March was also favorable and the run was the longest since 1926. The average date of tapping for the entire state was March 2 and the season closed April 2.

The average production per tree was reported at the equivalent of 2.61 pounds of sugar as compared with last year's low yield of 1.52 pounds, and 2.00 pounds in 1928. The total production in terms of sugar was 2,427,300 pounds. Ninety-eight per cent of this was marketed in the form of sirup.

The average quality was ninety-eight per cent or three per cent high.

GREEN TUBERS WILL CUT MARKET PRICES

Delayed planting of potatoes by Michigan growers results in the marketing of immature tubers which prejudice the buying public against Michigan stock, according to the farm crops department at Michigan State College.

Unripe potatoes are soggy and dark colored when cooked. Both the appearance and quality of the potatoes are poor and the housewife who once buys them is apt to purchase potatoes grown in some other section when she has to renew the supply for the household.

Immature potatoes are apt to have the skins broken in digging or in handling for shipment so the tubers appear rough and dirty as they are exposed for sale in the markets. This gives them a handicap to overcome before they get into the consumer's home.

Most of the Michigan market crop is produced from Russett Rural seed stock. This variety needs 120 to 130 days after planting to become fully ripe, and the planting date should be early enough to allow that length of growing season before the danger of frosts.

In average years, a planting date of from May 15 to May 31 will be satisfactory for the section north of Muskegon and Saginaw. Potatoes may be planted safely from five to ten days later south of the Muskegon-Saginaw line.

The governor said the promotion was a reward for long and able service. For 16 years, Dr. Dixon has been superintendent of the Michigan Farm Colony at Wahjamega.

HONKING AUTOMOBILE SAVES LIVES OF THREE

Rare Presence of Mind of Mrs. D. Heron Frustrates Attack of Beast.

The presence of mind and prompt action on the part of Mrs. Duward Heron on Saturday afternoon was responsible for the safety of Margaret Jean and Winnifred Orr and Gerald Kercher. Had she been less prompt, the three children would undoubtedly have been seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

The three little folks had been gathering flowers in the woods of Morton Orr, father of the two Orr children. As the youngsters came down the field on the Orr farm next to the fairgrounds, to make their way from the woods to their homes, they attracted the attention of a Holstein bull belonging to Mr. Orr that was chained to a stake in the field.

The animal, in his rage, broke the chain which held him and made a race for the children, bellowing angry threats as he bounded after them. "Jerry" Kercher, 5, flattened himself against a fence, and for the time being, was overlooked by the furious animal as he raced after the two Orr children, 6 and 9 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr heard the bellows of the bull and looking across to the field from their home, noticed with terror that the animal was rapidly lessening the distance between himself and the children. Mrs. Heron, with her two children, had been gathering flowers in the Orr woods and they were just leaving for home when she heard the commotion and saw the terrible predicament of the children in the field.

Losing no time, Mrs. Heron started her roadster across the rough field, honking the car's horn, and finally attracted the attention of the bull away from the children and chased him in another direction. Relief of parents and children, after all were safe from the zone of danger, would be hard to describe.

Marguerite McQueen, aunt of the Orr children, jumped into a car parked near the Orr home when the predicament of the children was first noticed and started for the field in an attempt to rescue them. Mrs. Orr attempted to board the car as Miss McQueen, her sister, was turning the auto toward the field of danger and Mrs. Orr was thrown to the ground. In the fall, she suffered a broken finger.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

Malcolm Ferguson.

Malcolm Ferguson, for many years engaged in conducting a wagon-making shop in Cass City, passed away in Pontiac Saturday morning, May 10, after a year's illness. The remains were brought to Cass City and funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian church by Rev. Paul J. Allured.

Mr. Ferguson was born in Argyle-shire, Scotland, on June 13, 1872. He came to America in 1896 and for five years resided with his parents in Port Huron, Mich. On Feb. 11, 1902, he was united in marriage with Miss Kate McCallum. Three children came to gladden the home. One of them, a son, died in infancy.

Mr. Ferguson has been a member of the Presbyterian church for over 20 years, joining that denomination in Cleveland, Ohio. CONTEST WILL SEEK BEST BEAN GROWERS

Awards To Be Made To Twenty Michigan Producers Who Receive Greatest Profit.

Search for the best bean growers in Michigan will be made this year by the farm crops department of Michigan State College through a contest sponsored jointly by the college, the Michigan Crop Improvement Association, and the Michigan Bean Jobbers Association.

Awards will be made to the 20 bean growers who receive the greatest margin of profit per acre from their crop. Production costs, yield, and quality of product will be considered in selecting the winners. A special award will be made to the individual grower having the best crop record for the season, based upon total acreage, crop rotation, cultural methods, and quality of yield.

A uniform price for beans, and uniform charges for man, horse, and tractor labor hours will be used in determining the value of the crop, the cost of production, and net returns.

Growers who expect to enter the contest should keep accurate records of labor, methods, and materials on blanks which are furnished by the college. All contestants must be enrolled by July 1.

Entry blanks may be obtained from county agricultural agents, local elevators, or directly from the farm crops department of the college. Awards to the winners of the contest will be made at a special bean growers banquet to be held at M. S. C. during Farmers' Week next February.

BREEDING FOR HIGH FLOCK AVERAGE

Prof. Walter Krueck will discuss "Breeding for High Flock Average" in his talk to be held in Pastime Theater, Cass City, on Thursday evening, May 22, at eight o'clock.

Better bred poultry from the standpoint of both meat and egg production is the hope of the good poultryman. Flock averages of more than 200 eggs are being reported every year in Indiana from flocks of 100 to 500 birds. There has never been a 200-egg flock average reported yet which did not have back of it several years of trap nest pedigree breeding and there has always been one or more 300-egg hens close to the ancestry of the flock.

Culling and selection will develop uniformity and good flock averages, but the only way that unusually high production will ever be secured is through the use of birds of known egg record. This means that trap nesting and individual pedigreeing of large numbers of chicks are necessary before the best results can be secured. The economical way for most poultrymen to secure higher producing flocks is not by attempting to do their own trap nesting but by purchasing breeding males or chicks from reliable trap nesting breeding plants.—Advertisement.

DAIRYMEN PLAN WAYS TO INCREASE PROFIT

Recommendations made for the improvement of Michigan's dairy industry by 1,000 farmers who attended meetings sponsored by the Ann Arbor Railroad and Michigan State College included the close culling of poor cows, the improvement of the quality of dairy products, an increased acreage of alfalfa, and the use of purebred sires.

Meetings were held in Benzie, Manistee, Wexford, Missaukee, Osceola, Clare, Isabella, Gratiot, Clinton, Shiawassee, and Livingston counties. Before each meeting, eighth grade pupils had made a survey of the number of purebred, grade, and scrub sires used in each school district.

The figures obtained by the pupils and the knowledge of local conditions possessed by the committeemen who attended each meeting formed the basis for working out a plan of improvement for each county. Businessmen in the towns agreed to assist in carrying the adopted plans to completion.

The survey made by the school children showed that only 40 per cent of the sires used in the dairy herds of that section are purebreds. Missaukee county had the highest percentage of purebred bulls, 70 per cent. One county had only 28 per cent of purebreds.

SANDUSKY WILL HAVE NO FAIR IN 1930

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Sanilac County Agricultural Association, it was proposed and recorded authorized that no fair will be held this year. Enquiry brings the explanation that in view of almost certain failure to meet expenses, the officers deemed it a part of wisdom to quit before the association was plunged into debt again, from which it was put on an even basis two years ago by the generosity of personal gifts that amounted to many thousands of dollars at that time.

For over 30 years the fair has been a widely known event and a good advertisement for the community and its going is deeply regretted by many. Even now, it is thought and voiced in different quarters that the fair should not be abandoned and some there are who even say that if properly managed the fair under ordinary conditions could be made to show a profit.

The present financial status of the association is understood to indicate about $2,000 outstanding obligations.—Sandusky Republican.

Preston Fournier of Port Huron spent Sunday with his parents here. Charles Finkbinder is visiting friends in Detroit. Achievement Day—The first annual Achievement Day exhibit and program of the 4-H Clubs was held in the intermediate room of the Gagetown high school on Thursday afternoon, May 2. State club leaders, Mr. Pierson and Miss Green and County Agricultural Agent Jewell were here and examined the work and issued certificates to those who had completed the first year's work. Nine boys in the wood-working club and 22 girls in the sewing club were granted certificates. A very interesting feature of the exhibit was the style show in which 14 girls appeared upon the stage wearing dresses that they made. Then the state club leaders "sprung" a surprise. Style show winners from Mayville, Vassar, Caro, Fairgrove and Akron now appeared and the county style champion was selected. Miss Kline from Akron was the winner. First place in the local sewing club was awarded to Mildred Clara and second place to Helen Fournier. While in the wood-working club, first place was awarded to Elmore Hurd; second place to George Clara. The exceptional honor of being chosen county champion in first year wood-working was given to Elmore Hurd. Elmore will represent Tuscola County Wood-working 4-H Clubs at Michigan State College during club week in July. We hope to enlarge the club work next year when new first year clubs will be organized. Miss Roberta Willis is president of the 4-H Club and contributed the above interesting item.

STATE WHEAT CROP PROSPECT IS SHORT

Prospective Fruit Crop Has Been Reduced by Cold Weather in April.

Michigan wheat growers on May 1 reported the prospects for the 1930 crop at 2 million bushels below the 1929 production and more than one million bushels below the average production of the last ten years. The effect of the drought at planting time is still apparent in some fields, but weather conditions since that time have been generally favorable and thus far are apparently offsetting this handicap. The rains which were quite general over the state from April 15th to 17th brightened the outlook and the condition as reported for May 1 was two points higher than on April 1. Abandonment was below normal for the state, the largest amount occurring on the heavy lands in the "Thumb" section and the southeastern district.

Out of the 854,000 acres planted last fall, 828,000 remained for harvest on May 1, according to the report released today by the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service. The condition of the crop on that date was 81 per cent of normal, which, in the light of past relationships, indicates a probable yield of 18.0 bushels per acre. The probable production of the United States crop is now expected to be approximately 525,070,000 bushels in comparison with 578,336,000 bushels harvested in 1929 and 550,636,000 bushels the ten-year average production.

The prospective fruit crop has been reduced by the cold weather that prevailed from April 21 to 26. Temperatures from 20 to 25 degrees prevailed throughout the fruit belt, and destroyed many buds on sour cherries, plums, pears, and early apples. The damage was heaviest in the southwestern counties where much of the fruit was in or near the bloom stage. The loss is believed to be slight in the northern counties of the fruit belt. Peaches are practically a failure in Berrien County, a very light crop in Van Buren, but considerably better in Allegan and the counties farther north. Present indications point to the following percentages of a full crop: apples, 70; peaches, 32; pears, 70; cherries, 65; plums, 70; and grapes, 82.

Ten per cent of last year's hay crop remained unfed on Michigan farms on May 1. This is equivalent to 508,500 tons as compared with stocks of 498,000 tons on the same date last year. For the entire country 12,496,000 tons of hay remained on farms when this month's report was made. Last year there were 11,159,000 tons, and the five-year average stocks amount to 13,706,000 tons.

The condition of tame hay meadows in Michigan was reported at 79 per cent of normal or eight points below the May 1929 condition and five per cent less than the average condition on that date. The United States condition figure on tame hay was 79.9 per cent as contrasted with 87.8 per cent on the same date last year and 87.1 the ten-year average condition for May 1.

The farm labor situation showed only a slight increase in demand due to spring work, while the supply situation remained practically unchanged from one month ago. On May 1 this year the supply exceeded the demand by 32 per cent. Last year, however, there was no excess supply on May 1, and the five-year average conditions for that date point to a usual excess of only four per cent. For the country as a whole the supply of farm labor on May 1 this year exceeded the demand by 17 per cent.

Young Mother Highly Praises Modern Konjola

In One Month New Medicine Ended Suffering and Restored Her Health.

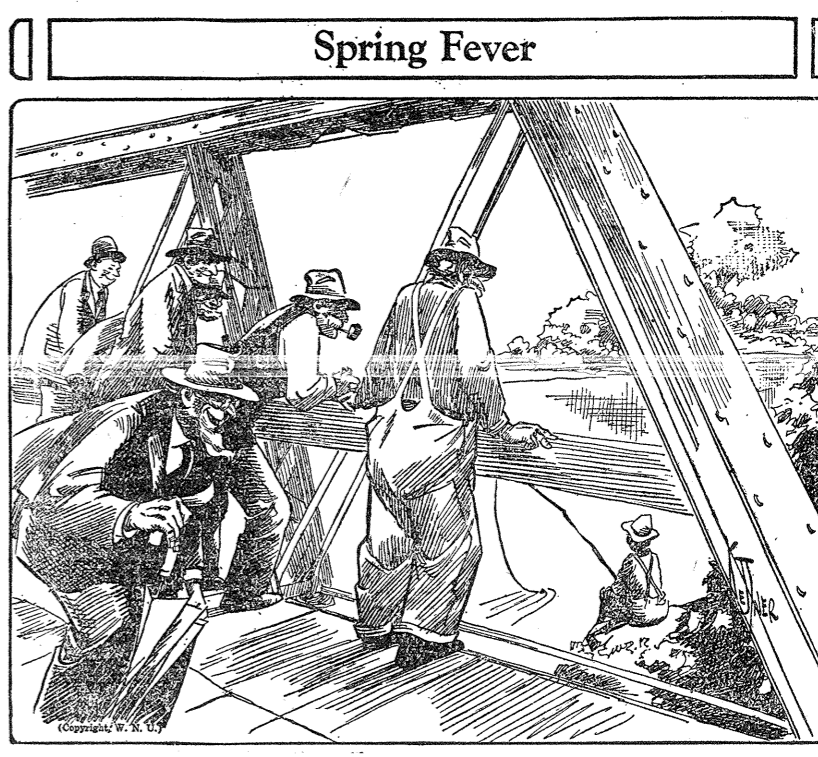

Mrs. Joseph Premo.

"I think Konjola is the most wonderful medicine in the world, and I have reason to think so, for I suffered for a number of years with stomach and kidney troubles and Konjola was the only medicine that gave me more than temporary relief," said Mrs. Joseph Premo, 1224 Johnson street, Saginaw. "Gas formed in my stomach, pressed up around my heart, caused it to palpitate and made it hard for me to get my breath. I had terrible pains in my chest. The pains in my back, resulting from kidney trouble, also were very severe.

"An indorsement of Konjola by a lady I knew, and with whose case I was acquainted, led me to give this splendid medicine a trial. The first bottle proved to me that I had found the right medicine. After taking the treatment for just one month I felt fine. My ailments are gone, pains have vanished, and I have the strength and energy a mother of two children needs. Do you wonder that I am grateful for Konjola?"

Why not let such happy experiences as that of Mrs. Premo point the way for you to new and glorious health? A complete treatment of from six to eight bottles of Konjola is recommended for thorough relief.

Konjola is sold in Cass City, Mich., at Burke's Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Advertisement 5-16
