The World Question
His Heart Cut Out
Paying for the War
To Live 100 Years

The world question is: "What is Germany's condition?"

The second question: "What would happen to the world if German industry and finance should collapse?"

That probably will not happen, although German effort to borrow $500,000,000 to bolster the Reichsbank shows how difficult the situation is, even after President Hoover's energetic action temporarily stopping payments under the Young plan.

Another racketeer killing in New York city emphasizes, horribly, the brutality and bitter hatred that inspire these killings. Carmelo Liconti, racketeer connected with the Brooklyn Barbers and Longshoremen's union, was the victim. His throat had been slashed, the head almost severed from the body, and his heart actually had been cut out.

Human nature develops hideously when contempt for law becomes universal, as it has done recently in the United States, when officials supposed to enforce the law share the profits of lawbreakers, and fear of punishment is removed.

This column has occasionally remarked during the recent "sky-the-limit" boom: "Sooner or later the world will begin to pay for the big war, and will not enjoy the process." The world, including this part of North America, is paying now, and not enjoying it.

The moratorium simply recognizes the fact that you can't get blood out of a stone, even a German stone, and that it would not pay to drive into bankruptcy one of the world's great industrial and financial national units.

John D. Rockefeller says he hopes to live 100 years, and his fellow citizens hope that he will. He has rendered one great service, proving the foolishness of unrestricted competition, the most wasteful thing in the world.

And, having accumulated hundreds of millions, he spends them usefully for science and education. The people would like to see him live to one thousand years, except that it would not amuse him.

Japanese scientists at the Kyoto Astronomical observatory have added another to our family of planets circling around the sun and going with it through space, heaven knows where. The new planet is no dwarf, for its diameter is 3,000 miles greater than that of the earth. It was discovered to the south of the "Snake Charmer Constellations," about one hundred million miles from the earth.

This planet is another monument to the great Newton. It flies around the sun in its orbit, held in space by mysterious gravitation, in accordance with Newton's formula.

And there is something, call it "imponderable ether" or what you like, between the sun and the planets. No force could act through a vacuum.

Miss Camilla Kelly of Memphis, Tenn., officially known as "Judge Camilla," in a sound speech says that in women misbehavior is "just a little worse than in men."

Judge Camilla says God holds women to a higher degree of responsibility, because they are mothers of the race. Men, she thinks, "have been a little deceived by their superiority complex."

Misbehavior in women is as shocking as the sight of a rose floating in a sewer. If it were a turnip or a potato it would not be so bad.

Women are the roses, men the turkeys, and women ought to remember it. But they don't when they drink cocktails, dress indecently, cultivate the use of profanity, drag jewels that foolish husbands give them through speak-easies, where gangsters are quietly taking notes.

A new kind of war flourishes among our friends in Asia. On Japanese soil, Koreans have taken to killing Chinese, in violent mob uprising. Eighty-two killed recently included three women.

Chinese, retaliating, destroy Korean irrigation works, ruining the rice fields. Those that expect peace to cover the earth very soon are too optimistic. While mere difference of race breeds hatred, there can be no safe peace.

A French cartoon shows a lion and a lamb in a circus cage. The circus owner says: "Sometimes they do not agree." Asked: "What do you do in that case?" He replies: "We get a new lamb."

Let us hope the United States will remember that, and not play the part of the peace lamb, since it must live among fighting nations.

Trotzky, exiled from Russia, says only 5 per cent of Russians live as "Socialists," and wants Russia to put Stalin out of power. That suggests a fable in which the mice decided that somebody should put a bell on the cat, that all might know when the cat was coming. No mouse wanted the job of "belling the cat."

Marvelous are the changes in our highways, many the billions spent on them within a quarter of a century. And the country owes that to manufacturers of automobiles.

COTTONSEED IS SAFE FEED FOR DAIRY COW

Cottonseed meal contains no substance which is injurious to cattle even when it is fed in quantities as large as six to eight pounds daily over long periods if a proper amount of good roughage is fed to the cattle at the same time, and anyone who doubts the statement can convince himself by examining the group of cattle which will be exhibited Farmers' Day, Friday, July 31, at Michigan State College.

The cows and heifers which will be shown have been on the cottonseed meal diet long enough to determine that this concentrate is no more dangerous than any other protein feed. The difficulties that have been encountered in heavy feeding with concentrates are due to a lack of balance between the amounts of the concentrates and the roughage rather than to any poisonous substance in the protein feed.

This group of animals is only one of the points of interest which the dairy department at the college offers the Farmers' Day visitor. Ten Holsteins will be shown to demonstrate the ratings given by the Holstein Friesian Association in grading the animals for type. Three excellent, three very good, three good plus, and two good Holsteins are included in the group.

The dairy and soils department are cooperating in pasture fertilization tests and members of these departments will be at the experimental plots to explain the amounts and kinds of fertilizers which have been used. Some of the analyses have increased the growth of grass on the plots so that the amount of grazing provided has been greatly increased.

A Guide to Others

"Any man," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "can teach the rules of proper moral conduct, but no man can be relied on to follow all his own teachings."—Washington Star.

Nugget of Wisdom

Kindness is the sun of life, the charm to captivate and the sword with which to conquer.

Although the Thumb territory was partly covered in one of the week-end tours suggested by the Northern Division of the Automobile Club of Michigan recently, there remained a part of that locality that the first tour did not touch and with this in mind, the Northern Division have laid out a second trip through the Thumb with Harbor Beach and Port Sanilac as their destination.

Both of these towns, located on Lake Huron, have shown exceptional development as resort centers within the past few years and with the sandy shores of Lake Huron offering an ideal spot for a Sunday picnic, the trip has an attractiveness that should cause many to make the tour.

The route suggested calls for a drive either through Reese, Caro, Cass City into Bad Axe and Harbor Beach, or along the southern highway that travels through Richville, Vassar, Mayville, Marlette, Sandusky, and thence into Port Sanilac. The complete circle may be made using the alternate route for the journey home if the touring party wishes.

Sealing Wax Lesson

First take your stick of silver wax and hold it near the lamp so as to heat it enough to drop a few drops on a round tag. Cover the tag with silver wax, all but the hole in the tag, which we will leave for the cord. After you have one side covered, turn the tag over and run the other side. Then the rim on both sides. Be sure to have both sides smooth and if it is lumpy looking, heat the wax enough to run it on smooth.

Next take a stick of purple wax and drop one drop on the tag like number one in drawing. Let it cool, remember this, or your drops, or grapes, will all run together. When it is cool drop another drop beside it, and still another. Keep putting on drops until your design begins to look like a cluster of grapes like number two.

Then come the leaves. They may be fashioned out of green wax with a paring knife or piece of wood. Put a leaf on each side of the cluster like number three. Isn't it pretty? With a lavender cord looped through the hole and either a knot or bead to hold cord together and the ends of cord joined with a drop of purple sealing wax, you have a pendant mother will enjoy wearing.

There is another kind that I am going to tell you about now as it can be put to different uses. Take a medium size tag and with your ruler mark it off so it will look like figure A in the drawing.

Then with a sharp knife cut out the center of the tag, leaving the four sides as pictured. Cover both sides with pretty sealing wax, let us say the gold wax, and put it on a little thicker than you did the basket pendant. Put a few roses and leaves on one side of the pendant like figure B.

Bobby Goats

Two little brothers, Billy and Bobby, were walking with Mother one day. When "Look!" she called out, "And turned round about, 'There's a Billy-goat coming this way!'"

And baby Bobby, clinging to mother, Broke into a lusty boo-hoo, "Ard cried, 'I don't care, 'It's not a bit fair, 'Cause there ought to be Bobby-goats, too!"

—Margaret Wheeler Ross.

Concluded from first page. meeting was held in a barn owned by Samuel Dean and is located 1/2 mile west of Elmwood. The lumber for this barn was rafted up the Cass river and was the first that was ever brought into Elmwood township. It was owned at the time of its erection by Elijah S. White. The quarterly meeting services were held in it before it was used for other purposes and were conducted by Rev. George Graham, Mr. Graham being the first minister to preach in Elmwood township. The first quarterly conference embraced nearly all of Tuscola county. From this circuit as originally organized, new circuits from time to time have been formed, viz: Fairgrove, Cass City, Prairie, Gageton, Tuscola and Caro; also the Almer Free Methodist church in 1878 and the Ellington Nazarene in 1913. The pastors from the time of the first organization of the circuit in 1856 up to the present are: Rev. Geo. Graham, Xenephone O. Smith, W. Warren, C. D. Covik, A. Omans, John S. Witherrall and wife, Father Bradshaw, John Robertson, Mrs. N. J. Remington, E. B. Sutton, C. England, Gee, Wm. Cope, I. Courier, Miser, L. Hage, Roblin, Robt. Rutledge, Lester Clark, Archie Scott, J. W. Munholland, A. C. Crossman, G. E. Gleason, J. E. Harris, M. R. Saigion, J. M. Crandell, J. E. Kelly, Wm. Moore, Ira E. Miller, J. W. Oiling and wife, Wm. R. Sweet, D. W. Ryan, F. E. Kunsman, W. H. Clark, A. M. Bostwick, D. A. Vandoren and E. R. Willson. The three churches now comprising the Cass River circuit are known as the Sutton, Remington and Sunshine. For many years preceding the building of these churches, services were held in homes and schoolhouses, most of which were built of logs. The first church was the Sutton in 1872. This building has been in constant use ever since, having been remodeled in 1914. The first trustees of this church, who were also the building committee, were Simeon Botsford, Wm. R. Robertson, J. W. Ostrander, John Patterson, and A. Wilcox. The first parsonage was located near the Ellington store. Later, one was built one half mile west of the Sutton church, and later in 1911, the present one was built by Rev. Phelps beside the Remington church. The Remington church, having been built during the pastorate of Robert Rutledge, in 1890, was remodeled in 1916 and again in 1930. The Sunshine church was built in 1899, remodeled in 1924, services having been previously held in the Sunshine school, and in a building known as the tabernacle, and before that in an old log church. The three churches now known as Cass River circuit are continuing an unbroken service of 75 years and the reports of its last year indicate that it is still growing.

PIONEER BUSINESS WOMAN PASSED AWAY

Concluded from first page. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wickware were active in business and community affairs in Cass City and enjoyed a large acquaintanceship and had many friends in this section of the Thumb of Michigan. For 20 years Mrs. Wickware was engaged in the millinery business here. Not only were her business relations with the public highly commendable but through them she won many friends. Mrs. Wickware went to Detroit about two years ago and for many months had been very ill. After the death of her son, Marc, in that city on Feb. 16th last, she expressed the desire to again reside among the many friends she had won in her early residence in Cass City. In response to this expressed desire, Mrs. Wickware was brought to the hospital here seven weeks ago. While her last days were attended by intense sufferings, they were made the happier by the visits of old friends and she often expressed how glad she was "to be home again."

The tug-of-war engineered by Emory Lounsbury and J. D. Tuckey was won by the Tuckeyites. All betting was suspended when it was learned that 250 pounds of Cleveland might have been secured by the Tuckey fans. Winners of the big league ball game were captained by Robert Dillman, his White Socks winning from the Blue Jeans by a score of 7 to 11. James Wilson, captain of the losers, stated that this was the first loss of the season and he accounted for it by the strict diet on which his men had been placed. At a short business meeting officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Richard Bayley will act as president, Frank Reid was chosen vice president, and Miss Beryl Koepfgen was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Among the former students and guests who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Behara and family of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn Russell and family of Pekin, Illinois, Miss Alison Spence of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Nash of Saginaw, Willard Wells of Flint, George Hoagland of Pontiac, Mrs. McEldowney and Dorothy of Caro, and George and Robert Dillman of Detroit.

It might be stated here that one of the shyest of the fellows having completed his repast with the consumption of three pies told the enquiring reporter that he owed his success in life to total abstinence from pastry. When school assembled after lunch, practically every child was in his accustomed place and it is merely a matter of record here to state that most of Mrs. A. J. Knapp's pupils naturally gravitated to front seats. While their teacher beamed with pride these same youngsters gave a rather unique demonstration of their knowledge of those three "R's"—reading, singing and geography—and proved quite adept at throwing paper wads. At the close of all the lessons, student president, Roy Allen, dismissed school, and not even watermelon could detain the urchins in their rush to get out and play. Little Guy Al-
