

TUSCOLA'S VALUATION LOWERED $3,663.800

Supervisors Hear Reports of Officers and Make Appropriations.

Supervisor Haas, chairman of the committee sent by Tuscola county supervisors to the state equalization meeting, reported to the board of supervisors that Tuscola county had received favorable consideration, the valuation of the county for 1933 having been fixed at $3,663,800 less than in 1932.

Anna J. Ellis of Juniata township was elected by the supervisors Friday to serve with Probate Judge Walter Cooper and County Clerk Morrison as members of the commission to administer the old age pension law in Tuscola. Anna J. Ellis received 12 votes for the position, Nedean Rix 7, Lila Hall 2, Mrs. E. O. Babcock 2.

Chas. Frenzel was chosen to succeed himself as poor commissioner and Mrs. Nettie Schall was re-elected school examiner. Both were elected without opposition.

Probate Judge Walter Cooper reported to supervisors that he had appointed a soldiers' relief commission with the following members and terms: Clarence R. Myers, 3 years; Lyle Koepfen, 2 years; and Allison R. Stone, 1 year.

The committee on county officers' salaries recommended that deputy sheriffs be paid $3 a day and mileage at the rate of 5c a mile, and all other county officers' salaries to remain as set in the October session of 1932.

A resolution was adopted in which the Tuscola county treasurer is instructed to pay interest coupons on the Sebawaing River Drain bonds due Oct. 15, 1933, only on presentation of certificate of ownership giving present address of owners.

Twenty-two supervisors expressed themselves as favoring a delay until next April to decide the matter of refunding the Sebawaing River Drain bonds.

The resolutions committee was instructed to prepare a resolution expressing opposition to the so-called head tax and urging repeal of the act.

Appropriations were made by the supervisors as follows: $100 each to the Starr Commonwealth, Crippled Children's Society, Salvation Army and Michigan Tuberculosis Association, and $50 to the Thumb Potato Show.

The superintendents of the poor, in their report, gave the annual receipts as $67,202.48 less an overdraft on Oct. 1, 1932, of $42,635.22, leaving the total amount available as $24,567.26. Disbursements for the year ending Sept. 30, 1933, were $74,462.17. The fund was overdrawn on Oct. 1, 1933, by $49,894.91. The expenditures included the following items: Tuscola Co. Medical Society, $6,875.00; hospital, funeral and nursing expense (townships), $17,154.35; clothing, $904.32; shelter, $793.94; fuel, $4,099.27; transportation, $174.57; miscellaneous including mothers' pensions, $3,605.78; expense of county farm, $9,549.20; expense of temporary and permanent relief of indigent persons outside of infirmary and other institutions.

Some More Big Potatoes

Henry Hergenreder, R. R. 1, Deford, left five potatoes at the Chronicle office that tipped the scales at 10 pounds. They are of the Petoskey Russet variety and were grown by Mr. Hergenreder.

Thos. Little drove up to this office Saturday with a heaping bushel of spuds. It took just 38 potatoes to weigh 61½ pounds. They were grown along the bank of a ditch on Mr. Little's farm in Section 18, Novesta.

Dr. Bradshaw brought in a small bunch of wild raspberry twigs bearing ripe berries from the Jacob Vatter farm in Argyle township.

And to add a little variety, John Hall brought from Novesta township a puff ball with a circumference of 3 ft., 2 in. that weighed 7½ pounds. He found it near the banks of White Creek.

SENT TO PRISON FOR 15 YEARS

Judge Boomhower Sentenced Wine Party Killer to Jackson.

Wesley Oathout, 71, alias Wm. Johnson, of Lamotte township, Sanilac county, charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of Norman Rickett, was sentenced to serve 14 to 15 years in Michigan State Prison at Jackson on Friday by Circuit Judge X. A. Boomhower, in the Sanilac county circuit court.

The shooting occurred on the night of Oct. 5 when a group of welfare workers cutting brush on a lonely highway in Lamotte township, went to the Oathout home to purchase liquor. A quantity of wine was purchased at noon and after work at 5 p. m., the relief workers returned to the Oathout home where they remained until late evening. Members of the party had several drinks when two of the men got into an argument.

Oathout told Judge Boomhower at the trial that he did not intentionally kill Norman Rickett. "When he mauled me around my cabin and refused to go when I ordered him to, I fired my shotgun over his head with the intention of scaring him," Oathout said.

BLOCKING, RUNNING BRINGS VICTORY

Local Steamrollers Flatten Sandusky Eleven; Score, 26-0.

By Lewis Pinney.

Cass City fans were given a real treat at the local gridiron Friday, when the Cass City high school's football team romped up and down the field to thoroughly outclass the best team from Sanilac county. The Sandusky team were certainly a fighting one, for they failed to stop even after the final gun.

The Hilltoppers received the opening kickoff and Knight caught the ball on his own 25-yard line and went 50 yards before he was finally stopped by Lashbrook, Sandusky fullback. Sandusky held for downs, then punted on their first. Everything would have been rosy, but Fred Ward broke through a hole opened up by Kelley and Withey and blocked the kick, which was recovered by Kossanke. On the third down, "Rus" Quick was on his way over the goal line, but the ball bounced out of his arms and Sandusky recovered over the goal line for a touchback (no points). Again Sandusky kicked—but again Fred Ward was on top of the kicker before the ball got away. This time "Rus" Quick recovered and ran the remaining 12 yards for a touchdown. Graham's kick was wide. The first period ended soon afterwards with the ball deep in Sandusky's territory. Score—Cass City, 6; Sandusky, 0.

The second period was featured by numerous Sandusky passes, three of which were completed. But the Cass City line was extremely stubborn and the opponents failed to get inside the local 30 yard line. There was no scoring in this period.

Sandusky opened up its passing attack again at the start of the third period, but repeatedly they lost the ball before they reached the Maroon and Grey 30-yard line. Graham's punts would put the ball again in Sandusky's territory. In the middle of the period, the Sanilac team was forced to punt from their 30-yard line, but again it was Fred Ward. He not only blocked the kick, but also picked up the ball and jogged the remaining 20 yards for the second score. Graham's kick was squarely between the posts. In a desperate effort to score, Sandusky passes were constantly in the air from now on (when they had the ball). The Hilltoppers' secondary defense however, constantly batted the ball out of the hands of potential receivers. The third period ended 13 to 0 in favor of Cass City.

The most exciting and entertaining period was the fourth. Lashbrook, Sandusky fullback, completed a pass of 40 yards to Ralph Hastings. The locals again held on their own 30-yard line and soon forced their way into Sandusky's territory by off tackle smashes and end runs by Quick and Knight. Sandusky held, but were forced to punt. Lashbrook got off a beautiful kick which Knight received on his own 40-yard line. Dave entertained the fans with the most beautiful run seen in Cass City in many years. He reversed the field twice—once while spinning completely around in the air—and brought the ball to the 18-yard line. Quick easily scored on the first play. A pass, Graham to Knight, was good for the extra point. The Maroon and Grey team kicked off to Sandusky and held. Again Knight received the Sandusky punt at mid-field and twisted his way to the 12-yard line. Quick again.

WHEAT GROWERS SHARE IN MONEY

Farmers Will Get $688,000 for Reducing Their Acreage Next Three Years.

Michigan wheat growers will benefit by $688,000 to be paid by the federal government for their share in reducing the wheat acreage of this country, according to preliminary figures compiled by the supervisor of the allotment plan in this state.

The number of farmers who have applied for crop contracts is 12,623, and these men have an average of 216,970 acres planted to wheat each year. Michigan is not one of the leading wheat producing states and many farmers grow the crop only for feed on their own farms. This type of grower did not sign up for contracts.

The tendency of the larger growers to sign contracts is shown by the fact that the average number of acres for the men who signed up is nearly eight acres per man larger than the average for all wheat growers of the state.

Men who sign contracts will receive a payment of 28 cents per bushel, minus the local costs, for 54 per cent of their average production. This payment will be made before next harvest.

Crop contracts are for three years and three payments will be made. The secretary of agriculture has power to levy a processing tax on all wheat used for human food and this tax is used to pay farmers who cooperate in crop reduction.

The secretary can make this tax a sufficient sum to give wheat the same purchasing power that it had in 1909 to 1914. If wheat drops to a low price in 1934, the secretary may levy a higher processing tax and pay a proportionately higher adjustment price to crop contract holders.

Eaton county has the greatest number of signers, with 1,047. Huron county ranks second and Kent is in third place. In general, the greatest number of signers are in counties having the greatest interest in wheat production.

BROWN EXPLAINS OLD AGE PENSIONS

Only Persons Without Relatives Capable of Support to Be Aided.

By V. J. Brown.

A great deal of confusion exists in the public mind concerning the manner in which the old age pension act passed by the 1933 legislature will work. The governor has been quoted in language which, if the quotation is correct, indicates that even the executive mind is somewhat confused. In fact, in his message accompanying his executive approval of the act, the governor pointed out what he stated were fundamental errors.

The idea of old age pensions is by no means a new theory. In European countries, pensions for the aged have been the accepted policy for many generations. It is new, however, in the United States, the first of the acts having been adopted by a few of the states as late as 1925. For the past 10 years, the chief objective of the Fraternal Order of Eagles has been to secure the passage of old age pension acts in the several states, the Michigan organization having been among the most active of any of the states.

As stated above, the Michigan statute adopted last winter at Lansing is greatly misunderstood. Wild statements accredited to the state director of welfare who is charged with its administration perhaps are as responsible as anything else for the gross misunderstanding now so prevalent. These statements, together with statements accredited to the governor have been enlarged upon by Lansing press correspondents until the public mind is in a state of confusion.

Estimates Vary.

In the first place the estimates of the cost of providing old age pensions under the act have ranged from six million to sixty million dollars annually. According to careful estimates based upon the latest United States census figures and the experience of other states with similar laws, the actual cost in Michigan should not exceed $4,000,000.

Nine states are now operating under laws very similar to that passed by the Michigan legislature. The average number of persons ac-

The subject of the first discussion, led by Rev. Allured, was "Present Social Ills of the World and How the Gospel of Christ May Be Applied as a Remedy."

The second discussion, led by Miss Esther Grether of Redford, was "Youths' Religious Experience and Enlistment in Challenging Others to Surrender Their Lives to Christ."

Walter L. Jenkins of Detroit, Presbyterian field worker of Christian Endeavor in Michigan, was the leader in the third discussion on "Youths' Loyalty to Christ and Service Through the Church." Miss Ione Catton, Lansing, representative of Council of Christian Education in Michigan, led the fourth discussion. This was a general discussion on religious work for intermediate young people.

About 125 were present and enjoyed the banquet served in the church dining room in the evening. The day closed with a candle light and communion service.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

President Calls on Labor and Capital to Pull Together; Progress of National Recovery; Arias Presents the Complaints of Panama.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

William Green

STANDING before the fine memorial to Samuel Gompers in Washington which he helped to dedicate, President Roosevelt may well have wished that that wise, resourceful and moderate leader of organized labor were alive today to help in the battle for national recovery. During the World War Gompers aided tremendously in bringing the workers and employers of the United States together to "pull in harness," and the President in his address called on them to get together again in the present emergency.

At the President's side stood William Green, who succeeded Mr. Gompers as president of the American Federation of Labor and who is doing his best to carry out the policies of his predecessor. Mr. Green turned to Mr. Roosevelt and said: "I tender the assurance of the devotion and loyalty of the officers and members of the American Federation of Labor to you as the Chief Executive of our nation, and to the United States."

In his address the President said: "In the fields of organized labor there are problems just as there were in the spring of 1917—questions of jurisdiction which have to be settled quickly and effectively in order to prevent the slowing up of the general program. There are the perfectly natural problems of selfish individuals who seek personal gain by running counter to the calm judgment of sound leadership. There are hotheads who think that results can be obtained by noise or violence; there are insidious voices seeking to instill methods or principles which are wholly foreign to the American form of democratic government."

"On the part of employers there are some who shudder at anything new. There are some, a decreasing number, I believe, who think in terms of dollars and cents instead of in terms of human lives; there are some who themselves would prefer government by a privileged class instead of by majority rule."

"But it is clear that the sum of the objections on both sides cuts a very small figure in the total of employers and employees alike who are going along wholeheartedly in the war against depression."

Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, appeared before the convention of the American Federation of Labor and ardently urged the union men to cease their strikes, to put full faith in the NRA and to enter into real partnership with industry and the government. He strenuously defended the recovery program.

FROM the newspapers and also from letters the President has been brought to a realization of the huge salaries paid to stars of the movie world and to certain of the moving picture directors. He called General Johnson on the telephone and directed him to take the matter up, find out whether these salaries are "consonable" and do whatever should be done to level them down. Johnson turned the inquiry over to Sol A. Rosenblatt, NRA movie administrator. Dispatches received from Hollywood said the film industry was nervous over the matter, fearing the investigation would reveal secrets concerning salaries that have been kept hidden during the depression.

SO GREAT has become the pressure from senators and congressmen to obtain jobs for their friends on the Tennessee valley project that Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, chairman of the TVA, has announced that at every employee, even the common laborers, will be selected by civil service tests. The examinations, he said, would be along the same lines as those given prospective Navy department employees.

"I really do not blame members of congress for the situation," he explained. "There are so many people desperately in need of work that the senators and representatives themselves are hard-pressed."

Doctor Morgan said that administrative costs of the project would be reduced materially through direct civil service action, which would release for other work a large staff that had to be maintained to care for more than 1,000 daily applications for jobs.

"First of all," Doctor Morgan remarked, "few persons know that we are out of politics by law."

"Secondly, if the government goes into business it has got to go into it in a businesslike way."

He pointed out that stories of the ambitious public-works program for the Tennessee valley had attracted a floating population from all parts of the country, imposing a heavy relief burden on already harassed communities. He added that Tennessee valley residents were being given the preference on laboring jobs.

THEODORE RAHUTIS, a restaurateur of Gary, Ind., has achieved fame, or notoriety, as the first individual to lose his blue eagle on orders from Administrator Johnson. His NRA emblem was taken away because he allegedly was not abiding by the President's re-employment agreement which he had signed. With this as a start, General Johnson ordered various other persons and firms to turn in their blue eagles. One grocer in Knoxville, Tenn., voluntarily surrendered his insignia declaring that the code was a failure so far as his business was concerned.

Dairy farmers from all parts of the country gathered in Chicago and threatened to bolt the recovery program because the farm adjustment administration has failed to enforce the provisions of its trade agreements for the city milk markets.

SOMETHING went wrong on a transcontinental passenger plane of the United Air Lines as it was over Chesterton, Ind., on the way from New York to Chicago. There was a terrific explosion, the tail broke off, the big plane whirled down a thousand feet to ground on a farm, and burst into flames. Seven persons, including four passengers, two pilots and the stewardess, perished. United Air Lines officials pointed out that the accident was the first fatal one on its passenger service in seven years, in which millions of air miles were traveled.

PANAMA has serious and seemingly justified grievances against the United States, and Harmodio Arias, president of the isthmian republic, is in Washington to lay them before President Roosevelt. He and his fellow Panamanians feel the economic existence of their country depends on the results of his mission. Panama has several problems, indeed, but the most important concerns its charge that the United States is using certain Canal Zone privileges to compete unfairly with native business on the isthmus. The zone, for instance, pays no duties on goods imported from the United States, and Panama does. This condition has become especially irksome since the legalization of beer, for the Canal Zone commissaries and the army and navy posts established a string of beer gardens which undersell the native places and capture much of the zone pay rolls.

Harmodio Arias

A similar situation exists with other products than beer, Panamanians maintain. They point to the sale of such luxuries as Doulton china and silk as a violation of the original treaty of 1903 with the United States in which it was agreed that only actual necessities for American employees, would be imported and sold by the Canal Zone.

Another matter brought up by President Arias is the question of the large number of West Indians imported to the Canal Zone for work by the United States government and who have since been discharged because of economy and have gone over to the cities and towns of Panama. They are without work and are being taken care of by the Panamanian government. Senator Arias wants our congress to appropriate funds to send these people back home, and this has already been recommended by Gov. Julian L. Schley of the zone.

CONTINUING the trend toward government price fixing, the President has created a new agency whose function will be to obtain and maintain higher prices for commodities. It is called the Commodity Credit corporation, has an initial capital of $3,000,000 subscribed by the government, and will lend funds of the Reconstruction Finance corporation to producers— which the RFC cannot do legally.

The first undertaking of the new agency will be to establish and maintain a price of between 10 and 15 cents a pound on cotton through loans of government funds to cotton farmers to enable them to hold this year's crop on the farms for higher prices. Other commodities, not yet announced, will be taken in hand later. The loans to producers are to be secured by the commodities.

SENATOR JAMES J. DAVIS of Pennsylvania, director general of the Loyal Order of Moose, is at last freed of charges of violating the federal lottery law in connection with the charity balls conducted, by the order. A jury in New York found Davis and Theodore G. Miller of Aurora, Ill., not guilty after a trial lasting nearly four weeks.

WITH Florida now on the list, 33 states have voted for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, and only three more states are needed to put an end to national prohibition. Florida went wet by a vote of approximately 4 to 1.

HOPE for some success in the disarmament conference was revived though it was still rather faint. The hope was based on the fact that both Germany and France were becoming more specific in their demands. The government in Berlin issued an official statement respecting reports published abroad, declaring "it is completely false to say Germany demands arms equality with France after five years. Germany demands after five years only the further disarmament of other countries. As to weapons, for training purposes, all discrimination must now cease. But Germany does not demand the same number of weapons as others possess."

Stanley Baldwin

France, represented by Premier Daladier, replied to the German statements by repeating its plan for a four year trial period during which all armies would be bound not to augment armaments, followed by destruction of offensive weapons. Daladier said: "No one contests Germany's right to live the life of a great power. No one thinks of humiliating Germany."

The British were growing impatient over the deadlock, and Stanley Baldwin, lord president of the council and probably the country's foremost statesman, uttered a stern warning in an address at Birmingham.

"When I speak of a disarmament convention," he said, "I do not mean disarmament on the part of this country and not on the part of any other. I mean a limitation of armaments that is a real limitation."

"If a convention is signed, the nation which breaks it will have no friend in the civilized world."

PUBLICATION in Moscow of charges that Japan is plotting to seize the Russian controlled Chinese Eastern railroad in Manchuria and of documents allegedly supporting the accusations brought relations between Japan and Russia to the breaking point. The Japanese deny the tale in toto and are very angry, but observers in Tokyo do not believe the government is ready to go to war just yet.

SIX Latin American republics have signed at Rio de Janeiro a pact outlawing aggressive war, forbidding forcible acquisition of territory and setting up machinery for conciliation, complementing the Kellogg-Briand pact. The signatory nations are Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Uruguay and Paraguay.

CHANCELLOR HITLER'S government has put an end to the freedom of the press in Germany. A new law, drafted by Minister of Propaganda Goebbels, declares editors and members of editorial staffs of newspapers, periodicals and news agencies must uphold unreservedly the rightness of the present regime.

It holds newspapers no longer are to be organs of free opinions, but must be classed with the radio, theaters and schools as public institutions spiritually influencing the nation. The decree establishing the first six sections of the law was followed by one prescribing the death penalty, or, alternatively, fifteen years imprisonment for anyone who imports or disseminates periodicals classed as treasonable.

THE United States and eight other nations have protested to the German government because of attacks on their nationals by Nazis who never are punished for the assaults. Apologies from Berlin are declared insufficient. Thirty Americans have been assaulted since April 12, usually because they did not salute the Nazi flag.

PHILADELPHIA police broke up what they say was a plan of the "Khaki Shirts of America" to march on Washington and install President Roosevelt as a dictator under a Fascist government. The leader, Art J. Smith, was not apprehended, and his aids now accuse him of decamping with about $25,000 of the organization's funds. When the headquarters of the "Shirts" was raided a collection of small arms and other weapons was found. The whole scheme seemed so extravagant that the authorities in Washington were not perturbed.

Dead Men Marching!

In an article in a recent issue of the Rotarian, a magazine published by the organization of International Rotary Club, Ernest Elmo Calkins has some trite things to say about the power of advertising. One of the most compelling thoughts he advanced was that the horrors of war should be advertised in peace time as much as the glory of war in time of strife. This is illustrated by a grim reproduction of an advertisement. The picture in the ad shows a column of soldiers marching ten abreast. The caption reads: "These Are the Dead." The text of the advertisement reads:

"These are the soldier dead in the World War.

"Let us stand on the curbstone and watch them march by.

"Tramp . . . tramp . . . ten in a row—two seconds apart . . . why, you look actually faint . . . stand up, the first day hasn't passed yet.

"Tramp . . . tramp . . . ten in a row . . . two seconds apart . . . for 1 day . . . for 10 days . . . for 20 days . . . for 40 days . . . for 46 DAYS . . . THESE ARE THE DEAD OF THE WORLD WAR."

This word picture can be looked at from two viewpoints—one the purely professional advertising view and the other a humanitarian. Regardless of what individuals may think, the people of the world as well as the individuals in it are controlled by their thoughts. What they think they do. Much space, columns of reading matter, millions of pamphlets and hours of radio propaganda have been given to promoting public sentiment for war and for preparation for war. Is it not logical that in time of peace such truths—regardless of their grim unpleasantness and sordid content—be presented to people? Advertising is a power. It is not always used to its best advantage. —Clinton Co. Republican-News.

"Resoluting."

The rest of Huron county had better get ready to hold one large sized bag if the State Highway Department heeds the joint resolution by the Bad Axe and Harbor Beach Rotary clubs asking that the entire $156,000 of Federal highway money allotted to Huron county be spent on two roads in which the county seat and the east shore town are directly interested. Both M-29 and M-53 should be completed as soon as possible, of course. No one in the least interested in an adequate highway system in the Thumb district can conscientiously dispute it. But the spending of all this Federal money on two projects alone would not fit in with the motive behind the President's idea of the relief of the unemployment situation. Other sections of the county are entitled to their share of it, and our guess is that they will get it unless Commissioner Van Wagoner is nearsighted, and the last time we saw him he wasn't wearing glasses. Probably it might not be a bad idea for other organizations in the county to do a little resoluting. —Sebewaing Blade.

Blood Pressure.

If you have high or low blood pressure read this story and write your own editorial. In a doctor's office (not in Northville) a young man came in to be examined for life insurance.

"Would you mind laying aside your cigarette while I examine you?" said the M. D. as he proceeded with the physical survey of the prospect. The physician found that the blood pressure was low. "Please light a cigarette and smoke two or three," said the examiner. The chap did so and when the blood pressure was taken it was up 20 points. —Northville Record.

New Auto Law.

The new auto law means that any motorist who may injure a person or damage his property must pay or get off the road forever.

It means, naturally, that as long as one never has an accident or violates any major law he can go along as he now drives. But if he does have an accident or does violate the major law, then he is in trouble unless he has protection. The safe thing to do for every motorist in Michigan is to establish financial responsibility by a good insurance policy in a good organization in advance of any difficulty.

This act affects owners of automobiles in Michigan as well as residents of other states who operate or have their motor vehicles operated in the State of Michigan. —Huron Co. Tribune.

JEWEL BUTTON FAD

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Things that were fashionable in 1900 among which are jewel buttons are to be in vogue again. A striking evidence of this is given in connection with the ultra black linen crash ensemble pictured. Here the waist-depth jacket is fastened with two glistening rhinestone buttons. The double-pointed girdle which drops below the jacket is uniquely buttoned to the skirt. The sleeves have the "architectural" silhouette which characterizes the new season's styling.

MEDICAL ADVICE

If you want to
... keep the bowel action regular and comfortable
... make constipated spells as rare as colds
... avoid danger of bowel strain
—use a Liquid laxative

Can constipation be overcome? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" declare thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not apt to cure your constipation with salts, pills and tablets, or any habit-forming cathartic. But you can overcome this condition just by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the average person's bowels just as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

Why Hospitals use a liquid laxative

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Will not irritate kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it! In buying any laxative, read the label. If it contains a doubtful drug, don't take it. If you don't know what is in it, don't chance it. The contents of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is stated plainly on the label; fresh herbs, pure pepsin, active senna.

Its very taste tells you syrup pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. Drugstores have it, ready for use, in big bottles.

Milk Flows Freely in Galien Dairy

Honors for the high average production in herds tested by Michigan Herd Improvement Associations again go to Doan Straub, Galien, whose herd of purebred Holsteins averaged 629.8 lbs. of butterfat.

The owners of the next nine ranking herds are C. M. Windover, Midland; Armstrong Brothers, Howell; Harry Chorpensing, Marshall; Harry Olmstead, Bronson; Brody and Miller, Constantine; L. C. Hunt, Eaton Rapids; Marshall Fair, Coldwater; M. J. Allman, Albion; and O. J. Becker, Okemos.

A feature of the year's testing work is that, while the average production for the 10,000 cows in the associations was 10 pounds higher than any previous record, the total production was lower at the end of the year than at the beginning. Dairyman have found that it does not pay to create a surplus of products by keeping a lot of boarder cows, and many animals were culled from the herds during the year.

Mr. Straub has had high Michigan herd several different years and he credits a part of his success to his continuous membership for nine years in the local testing association. This herd wins national honors for its owner as well as first rank in the state.

The best individual cow tested is owned by H. C. Kaufman and Son, Breckenridge. This animal produced 821 pounds of butterfat in the year. Mr. Kaufman is a firm believer in culling his cows and has cut his herd down to the high producer and three of her daughters.

Membership in the Michigan associations is increasing after several years of declining numbers.

Explains Plan to Foil Chinch Bugs

Expert Advises Crops That Do Not Appeal to the Pest.

By Chief Entomologist of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

Adjusting the acreage of wheat under the government plan fits in well with the cropping system which farmers should follow next spring in order to cope with chinch bugs, which this season were the worst that they have been for fifty years in this state.

The cropping system which will enable farmers to handle the chinch bugs in the cheapest way possible and at the same time permit them to grow the maximum acreage of crops which the chinch bugs will not infest, is as follows:

1. Reduce the acreage or entirely stop growing barley or spring wheat.
2. Plant the normal acreage of oats and a little less than the normal acreage of winter wheat, being careful that winter wheat is planted on good, strong ground and that a good grade of seed is used.
3. Plant all the legumes possible by themselves or in small grain. If the bugs threaten in the spring at corn planting time, plant soybeans in the corn hills in as much of the corn acreage as possible.

There are several reasons why it is advisable to sow some wheat in chinch bug years, but the crop should be restricted to good ground, and only good seed should be used. At the time of wheat seeding in the fall, the chinch bugs are practically all in the corn, and very shortly will fly to the usual places where they shelter during the winter. Eighty to 90 per cent of the bugs will be sheltering along the south and west edges of woodlands, the south and west edges of hedges, fence rows and grassy, bushy roadsides. Unless burned out during the winter, the bugs remain in this shelter until spring. Then they fly out, usually to fields of small grain.

They seem to prefer the small grains in about the order of barley, spring wheat, winter wheat, rye and oats. Once settled in spring wheat or barley, the bugs may feed on it to such an extent as to kill the plants. They then move on to cornfields long before the grain is ripe.

Find Danger in Using Drought-Ruined Grass

Drought brings a double loss to raisers of sorghum and sudan grass, two of the principal forage crops, for the lack of water not only cuts the crop and stunts what little grows but makes that little highly dangerous to feed to live stock as a green feed.

There is always prussic acid present in these two grasses but seldom in sufficient quantity to be dangerous. When the grass is stunted by drought, however, the percentage of the acid present is increased about 250 per cent. It is present in sufficient quantity to kill grazing stock.

When this grass is cut and cured in a silo, however, it again becomes usable after being properly cured. The grass when stored is wet down to aid fermentation, and during the fermentation the excess prussic acid is driven off. Rapid curing, however, fails to bring this assurance of safety.

The Department of Agriculture recommends to farmers in doubt as to the extent to which the acid has been removed to try it out on one or two animals, rather than on an entire herd, so that if the acid is present in lethal quantity an entire herd will not suffer as a result.

Leafy Alfalfa Is Best

The percentage of leaves as compared to stem is one of the factors to which an inspector and grader of alfalfa hay gives particular attention. A high proportion of leaves is the most important single indication of quality. This is because the leaves of alfalfa carry about three times as much protein in proportion to their weight as the stems do. Protein is the most expensive and most valuable part of alfalfa hay, and hay cured to retain a large proportion of its leaves is worth more and deserves the higher grade. The hay grades, as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture, are designed to reflect real market values and consequently the alfalfa grades emphasize leafiness.

Agricultural Cullings

Most small pumps take as much power to overcome the friction as they do to lift the water.

In some parts of Tennessee, erosion has washed away the valuable top soil off 80 per cent of the farm lands.

A parasite to control the alfalfa weevil, a pest which is spreading in California, is being sought in France.

Scientifically the sweet potato does not belong to the potato family but is a member of the morning glory family.

Serious feed shortage looms over an area of 1,000 square miles or more in southwest Manitoba, where the crop is a total failure.

WORK OF FINANCING JAEGER MOTOR CAR, INC., IS PROGRESSING

Word has been received from an official of the Jaeger Motor Car, Inc., that the financing of the company is progressing as well as can be expected in view of conditions.

The Jaeger Co. moved into Cass City last spring and was leased the power plant by the city for a period of five years, and expected to get into production of their cars by the 10th of July last, but, due to the slowness of financing, were unable to get started. This was a great disappointment to Mr. Jaeger, who had spent several years in perfecting the car. However, he is no quitter, so he directed his efforts in another direction to raise the necessary capital to get the Cass City plant operating. As things look now the prospects of getting under way in the very near future are very promising, he says.

W. O. Heath, a local man, has charge of the office in Cass City, and can be found either in the office or his home on East Main St.

Mrs. Ann Kelley, who moved to Cass City with the company, has been called back to Detroit temporarily to assist in the handling of the company's business in that city.

BROWN EXPLAINS OLD AGE PENSION

tually granted old age pensions in these nine states is found to be 3.43 to each 1,000 inhabitants. In 1932, the last available date for which data is obtainable, the average pension in these nine states amounted to $19.38 per month.

If Michigan experiences like results under its act there should be a total of 16,408 persons eligible to old age pensions, which at a rate of $20 each would require $3,937,920. Cost of collecting the head tax and of administering the pension tax is placed below $5,000,000 the first year with considerable less expense in the years to follow once the system is established and the forms and equipment purchased.

The figures are not wild guesses. They are based on census figures as to population and upon the experience of other states, similar in character of population, as to the number actually to receive pensions.

Misunderstanding Prevails.

Many believe that every man who has reached the age of 70 and who is not possessed of property to the value of $3,500 or more is eligible to receive a full pension of one dollar per day. This is far from correct. The act provides many other tests, chief among which is whether or not the aged person has children or other near relatives able to support him or her. Then, too, the amount of pension is not $30 per month. That sum is the maximum and in actual experience is seldom reached. In many cases it is found that five or 10 dollars is quite sufficient to permit the aged person to live comfortably in his own home with garden and poultry and sometimes fuel supplied from his own lands.

Under the Michigan statute, the aged person applying for a pension must not only satisfy the county board of his worthiness and his need, he must also pass scrutiny by a state agency which is set up with full authority to deny the application entirely or tone it down to actual and necessary requirements, each case standing entirely upon its own merits. Further than this the state board is empowered at all times to scale the pensions granted down to the revenues received from the special tax imposed. There can be no disbursements, under the act as it now stands, in excess of the amounts received from the head tax imposed for this specific purpose and for no other.

Head Tax Possibilities.

Now what about the possibilities of a head tax for the support of the old age pension plan?

According to the United States census there were in Michigan in 1930, exactly 3,184,975 persons above the age of 21. Figuring on a loss of population since that time by reason of economic and industrial depression, and estimating that those now on the welfare lists will not be able to pay and estimating one out of 10 will escape the head tax because there are always slackers and dodgers, there remains a total number of 2,250,000 above the age of 21 who may reasonably be expected to pay the head tax.

Payment by 2,250,000 persons of a head tax of two dollars each annually will return $4,500,000 to the old age pension fund, according to careful estimates. Of course, this estimate is predicted upon selling the idea to the people of Michigan that such tax brings old age contentment to more than 16,000 persons who otherwise would be uncared for.

There is still another side to the picture. In every town and on the welfare lists of every county as well as in the county infirmaries of every county there are persons who are now being supported by the local property tax who will become eligible to support from the state old age pension fund. This should and will result in a material reduction in poor relief taxes imposed upon local property. Just what this will amount to cannot be learned until a careful census now under way in each county has been completed.

The old age pension idea may not be good. The head tax for its support may not be good. There may be other and better plans for supporting the aged indigent and there may be better ways to levy a tax. In all probability experience will point the way to improvements in both directions. But the present law can be made to work in Michigan without great difficulty.

One of the first things to learn and one of the most important to remember is that not every person over the age of 70 is under the act, entitled to receive a pension of $30 per month.

Without Foundation. A Scotchman had been advised by his physician that he had a floating kidney. He was very much disturbed by the diagnosis and went to the minister of the kirk with a request for the prayers of the congregation. "I don't know," said the minister dubiously. "I'm afraid that at the mention of a floating kidney the congregation would be inclined to laugh." "I don't see why they should," replied the suffering one. "It was only last Sabbath you prayed for loose livers."

BLOCKING AND RUNNING BRING VICTORY

scored on an off-tackle smash for the last Cass City score.
Knight and Quick again starred for Cass City, but the real "feature" was the sterling work of Fred Ward. He just couldn't be stopped! Fred Withey was getting more than his share of tackles, while Graham called signals faultlessly. In fact, it was the whole Cass City team that was the "hero." Lashbrook of Sandusky showed the fans that he could tackle—in the first half. The locals completely smothered him in the last half. His passes were straight, and only a good pass defense kept Sandusky from scoring. The Hastings' twins, ends for Sandusky, were also good, as was Jarrett, 185-pound Sandusky tackle.

By the time you read this, the Caro game will be history. This game was put up to Thursday, because of the teachers' institute at Flint. Caro has a heavy team, but as yet have failed to "get started" this year. They have yet a chance for the Thumb Championship, as they have lost to Sandusky only. However, a Cass City victory, will push them out the picture—and will assure the local team of the Tuscola county championship again this year.

Next Friday, October 27, the Maroon and Grey team will play Sebawaing. The Dutchmen held the Thumb championship last year, but now Cass City is headed in that direction. Sebawaing lost its first game in Huron county since 1929 to Harbor Beach Friday, but lost only 6-0. It will be a good game and the team would like the support of all that can go over.

The next home game, after Caro, will be Friday, Nov. 17, against Bad Axe. This is the final game of the season. Come to see it!

WHEN gas gets old—STALE—something goes out of it that never returns. It gives less power on hills—less mileage on the road. Your motor starts slower... seems sluggish. Gum forms faster.

New R-D-R Process insures FRESHNESS in Gulf

Gulf's high-speed delivery system rushes fresh Gulf Gas to the pumps. And that gas stays fresh longer, due to Gulf's exclusive R-D-R process—a process that actually delays deterioration.

1. Fresh Gas starts faster than stale gas.
2. Fresh Gas gives you more power than stale gas.
3. Fresh Gas gives you more mileage.
4. Fresh Gas is higher in anti-knock rating than stale gas.
5. Fresh Gas is cleaner-burning—contains less motor fouling residue than stale gas.

Lesson for October 22

PAUL IN ASIA MINOR

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13:1-5, 13-15; 14:19-23.

GOLDEN TEXT—And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark 16:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Far Away Friends Hear About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Ship Sets Sail.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Send Missionaries Abroad?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Missionary Obligation.

I. The Beginning of Foreign Missions (vv. 1-12).

This marks the beginning of foreign missions as the deliberately planned enterprise of the church.

1. The gifts of the church at Antioch (v. 1). Young as was Antioch, the new religious center, she had prophets and teachers. When Christ ascended on high, he gave gifts to men for the purpose of perfecting the saints unto the work of the ministry (Eph. 4:8-12). The church does not exist for itself, but for service to others.

2. First missionaries sent forth (vv. 2, 3). Barnabas and Saul were the first foreign missionaries. They went forth by the hands of the church at the command of the Spirit.

The work of evangelizing the world was laid so heavily upon these men that they refrained from eating in order to seek the will of God in prayer. They were directed to send forth those whom the Spirit called, teaching us that the real call for service comes from the Spirit. The Spirit called and the very best men were sent from the church at Antioch. Before sending forth the missionaries, there was a second season of prayer before laying hands upon them, indicating that ordination has its proper place in sending forth missionaries.

3. Preaching the Word of God in Cyprus (vv. 4, 5). Because the gospel is "good news," it is natural for the missionary to go among his acquaintances. Christ commanded the one out of whom a demon had been cast to go to his own house and tell what great things the Lord had done for him (Luke 8:39).

4. Withstood by Elymas, the sorcerer (vv. 6-12). Elymas, under the influence of Satan, sought to turn the mind of Sergius Paulus from the Word of God and to hinder the gospel as it entered upon its career of conversion of the heathen. Paul denounced him as full of guile and villainy. Surely a man is never more of a villain than when trying to turn a soul from the gospel.

II. Paul and Barnabas at Antioch in Pisidia (vv. 13-16).

From Cyprus Paul and Barnabas, with John Mark, went northward to Perga. Here, for some reason, Mark parted company with the missionaries and returned home. We are not told as to why he went back, but it is a pleasure to know that he later redeemed himself. Before Paul's death, he spoke favorably of Mark, declaring that he had found him profitable unto the ministry (II Tim. 4:11). Reaching Antioch in Pisidia they entered a synagogue on the Sabbath day. Though Paul was now a missionary to the Gentiles, he did not depart from the custom—to go to the Jew first.

III. Paul and Barnabas Preaching the Gospel in Lystra (Acts 14:1-28).

1. At Iconium (vv. 1-7). Their experience here was much the same as at Antioch. They preached in the synagogue, causing a multitude of Jews and Gentiles to believe. The unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles to the most bitter persecution.

2. The attempt to worship Paul and Barnabas as gods (vv. 8-18). To escape the united assault of the Jews and Gentiles, they fled to Lystra and Derbe, where they preached the gospel. The healing of the lame man occasioned new difficulty. This man was a confirmed cripple, having never walked. On hearing Paul preach, faith was born in his heart (Rom. 10:17). When Paul perceived that he trusted Christ he called with a loud voice so that all could hear for the man to stand upright. The cure was instantaneous for he leaped and walked. This miracle was so noticeable that the very thing which should have been a help now became a hindrance. The people sought to worship the missionaries.

3. The stoning of Paul (vv. 19, 20). Wicked Jews from Antioch and Iconium pursued Paul with such relentless hate that they stirred up the people at this place, who had been willing to worship the missionaries, to stone them. This shows that satanic worship can soon be transformed into hate. They not only stoned Paul, but dragged him out of the city for dead. God raised him up, and with undaunted courage Paul pressed on with his duties as a missionary bearing the good news to the lost.

Mrs. Smith's funeral was held Friday afternoon from her home to the Beasley church. The interment was in Elkland cemetery. Rev. Ralph Harper officiated at the funeral. Mrs. Smith was a highly respected lady and will be greatly missed in her home and by her friends. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Henry of Toledo, Ohio, and Clifford of Detroit; one grandchild, Mary Dawn Lucas; two sisters, Mrs. W. Willis of Belfast, Ireland, and Mrs. H. W. Rev. L. Weldon officiated and burial was in the Erskine cemetery.

Archie MacAlpine was born on Sept. 17, 1869, in Glencoe, Ontario. He was the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacAlpine. He came to Michigan with his parents 49 years ago and helped clear land and build a home.

On Oct. 31, 1900, he was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Allan and to this union were born seven children, two having preceded the father in death. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife, who so tenderly cared for him in his illness; two daughters, Mrs. Howard Stratton of Fostoria, and Mrs. Geo. Darling of Hemans; three sons, Malcolm, Delbert and Meredith, all at home; two brothers, Duncan of Grant and Malcolm of Albany, Oregon; three granddaughters and a host of other relatives. The large gathering of neighbors and friends and the beautiful floral offerings bespoke in a small way the love and respect that was held for Mr. MacAlpine.

Rev. Weldon, a close friend of the family, delivered a very comforting sermon, taking his remarks from the 11th chapter of St. John and also speaking in a feeling manner of his friendship with Mr. MacAlpine. Show Ways to Sell High Quality Eggs

Michigan poultrymen will be able to inspect a successful cooperative association specializing in handling premium eggs for the New York trade and to hear men familiar with the egg trade at the meeting in Hamilton, Oct. 19.

The Hamilton company has been in business for several years and has been uniformly successful in obtaining good prices for eggs sold by them. As an instance of prices received, the cooperative association was paying farmers 34 cents a dozen on one day last week when the general market price to farmers was 23 cents.

The price margin is obtained by handling eggs in manner that insures their sale for top New York prices. One of the features of the meeting will be an explanation of the way the eggs must be handled from the farm to the market. The Hamilton plant is fully equipped with the best modern facilities for their work.

The afternoon meeting will be devoted to an inspection of the plant and explanations of the various operations. A banquet will be held in the evening. Speakers at night include J. A. Hannah and C. G. Card, Michigan State College; J. C. Huttar, Grange League Federation of New York; and Samuel Kurtin, a member of one of the largest egg buying firms in New York City.
