CASS CITY CLUB SHOWS CHAMPIONS

Are Awarded Grand Champion Lamb, Reserve Champion Steer at Detroit.

Three members of the Cass City Livestock Club will return from the Junior Livestock Show at Detroit with awards of reserve champion steer, grand champion lamb and champion Shropshire lamb. Prizes to Cass City exhibitors will total $125.00, Willis Campbell, club adviser says.

Romney Horner's Aberdeen Angus was named reserve champion steer on Wednesday. Romney's steer was shown with 55 others in competition.

In a contest with 55 other exhibits, Ralph Rawson's Southdown lamb placed as grand champion of the show and Ralph's brother, Delbert Rawson, exhibited a Southdown lamb which placed second in its class. Clare O'Dell showed the champion Shropshire lamb.

At the auction sale of high prize animals held at the show Thursday morning, Romney Horner received 25 cents a pound for his reserve champion steer and Ralph Rawson's grand champion lamb sold at $2.75 a pound.

Listed among the prize winners at the show are four more members of the Cass City Livestock Club—Hereford steer, Lynn Spencer; Shorthorn steer, Kenneth Hennessey; grade Shropshire lambs, Marie Rawson and Grant Hutchinson.

Young Men's Club to Organize Dec. 15

Next Thursday evening, Dec. 15, there will be a meeting of the young men of Cass City to consider the formation of a Y. M. C. A. young men's club. The meeting will be followed by a period in the gym. Any young man of Cass City who is interested in such an organization should be at the school Thursday evening.

Fred Pinney, L. D. Randall, Rev. H. I. Voelker and Kenneth Kelly are the Cass City advisory committee sponsoring this group.

There are similar groups of young men meeting under the auspices of the Tuscola-Saginaw Area Y. M. C. A. in Caro, Akron and Fairgrove, and it is proposed to have inter-club meetings of an athletic, social and educational nature.

Any young man out of school and living in or around Cass City is invited to come to the meeting next Thursday.

Willis Campbell is leading the younger boys' club of the Cass City Y. M. C. A. This group is at present working on a forestry project and the boys are mounting specimens of different kinds of wood, showing the different characteristics of wood native to Cass City.

MANY WANT JOBS IN NEW COURT HOUSE

Apparently the office apartments in the new Tuscola county court house look attractive to others besides the county office seekers in the late elections. Already County Treasurer-elect Whittenburg has received some 40 applications from those who are willing to serve as his deputy. County Clerk Ormes has on file 25 or 30 applications from those who desire to serve as caretaker or janitor of the new edifice.

Six Were Made Citizens Tuesday

Six persons in Tuscola county received their final citizenship papers at the naturalization hearing in the Tuscola county circuit court Tuesday. They are:

Peter Zajac, Kingston. Frank Schobert, Deford. Marcus Haug, Gaytown. Chas. J. Avann, Mayville. Mett Wrobel, Cass City. Julius Thom, Deford.

PRIMARY REFORM IS PREDICTED

Fitzgerald Backs Revision of Present Laws by Next Legislature.

There has been considerable agitation in late years to make several changes in Michigan's primary election laws, and since the primary in September, successful and unsuccessful candidates have been discussing what should be done to retain some of the present features of the law and yet re-establish party responsibility.

Some have advocated the pre-primary convention as a method of eliminating useless candidates who get into the race knowing full well they have little if any chance to be nominated.

Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, is a strong advocate of a change in the present system particularly so with respect to nominating candidates for governor and lieutenant governor which now is done through the machinery of a state-wide primary. Mr. Fitzgerald is quoted in the daily press on this subject as follows:

"There is no doubt that a radical change in the present system should be made, and I believe this next legislature will accept that responsibility and bring about the reform that is needed," Fitzgerald said.

"I have my own ideas on the subject and believe that each party should hold a pre-primary convention, and endorse their candidates for governor and lieutenant governor.

"This should be done in July, and then provisions should be made to allow others who might not receive the endorsement to file nominating petitions which then would place all candidates in the race for the nominations.

"I do not favor the party convention as the only method for nominating candidates for state office but believe that better candidates would be obtained if the convention endorsed not more than one man, for each office to be filled, thereby placing the party's stamp of approval on that candidate.

"If no one filed nominating petitions for the same office then the one endorsed by the convention would automatically become the party's nominee and would be its candidate at the election.

"Provision should be made to allow other candidates to go before the electors, but the number of signatures required to qualify should be placed high enough so that there would of necessity be a real demand for some candidate other than the person selected by the convention.

"The longer the present method of nominating the candidates for governor continue party loyalty and responsibility will decrease. Under our representative form of government we must have parties. The winners must be responsive to the people. Good public service comes from good candidates and I believe the pre-primary convention safe guarded to permit additional nomination to be made is the answer to our present difficulties."

CELEBRATED SILVER WEDDING SUNDAY

Fifty Friends Honored Mr. and Mrs. Omar Glaspie at Their Home.

Sunday afternoon, December 4, over fifty neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Glaspie on South Segar street to help them celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day.

A potluck luncheon was served, and a beautiful wedding cake centered the table. The following program was enjoyed: solo, Mrs. E. L. Heller; duet, Rev. and Mrs. Curtis; solo, Miss Charlotte Warner; duet, Mrs. Stanley McArthur and Charlotte Warner; trio, Mrs. J. Alchin, Ella Mae and Ersel Glaspie; solo, "When You and I Were Young, Retta," dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Glaspie, Mrs. S. McArthur, B. A. Elliott and son, Leonard, played several selections on the Hawaiian guitars and G. W. Landon gave a short talk, congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Glaspie on their years of happy wedded life and wishing for them many more to come.

The happy couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Heller, with Carol Heller and Ella Mae Glaspie as ring bearers, again answered the questions of the marriage ceremony which was read by Rev. W. R. Curtis. The couple were showered with rice. Mr. and Mrs. Glaspie received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Alchin, daughter, Mary Margaret, and Mrs. Mary Clark, Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Francis and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Francis and son of Kingston and Miss Helen Muntz of Bad Axe.

First Tuscola Co. Buyers of Seals

The Christmas spirit engendered by warm greetings accompanying payments for tuberculosis Christmas seals began to permeate the offices of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association a few days after Thanksgiving, when the seals were sent out. "The almost breathless haste with which old friends and new have acted to assure a continuance of the work done to fight tuberculosis, thanks to the penny seals, is inspiring to everyone in the association," was the comment of Dr. Henry D. Chadwick, president of the association, as the returns began to come in.

Lawyers, doctors, all manner of busy professional people take the time to write a line to accompany their money for seals. The essence of these communications was contained in the laconic comment of Dr. G. E. Grover, Gladwin, who wrote a one line note to accompany his check, "The pleasure is all mine."

Among the returns received from Tuscola county, F. L. Green of Kingston and S. G. Atkinson of Millington were the first purchasers of the 1932 tuberculosis Christmas seals.

M. M. Class Takes "Trip Around World"

Members of the M. M. class of the Methodist Sunday School spent an exceptionally pleasant evening Friday when they were entertained at the farm home of Mrs. W. T. Spaven, with Mrs. Ernest Beardsley and Mrs. Garfield Leishman as assistant hostesses.

Each guest received a joke gift and with each gift was a stunt to be performed. These stunts furnished much of the evening's amusement. Nearly fifty were present and enjoyed a trip "around the world," returning to the starting place for refreshments.

Peach Growers Have New Market Problem

Michigan fruit growers who contemplate setting new peach orchards are advised by the horticultural department at Michigan State College to make their plantings to meet present conditions which restrict the sale of Michigan peaches to markets which supply fruit for immediate consumption.

Most of the peaches which are commercially canned are now produced by California. Michigan peaches are used mainly for fresh fruit or for home canning and the latter outlet is somewhat curtailed by the competition with other states.

Michigan growers are asked to take advantage of these conditions by planting varieties which will spread the harvest season over a long period of time. Plantings of a single variety will mature all fruit for harvest at the same time and the peaches will have to be marketed within a period of a few days.

If several good varieties are chosen for planting, the picking dates will vary and both early and late peaches can be marketed. The increasing use of trucks for moving the fruit makes it possible for Michigan peaches to be placed on fairly distant markets within a short space of time from the hour when they are picked.

Members of the horticultural department do not advise increased plantings but a wise choice of varieties in areas which are to be replanted.

U. of M. Coach Will Speak at Dec. Meet of C. C. C. C.

The Cass City Community Club will be hosts to 25 football players of the high school at the December meeting of the club next Tuesday evening.

Walter J. Weber, assistant football coach of the University of Michigan, will give the address of the evening. Mr. Weber was a fullback on the 1925 and 1926 U. of M. teams. Immediately after graduation, he acted in the capacity of teacher and football coach at the Benton Harbor high school. During his four years there, he turned out a state championship football team. He returned to the university in 1931 as varsity back-field coach.

Musical features will be three boys' quartet numbers by Leonard Elliott, Harland O'Dell, Floyd Boulton and Maurice Caister, and a brass quartet selection by Howard Taylor, Bernita Taylor, Lorraine Hoffman and Marion Callender. Russell Quick and Harland O'Dell will appear in a comedy sketch.

Boy Scouts will be presented with merit badges Tuesday evening by Geo. Landale of Bay City, Scout executive for this section of the state.

The banquet will be served by ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Caro Quartet Held on Chicken Theft Charge

Four Caro men are held in the Tuscola county jail awaiting trial in circuit court on a charge of breaking and entering in connection with the theft of chickens from the farm of Russell Sherman Nov. 25. The four men, George Kreilach, 20, his brother, Jacob, 21, Earl Morse, 20, and his brother, Harold, 17, were bound over to circuit court at an examination before Justice Frank St. Mary Dec. 5. The quartet entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned Dec. 2.

Dr. P. A. Schenck Heads Rotary Club

Dr. P. A. Schenck was elected president of the Rotary Club at Cass City by the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. S. B. Young. Mr. Schenck presided for the first time at the club luncheon Tuesday noon.

A. Icyda of Kobe, Japan, was the speaker at the luncheon. With a territory smaller than California, but 17% of the land in Japan can be cultivated and every inch counts in its support of a population of 75,000,000, said the speaker.

Mr. Icyda said Japan had been a president in but three wars in 2,500 years. He compared the characteristics of the Japanese, the Chinese and the Russian soldiers and told of Japanese relations with Manchuria, a country of many resources.

Mr. Icyda spoke before the high school assembly Tuesday afternoon.

Nation's Greatness Measured by Care of Its Children

The W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robt. Warner. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. J. Knapp. The program was in charge of Mrs. Mary Gekeler. She read an interesting article on "The Heritage of Every Child—To Be Well Born."

"That nation shall be greatest that best cares for its greatest asset, the child in its midst, an asset of more value than the national resources, the silver or gold, the cattle upon a thousand hills or the grain of a million fields," said Mrs. Gekeler. "The proper care of every child will make it possible for it to grow and develop, as did the child Jesus, who increased in stature, in wisdom, and in favor with God and man. This, then, should be the heritage of every child—to be well born, to grow mentally, to increase in stature, to be given an education that he might increase in wisdom, to be morally safeguarded and spiritually trained, that he might increase in favor with man and God."

Miss Vera Schell gave a very educational talk on "Safeguarding the Child's Health" and Mrs. Zuleika Stafford read a paper on "The Restoration of the Home." Mrs. P. J. Allured had charge of the devotionals and Miss Charlotte Warner favored the company with piano and vocal selections.

Refreshments were served by the hosts.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Zuleika Stafford.

Commission to Test Sanity of Prisoner

At the request of Prosecutor M. C. Ransford, Judge H. H. Smith on Monday morning appointed Drs. C. N. Race and W. P. Petrie as a sanity commission to report on the mental condition of Miss Grace M. Hossler, who is being held on a charge of attempted murder.

Miss Hossler last week pleaded not guilty to the charge growing out of her alleged attempt to poison her brother, Oscar Hossler, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hatch, and a farm hand, all living near Millington.

Gordon Campbell, charged with burglarizing a Kingston store Oct. 15, and Mike Nagie, alleged to have received the loot, were put on probation for a year each. Two others are serving up to 15 years at Ionia for the robbery.

Cass City Exhibitor Fared Well at I. L. E.

H. T. Crandell, Sr., Cass City sheep breeder, fared well at the International Live Stock Exposition on Dec. 1. In the Cotswold class, he took a third for aged ram; second for yearling ram; first and third for ram lamb; second for three ram lambs; third for yearling ewe; second for three ewe lambs; third for get of sire and second for a flock.

"Texas Special," grand champion steer of the show, was purchased for $1.25 a pound. The successful bidder was Donahoe's Food Store, in Pittsburgh.

LIVESTOCK BRINGS MOST CASH INCOME

Records Show Farmers Shift Business from Crops to More Profitable Lines.

Live stock sales made up 70 per cent and crop sales 30 per cent of the cash receipts from the Michigan farms whose owners furnished the farm management department at Michigan State College a complete record of their business to show the changes made in farm operations to meet present conditions.

There is a tendency to concentrate more effort on live stock and less on crops and the records also show a shift to the more intensive producing units of live stock. Dairy cattle, hens and brood sows increased in the period reported.

This shift is evidence of the farmers' attempt to obtain a larger income from the same number of acres and the same outfit of farm buildings and equipment. In spite of the evident attempt of farm operators to put their business on a more profitable basis, income records show a continued drop due to steadily decreasing prices.

The farmers in the group studied cut their operating costs 47.1 per cent during the year. The cash receipts dropped 44.7 per cent during the same time. The saving in operating expense did not compensate for the loss in cash income.

The farm owners make their savings in other ways than in abandoning good farm practices such as the use of fertilizer, sprays, and good seed. Less was spent for labor but the reduction in this expense was due more to lower wages than to less men hired.

Expenses on the upkeep of the farm plant, painting, fence building and machinery repair have been cut to a point where the plants show considerable depreciation.

Former Probate Judge Dies in Caro

D. Healy Clark, 72, former judge of probate of Tuscola county, died at his home in Caro at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Clark was born in Stuben county, New York, June 3, 1860, and has resided in Tuscola county for 40 years, coming to Caro shortly after his marriage with Miss Eloise Artman on Nov. 30, 1892. At that time he acted as agent for his uncle, Dorus Healy, who operated a farm mortgage business in this section of the state.

Mr. Clark was judge of probate from 1908 to 1916 and previous to that served as a deputy railroad commissioner from 1903 to 1907.

Mr. Clark was a director of the Peoples State Bank of Caro and of the State Savings Bank of Reese. He was a former chairman of the Republican county committee, a member of the Rotary Club, the Methodist Episcopal church and the Masonic fraternity.

Surviving are his widow; two daughters, Ruth at home and Mrs. Fred J. Purdy of Caro, and two grandchildren.

Tax Notice.

I will be at the Pinney State Bank every Tuesday and Friday from Dec. 9 to Jan. 10 to receive the taxes of Elkland township. Bertha-Brown, Treasurer.—Advertisement.

RANDALL HEADS UPPER THUMB A. A.

District Is Divided into Two Leagues for Basketball Games.

L. D. Randall, superintendent of schools at Cass City, was re-elected president of the Upper Thumb Athletic Association at the annual meeting of that society held here Saturday. Russell LaCronier of Bad Axe, Coach Stamitz of Caro and Supt. Mills of Sandusky, representing Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac counties respectively, were all elected vice presidents. Russell Hilbert of Sebawaing was elected secretary-treasurer.

The Thumb district was divided into two leagues—the Northern and Southern—for playing basketball. The association have requested the State Athletic Department to allow the Southern league to enter its champion and the Northern league two teams securing the highest percentage of basketball victories in that group as contestants in the regional tournament, thus eliminating the district tourney in the Thumb. The state department meets in January when action on the request will be taken.

At the Thumb Round Table meeting held here on Saturday, 35 men teachers representing 19 high schools in the Thumb were present. Volleyball and pingpong interested the visitors in the morning. Dinner was served by ladies of the M. E. church. A. Icyda of Kobe, Japan, gave an address to the school instructors.

Rev. Voelker to Address W. S. C.

Members of the Woman's Study Club, meeting on November 29, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Cathcart, were delightfully entertained by a program provided by the library committee, of which Mrs. L. I. Wood is chairman. Two one-act plays were presented by members of the dramatic club of the high school under the direction of Virgil Logan. Response to the roll call took the form of a discussion of modern novels. At the next meeting, which will be held December 13 at the home of Mrs. R. A. McNamee, each member will have the privilege of bringing a guest. An address on international relations will be given by Rev. H. I. Voelker. Members will respond to the roll call with current events.

Housewife Is Saved Seventy Mile Walk

A hint from the home demonstration agent, wheels from an old play wagon, one dollar, and the handicraft ability of her husband were combined to save a housewife in Benona township, an unnecessary walk of 70 miles each year, according to a report received by Miss Edna V. Smith, state leader of home economics extension work of Michigan State College.

This particular kitchen had been laid out without regard to distance between the various places where the kitchen work had to be done. The serving of each meal required a number of trips back and forth as all the materials could not be carried at once. The washing of the dishes after the meal and other necessary work required many more trips.

Following the suggestion of the home demonstration agent, the housewife provided an inexpensive service wagon, which she estimates saves her 300 steps a day in the washing of dishes and 250 steps daily in the other kitchen work.

More Squirring to Avoid Payment of War Debts to America—Repeal and Beer Worry Members of Congress Assembling for Session.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

GREAT BRITAIN was still hopeful that the United States would not insist that the $85,550,000 war debt principal and interest, due December 15, must be paid. She has the money necessary, and would pay it if there was no way out of it, but kept on trying to find a way. The cabinet approved the terms of a new note to Washington, and even King George took a hand and helped decide what was best to be done. The king had a long interview with Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, who laid before him the proposal of the treasury which is dominated by Montagu Norman, head of the Bank of England. This presumably was that Britain should refuse to pay now or, at least, should pay into a blocked account, not transferring any money to America at this time.

Opposed to this view was that of the foreign office, upheld by Prime Minister MacDonald, that payment should be made promptly if the new request for postponement were refused, and that the entire matter of international debts be taken up with the Roosevelt administration when it comes into power. It was indicated that the foreign office had won out in the controversy.

France, the most determined of the opponents of payment, was passing the buck to England. Premier Herriot's government seeking to hold off decision and even parliamentary discussion until the British course was announced. Many of the deputies, however, were rebellious and sought to force the government to a showdown.

DIRECTLY connected with the war debt affair was the fall of the pound sterling, long the unit of international finance, to unprecedentedly low prices. By the middle of the week the European gold standard exchanges also weakened considerably, and at the same time the Japanese yen and Chinese currencies broke badly.

From London came reports that there had developed a sudden scarcity of available dollars in the world markets that Britain may purchase to pay the United States. The evidence was that American currency had been bought up in France and elsewhere by exchange brokers as part of a scheme to depress the pound for the benefit of bears on sterling.

BEER would seem to be occupying too prominent a place in the American public mind, were it not for the national income and employment relief features involved in the restoration of the beverage to a legalized status. Early in the week Speaker Garner devised a plan to put the hesitant legislators on the spot. The dries and semi-dries had been as asserting that a measure legalizing beer and possibly light wines should not be pressed to passage until a resolution for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment had been put through. So Mr. Garner drew up such a resolution and announced that he would insist on its being put to a vote in the house on Monday, the first day of the short session. It was a resolution for flat repeal, with no mention of protection for the dry states.

Speaker Garner

Many congressmen, both Democrats and Republicans, called on the speaker with protests and pleas for delay, and Mr. Garner began to weaken, saying that if he found there was considerable objection to consideration of his resolution he would just as soon back up and say "We will wait." Fred Britten of Chicago and other eminent wets tried to keep the speaker to his determination. Britten assuring him that the Republican side of the house would supply more than 100 votes for the repeal resolution. But there was no certainty of more than 130 Democratic votes, so it was doubtful whether the necessary two-thirds majority could be obtained. Later in the week some of the dry members from the South were reported to be sliding over to the repeal side and the prospects of the resolution were considered brighter.

REPRESENTATIVE CARL VINSON of Georgia, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs had a long talk with President-Elect Roosevelt at Warm Springs, and came away with his former "big navy" attitude considerably changed. He did not quote Mr. Roosevelt, but announced that he would favor drastic cuts in the naval building program and general economies. He declared at least $100,000,000 could be pared from the naval budget and said he was now willing that the building program should be reduced to a point far below the maximum set by the treaty of London.

From what Mr. Vinson said it was apparent that Mr. Roosevelt hopes to provide the United States with a small but powerfully effective navy. He thinks, too, that economies can be effected by the consolidation of some bureaus and a better control of all purchases.

PRESIDENT-ELECT ROOSEVELT held a series of conferences on farm relief with farm organization leaders and legislators, including Senators Robinson, Wheeler and Bankhead, and Henry Morgenthau, and the net result seemed to be a probability that nothing would be done during the short session except the enactment of some emergency measures such as price fixing and perhaps mortgage refinancing. Mr. Roosevelt declined to announce his own plan in advance, saying, "That would be too much like telling congress what to do."

Farm leaders in Washington said they thought Mr. Roosevelt wants to meet the 1933 crop emergency and that they are willing to accept temporary measures such as the price-fixing bill that was proposed in the previous session.

HENRY FORD spent the week in the Detroit hospital that bears his name, recovering from an operation for strangulated hernia. The operation, which included removal of the appendix, was pronounced a success, and within three days the automobile manufacturer's pulse, temperature and respiration were back about to normal. By that time the hospital physicians and members of the Ford organization felt assured that the multi-millionaire's recovery was a matter only of rest and quiet. Members of his immediate family, who visited him daily, were no longer anxious about his condition. By the time this is read he may have been permitted to leave the hospital for his home.

DEATH took another congressman, this time the victim being James C. McLaughlin, Republican representative from the Ninth Michigan district and dean of that state's delegation. Stricken with heart disease while on a tour of Virginia, he died at Marion. Mr. McLaughlin, who was a member of the ways and means committee, was defeated in the recent elections by Harry W. Musselwhite, Democrat. His death makes the party lineup in the house at the "lame duck" session 208 Republicans, 220 Democrats, one Farmer-Labor, and six vacancies.

EXPANSION of its regulatory authority over public utility companies is recommended to congress by the power commission in its annual report. The body urges that it be authorized to require concerns with federal licenses, including holding companies, to submit any information desired as an aid to their supervision. The two fundamental purposes in view, the commission said are:

"First: Regulation of the holding company in relation to the operating company and through the operating company to the consumer of electrical energy; and, second, regulation of the holding company in relation to the investing public, which is principally interested in the securities of such holding company."

JUST as soon as there is a let up in the depression and federal finances permit, the regular army should be increased by 2,000 officers and 40,000 enlisted men. In the opinion of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff. In his annual report the general said the army already has been reduced below the level of national safety.

"The regular army should be ready at all times," General MacArthur said, "to furnish any troops required by internal emergencies and initial defense against attack. The national defense act provided 15,000 officers and 280,000 men. This has been progressively reduced to 12,000 officers and 125,000 enlisted men, including Philippine scouts. On June 30, 1932, the actual figures were 12,180 officers and 119,888 enlisted men."

DONALD BUCKLEY, retired shopkeeper, who was a rebel against British rule for years, was appointed by King George to be governor general of the Irish Free State, on the advice of President De Valera, whose close friend he is. London was rather shocked by the appointment, many regarding it as a distinct attempt to belittle the king and bring the office of governor general into disrepute. Buckley succeeds James McNeill, who was forced out of office by De Valera.

THROUGHOUT another week President Paul von Hindenburg sought to find a man who could form a new ministry for Germany.

Gen. Kurt von Schleicher

His best bet of the seven days was Gen. Kurt von Schleicher, the minister of defense, who is probably the strongest man in public life in the reich. The general was willing to undertake the task, but needed the support of the Nazis, and this was denied him by Adolf Hitler who continued to hold the ground that there should be no government unless headed by himself. However, there was hope that Hitler would yield in later conferences. If not, there was a chance that the President might instruct Von Schleicher to form a cabinet and dissolve the reichstag. Or else, he might create a "business cabinet" under Von Papen and let it carry on.

The Nazis said if the government dissolved the reichstag forcibly, this would be considered by them an illegal act and would evoke an "illegal answer."

AGRICULTURAL depression did not seem to hurt the International Live Stock show in Chicago, for this year the affair was bigger and better than ever. The title of grand champion steer of the world was awarded to a Hereford from Texas, the selection being made as usual by Judge Walter Biggar of Scotland. The animal was raised and exhibited by Will Largent of Merkel, Texas, and after its brief reign it went through the customary process of sale by auction, slaughter and consumption by Chicago gourmets.

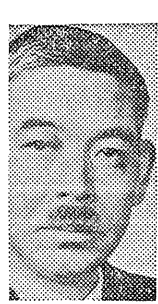

Herman Trelle of Wembley, Alberta, Can., won the crown of world wheat king for the third successive year, the judges pronouncing his wheat the finest they had ever seen. The new hay king is M. V. Gillett of Nebraska.

Coincident with the stock show was the congress of 4-H clubs, attended by many hundreds of young agriculturists of both sexes who competed for the usual fine prizes.

HEARTILY backing up the demands of President William Green, the American Federation of Labor in convention in Cincinnati adopted a resolution calling for the universal adoption in industry of the five-day week and the six-hour day.

Stirring the delegates to waves of applause Mr. Green said labor's patience with industrial management was at an end. Labor's paramount policy, he said, henceforth would be to resort to "forceful methods," if necessary, to establish the shorter work week. By those methods he meant use of every weapon in the union armory—economic, political, and industrial.

RAMON DE VALERA, president of the League of Nations council, passed the Lytton commission report on Manchuria on to the league assembly, calling that body to convene in special session on December 6. The Japanese special representative, Yosuke Matsuoka, made the usual reservation to this action, in line with the Tokyo contention that the assembly is not competent to handle the Sino-Japanese affair, including the status of Manchuria.

Yosuke Matsuoka

The council dismissed the Lytton commission, but stipulated that it should consider itself subject to recall to submit whatever information the assembly may require. To this also Matsuoka objected without avail. "As you know," he said, "we have been taking the view that the commission is no longer in existence."

The committee of nineteen of the assembly met Thursday to prepare the program for the special session. Then some of the great powers will have to make clear their attitudes toward the Far Eastern situation and if the smooth spoken Matsuoka cannot prevail it may be Japan will withdraw entirely from the league. Certainly she shows no intention of letting go her hold on Manchuria, whatever the rest of the world may do.

PREMIER HERRIOT of France and Ambassador Dovgalevsky of Russia signed in Paris the new Franco-Russian treaty of nonaggression and conciliation. It is the first such pact that the Soviet government has completed with any of the great powers.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Charles E. Dunn

The Christian's Use of Leisure.

Lesson for Dec. 11th.

Mark 6:30-32.

Golden Text: 1st Corinthians 10:31.

One of the greatest needs of the American people is to know how best to use their abundant leisure. With a reduction in the number of hours of work, this problem has become of vast importance. To its solution the Church must resolutely address itself.

There are certain phases of the present situation that are not reassuring. The motion picture largely operates in the direction of undermining the taste and thought of the nation. The automobile makes us a vast company of speeding gadabouts in restless motion. And the radio places us at the mercy of jazz bands, crooners, and similar vulgarities of high pressure salesmanship.

On the other hand, there are undoubted possibilities for good in these machine-made sources of recreation. The movie theatre is certainly preferable to the saloon, and there are pictures beyond criticism both from the standpoint of art and character building. The automobile has revived the old-fashioned family outing, promoting shared recreation in the out-of-doors. And the radio enables us to listen to symphony concerts, addresses, and inspiring church services.

The problem, then, becomes one of choice. We must learn to discriminate between the wholesome and the unwholesome. One is always on the safe ground if he keeps Jesus and the Christian ideal in sight. The Golden Text urges us to do all we do "to the glory of God." If we follow this admonition, we can never wander far.

Instead of high-powered, exhausting amusement, we shall choose simple, restful, health giving fun. Like our Master, we shall seek contact with nature as often as possible, and cultivate a few kindred spirits, whose friendship can heal and restore our jaded selves.

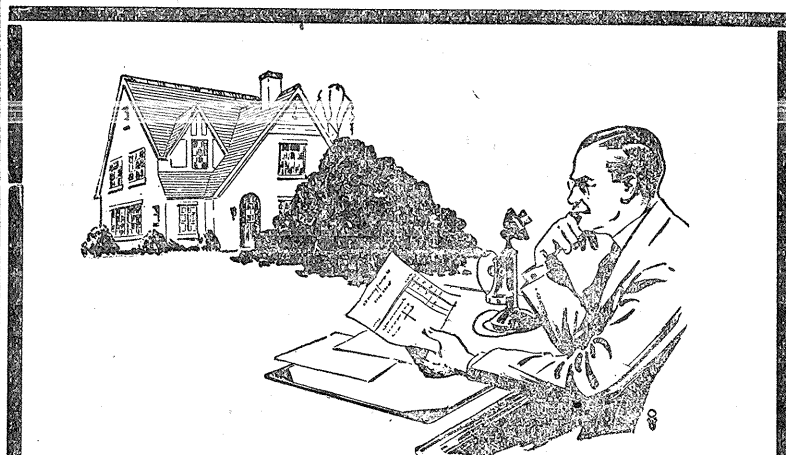

Moreover, we shall seek recreation that demands personal participation rather than passive inspection.

"Come away, all of you," said the Master, "to a quiet place, and rest awhile." We all need to escape from the strain of life. God help us to choose those forms of merry-making that will enrich and beautify our days!

Spain's Capital City

Madrid, the capital of Spain, has a population of close to 900,000. Many homes in the city have only one story. Balconies jut out from the sides of the houses; and we may fancy a pretty "senorita" sitting on such a balcony during a warm summer evening, listening to the guitar played by one of her admirers who stands on the ground below.

"Chump's" Hard Pathway

The chump is a person who permits others to make a fool of him mainly because he hasn't ambition or sense enough to think his own way through life. The man who must constantly be assisted by others usually gets that aid in the form of a kick in the seat of his trousers.—Grit.

AUTO DEATH RATE DECLINES.

The best news we have heard in a long time is the report that fewer people have been killed in automobile accidents this year than last. At first glance it might seem that that is merely because not so many people are driving cars, but the Travelers Insurance Company keeps close track of the figures of automobile accidents, since it is in the business of writing accident insurance, says that while fewer cars are registered and less gasoline is being bought the decrease in fatal accidents is even more marked than those facts will account for.

In seventeen states there has been a falling off of 20 per cent in the number of automobile deaths. Only three states show an increase in the number of fatalities. For the country as a whole the number of automobile deaths for the first ten months of this year shows a decline of 15 per cent. At the present rate fewer than thirty thousand people will have been killed in or by automobiles in 1932.

This is mighty good news. It indicates that we are learning how to handle the most dangerous deadly weapon that has ever been placed without restraint in the hands of children, irresponsible adults and drunkards. Far more people are killed by the careless or incompetent handling of automobiles every year than are killed by carelessness with firearms. Most parents would hesitate before giving their boys and girls revolvers to play with. But these same parents will give automobiles to the most irresponsible children to play with and to kill people with. Nobody would trust a notorious and irresponsible drunkard with a gun, but the operation of automobiles is entrusted to anyone who can keep sober long enough to get his driving license.

The strictest of strict regulations in order to obtain a driver's license is of course one way to curb the evils of recklessness.

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

The Ohio State Department of Health says: "The average community spends 500 times as much to keep a child in school a year as it does to protect that child's health, and if the child falls, spends another 500 per cent of the health cost to carry it an extra year—all in the name of economy!"—The Hourly Nurse.

U. S. CAPTAIN GETS RING LOST IN WAR

Finder Kept Up Search 13
Years for the Owner.

Chicago.—Capt. Robert N. Winslow and Sergt. Harry G. Young met once, for a few minutes only, on a battlefield in France. They were not introduced. The captain was a slightly wounded combatant and the sergeant was at work in a first-aid station pouring iodine, twisting bandages and giving tetanus shots.

They parted quickly. Nearly fourteen years have passed since the meeting. Recently Captain, now Mr. Winslow, received a letter. He now lives at 2204 Forest-view road, Evanston, but the mislaid had been sent to his former address.

Captain Gets Letter.

It was mailed from North Brooks-ville, Maine, and read as follows:

"Dear Captain:

"At intervals during the last 13 years I have been trying to locate an A. E. F. officer bearing your name.

"The object of my letter is to ask, if you served in France, did you lose any personal jewelry? If so describe same and state, as near as you can, the place you lost it.

"H. G. YOUNG."

Captain Winslow, in reply, wrote as follows:

"Dear Mr. Young:

"Thanks for your thoughtful letter. I wonder how you ever got my address, especially as I have not lived there for several years, although in the same city, which is a suburb of Chicago.

"I was born and raised in Fred-erickton, N. B., which is probably not far from your home.

"Regarding the personal jewelry which you mention: On September 14, 1918, during the battle of St. Mihiel, I dropped into a first-aid station which happened to be in an old church in the town of Mouilly, to have my hand dressed. It was badly torn by barbed wire.

"I took off a gold ring which probably had my initials and laid it down while the doctor did the work. I forgot all about the ring and when I went back to get it I found that the medical outfit had moved. Possibly this is what you refer to in your letter, because I don't remember ever losing anything else.

"I appreciate very much your thoughtfulness in trying to find me, and if there is anything I can do to reciprocate, kindly let me know.

"Sincerely yours,

"ROBERT N. WINSLOW."

Jewelry Is Returned.

From Mr. Young came the following:

"Dear Mr. Winslow:

"Through the company clerk American Legion, New York office, I obtained your 1924 and last address as listed by the adjutant general's office in Washington.

"I remember quite clearly the morning you came into the first-aid station in Mouilly (about 9 a. m., and you were to come back at 4 p. m.). I dressed your hand, and after you left I found the ring, which I have kept. Had it not been for your name inside, I could not have located you. It gives me pleasure to return this souvenir to you by return mail.

"I have a small general store in this town, where I was born, and if you should come this way I would like to shake your hand.

"I joined the army while in Boston in 1916, went to the Mexican border in July, returned in December, went into camp again, 1917, sailed from New York September, 1917, with Twenty-sixth division, A. E. F.

"Sincerely yours,

"HARRY G. YOUNG,

"Ex-Sergt. 104th Field Hospital, 26th Division"

Captain Winslow has his ring. It arrived in the same mail with the second letter from Brooksville.

Court Room, Caro, Michigan

OCTOBER 11, 1932

A regular session of the Board of Supervisors was continued and held in the Court Rooms in the Village of Caro, on Tuesday, the 11th day of October, 1932.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Keinath.

Roll called and the following supervisors responded: Heckroth, Whittenburg, Miller, Dillon, Morrison, Keinath, Rawson, Hutchinson, Brown, McAlpine, Haas, Noble, Purdy, Higgins, Osburn, Burns, VanWagnen, McArthur, Haines, Lewis, Freeland, Macomber, McFarlane.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved as read.

E. L. Hammond, County Agricultural Agent, made a very complete report of his activities for the past seven months.

October 11th, 1932. To the Board of Supervisors of Tuscola County: I submit the following report of my activities as County Agricultural Agent of Tuscola County for the seven months, March 1st to September 30th, 1932.

It has been the aim of this service during the short period since I took over the duties of this office to serve as many people as possible with the limited facilities provided, and make available all of the projects requested by the people and at the same time spread the work into as many communities as possible in the county.

The following statistics show that Extension Service has been very much used in Tuscola County in 1932 and also that Agent's activities have been varied and numerous.

1. Total days worked, 176.
2. Days in field, 123.6—66%.
3. Days in office, 52.4.
4. Number of meetings, 103.
5. Attendance at meetings, 6,777—66 per meeting.
6. Farm visits made, 394.
7. Calls at the office, 818.
8. Telephone calls, 536.
9. Personal letters written, 384.
10. Circular letters mailed, 2,678.
11. Bulletins distributed, 925.
12. Articles published in paper, 95.

The number of times the County Extension Department was in direct communication with individuals in the county through farm visits, extension meetings, office and telephone calls, circular letters, individual letters and bulletins, totals, 12,512. This divided by the 176 days the agent was on duty during the seven months makes an average of 71 contacts per day.

For 103 meetings of all types, including project leader, method and result demonstrations and all other meetings of an extension nature, the average attendance was 66 per meeting. That is an exceptionally fine record.

The agent was on the job 176 days and in the field 66 per cent of the time. Despite the fact that the office was closed this 66% of the time that the agent was in various parts of the county, yet 818 office calls were received when the office was open or an average of 116 per month. I think this bears out the fact that the service is being used by an increasing number of people and being called on for increased service during these difficult times.

The agent has worked on many projects in these seven months of activity. A list of these projects are given below showing per cent of time spent on each.

	Days	% of work time
Soils	5.0	2.8%
Crops	49.3	28.0%
Fruits	8.0	4.6%
Landscape	6.8	3.9%
Animal husbandry	16.6	9.4%
Dairy	23.8	13.5%
Rural Engineer	1.5	.8%
Poultry	5.1	2.9%
Marketing	10.5	5.8%
Loan	15.2	8.6%
Farm Accounting	2.0	1.1%
Foods	8.0	4.5%
Clothing	5.2	2.9%
Home Furnishing	5.5	3.0%
Community activities	16.7	9.5%
Bees	1.0	.56%
Handicraft	2.0	1.1%

As this list of projects cover many activities in each, I shall set forth the names of the various activities included in each project.

Soils—Soil testing, train, fertilizer plots, lime organic matter and green manuring information. Marl tests, drainage and tillage information, also rotation of crops.

Crops—New Varieties, seed treatment and Butterfield contest on grain. Certified seed, certified alfalfa seed information, hay curing methods. Potato tours, regueing demonstration, 4-H Potato Club. Potato show, variety tests, sugar beet contest.

Fruits—Spraying information on disease and insects on tree; fruits and berries.

Landscape—Planting plans made for rural home by specialist and landscape schools.

Animal Husbandry—Horse breaking and training, multiple hitch work, sheep, beef and pig 4-H Club work. Exhibits at State Fair.

Dairy—Testing Association, better sires work, selection of foundation females, milk marketing, contagious abortion work. 4-H Dairy Club work.

Poultry—Farm visits for diagnosing diseases, information on brooding chicks, rations for starting and laying, sanitation and housing.

Rural Engineering—Septic tank plans, safety bull pens, rural electrification demonstration.

Marketing—Two alfalfa seed growers associations, one new bean marketing association, new member for old ones.

Loan—Fourteen thousand dollars. 143 co-operators borrow from Crop Production Loan office.

Farm Accounting—General farm accounts and enterprise cost accounts.

Foods—Five 4-H Canning clubs with 60 members. Canning demonstration for women. Exhibits at Fairs.

Clothing—Eleven 4-H Clothing clubs with 125 members. Achievement Day.

Home Furnishing—New groups organized, now 21 groups with 340 members. Achievement Day, rug display at Fair.

Bees—One meeting for spring practices.

Handicraft—Seven 4-H Clubs with 60 members. Achievement Day.

Community Activities—Visits to Farmers' Clubs and Granges, Community Grange, Fairs, Farmers' picnic, Fair Arrangement co-operation.

Special mention should be given here about Fairs, both local and State.

At the Caro Fair 143 animals were shown by 4-H Livestock club members and many compliments were heard on the livestock parade of which the 4-H club animals were about 50%.

As the Caro Fair was the elimination show, about 78 animals were selected to show in the 4-H Classes at the State Fair.

These 78 animals won $760 at the State Fair in the Club Classes and about $390 in open classes.

The Canning Club girls showed 365 cans of fruit at the Caro Fair. One of the best displays in the Vegetable Hall. Eighty-five cans were selected from these displays and taken to the State Fair as four club exhibits. These four exhibits won a 1st, 2nd, 6th and 12th for a total of $39.00.

Many honors were won by Tuscola boys and girls at State Fair. Four boys were honored in showmanship, receiving medals for their proficiency in this regard.

Our animal husbandry judging team composed of four boys from Cass City was fourth.

A Fairgrove boy, Ward Aldrich, was one of the four best Club Dairy judges in the state and will be given a trip to the National Dairy Congress at Waterloo, Iowa, to represent Michigan on a Dairy judging team.

Tuscola County was very much "in the money" at the State Fair, for in addition to the 4-H honors won, the grain growers of this county took almost 50% of the money in the Butterfield contest, and about 3/4 of the winnings in open classes in grain.

As has been shown here, the activities this past seven months have been varied and numerous. Now let us see what is being done to bring the work to people in all parts of the county.

As demonstrations and meetings do not appeal to many people it is necessary to try to get extension results to their communities through organization work.

4-H Clubs are the first and best means of doing this.

Livestock Clubs in five locations serve 15 townships wholly or in part as follows:

1. Cass City Club—Elmwood, Ellington and Novesta townships.

2. Unionville Club—Akron and Columbia townships.

3. Caro Club—Almer, Ellington, Indianfields, Juniata, Fairgrove and Wells townships.

4. Fairgrove Club—Wisner, Gilford and Fairgrove townships.

5. Vassar Club—Tuscola, Denmark, and Vassar townships.

Chart shows location. In winter clubs work, requests are now in the office for 78 clothing and handicraft clubs in 47 rural schools.

These schools are in 21 townships. Next the Home demonstration work for women include 340 women in 22 groups in the county. These organized groups are spread wholly or partly in 20 or 23 townships.

Chart shows location. Farm Accounting project reaches farmers in 14 townships.

Lastly it is planned at present to organize soils schools composed of local groups of farmers in every township in county to run on local leader basis similar to Home demonstration groups. By so increasing organized projects in every community it is planned to have definite tieups in every community to the extension program, serve more people, and eliminate the chance for argument that some people try to present, that extension service is not for all people.

Extension is for everyone who desires to avail themselves of the service and by a wider educational program, through organized groups, it is hoped that in the near future that the work will be as well represented in every township.

TO BE CHEERFUL AND HAPPY.

Jesus was the center and soul of a glorious existence; a bringer of news so wonderful that those who received it should be marked by their radiance as by a badge. Of course he disregarded the narrow code of the Pharisees.

"You shall walk only so far on the Sabbath," said the Code. He walked as far as he liked.

"These things you may eat and these you shall not," said the Code. "You're not defiled by what goes into your mouth," he answered, "but by what comes out."

"All prayers must be submitted according to the forms provided," said the Code. "None others are acceptable."

It was blasphemy to him. His God was no Bureau, no Rule Maker, no Accountant. "God is a spirit," he cried. "Between the great Spirit and the spirits of men—which are a tiny part of His—no one has the right to intervene with formulae and rules."

He told a story which must have outraged the self-righteous members of his audience. He said that a certain man had two sons. The elder, a perfectly proper and perfectly uninteresting young man, worked hard, saved his money, and conducted himself generally as a respectable member of society.

The younger son was a reckless ne'er-do-well, who took his portion of the estate and went into a far country where he led a wild life and presently was penniless and repentant. In that mood he proceeded to work his way back to his father's house. The father saw the boy coming a long way down the road, ran to him, threw his arms around his dusty shoulders, kissed his forehead.

"Bring a fatted calf," he cried. "Make a feast; call the neighbors to celebrate. For this my son which was gone has come back."

There were high doings in that house that day, and every one enjoyed them except the older son. He was sullen and self-pitying. "Here I work and save and have never had a good time. When he comes home, they give him a party. It's wrong."

The father did not defend the younger son, but he rebuked the elder. That was what hurt the smugly complacent members of the audience to whom Jesus told the story. The implication was too plain. "There are two ways in which a man may waste his life," the story said in effect. "One is to run away from your responsibilities, causing sorrow to your parents and hurt to your associates, killing your finer nature. That is wrong, and a man must repent."

"But the other thing is equally wrong. They who neither laugh nor sing are out of tune with the Infinite. Those who find no pleasure and give none offer Him a constant affront. . . . Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees. You are painfully careful to give exactly one-tenth of your incomes to the Temple, but you neglect to leave the world a little more cheerful."

This was his message—a happy God, wanting His sons and daughters to be happy.

Fans in the East

Fans have been made of many materials, feathers, tortoise shell, ivory, sandalwood, paper and many fabrics. In Japan there is a fan for almost every use one can think of, such as the tea fan, the court fan, the kitchen fan, and the dancing fan. The fan in Japan and China is not a part, merely, of feminine apparel, being an article of use carried by mistress, maid, priest and soldier.

Unique Museum Room

Boys Offered Best Stories

Bad times are good times for magazines readers, according to the editor of youth's favorite magazine, THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION. More people are writing than ever before, he states, and finer adventure, more gripping yarns, more downright reading thrills are due the magazine subscriber than ever in history.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION in 1933 will be loaded from cover to cover with great experiences. For adventure, the reader will travel with the Royal Canadian Mounted through forests and mountains, penetrate to the military posts of Borneo; ride with cavalry in India, plunge into the Amazon jungle.

There will be character-building stories of the professions, of school and college life. There'll be articles on sports, travel and science, that take boys to the Orient, that explain the mysteries of ocean liners and air transports. There'll be stories that satisfy the boy's wholesome appetite for fun and thrill, and his keen desire to learn.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION costs just $2.00 a year or $3.00 for three years. In other words, when you subscribe for three years, the magazine's savings enable them to give you a subscription for only a dollar a year! It's ideal gift for that boy you're interested in, be he son, nephew, neighbor, cousin, or son of your business associate. And an attractive gift card bearing your name will go to him if you request it. Send your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 West Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify. — Adv.

How One Woman

Lost 10 Lbs. in Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast, go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.—Advertisement 1-4.
