SPEND $1,000 MONTH ON DIONNE BABIES

Famous Quintuplets Financially Independent. Callander, Ont.—Through their physician, Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, the Dionne quintuplets recently gave a message to the world. They said: "Thanks for all your help, and we want you to know we are now self supporting. We say this because so many persons and organizations helped us when we were not able to take care of ourselves. Now we are making enough money to meet all our needs and allow us to save some. We thought you would like to know."

Scotland's Gretna Green Still "Marrying" Town

Gretna Green, Scotland.—Hundreds of couples still come to Gretna Green to be married, for even today an air of romance clings to it and its old reputation for run-away weddings. Until the marriage act was passed in 1856, making it compulsory for one of the contracting parties to reside in Scotland at least 21 days before the ceremony, Gretna Green was the destination of elopers from all over England. Their carriages came dashing into the village at all hours of the day and night, for once they were through the toll gate and into Scotland, they could be married, and no questions were asked.

School Teacher Learns She's Recorded as a Boy

St. Clairsville, Ohio.—Bertha O'ferdinger, a school teacher, learned that she had been officially recorded as a male for the 36 years of her life. The discovery was made when she applied for a passport and was surprised to find that she had been listed as a boy when her birth record was submitted in 1899 without a first name. An order of Probate Judge Harry Albright was necessary to correct the error.

Correct—Attest: Elizabeth E. Pinney, G. H. Burke, H. F. Lenzner, Directors. State of Michigan, County of Tuscola, ss. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 7th day of January, 1936.

Clerk Morrison read a telegram from Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald as follows:
Lansing, Michigan, October 24,
Co. Clerk, Tuscola Co., Caro, Mich.
I strongly urge County Board of Supervisors to appropriate funds for emergency relief purposes to the best of their ability and resources in order to avoid a crisis in relief financing this winter and next spring stop in view of the necessity for close cooperation with the Federal Relief Agencies I am contemplating no change in the distribution of relief funds stop this will remain under the direction of the State Emergency Relief Commission and its local units stop I am hopeful of your complete cooperation.
Frank D. Fitzgerald, Governor.
Supervisor Blackmore presented the following resolution and moved its adoption: Owing to the fact that the county tax rate is as high as it can be safely set and allow other units their just share of the 15-mill rate I recommend that the telegram be accepted and placed on file.
This was supported by Supervisor
Brown. Motion carried.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By Home Economics Specialists
Michigan State College.

Michigan young women will have an opportunity to enroll in a short course in Home Economics, starting January 6, and continuing until March 6.

This short cut to home making will include classes in foods and nutrition, child care, clothing, home management, home furnishings, art appreciation, music, dramatics, and physical education.

Girls who contemplate taking this course should make application for living accommodations through the office of Dr. Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women. Applications for the short course should be sent to the Short Course Office.

A few rooms on the campus have been made available to applicants, and a few places are available in East Lansing where the girls may work for their room and board.

Other short courses at the college which will start Jan. 6 and terminate March 6 include: General agriculture, dairy production, dairy manufacturing, poultry, agricultural engineering, practical floriculture, and golf course management. The course in commercial fruit production will be offered from Jan. 6 to Jan. 31.

HIGH SOCIETY GOES FOR FANCY FIXINGS

Head Ornaments and Dramatic Colors Prevail.

Fashionable events that mark the opening of the New York social season always afford fashion observers a chance to look for confirmation of their views on what styles are going to "take."

The fashion honors this year go to gold lame for fabric, regal colors for velvet wraps, matching lipstick and nail polish for cosmetics, arrangements of feathers for head-dress and Schiaparelli's false faces on sticks for accessories.

Color ran riot this year, with most of New York's social and fashion leaders contributing to the bouquet. All the regal wines and purples of the Renaissance were there, with greens and a large number of bright reds providing the contrast. Brilliant fingernails were the rule all through the audience, in most cases matching ruby lips. Gold lame was used for several of the smartest gowns, and was seen often with a vivid velvet wrap. Small, flirtatious feather fans looked smart.

Practically every head was adorned with some kind of decoration. Colorful toques in striped lame or velvet to contrast with the dress were numerous.

NEW HAIR MODES
By CHERIE NICHOLAS

According to the dictates of the coiffure guild in New York and the many famous hair stylists who recently gathered in that city at a national convention of the clan, the smartly coiffed women of 1936 will observe the following rules: Hair will be shorter, from two and a half to five inches long. There must be as many parts as possible forming triangles, and other geometric effects. Ears will be exposed and waves will be soft and fluffy. For evening wear, hairdress will follow the renaissance mode, elaborately dressed with use of cork-screw curls, braids and horizontal curls. A wide use of ornaments is foreseen for evening, including monogram clips, feathers, velvet or metal leaves and classic Grecian cord bandeaux. An aigrette coronet for evening wear is shown at the top in the picture. Centered in the group a back view shows the smart horizontal curls. These are held at each side by rhinestone clips. Note also the crest of curls at the top of the head. Below is a Marie Antoinette hairdress with rhinestone tiara ornament surmounting the forehead.

STYLE NOTES

Coin buttons are smart. Fashion accents pleats, fringe and sparkle. Pink satin is a favorite for evening wear. Small hats stress height and military tassel trims. Long panels float from shoulders of formal gowns. Handsome fur is lavished on daytime velvet suits. Sweaters are worn with all-around pleated skirts.

Black, Wine Red, Blue Are Favorite Colors for Town

Once again black is a favorite town color for fall, with dark blue, wine red and mustard green likewise shown. Brown and beige appear more frequently in sports frocks. There are a number of black crepe frocks designed with slender waists and big sleeves just short of full length, which are finished with striking accents. One has a cluster of mother-of-pearl leaves at the base of the draped neckline, another is trimmed with white silk braided frogs.

SHABBONA.

Andrew Hamilton, who has been quite ill, is some better at this time.

Harold Cook left Thursday for Detroit where he will be employed.

Mrs. George Peterson of Kinde came Wednesday to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Furness. Owing to ill health, the doctor ordered Mrs. Peterson to have a three weeks' complete rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kritzman left Thursday for Detroit where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook and son, Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neville were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jess at Sandusky New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jones and family were New Year's day guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Langenburg of Argyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shagena visited relatives in Cumber Sunday.
