D. TYO STEPS OUT AFTER 50 YEARS IN BUSINESS

Veteran Barber Set Up Shop Here in 1881 Before Railroad Reached Cass City.

David Tyo laid down his razor and clippers Friday, Aug. 14, and finished a long career in the barbering business in Cass City. He also released his hold on the record of being the oldest business man on Main Street in continuous years of service in Cass City.

Lacking but four months of 50 years as a tonsorial artist here, Mr. Tyo has gone all the way from 10-cent to 25-cent shaves and part way down again, and has seen his customers drive to his shop in all sorts of conveyances, from ox teams to automobiles. Ox teams, Mr. Tyo says, were more generally used than horses when he arrived in Cass City. Those were the days before the town even had a railroad.

David Tyo started learning the barbering trade in Caro in 1879 and then came to Cass City where, on Dec. 12, 1881, he started in business for himself in the front room of a house located on the corner of Main and Leach Streets, now occupied by the Ricker & Krahling Block. Mr. Tyo, in nearly 50 years as a barber here, has moved his shop six times. The Main and Leach street corner was a favorite spot for him for, at three different periods, he was located on that corner.

Just one man is in business circles here today who was numbered with the business men of Cass City when Mr. Tyo set up shop in Cass City in 1881. He is Wm. Bentley, blacksmith. Mr. Bentley, however, was not continuously in business here during all the years as was Mr. Tyo.

Tyo & Son, the name that has adorned the entrance of the barber shop in the Corkins Building for several years, will continue to hold its position. Alex Tyo succeeds his grandfather, David Tyo, as a partner and will be associated with Alex's father, Clement Tyo. Clement Tyo succeeds his father, David Tyo, as senior partner.

Numbered among the business men in Cass City in 1881 as Mr. Tyo remembers them were J. C. Laing, general merchant; J. L. Hitchcock, hardware; Frank Austin, tinsmith; John Zinnecker, shoemaker; Oscar Lenzner, Sr., furniture; P. R. Weydemeyer, hardware; Warren Weydemeyer, drugs; David Houghton, meat market; Wm. Smith, harnessmaker; Mr. Donahue, meats; Geo. Tennant, hotel; Jerry Bros., Enterprise publishers; Wm. Bentley, Adam Muck and John Bader, all blacksmiths; Henry Wickware, wagonmaker; Wm. Wickware and A. D. Gillies, general stores.

MISS TARNOSKI BRIDE OF RAYMOND McCULLOUGH

In a pretty wedding Monday, August 17, Miss Esther Tarnoski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Tarnoski of Naperville, Ill., became the bride of Raymond S. McCullough of Cass City. The ceremony was performed at the home of Miss Tarnoski in Naperville.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullough are taking a motor trip through Northern Michigan, coming down the west coast. They will spend a few weeks with relatives in Cass City and then make their home for the coming school year in Big Rapids where Mr. McCullough will be a senior in the school of pharmacy.

The bride was graduated from North Central College at Naperville and was home economics teacher in Cass City High School for three years. The past year she taught at Alpena.

The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McCullough of Cass City, was a member of the class of '23 of the Cass City High School and graduated from Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti. Before he began his pharmacy course at Big Rapids, Mr. McCullough taught the Argyle school for three years.

APPLY FOR LICENSE TO MARRY AT CARO FAIR

Earl Hazen, 30, and Gladys Salgat, 20, both of Caro, have applied for a marriage license at the office of County Clerk Guy N. Ormes and it will be issued in time for the young people to be married at the Caro Fair. The groom is the son of Mrs. George Churchill and the young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Salgat.

Other licenses were issued to the following couples:

James Lewis Williams, 24, Otisville; Jessie Dorothy Loree, 18, Caro. Henry Comment, 76, Gagetown; Sarah Gillies, 72, Gagetown. Ernest E. Spencer, 18, Akron; Thelma Freeman, 18, Akron. Clark Hutchinson, 24, Caro; Leota Way, 21, Caro.

Advertise it in the Chronicle.

THE TYO BARBER TRIO

lost its eldest member Friday when David Tyo laid down his shears and razor and ended a career of 51 years as a barber, nearly 50 of which were spent in his own shop in Cass City. The halftone picture shows David Tyo with his son, Clement Tyo, who has worked with his father for about 24 years and Alex Tyo, Clement's son, who started work in the shop a few years ago.

WILL SHOW JOURNEY OF DAIRY PRODUCTS

State College Exhibit at Detroit Fair to Explain Care Needed to Produce Good Milk.

Milk producers and milk consumers will have a chance to see just how much work is involved in the production of milk, its care in handling, and in its distribution when they visit the exhibit which is being prepared for the State Fair at Detroit by Michigan State College.

The exhibit will trace the journey made by this food product from the time it is drawn from the cow's udder until it is placed on the buyer's doorstep. A display of the operations which are needed to produce a whole-some product and to meet the requirements made by boards of health will explain to the consumers why good milk can not be cheap milk.

Visitors will be shown the feeds which must be supplied to maintain the production of milk, the kind of cows which must be kept to produce milk profitably, and the methods used to obtain clean milk. Another portion of the exhibit will show how the milk companies handle this food product after it reaches their plants from the farms.

The home economics department of the college will have a section of the exhibit to show the many ways in which milk and dairy products can be used on the family table. Ways to make milk products an attractive food for children will be a part of this exhibit.

I. SCHONMULLER SELLS TO DETROIT MERCHANTS

I. Schonmuller has sold his stock of shoes and clothing to Jack Singer and Jacob Duchan, both of Detroit. Both new proprietors are experienced merchants and expect to reside in Cass City. They are advertising a closing out sale of the Schonmuller stock in the Chronicle this week.

Welcome news to the community is that the new owners intend to place a much larger line of ladies' furnishing and ready-to-wear in the store.

I. Schonmuller, though not a resident of Cass City since purchasing the Crosby & Son stock here seven years ago, has made frequent business trips here and has made many friends. Though Mr. Schonmuller found business conditions good in Cass City and was favored by a good trade, the distance between Chesaning and Cass City necessitated many long drives and he took advantage of the opportunity to dispose of his stock.

CRIDLAND-GUPPY WEDDING AT BERKELEY

On July 25, Miss Kathryn Cridland of Detroit, formerly of Cass City, became the bride of Mr. Harry Guppy of Berkeley, California. A very pretty wedding, attended by the family and a few intimate friends, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Berger, the latter a sister of the groom.

The bride wore a long full gown of pale pink chiffon, fashioned in the princess style and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas and Cecil-Breuner roses.

The ceremony took place in the early forenoon in front of a bank of pink hydrangeas and pink Amyrillis. Tall candelabras were placed on each side the candles furnishing a very soft lighting effect.

FAIR PROGRAM HERE WAS MUCH ENJOYED

4-H Live Stock Exhibit Exceptionally Good; Free Acts Are Praised.

The unanimity of opinion of those in attendance at the Cass City Fair last week was that the management were fortunate in the selection of the special free attractions. The artists, wardrobes, lighting effects, scenery, and stage equipment of the Jack Champion's ensemble of grandstand attractions are of the best for outdoor entertainment of this character, and his repertoire of 17 different acts won many complimentary endorsements.

Exhibits in all departments were well displayed and of fine quality. The excellent showing of live stock by the 4-H club was viewed by many interested in the exhibits of these progressive boys and young men.

Showmanship Contest.

In the showmanship contest in the 4-H department Kenneth Maharg won the first prize of $10.00. The contest was held in front of the grandstand Thursday afternoon. Other contestants finished in this order: Grover Hulbert, Maynard Doerr, Audley Horner, Merritt Allen, Arthur Battel, and John Esau. Fifty dollars in prizes were offered in this contest by the Nestle's Milk Products, Inc.

Audley Horner exhibited the grand champion Holstein heifer; Grover Hulbert, the grand champion Ayrshire heifer; Merritt Allen, the grand champion Jersey; Jim Milligan, the grand champion beef heifer; Clayton Moore, the grand champion beef steer. The winners named above each received $5.00 in gold, the money coming as special prizes from local banks.

Audley Horner's grand champion Holstein is the daughter of the grand champion of two years ago, while Grover Hulbert was the owner of the grand champion Ayrshire in 1929 and 1930 as well as this season.

Clifton McLean, a Canadian stockman who shows at the Toronto Fair, viewed the 4-H club exhibits at the Cass City Fair last week. He says that Clayton Moore's grand champion beef steer is good enough to go to any of the big fairs.

An outstanding exhibit was the showing of Oxford sheep by Harry Crandell, Jr., a member of the 4-H club here. He will show his sheep at five fairs this fall.

The best C. E. gilt was shown by Jim Milligan, who has been the owner of the best gilt of that breed at the Cass City Fair for three years.

Members of the 4-H club at Cass City expect to exhibit stock at the Caro, Detroit and Saginaw fairs.

There were a large number of trotters and pacers at the fair and nearly all races had plenty of contestants. Wednesday afternoon's results were printed in the Chronicle last week. The contestants of Thursday and Friday with the names of their owners and the way they finished are:

COPIES OF NEW LAW ACTS AVAILABLE SEPT. 1

Municipal, township and county officials and attorneys will be able to obtain copies of the public acts of 1931 about Sept. 1 from the department of state. Laws passed by the last legislature and not given immediate effect, do not become effective until Sept. 18.

The volume of public acts of 1931 is to be similar in size and binding to the compiled laws of 1929 and is being printed in the same form as the compiled laws. Where some act passed by the 1931 legislature, repeals or amends a former act, the new volume will show in bold face "catch lines" not only the section of the compiled laws that is changed but also the page on which the amended act can be found.

NEW LAW REQUIRES SCHOOLS BE NAMED

A law passed by the last legislature provides that within 30 days of Sept. 17, 1931, schoolboards of all districts shall notify the commissioner of schools of the name chosen for the school of which they are officers. The county commissioner checks the list, to eliminate possible duplications, after which the school boards may place mail boxes at the roadside in front of the buildings. After that, mail addressed to the school, giving the proper postoffice, will be delivered by rural carriers.

LAD, STRUCK BY TRUCK, HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Burton Wright, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wright of this place, had a narrow escape from death Thursday morning when he was struck by a truck driven by Harold Reid.

Burton, who was at the home of his uncle, John Whale, on Houghton St., was crossing the road when Mr. Reid turned out to pass a milk man's car and the back part of the truck body struck the boy. He was taken to Pleasant Home hospital where it was at first thought he had suffered a skull fracture, but proved to be severe scalp wounds. He also received a broken big toe and many severe bruises about the body. He was able to be taken to his home Sunday evening.

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION FOR THREE BUSHELS OF WHEAT

Following the lead of the Huron County Tribune, the Cass City Chronicle is offering to trade a year's subscription for three bushels of wheat. Wheat growers who wish to take advantage of this offer to pay their subscriptions for another year are asked to bring their wheat to the elevator of the Farm Produce Co. or the Michigan Bean Co. at Cass City, or the Elkland Roller Mills. A receipt will be given by the grain dealer for the three bushels and this should be brought to the Chronicle office where subscription credit will be given.

Bring in the wheat. The equivalent in cash will not be accepted. This offer may be for a limited time only.

This For That

HAPPENINGS IN THE NEIGHBORING TOWNS

Carefully Selected from Interesting Exchanges for Chronicle Readers.

Lapeer's new post office is to be located on what is commonly known as the Henderson-Holman site, according to official notice received last week by W. F. Olmstead, who has been acting as agent for the several owners of the property. The site is to include all the block bounded by Liberty, Calhoun, Franklin and Monroe streets. The price for the property was somewhat more than the $18,000 which the United States Government is paying for it but several public spirited Lapeer citizens have made up the difference, says Mr. Olmstead. The four owners within the block are Mrs. W. W. Henderson, Elmer Holman, Mrs. H. C. Kudner, and H. W. Davis. The lot owned by Mr. Davis is being contributed without cost to the Postal Department. Getting a new post office building for Lapeer was one of the last pieces of legislation sponsored by L. C. Cramton, former United States representative from this district—Lapeer Press.

Representatives from the State Highway Department at Lansing have been soliciting additional frontage on M-53, from the southern limits of the Marlette village pavement to the village of Burnside, the past week. With the exception of one or two descriptions favorable responses had been made by property owners, and those not secured will probably be released by foreign owners, who have not yet been heard from. Indications point to a completion of part of this section of the Earle Memorial Super-Highway before the winter season sets in—Marlette Leader.

E. O. Spaulding, 82-year-old Caro merchant, last week announced his retirement from the active management of the dry goods and ready-to-wear store which has borne his name in that village for 53 years. The management now falls upon his son, Chas. W. Spaulding, who has been associated with his father for many years.

Fire starting in the barn on the Wm. Cummings farm at Brown City Saturday afternoon destroyed the building, a chicken coop, and all of this season's crops except about five loads of oats. The origin of the blaze is not known.

Little Carol Jean, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tuer of Port Huron, is well supplied with grandparents. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tuer of Pt. Huron and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark of Wyoming, Ontario; and great granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Duckworth of Brown City, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tuer of Port Huron, Mrs. Valley of Detroit, and Mrs. Clark, Sr., of Sarnia, Ontario. Quite an imposing array for one wee miss!

MRS. C. F. SMITH SUFFERING WITH FRACTURED HIP

A week of anticipated pleasure over the promised visit of her daughters and daughter-in-law was changed to weeks of suffering for Mrs. C. F. Smith as the result of a fall onto the cellar floor Saturday morning when she suffered an intercapsular fracture of the femur bone.

Mrs. Smith was carrying a pie to the basement of the parsonage and supposed she had reached the last step when she had still two to go. She is recovering remarkably well.

Revolutionary Movement Threatens Machado's Regime in Cuba—German Reich Saved by Defeat of Radicals.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

Pres. Machado

GERARDO MACHADO, president of Cuba, not long ago scoffed at the danger of revolution in his tight little island. But the threat has materialized in a way to make him sit up and take notice. Rebels in various regions staged outbreaks that alarmed the government and martial law was declared in the effort to stave off civil war. Machado and his cabinet ministers conferred with military and civil advisers, and the martial resources of the republic were hastily mobilized. Troops were sent to the troubled areas and an effort was made to improvise a navy by commandeering private yachts and arming them with eighteen pound guns.

Meanwhile the authorities were gathering up all the known and suspected rebels they could catch and putting them in jail. Hundreds were arrested and charged with treason. Former President Menocal and Colonel Mendieta were credited with the leadership of the revolt and especial efforts were made to get them, but at this writing they are still at large. The most active of the rebels were in the province of Pinar del Rio, and it was reported to President Machado that they, with Gen. Balderio Acosta, mayor of Mariano, as leader, were preparing an invasion of Havana province. Indeed, there were several sanguinary skirmishes only a few miles from the capital, which was isolated by the cutting of communications.

Col. Julio Sanguily, chief of the army flying corps, ordered every available plane to keep on constant patrol along the north coast, especially in Pinar del Rio, and for several miles out at sea, in search of both Cuban and foreign organized filibustering expeditions. Several craft that attempted to escape the navy patrol ships were bombed by the flyers.

Late reports said Menocal, Mendieta and others were on a yacht making their way to Chaparra, Oriente province, where Menocal has a large number of followers. He was at one time manager of the Chaparra sugar mill, the largest in the world.

FOR the time being, at least, the German republic is safe, for the latest attempt to wreck it has failed. This was the move to dissolve the Prussian diet through a plebiscite, which, if it had succeeded, would have imperiled the Reich. The scheme was devised by the Hitlerites or Nationalists, and that other set of radicals, the Communists, joined with them, although their ultimate aims are utterly diverse. But even with the aid of the National Socialists the combination fell some 3,500,000 votes short of accomplishing its purpose.

The French government was almost as pleased by the result of the German plebiscite as was that in Berlin, for it meant that the growing accord between the two nations would not be broken, and it was said in Paris that the proposed visit of Premier Laval to Berlin was now a certainty.

INTERNATIONAL experts charged with the task of dovetailing the Hoover moratorium plan and the Young plan announced in London that they had reached a complete agreement, which was signed at the treasury office. Their communique said: "Complete agreement was reached, as regards the detailed measures required to give effect to President Hoover's proposal in case of payments by Germany under the Hague agreement of January 20, 1930.

"Recommendation of the experts in regard to suspension of these payments have been approved by the governments of Australia, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Greece, India, New Zealand, Portugal, Rumania and South Africa.

"Agreement also was reached in regard to detailed measures for suspension of interallied war debts to the United Kingdom, France and Italy of payments under agreement with Czechoslovakia.

"Agreement also was reached on the principle that payments due by Hungary under the Paris agreement of April 28, 1930, and payments by Bulgaria under the Hague agreement of January 20, 1930, should be suspended during the year ending June 30, 1932.

"But in this case certain adjustments must be made, as complete suspension of these payments might result in suspension of certain classes of payments to individuals. Accordingly, the committee agreed in principle that all payments to funds 'A' and 'B' under the agreement signed at Paris on April 20, 1930, should be continued during the Hoover year.

"Negotiations are continuing in regard to adjustments required in the case of Bulgaria."

PLANTERS of the fourteen cotton states of the South are asked by the farm board to plow under one-third of their crop immediately, in order to enhance the price of the other two-thirds. The board sent telegrams to the governors of the states urging that this course be adopted. In return, said the board, the cotton stabilization corporation will agree to hold off the market its 1,300,000 bales until July 31, 1932, and will urge the cotton co-operatives financed by the board to do likewise.

EDWARD A. O'NEAL, president of the American Farm Bureau federation, announced at a meeting of state farm bureau leaders in Milwaukee that the federation "must renew its demand for an equalization fee" and that the present marketing act was inadequate to cope with agriculture's "most acute problem—control of its surplus crops." The announcement was said to be unexpected by the farm board officials and the administration in Washington.

"The federation has always stood for the principle of the equalization fee, as expressed in the old McNary-Haugen bill, which provides that each unit of a commodity produced shall bear its fair share of the cost of disposal of surplus," O'Neal said. "Desiring to see the marketing act fully tried out, the organization for two years has not insisted upon enactment of the fee principle. It now appears all too plain that the present act does not adequately provide for the needed surplus control."

M. A. Traylor

PROBABLY to his own surprise, a quite a vigorous though small boom has developed for Melvin A. Traylor, Chicago banker, as the Democratic nominee for the Presidency in 1931. It was started in Malone and Hillsboro, Texas, where Mr. Traylor formerly lived and where he is most popular. Then, a few days later, Daniel Upthegrove, president of the St. Louis Southwestern railroad, announced that he would support the banker for the nomination, and that a committee was being formed to further Traylor's candidacy. It is not likely that Mr. Traylor takes the matter seriously except as a compliment, but those who know him and his abilities feel that the Democratic party might go further and fare worse. He is president of the First National bank of Chicago and has been prominent in national and international financial affairs.

REPRESENTATIVE WILLIAM E. HULL of Illinois is another of the members of congress who has been studying things abroad, and he has just been heard from. The special object of Mr. Hull's investigation has been the Bratt system of liquor control in force in Sweden, and his conclusion is that Sweden has solved the problem with which this and other countries are struggling. In a word, he finds the Bratt system works well.

"Very careful to be sure I was getting the correct information," Mr. Hull writes, "I can truthfully say that I haven't seen a single drunken person in Sweden since I have been here. The restaurants are all well patronized, the drinking is light and the drunkenness is nil. The system is well organized and a success."

SENATOR FELIX Hebert of Rhode Island, chairman of the senate committee on unemployment, spent the week end at the Rapidan camp and then gave out, apparently as President Hoover's spokesman, an attack on the ideas of a government dole and federal unemployment insurance. He asserted that the latter would inevitably lead to the dole as it operates in England. Mr. Hebert based his conclusions upon a study of the dole abroad made during a trip from which he recently returned. He visited most of the countries of western Europe for the special purpose of investigating unemployment insurance, and he predicts now that there will be little clamor in congress for the establishment of such a system. He said of the dole: "The main difficulty with the dole system, as it operates throughout Europe, with the possible exception of Italy, is that it is intertwined with politics."

ORGANIZED labor in certain parts of this country is not doing much to help solve the question of unemployment. Quite the reverse. Take the Hoover dam, for instance. The workers on that big project made wage demands that construction company holding the contract considered extortionate, so 125 men quit work. The superintendent immediately shut down operations and about 1,000 men were thrown out of work. The company, he said was six months ahead of schedule and could afford to refuse concessions that would cost $2,000 daily or $3,000,000 during the seven years allowed for completion of the dam. Living conditions for the workers on this desert job are admittedly rigorous.

In Chicago thousands of men and women were thrown out of employment when more than one hundred small movie theaters closed rather than submit longer to the demand of the motion picture operators' union that two operators be employed at each house. The managers said this was unnecessary and that they could not afford it.

Extensive highway construction operations in Illinois are delayed and may not get under way before next spring, because labor organizations objected to the rulings of a state board as to the "prevailing wage" in various districts, which must be paid for the work according to the law authorizing it.

These are only a few instances of the many that might be cited. It would seem to the ordinary citizen that organized labor might well strain a point or two in such a time of stress. The executive council of the American Federation of Labor adopted a declaration to the effect that there must be no reduction of wages.

Mary Anderson

MISS MARY ANDERSON, head of the women's bureau of the Department of Labor, is a woman of ideas and the ability to express them. Having returned from Europe, she gives out an address urging a modern era for cooks and maids, a higher status for domestic service in keeping with modern industrialism. Her program includes the establishment of training schools to fit the worker to the position through the federal employment service, and an employees' household. She thinks modern apartment living means not the eventual extinction of the worker in the home but added advantages for her.

Miss Anderson also points out that apartment living must necessarily give opportunity for much part-time work.

PRESIDENT HOOVER'S fifty-seventh birthday came on August 10, but he entirely disregarded the anniversary. Returning from the Rapidan camp, he spent the remainder of the day in work as usual, and though Mrs. Hoover had hurried back from Akron, there were no guests for dinner.

COL. LUKE LEA, Nashville publisher, his son, Luke Lea, Jr., and four others were indicted by the grand jury in Nashville on charges of conspiracy in connection with the affairs of the defunct Liberty Bank and Trust company.

SHARPLY criticizing "third degree" methods in police force administration, which it found to be widespread in both cities and rural communities, the Wickersham commission reported to President Hoover that "it remains beyond doubt that the practice is shocking in its character and extent, violative of American traditions and institutions, and not to be tolerated."

Citing many instances of police brutality and unfair tactics by officers, the commission declared that the trend toward "lawlessness in law enforcement" has resulted in "a deplorable prostration of the processes of justice," and urged that congress enact a code of federal criminal procedure which might serve as a model for the states.

DELEGATES from nearly all nations were present when the press congress of the world opened in Mexico City. Men and women from North and South America, Europe and the Orient were welcomed at a reception given by Senator Don Lamberto Hernandez, head of the federal district. The inaugural meeting was directed by Frank L. Martin, acting dean of the school of journalism of the University of Missouri, and the guests were addressed by Dr. Don Jose Manuel Puig Casauran, secretary of public education. The newspaper men of Mexico then gave the delegates a theater party, and next afternoon they were received at Chapultepec castle by President Ortiz Rubio. On Wednesday there was an excursion to the archaeological excavations at San Juan Teotihuacan, and on Friday, the closing day of the congress, a great fiesta was held in the stadium.

Of course between these festive affairs the delegates transacted considerable business, much of it through their committees, and at the three general sessions some serious and thoughtful addresses were delivered.

PARKER CRAMER, the aviator who was mapping out a northern air mail route to Europe, got as far as Lerwick in the Shetland islands safely on his way to Copenhagen and then ran into trouble that, it is feared at this writing, resulted in his death.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh were held up at Point Barrow for three days by adverse weather conditions, and they took off for Nome. However, dense fogs compelled them to come down on the north coast of the Seward peninsula, about 75 miles from Nome, which is on the south coast of that peninsula. When the fog lifted they went on to Safety bay, near Nome.

Cass City High School Opens Aug. 31

The Cass City High School offers excellent educational advantages to boys and girls who have passed the county eighth grade examination. They are cordially invited to attend this modern school during the coming year.

Courses are offered as follows: Agricultural course, Commercial course, Academic course, and Home Economics course. The Cass City High School offers extra credit in the following work: Art, Chorus, Orchestra, Debating, Public Speaking, Bible, Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Agricultural Project. Numerous school societies provide valuable training. Added advantages are to be had in the splendid churches, library, and the various lectures and gatherings which center in the community of Cass City.

The Cass City High School is accredited by the University of Michigan and is on the North Central Association list. Students graduating from the high school here are admitted to the various colleges, universities and normal schools without examination.

All high school and grade teachers are specialists in their respective fields. All high school teachers of academic subjects hold degrees.

The 1931 graduating class numbered 44 students. This compares favorably with schools in towns two or three times larger than Cass City.

The commercial course gives the student four years of special training, fitting him for the commercial field. Commercial arithmetic, bookkeeping, typewriting, and shorthand are all offered in this course.

Enrollment in the high school has passed the 260 mark. Non-resident pupils have increased in the past few years from approximately 40 to 167 in 1929. Careful attention is given each pupil in planning his course of study and in his work throughout the year. We have a physical director for students.

Good roads make it possible for students to come long distances. Many drive to and from school to their homes each day. Others living much farther away have been at home week-ends. Provision is made at the school cafeteria for high school students to purchase lunches at cost during the winter months. Between two and three thousand meals were served last year at an average cost of 15 cents a meal.

Cass City students placed well in many state contests during the past season, taking honors in club work at local, county, and state fairs. Our contestants earned honors in the state extemporaneous speaking contest, commercial contests, and academic contest, as well as placing high in others. Our athletic teams were made up of a wide personnel of boys and gave a very fine account of themselves in all sports. Physical education for the girls under a competent director is an added feature to our program.

Tuition is $80.00 a year for high school pupils. The home district must pay $60.00 of this amount per year if application for tuition has been made to the director of the home district.

The principal and superintendent will be in the high school office Saturday, Aug. 29, to aid those who wish to arrange their course of study. School opens Monday, August 31.

Address all inquiries to L. D. RANDALL, Superintendent.

Anchor was made to a small snag which necessitated a side pull, but the ground was very hard and it required more power than was calculated to pull it, throwing the machine to one side. Tuckey saw it tip and gave the alarm. All attempted to jump out of the way, but French made a miscalculation and jumped the wrong way. The top of the machine struck him upon the head and pinned him to the ground. There were four wounds upon his head and he lay in an unconscious condition and died about midnight.

Learn what a difference six cylinders make

Step out of any other low-priced car into a Chevrolet, and learn the difference six cylinders make.

"Idle" the engine—and the whole car remains steady. Open the throttle—the power flows evenly. Accelerate—throttle down—go fifteen or fifty—and this smoothness stays with you whatever you do. It's actually built into the motor—and objectionable vibration never even starts!

Yet smoothness is only one of many six-cylinder advantages. There's greater quietness, because noisy vibration is gone. There's greater comfort, because built-in smoothness doesn't tire you out. There's greater flexibility, because the power-impulses of a six overlap. And a six is much easier to handle!

If you raise the hood of a Chevrolet and watch the engine running so smoothly, you'll realize that six cylinders also mean greater dependability.

And remember when you do—that no other car is so economical to operate as the Chevrolet Six.

Items from the files of Cass City Newspapers of 1896 and 1906.

Twenty-five Years Ago.
Aug. 24, 1906.

A goodly number of the residents of this community took advantage of the business men's excursion to Caseville on Aug. 21. Two trains were necessary to carry the passengers, the first division arriving at Caseville about half past nine and the second a little later. John Mudge of Novesta, a young man about 20 years old, nearly lost his life while in bathing. He with some other young men were "splashing" around in the shallow water, when John rose up and as he threw himself in the water again, he struck his chest on some sharp object, cutting a deep gash on the right side, which bled profusely.

MARL BEDS CONTAIN LIME FOR ACID SOIL

Michigan has many thousands of acres of soil which need lime before they will successfully grow alfalfa but the state also has an inexhaustible supply of marl which will correct the acidity of these soils, according to the agricultural engineering department of Michigan State College.

Some of the marl deposits are so shallow and so thickly covered with muck that it is impractical to remove the marl but many beds have been located where it is possible to remove the marl at low cost. Almost every county in the state has at least one marl bed which will supply this soil builder.

The question of using marl or other forms of lime is simply a question of cost. The form to use is the one which the farmer can obtain the cheapest. Sometimes agricultural limestone can be obtained in certain sections more cheaply than marl can be excavated and hauled to the farm. In some localities, the cost of digging and hauling marl is less than expense of applying limestone.

A practical marl bucket which can be used with a team or a tractor for excavating the material has been perfected by the agricultural engineering department of the college. From 30 to 50 yards of marl can be dug in one day with this type of bucket which is relatively inexpensive.

Five years ago, Prof. Cameron McLean gave a concert here on ladies' night of the Cass City Community Club and the audience found the Detroit baritone an artist of genuine distinction. Tuesday, members of the Rotary Club here found that Mr. McLean's talents are not confined to concert work alone, but that as an after dinner speaker he is equally delightful and pleasing. Mr. McLean concluded a talk on music, given at the club's luncheon at the Gordon Tavern, with an unaccompanied solo, "Annie Laurie," in which the celebrated baritone exhibited his gift of imparting delicate emotional color to every phrase of that well-known and loved Scotch song.

Friends of G. A. Tindale, in banteringly accusing the garage man of trying to create more business for his repair shop when he bumped into the rear of Walter Schell's car last Thursday, must be mistaken, for a broken tail-light and a slightly damaged fender make a light garage bill. No, it must have been an accident.

Miss Gertrude Reis, extension specialist in home furnishing from Michigan State College, will meet with the local leaders, group chairmen, and secretaries in Tuscola county on Sept. 22-23 for the purpose of discussing the plans for the home furnishing project which is to be given in Tuscola county during the coming year. Miss Reis will present the first lesson of the series on "Making the House Homelike."

Five lessons will be given during the year and there will be no expense connected with the work. Provision will be made for the women to learn how to dye materials and make rugs, to make rooms lighter and more cheerful by using the right paint and paper, to re-group furniture, to make it more comfortable and attractive.

The purpose of the study of home decoration will be to create a liveable place where the family may find comfort, convenience and beauty. NOTED ARTIST PAINTS NEW HEALTH POSTERS

Pictures of wild animal life will be used to teach health habits to Michigan school children during the coming school year. Four paintings have been made for this purpose by Charles Livingston Bull, the nationally known artist, for the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

Color posters of the four original drawings have been made for distribution among school commissioners and superintendents. The pictures illustrate the importance of proper eating, sleeping, bathing, and playing. The artist, who is famous for his reproductions of wild life in their natural surroundings, has taken one animal for each health function and shown the mother as she trains her young in health habits.

A mother deer and her fawns are shown in one drawing as they eat water lilies. In another scene, a family of mountain sheep are seen sleeping high on a ledge in the Rocky Mountains. A bear rolling an unwilling cub in water teaches the health importance of bathing and swimming. In the fourth poster, three puma cubs playing in the sunshine around the mother show the part of outdoor exercise in health.

Each poster also carries a phrase telling the health moral of the picture, such as "Eat for strength—grace—vigor," "Sleep for long hours in cool, clean air," "Bathe; enjoy the water; learn to swim," and "Play out of doors the year round."

Educators and health workers have found school health instruction valuable in training children to build body strength against tuberculosis and other diseases. Distribution of these posters to school officials is a part of the child health work carried on in Michigan by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and affiliated local societies with funds raised in the annual sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals.

Happy Days
Judge Hopkins of Kansas
American Ships
Strange, Queer Kansas

Almost in time for his fifty-seventh birthday anniversary, five great nations—Germany, France, Italy, Japan and Great Britain—signed a document endorsing the President's "debt holiday" proposal. The announcement made the world more cheerful. Foreign bonds went up, good news for Americans that bought them. Wall Street, rapidly wiping a tear from each eye, straightened out its wrinkles and bid "Big Steel" to 90, other prices to match.

There is nothing like action, and the President "got action" when he announced his moratorium idea. Debts are not forgiven or wiped out. The plan is to give Germany an opportunity to get her breath.

Chief Justice Hughes, who has the final say, sent to New York Federal Judge Richard J. Hopkins of Kansas, who saw interesting things in New York, as he told Mr. Ewing of the New Orleans States, Professor Guarneri of Columbia and others at luncheon.

Judge Hopkins surprised and grieved Mr. "Legs" Diamond by proving that federal judges mean business.

He sent Mr. Diamond to prison for four years, fined him $11,000 and informed the district attorney that he would give him evidence with enough in it to send Mr. Diamond and others to jail for 30 or 40 years more.

Those who believe that the law should be above bootleggers will be much obliged to Kansas for sending Judge Hopkins, and prohibitionists will recall with satisfaction that the judge is a regular Kansas prohibitionist.

The shipping board, about to sell some big ships, including the giant Leviathan, will make sure that American ships will continue to be owned by Americans and operated to create a commercial marine for the United States.

Fortunately the principal bidders are the Dollar Line and Herbert Fleishacker, on the Pacific coast; Kermit Roosevelt, son of the late President Roosevelt, and Vincent Astor, Mr. Bruce of Baltimore, a brother of Secretary Mellon's son-in-law, and others, on the east coast.

Both these groups are entirely American.

Of Kansas, you may say again with Goethe: "Das Unbeschreibliche, hier wird es getan." "The indescribable here it is done."

Three Kansas towns, Belleville, Chanute, Colby, run their own "utilities," and make enough money to get along without taxation. That seems to upset the well-established Wall Street theory: "Public ownership can never pay in America."

Perhaps we are not as stupid or dishonest as we are supposed to be.

Colby owns its water and light plant, municipal airport and municipal cemetery, and they yield profits that abolish municipal taxes.

Chanute owns its water, electric light and gas plants, airport, cemetery, tourist camp, swimming pool, auditorium, and supports a municipal band.

Belleville owns its water and light plants. Mr. Doherty supplies it with natural gas. It owns its cemetery and airport, and supports a municipal band. If that be Socialism, make the most of it.

Wonderful are German scientists. One recently explored the atmosphere 40,000 feet up. Another tells you that in Greenland the ice is 8,850 feet deep. Greenland, according to those learned Germans, is like a great bowl filled with ice.

To establish a new flying record in the United States is rather discouraging with Capt. Frank Hawks around. When you make a record, he comes along and breaks it.

He flew from Chicago to New York in 3 hours and 49 minutes, breaking the record by 28 minutes.

A great flyer, Captain Hawks, probably the world's best.

Whenever it rains it pours, no matter what the kind of rain. If one price drops another drops. A revolt breaks out in South American countries, then one must be quelled in Havana, fortunately with very few killed.

Good news for the enterprising city of Buffalo, N. Y. It stands first among grain ports of the United States, according to the shipping board reports, and is also the country's and the world's largest flour milling center. In water-borne freight it is second only to Duluth.

Buffalo is destined to be much greater, more prosperous. Buy yourself a good corner there while land is cheap.

In Spain Charles Chaplin, whom you have seen walking with his toes out, saw eight bulls killed in one fight, but didn't say what he thought about it. Those that know him know what he thought.

Lalanda, Spain's champion bull fighter, conferred great honor on Mr. Chaplin by presenting to him an ear cut from one of the dead bulls.

ELKLAND ROLLER MILLS

TOLD BY ROY

You Must be Satisfied. Published Every Friday.
Vol. 7. Aug. 21, 1931 Number 7

Published in the interest of the People of Cass City and vicinity by the

Elkland Roller Mills
Edited by Roy

Taking size into consideration, we can't think of anything right now which can make more of an impression than a mosquito.

We know of several around Cass City that have wheat that would make mighty good bread flour. Let us grind this wheat for you and save you money on your flour.

A Cass City lady whose children are just grown and gone tells us that it's twice as hard to learn to cook for two now than it was when she was first married.

Household Hints!
If you're annoyed by hoot-owls, simply capture the birds, and fit them with smoked glasses. Thinking it is always night, they will stay awake, becoming so exhausted that they can't hoot.

An old person is a person who is twenty years older than you are.

From our advertising you'd gather that we were pretty fond of Wayne Butter Milk Egg Mash. True, brother, true! And you'll be too, once you've tried it!

St. Peter was interviewing the damsel at the pearly gate. "Did you, while on earth, neck, pet, dance, or drink?"

"Never," she replied.

"Then why haven't you reported sooner?" said St. Peter. "You've been dead a long time."

"My mother will be surprised when she gets my letter. 'August,' she used to say, 'you are so stupid that you will never get a job,' and in the last month I have had six!"

The quality of our wheat this year should make it an object to every wheat grower to use the flour from his own wheat.

Can anybody in the audience think of anything hotter than sun on the back of your neck?

CALF STARTER IS MADE AT CORNELL

Dry Mixture Gives a Good
Growth and Is Cheap.

Eliminating entirely the troublesome task of heating water to mix with calf feeds, the new "calf starter" devised at the New York State College of Agriculture has proved successful in tests at the college, according to Charles H. Crawford of the department of animal husbandry. Calves have been grown to six months of age at a total cost of $36 by using the new dry mixture, and but 325 pounds of whole milk was fed during the first 17 weeks.

The mixture contains 320 pounds of ground yellow corn, 320 pounds of rolled oats, 320 pounds of winter wheat bran, 160 pounds of linseed meal, and 880 pounds of dry skim milk. The calves were fed the calf starter for the first 16 weeks when they were changed to a cheaper concentrated mixture called the heifer ration. The heifer ration has 300 pounds each of ground yellow corn, ground oats, and wheat bran, and 100 pounds of linseed oil meal.

Both of these feeds gave good growth and are cheap, Mr. Crawford says. The calf starter was limited to five pounds and the heifer ration to four pounds daily. Hay was fed liberally.

The new feed is not sold commercially, but a letter to the animal husbandry department of the New York State College of Agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y., will bring details of the plan and the feeding schedule.

Chance for Quick Calf
Profit Seen on Ranges

Creep feeding is applied to calves the same as to pigs or lambs and is especially adapted to corn belt farms. It also is being practiced successfully on the ranges and especially on the native pastures of Kansas, says R. R. Thalmann of the University of Nebraska.

According to recent tests, an April calf creep fed will consume an average of six bushels of grain. This will add approximately 60 pounds to his weight by market time. Should the calf sell for 10 cents a pound, the extra weight would return $1 a bushel for grain fed. In addition to increased weight, creep fed calves sell from $1 to $2 a hundred higher than similar calves not fed grain while receiving milk. Should more finish and weight be desired before marketing, creep fed calves may be placed in dry lot after weaning for a short period. Usually 30 to 90 days will prove sufficient to put them in top finish for the fat cattle market. Such animals meet with a ready demand at any season and returns will more than meet the extra labor or cost involved. Well bred calves of good quality should be the aim for creep feeding.

Well Constructed Tank
Efficient for Cooling

According to tests at the state experiment station at Geneva, N. Y., cooling in well-constructed farm tanks is easier and equally as efficient from a sanitary point of view as cooling over an aerator. The electric refrigerators now being offered for sale for use on dairy farms are practical and reliable. Whether the farmer uses a tank of the old style using ice or one of the new ice machines, the tank should be large enough so that when filled with cans of milk there will be twice as much ice and water as milk. A tank 35 inches wide, 60 inches long and 26 inches deep has a capacity of six cans. When the six cans are in, there are two gallons of water and ice for each gallon of milk.

Dairy Facts

Testing opens the way to sound business dairying.

Carelessness in feeding increases milk production costs.

Recent experiments have indicated that acids contained in silage are not harmful to cows.

Prevent the growth of horns in calves by using a caustic stick which you can buy from your druggist.

The dairy cow herds will show their appreciation by increased cream checks to owners who do a good job of putting up alfalfa hay for next winter's feed.

The first rinse of milk utensils should be with cold or lukewarm water as hot water will cause the milk to "cook on."

Unless the customary feed is given to dairy cows in mild weather as well as in severe weather, production will fall off sharply.

Raise calves from only the very best cows. It is better to veal all calves unless their blood inheritance makes it possible for them to develop into good cows.

CARO'S 50TH FAIR WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

The 50th annual Caro Fair and Night Carnival will hold sway for five days, August 24 to 28. The fair management has left nothing undone to bring about a golden jubilee celebration, Secretary Clarence R. Myers declared.

As a center of attraction, the celebrated Ernie Young's "Passing Parade of 1931" will be staged every evening, featuring a series of most delightful numbers in singing and dancing.

Free acts will include the Mongee troupe, teeter board acrobats; the Sixteen English Steppers, demonstrating the intricacies of a beautiful dance; the Young revue's prima donna, who "sings her way into the hearts of all"; professional Peppy Clowns, the "town cop" and "Hank" after a hard day's drive; dancing teams, and many others.

Patterson's Auto Polo will give entertainment each day. Horse races will take place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Two Caro teams will play baseball with some of the fastest semi-professional teams in this section. Caro will oppose Cass City Wednesday; Caro Independents will play the Flint Colored Giants, Thursday; and Caro will play Sebewaing, Huron county champs, Friday.

COLOR CONTRASTS STYLE'S DICTUM*Different Shades Are Combined With White.

Color contrasts continue to sweep fashion, across the stable white background of the summer mode. For though this summer is distinctly a time of play upon color, it is just as definitely a white summer. In the spring we talked much of black with a touch of white and colored frocks with a touch of white. Now the talk has reversed itself and the chatter is about white with a touch of color, and sometimes more than a touch.

In the realm of sports clothes this color accent on white is of the most brilliant tones. For city and street wear it is a bit more discreet, but it is ever present in the mode as worn in smart restaurants at luncheon and tea time.

All the colors so enthusiastically talked about achieve chic through contrasting with white. To further amplify this mode there are jackets of white fur, such as broadtail and pony skin, jackets of white chiffon and of white crepes and corded silks. Gloves that are white and white hats of paper panama, of white velvet, felt or even suede also are among the high spots of summer fashion news.

Dresses of sheer white woolen and those of white cotton fabrics are seen on city streets as well as on country club piazzas.

Linen Is in Limelight Among Paris Fashions

Linen is now high-style, as they term it in dressmaking circles. It is favored, in every color of the rainbow, and in the pleasantest of printed patterns, observes a Paris fashion writer in the New York Herald Tribune. Molyneux makes use of this vogue for linens to produce the two-piece dress, with skirt of one color and jumper or blouse of another, with emphasis placed on the jumper.

Effects typical of Captain Molyneux's designing are obtained in his new models by adding to these linen costumes a coat which matches the tunic in color and length.

Another smart use of linen is seen in its alliance with wool in three-piece suits consisting of a wool skirt, linen blouse, and a wool jacket lined with linen to match the blouse. The cloth is a soft spongy woolen in new weaves. Linen in a pale pink shade is used for the blouse and coat lining of a suit of blue cloth.

There is news in this lining of coats to match blouses, or the tops of dresses that are in two colors. In the case of longer coats, those of seven-eighths or full length, the blouse material is used for the upper part of the coat lining; the bottom part matches the skirt of the dress.

Exquisite Pajamas

These exquisite pajamas, designed for hostess wear, are in opaline green satin and imported embroidered alencon lace. Unlike most models of this sort the coat is long and does not fasten in front, but acts as a sort of throw-on robe. The jewels are diamonds and rubies for contrast; the sandals are the new Grecian-cut type to match.

Dark Shades Will Be Popular for Autumn

Wear blue in its many varied shades while you may for it is whispered that blue recedes from the color chart with the advent of autumn. Blue is excellent for summer and this means not only the blue costume, but shoes, bags and hats. Blue is a spring and summer color and it is but in the nature of color fashions that it yields to the autumnal shades.

Grayed green, wine red and rich brown, are the three most important colors that will appear at the end of summer. Black, of course, persists from year to year, but the deepness of shade in colors for woollens with self tone designs in the weave, lends color new distinction and prestige.
