

As the Bells Ring Out The Old Year

May it remind you only of those pleasant experiences of 1932.

As They Ring In The New Year

May it be the signal of brighter, happier days for each of you.

Watch this wish for 1933. Let us say to each of our patrons that we appreciate you and earnestly desire the privilege of continuing to serve you.

AS WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE

1933

What the past has been, we cannot help, but the future gives promise. It is before us and ours is the opportunity to make the best of it. For our part, we want to make it a good year—a year of progress and of better times and we are going to do our best to contribute somewhat at least to this end. We hope it will be a good year for you and at its close that you will be richer, happier, healthier and better in every way than you have ever been before. Surely we could not make a better New Year's wish for our friends.

Made Florence Famous

The architect Brunelleschi had no small part to play in making Florence a leader in Renaissance art. He journeyed to Rome in 1403 and brought back and interpreted his inspiration in the classic revival so well that the Florentines speedily took a prominent place in the stimulation of new beauties, new culture. Her furniture ranked with the best of the period.

As Long As We Have Our Friends, We Have No Cause To Complain

No one ever does as well as they would like to. There is no end to the search for material wealth. But there are things greater than these material elements, among them and perhaps the greatest, is friendship. So long as we have our friends we are happy. And to us our patrons are our friends. That's the way we feel toward you and hope you feel that way toward us.

We are glad of this opportunity to express our appreciation to each of you and to extend you the season's Greetings and Best Wishes.

MAY YOU EXERCISE YOUR RIGHT AND ABILITY TO BE HAPPY

We can't always control the circumstances which surround us without, but to a great extent we can determine the attitude with which we shall face this environment. Things have not been so good as we should have liked for a great many of us. Some have been hit especially hard. At the beginning of a New Year, let us, therefore, refuse to admit gloom into our hearts, let us assert our right and ability to be happy. With the infinite power of our spirits let us triumph over discouragement and be happy anyhow. It will augur well for the New Year.

We wish you a full measure of happiness for the New Year health and prosperity.

POULTRY

NOT HARD MATTER TO PREVENT MOLT

Careful Feeding and Use of Lights Important. By PROF. L. E. WEAVER, New York State College of Agriculture, WNU Service. The molt is an old custom among hens and is adhered to by every avian female.

Care of Birds Before and After Caponizing

Cockerels can be caponized successfully late in the season, if care is taken to handle the birds properly. Not more than 10 or 12 birds should be confined together.

Points of Good Hen

Only a hen with a well developed, healthy body will stand heavy laying. Clear eyes, a well-set body and an active disposition are signs of vigor and health.

Poultry Hints

Poultry manure should be collected from the dropping boards, stored under cover and mixed with dry earth or sand. To maintain a high level of egg production, it is not necessary to cull more than a third of the birds from a normal flock of chickens during the year.

PRAYERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

FOR NIGHT SET my heart free from bitterness, O God, Now it is night—Free from those unkind ghosts of hurt and pain That haunt the light; Forgive my faults and let me fall asleep, Now day is through, And in unbroken peace abide this night Close unto You.

FOR MORNING Let me not look behind night's pause of peace, Now it is day; With courage and with joy let me go forth Anew, I pray; Resolved that I will strive, as my strength is, To do my part, Each hour with kindness, and sincerity, And a high heart! —Ethel Arnold Tilden in Good Housekeeping.

Fifty years ago women wore hoop skirts, bustles, petticoats, corsets, cotton stockings, high-buttoned shoes, ruffled cotton drawers, flannel nightgowns, puffs in their hair—did their own cooking, baking, cleaning, washing, ironing—raised big families—went to church Sundays—were too busy to be sick.

Men wore whiskers, square hats, Ascot ties, red flannel underwear, big watches and chains—chopped wood for stoves—bathed once a week—drank 10-cent whiskey and 5-cent beer, rode bicycles, buggies or sleighs—went in for politics—worked 12 hours a day—and lived to a ripe old age.

Stores burned coal oil lamps—carried everything from a needle to a plow—trusted everybody—never took an inventory—placed orders for goods a year in advance—always made money.

1933

Today women wear silk stockings, short skirts, low shoes, no corsets, an ounce of underwear—have bobbed hair, smoke, paint and powder, drink cocktails, play bridge, drive cars, have pet dogs and go in for politics.

Men have high blood pressure, wear no hats, and some no hair, shave their whiskers, shoot golf, bathe twice a day, drink poison, play the stock market, ride in airplanes—never go to bed the same day they get up—are misunderstood at home—work five hours a day, play 10—die young.

Stores have electric lights—cash registers—elevators, never have what the customer wants—trust nobody—take inventory daily—never buy in advance—have over-head mark-up—markdown—quota—budget—advertising—stock control—annual and semi-annual end of month—dollar day—founder's day—rummage—economy day sales—never make any money.

If you like these conditions and think life worth living, I wish you a
