C. C. H. S. RELAY TEAM WINS TROPHY

Cass City Places Second at Regional Track Meet at Mt. Pleasant.

The Cass City track team, composed of thirteen men, journeyed to Mt. Pleasant Saturday to the regional track meet and came home with the following medals and trophy: First place in 100 yard dash, won by Hunter; first place in 220 yard dash, also won by Hunter; first place in the half mile, taken by Moss; second place in the high jump, won by Tyo; second place in the low hurdles, won by Simmons; fourth place in the mile, won by A. Doerr; and to finish up a good day, the relay team composed of L. Kelly, Simmons, Warner, and Hunter, walked off with the relay trophy in the remarkable time of 1:38.4. Johnson lost fourth place in the 440 yard dash by one tenth of a second, while Bottrell came within exactly one half inch of winning a place in the javelin throw with a heave of 132 feet. Warner failed to qualify in the low hurdles when he got off to a bad start, by a few tenths of a second. There were seventeen schools competing in Class C. Caro and Cass City of the Thumb district walked off with the honors, Caro winning the meet with thirty-one and a fraction points, and Cass City coming in second with a total of twenty-six and a half points. The boys who placed at Mt. Pleasant will make a trip to the state meet at Lansing this week-end.

Baseball Team Loses.
Playing in a comedy of errors, totaling 24 in all, during the two games, Cass City managed to lose to Mayville and Millington during the past week. The only bright spot of the contest was the hitting of Johnson, Shagena, and Ruhl at Millington last Tuesday. Johnson got three hits, including a home run with Shagena on base, and two singles. His home run tied the score in the seventh inning at three all and started a rally that netted six runs. However, the boys could not hold their lead for in the last inning the Millington team, helped along by several errors and a couple of hits, pushed runs enough across the plate to win the game 8-7. Cass City got men on second and third in the last inning, but were unable to bring them in.

MRS. DODGE RE-ELECTED DISTRICT PRESIDENT

Mrs. I. A. Fritz, Mrs. Harriett Dodge and Mrs. Audley Kinnaird attended the eleventh annual meeting of the Port Huron district Women's Home Missionary Society at Armada Thursday and Friday. The meetings were held in the Methodist church and opened at 1:30 p. m. Thursday with a devotional meeting conducted by Mrs. M. G. Moore of Port Huron. The afternoon speaker was Miss Ida L. Kahlo, national field secretary, who used as her subject, "Facing the Task."

A banquet was served Thursday evening in the Congregational church dining room and the night program was continued at 7:00 p. m. in the Methodist church with Mrs. G. D. Miles of Elkton in charge of the young people's meeting. Miss Kahlo used as her subject for the evening, "America for Christ."

The election of officers was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Dodge of Cass City was re-elected president of the district society. Other officers are: First vice president, Miss Ethel Morrow of St. Clair; second vice president, Mrs. Arthur Dundas, Bad Axe; third vice president, Mrs. Lee Van Inwagen, Richmond; honorary vice presidents, Mrs. Ella Hanley of Bad Axe and Mrs. N. G. Moore of Port Huron; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. B. Campbell of Port Huron; recording secretary, Mrs. I. A. Fritz; treasurer, Mrs. D. C. Merrill of Marlette. Mrs. Audley Kinnaird of Cass City was named Lenton and thank-offering secretary. About 125 attended the meetings.

MISS PURDY BRIDE OF D. G. WILSON

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. Purdy of Gagetown was a lovely setting Saturday, May 16, for the nuptial of their daughter, Miss Carolyn Genette Purdy, and Mr. Donald George Wilson, of Elkton, Mich., only son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wilson of Elkton. The Reverend Samuel Tamblin, for many years a close friend of the bride's parents, performed the ceremony at 12:00 noon. The home was simply decorated with pink and white roses, apple and sweet cherry blossoms, and white tapers burning on silver candle-holders. Miss Purdy was attractive in a charming floor-length gown of Alice blue dotted net over taffeta, colonel type taffeta jacket, long white kid gloves and blue moire slippers. She carried a shower bouquet of tea roses and snap-dragons with removable corsage.

Miss Dalia Waneeta Simon of Kalamazoo, college friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a long pale gown of blue chartreuse net over blue satin with taffeta bolero jacket, long white gloves and blue satin slippers. Joseph Tomlinson of Detroit, cousin of the groom, assisted the groom as best man. Clinton F. Seeley sang, "Because I Love You, Dear," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Seeley. A wedding luncheon in the private dining room of Hotel Montague in Caro followed the ceremony. Large bowls of forget-me-nots, sweet peas and baby breath, flanked by burning tapers in silver candelabra and wedding cake, adorned the long table at which the party of fifteen were seated. For traveling, the bride chose a light blue ensemble with small blue straw hat and other matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left immediately for a two weeks' trip to Washington, D. C., Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Watkins' Glen and other interesting eastern points. On their return, they will reside in Elkton where Mr. Wilson is employed as bookkeeper in the Elkton State Bank.

The guests at the wedding were Mrs. Eustis G. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton F. Seeley of Caro, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wilson of Elkton, Miss Helen Fritz of Pigeon, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tamblin of Britton, and Miss Esther Tamblin of Hudson, Mich.

SPECIAL ELECTION ON HOSPITAL QUESTION

Village Voters Will Consider Community Institution on Tuesday, June 2.

"Shall the Village of Cass City purchase, equip and operate a community hospital?"

This is the question which will be decided at a special village election which will be held on Tuesday, June 2. The election was ordered by the village council at their meeting Monday evening, all trustees voting to submit the proposition to the voters.

Both local hospitals have been offered for sale as a community hospital and the decision regarding the purchase of such an institution now rests with the voters of the municipality.

The council, at their meeting Monday, voted to accept $500 as the village's share of the money raised by Elkland township for the highway improvement fund.

James Tennant and P. S. McGregory were named as members of the board of review by Village President West. The appointments were confirmed by the council.

STATE RANKS FIRST FOR GRADING HERDS

Michigan Leads Rivals in Plan to Remove Inferior Animals from Holstein Lists.

Michigan owners of Holsteins stand in first place in the national campaign to improve the breed by a plan of herd classification in which the registration papers of Holstein cows which grade as poor in type are cancelled, according to J. G. Hayes, secretary of the Michigan Association of Holstein Breeders.

More Michigan herds have been inspected and graded under this plan than in any other state. Holstein breeders say that the plan will result in the betterment of the breed type as the cancellation of the papers of any cow reduces that animal to the status of a grade and none of her progeny can be registered.

The herd classification plan recognizes six grades of animals ranging from excellent to poor. Bull calves from a mature cow which does not rate better than fair, the next to the lowest grade, can not be registered, and all owners are urged to select breeding stock only from the better grade animals.

Prospective buyers of Michigan Holsteins now have two means of checking the values of the animals. Milk production records tell the story of the cow's ability to produce milk and butterfat and the herd classification records show how the animal scores in dairy type.

As a means of holding first place in the national betterment plan, five more Michigan herds are listed for inspection and rating during May.

Office Closed Thursday Afternoons.

Dr. P. A. Schenck's dental office will be closed on Thursday afternoons during May, June, July, August, September and October.—Advertisements3

METHODISTS HELD ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Large Number Attended Three Services Celebrating Church Building Anniversary.

Large congregations attended the three services at the M. E. church Sunday which featured the 51st anniversary of the building of the church of that denomination in Cass City. Former members and attendants of the church came from long distances to join the local congregation in the festivities of the day.

Dr. Peter F. Stair, district superintendent of the Port Huron district, delivered the sermon at the morning service. Musical numbers were given by Louis Garner, baritone, and a duet by Mrs. W. A. Wellemeyer and Mrs. F. Hazelwood, all of Vassar. Miss Smith of Vassar served as accompanist.

In the afternoon, Dr. I. A. Fritz read a history of the church society from its organization with seven charter members to the present time. He gave the names of the pastors of the church and many of its early officers, and interspersed his talk with many interesting reminiscences of church life.

Dr. W. Jones of Flint followed Mr. Fritz and briefly reviewed church activities during his 15 years of residence in Cass City. Musical numbers included a vocal solo by Miss Veda Bixby, a selection by the high school girls' quartet and a piano solo by little Miss Margaret Barthel of Royal Oak. Rev. T. S. Bottrell, pastor of the church, read messages from Rev. R. N. Mulholland, Rev. Wm. Richards, Rev. Ira W. Cargo, Mrs. M. W. Gifford, Rev. Wayne H. Fleenor, and A. A. P. McDowell. These letters congratulated the society on the anniversary celebration and spoke of the pleasant days in their association with the Cass City church and community in years past.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon service by the ladies of the church. The seating capacity of the church Turn to page 8.

THE WEEK IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE

A Resume of the Matters Which Are Claiming Attention of Solons.

The Michigan Press Association's Legislative Letter.

The Senate was still juggling figures in the budget bill as the Michigan Legislature embarked on the last week of the present session. The deliberations of the law-makers have extended over a period of 20 weeks, during which time a record number of bills have been introduced in both branches. Many of the bills never reached final passage, however, and the number actually signed by Gov. Brucker will compare well with the average of recent sessions. Also the bulk of the new laws are local in their application, to meet some definite purpose in some village, city or county. An effort was being made to adjourn by Wednesday, with chances that the end would come Friday.

The indefiniteness of the final total of the budget figures for the next two years hinged on the adoption of the plan to divert at least $3,000,000 of highway funds for general state purposes. This move was set in motion late in the last week in the senate and there remained doubt as to whether the House members would agree.

Gov. Brucker announced that the passage of the malt tax over his veto was not satisfactory insofar as meeting the House members would agree.

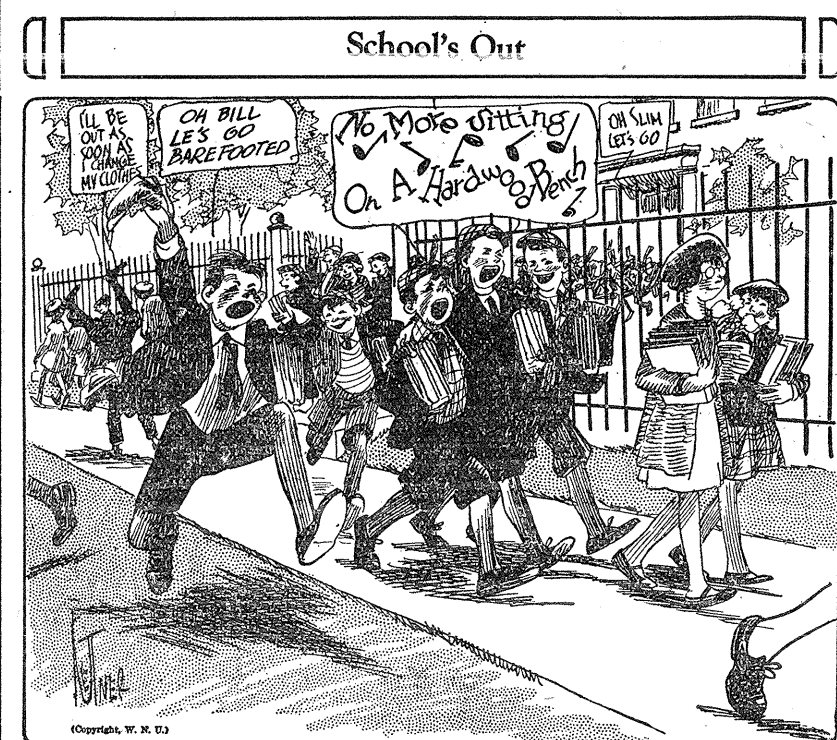

TWO C. C. H. S. PUPILS SECOND AT MT. PLEASANT

Two pupils of the Cass City High School were among the honor students at the sixth annual scholastic contest conducted at Mt. Pleasant by the Central State Teachers' College on Friday.

Miss Florence Schenck was awarded second in English X, better speech. Maynard Doerr stood second in the plane geometry test.

A change in the time of day will be made this year in that the program at Elkland cemetery will be held in the forenoon instead of the afternoon as has been the custom for many years.

The program will be printed in the Chronicle next week.

The Church of Christ is arranging the usual program for Memorial Day at the church in Novesta township.

JOE WINDY INJURED IN RUNAWAY SATURDAY

Joe Windy had six ribs cracked and suffered other injuries when his horses ran away Saturday and dragged a manure spreader over him. He is a patient at the Morris hospital.

Mr. Windy's hat was carried away by the wind as he was working on his farm three miles southeast of Cass City. As he was leaving the spreader, his foot slipped and he fell behind the team. This frightened the horses and started the runaway.

STORES CLOSE ON MEMORIAL DAY

MICHIGAN FARMS SCORE FAVORABLY

When Compared with Other States in Maintaining Stable Land Values.

Michigan scores favorably in comparison with other states in maintaining more stable farm land values, even in the face of the present depressing influences surrounding agriculture. While the state's land values have been carried downward from the high point reached in 1920, the extent of the drop has been much less than for the United States as a whole and less than for any other corn belt state. Taking the average value of all farm lands, including improvements, for the period 1912 to 1914 as a base, or 100 per cent, it is found that farm real estate values steadily advanced in Michigan from 1912 until, in 1920, they were 54 per cent above the pre-war level. Since that year, they have been lower each successive year and are now only 15 per cent above the base period.

For the United States as a whole, farm lands rose in value to 170 per cent in 1920 and have since declined to 106 per cent. The respective values for some of the leading agricultural states are as follows: Ohio, 159 and 82 per cent; Indiana, 161 and 72 per cent; Illinois, 160 and 80 per cent; Wisconsin, 171 and 104 per cent; Minnesota, 213 and 116 per cent; Iowa, 213 and 98 per cent; Missouri, 167 and 79 per cent; Nebraska, 179 and 106 per cent; and Kansas, 151 and 103 per cent. The only states showing a less decline than Michigan are the New England group, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Florida, New Mexico, Nevada, and the Pacific Coast states. In general, the states experiencing the greatest appreciation during and immediately following the war have suffered the heaviest slump in values since 1920. These deductions are made by the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service and are based upon yearly reports of per-acre land values made by Federal-State crop reporters for their individual localities to the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

It will be noted further that the states reporting the greater declines in value are those whose farming activities center chiefly around grain and livestock production. In Michigan, New York, New England and the Pacific coast states where extensive diversification is practiced through the inclusion of fruit-growing, truck farming, dairying or other specialized forms of agriculture, the change in land values has been the least marked. Hence, the farmers in these states are in a relatively better position today than in other sections of the country, just as the manufacturing and business concerns whose invested capital has maintained the greatest stability through this period of rapidly changing values are now looked upon as the safer investment.

There is always a strong urge to invest in any commodity when its value is moving rapidly upward. This was the case with farm lands between 1918 and 1920. Many farms in the middle-western states were purchased during those years at highly inflated values, often with very limited down-payments. Those farms have since declined in value to such an extent that the mortgages in many cases exceed the value of the property.

The PAUSE that SAVES MONEY on House Paint

Is it smart to save 75c at the Spigot and waste dollar after dollar at the Bung?

BEFORE you buy any house paint or let any contract, pause long enough to get actual figures on the year in and year out economy of NEW ERA House Paint as compared to "ordinary" house paint. Of course, you may save 50c to 75c per gallon on ordinary paint. But you get short covering quality. You use 30% more gallons. You get 40% shorter life. In five years you paint twice with ordinary house paint to once with Acme Quality NEW ERA. In other words, by paying a few cents more per gallon for this super-quality paint, you save by the job and by the year. Ask us for the actual figures of what this NEW ERA economy will mean on your house. Do this before you spend a nickel for house paint of any kind.

"NEW Iso-Vis Proved Excellent in BUICK"

Reports A.A.A.

EXCELLENT is hardly the word. Read these facts gathered on the Indianapolis Speedway and certified by the American Automobile Association.

- 1 New Iso-Vis did not thin out from dilution.
- 2 During entire 9,000 mile tests, all parts of engine and chassis were lubricated effectively.
- 3 Only 1 quart of oil—Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy)—was used in 1,000 miles at 30 m. p. h.
- 4 Carbon formed was only 5.4 grams per cylinder at 30 m. p. h. using Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy).

5 The cylinder wear was too little to measure.

New Iso-Vis stands out on every one of these important qualities. Here are figures for other oils to shoot at.

They give dramatic proof of the protection given by New Iso-Vis—the only motor oil that will not thin out from dilution.

New Iso-Vis proved itself in 12 other cars on the track. No matter what make you drive, your car needs the protection of

New Iso-Vis. Change your oil and fill up with New Iso-Vis at once.

McCORMICK-DEERING SERVICE—Always Ready When You Need It

YOUR community is served by a well-established McCormick-Deering dealer, as is practically every farming community in the land. His stocks and service are backed up by this large, permanently established International Harvester branch house right here in your own section. In McCormick-Deering dealers' stores the repair bins are well stocked with genuine IHC repair parts. Thousands of these dealers maintain completely equipped service stations, offering factory-standard service on all International Harvester equipment. Additional service stations are being established as rapidly as they are justified by business in the community.

As a direct result, McCormick-Deering service is better today than it was last year or 10 years ago; our resources and reputation are your guarantee that it will be still better when the tractor or any other machine you buy today is 10 years old.

It is our business to protect you in this way, and we take our obligation seriously. It is your business to buy where you get the greatest value; not just the day you sign the order, but through every day and every year you rely on your purchase for cost-reducing work in your fields.

The lack of a small $1 repair part can easily cost you $10 or $100 in lost labor or delayed work, for time flies in the producing season and Nature waits on no man. Your men cost you money when they are idle, the same as when they are working. When you need service on a farm tractor or any other machine you need it quick. International Harvester knows this out of 100 years of experience with farm operating equipment and maintains complete service to back up every tractor and machine bearing the McCormick-Deering or International name.

Keep this superior service in mind when you select new power or equipment with which to reduce your crop production costs. Compare McCormick-Deering tractors and machines with any or all others—weighing one feature against another and one quality against another—then you will be doubly glad to buy your equipment where you can get the absolute assurance of good, quick, convenient service which is offered you by this International Harvester branch and the McCormick-Deering dealer serving your community.

Farmall Savings Investment Plan:

Ask the McCormick-Deering dealer for details of this new plan under which you or any other responsible farmer can purchase a Farmall and Farmall equipment now and meet the first payment this fall with just a part of the savings made possible by the new equipment in the production of your corn crop, with two years in which to pay the balance.

"No," said Mary. "It's just standing still and wagging its tail."

4-H CLUB GIRLS TAUGHT BAKING

Growing Girl First Taught to Relieve Her Mother.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The various food preparation and meal planning projects that are carried on among 4-H club girls usually include a unit on making breads of all kinds—both yeast-raised breads and quick breads, such as biscuits, muffins, and griddle cakes. These bread clubs are very much liked by the girls, because it often happens that the first help the growing girl is called on to give in her home is to make biscuits or muffins so as to relieve her mother of this task. As she gradually gains skill she is entrusted with more ambitious baking—yeast bread and cakes, and sometimes becomes so proficient that she can make a little extra money herself from the sale of her baked products. At one time or another most bread-club girls participate in demonstrations at county and state fairs, and often win substantial prizes by their exhibits.

The picture shows Hazel Connor, a New Hampshire 4-H club girl, starting to make some biscuits. Hazel has done the cooking for the entire family for the past three or four years, for her mother is an invalid. She has found the knowledge gained in club work of considerable help to her.

The standard recipe for biscuits which many 4-H girls use is in Farmers' Bulletin 1450-F, Home Baking, which is free to anyone writing to the Preparing Dough for Biscuits.

United States Department of Agriculture, but in case some reader wants to use it at once, it is given here:

Baking Powder Biscuits.

1 cup milk 4 tsp. baking powder
3 cups sifted soft 1 cup salt
wheat flour 1 tsp. salt
4 to 6 tbs. fat

Either milk or water may be used as the liquid in baking powder biscuits and the quantity varied to obtain the kind of biscuits desired. Some persons prefer the texture of a biscuit made from very stiff dough, using as little as possible. Others like a lighter biscuit, for which the dough is made very soft by using more liquid and combining very lightly. Drop biscuits which are not rolled out may be made by adding more liquid than for a soft dough.

All dry ingredients are mixed and sifted together. The fat is worked in, and the liquid is added to this fat and flour mixture. Cutting the fat into the flour with knives, a pastry fork or a biscuit cutter is often recommended to avoid warming or handling it too much, but the tips of the fingers may be used if the work is done quickly.

Sour milk may be substituted for sweet if a scant half teaspoonful of soda is used to neutralize one cupful of sour milk. Two teaspoonfuls of baking powder are then omitted, but the other two teaspoonfuls of baking powder are used.

VEGETABLES FOR USE IN WINTER

Two Combinations Will Add Variety to Menu.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Before the spring vegetables are all available, one must still depend on carrots, onions, celery, and other winter vegetables several times a week. Here are two ways of combining some of these to give a little variety in the menu. Both recipes are from the bureau of home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. Either dish is substantial enough for a main course at luncheon.

Vegetable Curry.

½ cup rice 4 tbs. butter or
1 cup diced onion other fat
1 cup diced carrots ½ tsp. salt
1 cup diced celery ¼ tsp. curry
1 cup fresh or 2 tsp. worcester-
canned peas shire sauce

Wash the rice and cook in two quarts of boiling salted water. Drain in a colander, pour cold water through, and let stand over steam until the grains swell and become separate. Cook the vegetables in a small quantity of water and just before removing from the stove add the canned peas, or if fresh peas are available, cook them with the other vegetables. Use the liquid from the vegetables and add the fat, salt, curry, and sauce. On a hot platter make a ring of the cooked rice, pile the vegetables in the center, pour over them the liquid mixture, and serve very hot.

Vegetable Loaf.

3 tbs. melted butter or other fat
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup chopped cooked celery
1 cup diced cooked carrots
1 cup cooked or canned peas or string beans
½ cup chopped nuts
4 tbs. liquid from cooked vegetables
2 eggs, beaten
1 tsp. salt
Pepper

Mix the fat with the bread crumbs, and reserve about one-fourth cupful for the outside of the loaf. Mix together all the ingredients, form into a loaf on a sheet of greased paper, cover the surface with the crumbs, place on a rack in an uncovered pan, and bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes. The loaf should then be hot through and the crumbs golden brown. Serve with tomato sauce.

Five-Minute Cabbage Is Valuable for Vitamins

Five-minute cabbage gives one, in a hot cooked vegetable, the crisp texture of cabbage that has been made into slaw. As it is cooked only enough to heat thoroughly, this helps to retain vitamins that make cabbage an important item, especially in the winter menu. The recipe is from the bureau of home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

2 cups milk 3 tbs. melted but-
1½ quarts shredded cabbage 3 tbs. flour
1 cup cream or rich milk Salt
Pepper

Heat the milk and cook the cabbage in it for two minutes. Add the cup of cream or rich milk, the blended fat and flour and the seasoning; cook rapidly for three or four minutes and stir constantly. The cabbage retains its crispness and is delicate in flavor and color.

Afternoon Tea Sandwich

Cut nut bread in one-fourth inch slices. Spread lightly with butter. Mash cream cheese with a fork; season with salt and paprika and thin out slightly with pineapple juice. Spread one slice of bread with cheese and then with a generous layer of crushed pineapple, well drained. Cover with second slice and press lightly together. Cut diagonally. These sandwiches are popular for afternoon tea.

WELL LIGHTED WORK CENTERS FOR KITCHEN

Farm Kitchen With Well Lighted Work Centers in Good Sequence.

Limited wall and floor space have been used to good advantage in the farm kitchen shown in the accompanying photograph. This picture was taken by the United States Department of Agriculture, after the farm home-maker had introduced certain changes suggested by the home demonstration agent. Extension workers in many states have made a special point of encouraging the home-maker to scrutinize her kitchen arrangement and equipment and see if she cannot place the major pieces so that her work is routed naturally.

Notice the long contour under the supply shelves, where work can be done within easy access to the sink and running water; similarly, the short distance from the sink, where pans must be filled with water for cooking, to the range; the double drain boards; the two windows; the electric light over the sink, but slightly to one side of it, so the worker does not cast her own shadow over the dish washing; the high stool; the lineoleum covered floor. Storage closets under the work counter take care of utensils and supplies that are not constantly needed. The equipment in this kitchen is not expensive, but it is very conveniently arranged.

The Chronicle's Liner Ads Are Read for Profit—
Use Them for Results!

Let's have a SHOWDOWN on this matter of TIRE Comparisons

WITH all the conflicting claims published about tires, it is obvious that misleading statements are being made. The only conclusion that you as a tire buyer can draw is that either we, as Firestone Dealers, are misrepresenting Firestone products, or that a certain mail order house is not telling the truth about theirs. Both can't be right—one or the other is misleading the public by their comparisons.

Firestone, in their advertising, only make comparisons that can be easily verified by the customer before buying tires. To attempt to substantiate the comparisons made by this mail order house, it would be necessary to go into a laboratory and employ experts.

The very reason that the comparisons made in Firestone advertising enable you to get the facts yourself, makes it unnecessary for Mr. Firestone to make affidavit on the truth of his statements or to file any complaint with the Federal Trade Commission, and then advertise it, in an attempt to lead the public to believe his statements were true.

Mr. Firestone doesn't ask you to accept comparisons about Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires until you see the facts yourself. Neither do we. All we ask is that you make your own comparison.

We have cross-sections cut from special brand mail order tires purchased from stocks of mail order house and from Firestone Tires—no "tricky" or misleading comparisons—come in today and make your own comparisons for Quality, Construction, and Prices. YOU and YOU ALONE be the judge!

*A "Special Brand" Tire is made by a manufacturer for distributors such as mail order houses, oil companies and others, under a name that does not identify the tire manufacturer to the public, usually because he builds his "first line" tires under his own name. "It is more important to use an antiseptic for the stomach, bowels and kidneys than an antiseptic for the mouth and teeth for the reason that 95% of all diseases arise from intestinal disorders. I have prescribed Dr. Burnham's SAN YAK as a laxative and kidney diuretic for swelling of the limbs, high blood pressure with rheumatism, dizziness and diabetes and found it the one and only product I would be willing to tie to. San Yak is the only laxative I ever prescribed that does not irritate and flush away the mucous membrane of the lower bowel. Hence its use in moderation is highly commendable to health." Thirty-five Years Ago.

May 22, 1896.

For some time past there has been more or less talk about securing means of lighting our streets. Last week a representative of a Chicago firm visited our town and discussed the matter quite freely with our citizens as to cost, advantages, etc. As a result of this, a petition has been circulated among our rate payers for presentation to the village council praying that a contract be entered into with suitable parties for placing arc lights upon our streets at 12 different points to cost not more than $50 a light per year.

According to announcement, Herbert Leon Cope appeared at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening in his impersonations, character sketches, etc. It was one of the best entertainments ever given here.

The business portion of our fair village narrowly escaped a severe scorching on Sunday. For many years there has not been known to be such a furious and continuous wind storm as that which began early Sunday morning and had not spent its strength until late in the evening. Fire was discovered in the residence of S. Jamieson on West St., opposite the Cass City foundry, between five and six o'clock in the evening. A stream of water and a bucket corps soon had the fiery element under control for which all were extremely thankful.

The house just south of the river belonging to Samuel Little was destroyed by fire Tuesday night.

Things to note when you drive the new Pontiac

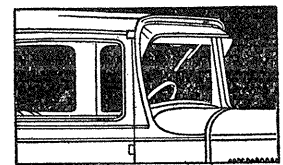

The moment you step into this car you will begin discovering pleasant things. First, how easily Pontiac handles—answering your lightest touch. The slender steel-and-rubber wheel invites a "finger grip"—and that's quite sufficient. You use little effort in braking or clutching.

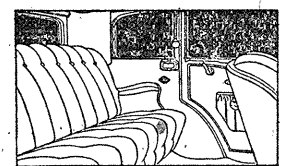

You'll remark the quick getaway . . . the rapid acceleration . . . the smoothly sustained speed. Pontiac has a 60-horsepower engine so ample in size that it need never be overworked. Hence it stays smooth.

You'll experience a new riding ease. Springs are deep; seat-cushions agreeably form-fitting, of course. But more important, Pontiac's chassis is cushioned with live rubber at more than 42 points.

You'll sense extra security in Pontiac. The famous Fisher Body wood-and-steel construction is snugly insulated against outside cold, heat, and dampness. Cowl and windshield pillars are built in one piece—a leak-proof, rattle-free construction. The first touch on the big brakes tells the story of unusual stopping power.

You'll find the Pontiac interior tastefully fitted, appointed, finished. Rich long-wearing mohair or whipcord in the closed cars—select leathers in the open models. In all, an atmosphere of fine craftsmanship pleasing to your pride.

Summing up, you'll agree that Pontiac Six is indeed a happy medium—the kind of car you want at the price you want to pay.

More Than Million in Twenty States Fed by Red Cross Volunteers

Hot School Lunches and Balanced Rations Given to Drought Victims—Seed Programs Instituted on Wide Scale

More than 1,000,000 persons in 862 drought-stricken counties of 20 States came under the care of the American Red Cross in what developed into the most extensive relief operations in half a century of ministering to stricken humanity.

Measures to lessen the severity of the blow inflicted by drought were taken as early as last September, when seed was distributed to more than 58,000 families for the planting of rye and other pastures, and to more than 27,000 families for the planting of kitchen gardens. The expenditure for this purpose amounted to $326,800. Green vegetables were made available up to the first of January.

Early in February another Red Cross garden program got under way and 507,000 packages of seed were distributed in 15 states. Quarter-acre plots were planted to beans, peets, cabbage, carrots, collard, sweet corn, kale, lettuce, mustard, okra, onions, peas, spinach, squash, tomatoes and turnips. Once again were farm families given the opportunity to participate in their own salvation.

A comparatively mild winter contributed to the success of the Spring and Fall seed campaigns. Many habitual single-croppers were introduced to the advantages of kitchen gardens, balanced cropping and balanced diet. Numerous land-owners have expressed the opinion that this constitutes the one apparent blessing to come out of the drought catastrophe. The United States Department of Agriculture and the local county agricultural agents and home demonstration agents cooperated in making this part of the relief operations outstandingly successful.

Balanced Meals Served

Red Cross feeding was aimed at adequacy and scientific correctness, as well as simple economy. In large numbers of schools, where children were found to be attending with little or nothing in their lunch boxes, hot meals were served at noon. A typical menu consisted of vegetable soup and bread one day; thick beef soup or stew with vegetables another day; cocoa or milk and cheese, peanut butter, or jam sandwiches, a third day.

In some places where lunches were not served in the schools, but were provided for in the regular food orders, each family having school children received extra staples for school lunches including peanut butter, raisins, prunes and tomatoes. Red Cross nutritionists instructed mothers in the preparation of lunches.

County health officers and private physicians commended the adequacy of rations procured on orders issued by Red Cross chapters, which were filled at local stores. Besides the usual staples, such as corn meal, flour, lard, meat, beans and potatoes, such items as canned salmon, cabbage, tomatoes, vegetables and milk were provided, each order being adapted to the special needs of the family for whom it was issued. Where pellagra threatened, eggs, yeast and other preventives were given.

Thousands of Volunteer Workers

Many thousands of volunteers, through their local Red Cross chapters, gave freely of their time, experience and efforts, as in other Red Cross disaster operations. They searched out needy cases in their communities, many persons being restrained from asking assistance because of pride. Chapter committees investigated circumstances, distributed food and clothing.

More than 500 carloads of foodstuffs were contributed. These were given free haulage by railroads. Farmers of more fortunate sections embraced the opportunity to help their pastoral cousins of the affected area. Shipments ranged from live poultry to fish, from grain to grapefruit. Carloads of flour, eggs, beans, vegetables, onions, rice, corn and mixed vegetables were included.

As the result of co-ordinated Red Cross chapter efficiency, not one unauthenticated case of starvation as a result of drought has been uncovered.

Large quantities of new and used clothing were distributed. In direct consequence many school children resumed their studies who had been kept at home for lack of sufficient protection from the elements. In some instances, rural schools that had been closed were enabled to reopen as a result of Red Cross relief work.

States involved were: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia.

Many of these States had been hard hit by a succession of floods, crop failures, low prices and economic depression, and drought constituted a climax to the cycle of distress.

"Wherever I went," wrote one observer, "I made a point of asking what would have happened if the Red Cross had not been able to respond. In widely scattered points, from leading citizens, came the answer that undoubtedly there would have been many deaths directly from starvation, with epidemics preying upon the undernourished."

Betty Schommer of Port Sanilac was individual winner of the girls' events with a first in the high jump and second in the 50 yard dash.

Applegate girls won a thrilling baseball game from the Argyle girls by a score of 13 to 12.

The Argyle boys won from the Snover boys in the championship baseball game by a score of 7 to 2. This also was a thriller until the last inning when Argyle scored three runs off the offerings of Philpot, the Snover hurler.

THE WEEK IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE

ing his ultimatum that the legislature must find new sources of revenue to relieve the property tax. He had announced that unless the tax problem was settled satisfactorily he would call a special session to deal with the matter of finances. The last-minute attempt to make use of some of the road funds was regarded as an effort to meet the Governor's purpose. There was much outside opposition to such diversion.

The Senate was also urged to pass the House bill providing for a $1.00 rod license fee for all anglers above the age of 18 years.

A special message from the governor urged the passage of the Culver bill, patterned after the Indiana plan, and providing that the state tax commission may review expenditures of any municipality having a debt of 30 per cent of its delinquent taxes, or having a tax rate of 4 per cent, upon petition signed by three per cent of the taxpayers. The bill had been defeated once in the House, lacking three votes for passage, but after receipt of the Governor's message, it was taken from the table and approved, 67 to 25. Action in the Senate is being pushed in the face of opposition from the mayor and other leaders in Detroit. Most of the upper peninsula members also opposed the bill, claiming that it provided for state interference in local home rule.

The Governor's championing of the cause was explained by the growing tendency of extending state aid to local community projects, tending to encourage waste unless the state may have a voice in the manner in which the money is being spent.

The vote on the malt tax veto came under a call of the House, bringing in every member to vote who could be reached. In this way 98 of the members were brought together, the vote resulting in the passage by a 71 to 27 vote. The Senate had previously overridden the veto, 25 to 4. The $225,000 estimated to be derived from the tax will be used to make up a deficit of over a million owed by the state to tuberculosis sanatoriums under the law providing $1.00 a day for indigent patients; $400,000 for a tuberculosis sanatorium to be built in the northern part of the lower peninsula in the next two years. Any surplus is to be used for the care of tuberculosis patients.

By a concurrent resolution in the House, the new sanatorium is to be named the "Ming State Tuberculosis Sanatorium." Passage of the malt tax with provision for the new state institution was generally accepted as the result of the long and tireless campaign waged by Fred Ming, speaker of the House. Its acceptance over the gubernatorial veto was also a tribute to the confidence members repose in the man who presides over them in their sessions. Mr. Ming was visibly affected by the display of confidence in his behalf, and the tears of a strong man overcome with joy were to be seen by those who rushed into his private office to congratulate him. Later the Senate moved to insert the name of Senator Campbell of Indian River in the resolution, proposing to give the institution the name of Ming-Campbell. This action was not regarded favorably in the House, although it was acknowledged that Senator Campbell had lent the measure his support.

The tax calls for a levy of 5 cents a pound on malt extract or syrup and 5 cents per gallon on wort, or diluted malt; a registration fee of $5 annually by manufacturer or dealer in the product; and $5 per vehicle used exclusively in the business of selling, manufacturing, or transporting the product.

The House, seemingly undiscouraged by the cold reception of its several new tax measures sent to the Senate, last week adopted an old age pension bill introduced by Rep. Haight of Lansing and providing that the funds be derived by the collection of a poll tax of one dollar.

The vote on the measure was close, 53 to 42, and many of those voting negatively explained their vote by saying that their opposition was due to the manner in which it was proposed to provide the necessary funds. Also, some of them contended, the $2,000,000 estimated to be available through the poll tax, would not nearly be enough to pay $30 a month to all over 70 years of age, the limit set in the bill. The Senate is not taking the bill seriously, due mostly to the pressure of providing revenue for projects already contracted for.

ceed the present value of the farms. It is this class of farm investors who have suffered most severely. It is probable that, with the present financial depression approaching its end, land values are very close to the bottom and many economists are predicting that they are now cheaper than they will be for several decades, and possibly cheaper than they may ever be in the future. It would seem from these indications that, notwithstanding the present unfavorable prices of farm products, now is the most opportune time for the young man who intends to engage in farming to make his investment while farm lands are available at the present low prices. On the other hand, it is not a favorable time for farm owners to voluntarily dispose of their holdings when farm values appear to be at or very near the bottom level.

C. C. Band's First Concert

Much credit is due Frank Lenzner who in just four weeks' time has so thoroughly drilled the members of the band, that they made an exceedingly creditable appearance. —Tri-County Chronicle, June 14, 1931.

Judges, at Maccabee Temple, cornerstone dedication, Port Huron, gave C.C. band credit for playing third best out of twenty-one bands.

Frank Lenzner instructed every C. C. band from May 10, 1931, to June 2, 1932. No member paid one cent for band instruction. All money received for playing at picnics, fairs, excursions, etc., was divided among the players. (The same plan could work today.) June 2, 1932, was the end of band concerts, street concerts, and C. C. Band.

Frank Lenzner, tuba soloist, Gorton's Gold Band for seven years, played 1832 nights in 39 states, Ont., Quebec, N. B., N. S., P. E. I., Man., and B. C.

Mr. Lenzner's tuba solo, "Auld Lang Syne," with variations was a most artistic rendition indeed.—Michigan City (Ind.) Evening Dispatch, Mar. 17, 1890.

The rendering of "Auld Lang Syne" with variations by Frank Lenzner could not be excelled.—Port Hope, Ont., May 24, 1890. Other solos played, "Lenzner's Polka," "Blue Bells of Scotland," with variations, can be seen at residence.

Frank Lenzner furnished music and instruction free to three C. C. School orchestras. The last one gave a concert of eight selections, three piano solos, cornet duet, violin duet, saxophone solo, baritone solo, sextette orchestra, in C. C. H. School, May 13, 1927.

After this program by request of the C. C. H. S. Music Teacher, Frank Lenzner's Sextette Orchestra played at the opening of the new C. C. H. S. building.

A few of Frank Lenzner's music pupils: Dan Ahr, clarinet, U. S. Navy band; Charles Kercher, saxophone, Saginaw Symphony Orchestra; Evelyn Robinson, Clare Bailey, cornet; Hazel Eno, Phyllis Lenzner, piano.

The above is for the benefit of the would-be know-it-all critics.

Two Music Lessons Free.

From January 1931 every 1931 music pupil will receive two lessons free for every twenty lessons on piano, organ, violin, cornet or any other musical instrument, at $1.00 per one hour lesson.
