Limitations on Privileges of Overtaking and Passing Vehicles Is Explained

Last week, in the traffic educational program of the Michigan Safety and Traffic Directors' Association, there was discussed overtaking and passing another vehicle. However, under our state law, there are limitations in this regard. They are listed in section 15, of Act No. 318, P. A. 1927, and they read as follows:

"(a) The driver of a vehicle shall not drive to the left side of the center line of a highway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be made in safety.

Vice Chancellor Emil Fey and Prince Ernst von Starhemberg of Austria were determined that the Socialists should be driven out or exterminated and the country made wholly Fascist, and Chancellor Dollfuss was going along with them. The revolt of the Socialists was evidently carefully planned and the rebels were well armed and capably led. But at this writing they had won no victory of moment and their strongholds in Vienna, mainly the huge communist apartment buildings, had been smashed by the government artillery. In Linz, Gratz, Steyr and other centers the results were the same. After several days of fighting, in which two or three thousand persons were killed and many more wounded, Dollfuss gave the Socialists five hours in which to lay down their arms on promise of pardon except for the chief leaders. This brought insufficient response, and the government troops went into action again in the suburbs to which the rebels had been driven. The latter met the attack stoutly, especially in the section just across the great Reichsbridge where they were occupying big buildings and trenches. Major Fey was in charge of the operations in and about Vienna, and Prince von Starhemberg was in command at Linz and Steyr. Though the German government was not openly mixed in the mess, the official Nazi newspapers were egging on the Austrian Socialists. Hitler and his comrades claim that a majority of the Austrian voters are Nazis and prophecy that the time is near when Dollfuss will fall and the Austrian Nazis will be in The whole tone of comcontrol.

This is intended to effect great economic and social changes and will cost probably more than half a billion dollars yearly. Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers take it for granted that even after business has achieved recovery there will be from three to five million persons still unemployed and that they must be cared for by something like the Civil Works administration. This new project as now conceïved includes these major undertakings:

Methodical development of waterways, water power, flood control, soil erosion preventives, reforestation, and other public works. On these works employment would be furnished in the manner of the present CCC and CWA.

Decentralization of industry through establishment of small industries in rural regions to enable people to make a living partly by farming and partly by factory employment. A start in this direction is now being made in the subsistence homesteads, for which twentyfive millions of recovery funds have been allocated.

INDEPENDENTS and insurgents in congress have long advocated an amendment to the Constitution providing for direct election of the President, and at last the first step toward this change has been taken. Senator George W. Norris' resolu-

Should the amendment be written into the federal Constitution it would abolish the present system by which citizens vote for Presidential electors instead of for the candidates themselves. Under the amendment the names of Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates would

Political Parties Need a Coach.

Last Friday night we sat just behind Coach Dean at the Ionia-St. Johns basketball game. A foul was called on a St. Johns player for tripping an Ionia player. Immediately a substitute was sent in for the offending player and the coach had a little conference with the boy as he took his seat on the bench. "Why did you trip that man from behind?" asked Mr. Dean. We could not hear all of the mumbled reply but we did understand that his instructions were not to do the same thing again-

Codfish Chowder.

Soak a half pound of codfish in water for a few minutes, then simmer for ten. Drain and flake into good-sized pieces-say a mouthful size. Put to cook a cup of finely cut salt pork cut into fourth-inch cubes; when the pork cubes are well browned add three onions sliced, stir and cook for a few minutes in the hot fat, then add onehalf dozen medium-sized potatoes cut into small slices, cover with boiling water-a quart will be plen-Cook until the vegetables are ty. well-cooked, then add the codfish and one quart of fresh milk; bring to the boiling point, add more seasoning if needed and serve piping hot with a milk cracker or two softened in boiling water for each bowl of the chowder.

Codfish Creole.

Cook one green pepper and one onion, both minced in two tablespoons of bacon fat or three tablespoons of butter, add one tablespoon of pimiento chopped,, one fourth teaspoon of pepper, three-fourths cup of clam broth, one cup of hot milk and one-eighth teaspoon of soda. Add two cups of flaked codfish and cook until well heated through. Serve hot with a border of seasoned hot rice.

Dutch Cod.

Take two tablespoons of diced bacon, cook five minutes, add one fourth cup of hot water, one-eighth teaspoon of pepper, four cups of chopped cabbage, cook until tender, then add two cups of flaked fish and serve very hot on a platter garnished with toast points and bacon curls.

ment in the German press expressed sympathy with the "misled" workers of Austria, and the League of Nations and its members were warned not to interfere in the struggle.

Reports originating in Paris said 75,000 Italian troops had been massed at strategic points along the Austrian frontier and that they and the Fascist frontier guard were ready for any eventuality. The Italian government officials said this troop movement had been going on for some time and was only part of a fundamental change in Italian military policy.

London correspondents dug up a story, from an Austrian source, to the effect that the Austrian Socialists obtained the arms with which they had been fighting from Czechoslovakia, either from the Czech government direct or with its connivance. A railroad from Prague to the south runs through a part of Austria, and the story goes that trains loaded with arms and ammunition consigned to some place in Czechoslovakia were emptied of their cargoes somewhere between Gemundt and Pressburg.

It is also alleged that arms have been shipped up the Danube from Pressburg to Vienna or nearby points and smuggled ashore.

Czechoslovakia doesn't at all like the idea of being surrounded by Fascist countries and has been encouraging democratic movements against | both the German and Austrian dictatorships. Prague is full of refugee Socialists.

PRIMARY TOPIC-Twelve Workers for Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC-Twelve Workers

for Jesus. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC-How to Win Others to YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT Home Hospital in Cass City. "TOPIC-Why Win Others to Christ"

I. Jesus' Compassion for the Multitude (9:35-38). And as he went on his rounds preaching the gospel of the kingdom, he saw the multitude as sheep having no shepherd, and his sympathy for them was aroused. This moved him

1. To declare that the harvest was plenteous but the laborers ers in Sandusky Saturday. were few (v. 37). He saw the whole needy world as a ripened field of Detroit spent the week-end at the grain ready to be harvested, with Earl Pringle home. but few who were willing to labor in the harvest field.

2. To ask them to pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into the harvest (v. 38). Those whom he would send forth as laborers into his harvest field he desired to be imbued with the spirit of sympathy which would move them to pray for the thrusting forth of laborers.

II. The Laborers Chosen (10:1-4). These twelve humble men were chosen and commissioned to carry of the kingdom.

III. The Sending Forth of the Lunch was served by the hostess. Twelve (10:5-42).

The sending forth of the twelve shows the methods adopted by Jesus Christ in the propagation of the kingdom. It should be clearly borne in mind that this chapter does not outline the policy of missionary endeavor in the present age. In order to show the dispensational aspects of the lesson, the following divisions of the chapter are suggested:

1. Instructions bearing immediately upon the apostles' work to their monthly social evening at the the death of Christ (vv. 5:15). Observe

c. The supernatural authentication of their mission (v. 8). They were clothed with power to work miracles. These wonderful works were really done by the twelve. No such power is now possessed by missionaries.

d. Their maintenance (vv. 9, 10). They were to make no provision for their support, but to depend wholly upon the Lord who sent them. Since they had received the message and power gratuitously, they were to give it out in the same way.

e. The responsibilities of those to whom the message was delivered (vv. 11-15). If the people would not receive them to hear their message they were to turn away and pronounce judgment upon them.

2. Instructions concerning the testimony from the day of Pentecost onward (vv. 16-23). After Pentecost testimony for Christ would be fraught with great danger. Both Morris Hospital where she had her Jews and Gentiles would assail the appendix removed. messengers with the most bitter persecutions. How appallingly this has been fulfilled! Christ's witnesses have been scourged in the synagogues before heathen magistrates. Instead of bringing peace to the homes, Christ's witnesses have brought divisions of the fiercest kind among many families. In their defense the missionaries were to rely upon the Holy Spirit to aid them. These conditions were literally experienced in the period from Pentecost to the destruction of Jerusalem. Since the fall of Jerusalem no one has been scourged in a synagogue. Verse 23 seems to carry the work forward to the time of the preaching of the kingdom in the tribulation time. The Lord's coming is so speedy that their testimony is cut short.

3. The teaching applicable in all ages (vv. 24-42). The disciple has the position of oneness with the Master. He is, therefore, courageously to declare the whole counsel of God, though most violently opposed. Though their testimony results in bitter opposition, the messengers should not be surprised or discouraged, for so completely is the Lord identified with his disciples that he accepts treatment of them as treatment of himself.

Odors Act as Warnings

Odors may act as warnings. Horses tethered in the woods become frantic when they catch the odor of moose or bear. A deer detects the scent of the hunter, and escapes. And the elephant will make an attack in the direction of human scent. Human beings, as well as animals, are warned by their sense of smell against decayed food, foul air, and polluted water.

Ankle-Length Is Prediction for Spring Garb.

Heim says that it's a good hunch to pin your eyes on your skirt if you want to be the first to catch a change in the spring mode. He thinks that even by midwinter there will be a change. "Little by little," he says, "they are getting longer. The cocktail dress is responsible, but even sports skirts are adding an inch or so." Our prediction is that by this time next year all dresses for day and street wear-with the exception of the purely sports clothes, will be the same length, and that this length will be to the "ankle.'

Well, what do you think? Or maybe you'd rather not even think about it at all. If this is true, you have company. Personally, it seems hardly probable-that is, among women who insist upon a bit of common sense along with their fashions. Too long now we have enjoyed the comfort and practicabilit is dubious if the modern woman of fashion will ever again submit to a clutter of cloth around her ankles any time except in the evening when the fabrics are light and billowy or, if velvet or brocade, sufficiently wide to permit freedom of movement. Some will, of course, but the majority-no.

Checking up on average prices it is found that the average price for the January sales was $28.42 per acre, which is the highest average since 1929. In 1930 the average was $27 per acre, then it dropped down to $25, in 1932 it had gone down to $23, and in 1933 ity of the medium length skirt, and it had again begun to rise, with the year's average $25 for the four states of the 7th district, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

The increasing sales, increased inquiry, and the rising average price is held to indicate a genuine interest in land. Most of these farms were sold to farmers, very few to speculators, although the bank reports that there has been a strong speculative interest evident for the past 2 or 3 months. All 4 states have salesmen among the leading 10, with Minnesota, Michigan and North Dakota tied at 5 farms each for first place. The sales contest will run throughout the year.

Cooks Will Welcome New Potato Variety

Potatoes which make the housewife's eyes glisten and which make the growers good tempered when they survey the yields appear to be assured by the recommendation of the farm crops department at Michigan State College that Michigan farmers give Katahdin potatoes a trial.

This variety was developed by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in 1923 and it has been thoroughly tested in this state under the supervision of the college. Field This variety was developed by supervision of the college. Field trials have been run in all potato growing sections.

Katahdin potatoes are excellent table stock. They are good bakers and can be attractively served in any way that potatoes are cooked.

The tubers are white, are nearly round, and have shallow eyes. They yield about the same as Russet Rurals and have produced a greater percentage of No. 1 grade than the Russets. Katahdins White Rurals.

Gloves will fit much more securely around the wrist, the new wrist straps insuring snugness as well as adding a decorative note.

GAGETOWN.

Death of Mrs. Quinn—

Mrs. James Quinn passed away at the University Hospital at Ann Arbor on Saturday morning, Feb. 17, where she had been a patient for seven weeks. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday morning in St. Agatha's church, by Rev. Fr. McCullough. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mary O'Connell was born in Ubly on Jan. 9, 1871, and was united in marriage with James Quinn on Nov. 27, 1900. They have resided on the farm  $5\frac{1}{2}$  miles north of Cass City since that time with the exception of one year which was spent on a farm near-by. Mrs. Quinn was a member of St. Agatha's church here.

Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Irene Uhrich, of Ubly; one son, Ronald, at home; four brothers, Connie and David O'Connell of Owendale, Joseph O'-Connell of Bay City and Dennis O'Connell of Ubly; and four sisters, Mrs. Dan Donnellon of Detroit, Mrs. Wm. O'Rourke of Palms
