MAKE FINAL PAYMENT IMPOUNDED DEPOSITS

Cass City State Bank Will Clean Up Its Trust Fund with Interest.

The Cass City State Bank has been authorized by the State Banking department to make the last payment on impounded deposits, which completes the return to depositors in full the amount that was set aside in a trust fund during the bank holiday. In addition to this, the depositors will receive interest on these impounded deposits at the prevailing rates of interest during the term of impoundment.

All stockholders, outside of M. B. Auten, who holds the majority of the stock in the bank, will have returned to them the amount of their 100% stock assessment paid when the bank was reorganized. Mr. Auten will receive contracts, real estate and other assets in the trust which have not been liquidated to date and on which he expects to realize nearly 80% of his stock assessment, figuring these assets at present day values.

The Cass City State Bank is the third reorganized bank in Michigan to pay in full to its depositors the amount of their deposits impounded during the bank holiday and the first in the state to repay to stockholders the amount of their stock assessments. Mr. Auten, Frank Reid and Neil McLarty are the trustees and are receiving hearty congratulations on this remarkable showing.

A New Project in First Six Grades

A new project, auditorium work, has been launched this year in the Cass City school in the six lower grades under the direction of Mrs. Mary Holcomb. The aim of this new work is to develop each child so that he is able to express himself. The programs given each month are not polished and faultless but are the children's own interpretations of what they have read. The programs are in correlation with work done in the class rooms. Each child will be given the opportunity of speaking before an audience during the year.

In September, the first grade presented a playlet, "The First Day of School." On Monday, October 12, the fifth grade dramatized the poem, "Columbus," by Miller in three scenes as the second program this year.

The main characters of the latter were: Columbus, Grant Little; Men of Spain who ridiculed Columbus, Kenneth Price and Richard McMan; musicians, Stuart Merchant and Harold Reed; porter, Hugh Kennedy; Juan Perez, Dean Robinson; Hernandez, Bobby Ryland; Pinzon, Bobby Benkelman; Diaz, Marie Zaphre; reader, Kathryn Price; and mate, Ray McGrath.

Much is expected of auditorium work this year in developing any talent a child may have to express himself before an audience.

Free Mental Hygiene Clinics

A free mental hygiene clinic for persons suffering from nervous and mental diseases will be held on the fourth Wednesday of each month, from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m., at the court house at Caro. The clinics are held under the auspices of the Pontiac State hospital and for some time will be in charge of Dr. J. T. Redwine, superintendent of the Michigan Farm Colony and members of his staff.

Similar clinics will be conducted by Dr. Redwine each month, on the first Wednesday in Bad Axe, on the second Wednesday in Sandusky and on the third Wednesday in Lapeer.

Rotary Welcomed New Member

State Representative Audley Rawson was welcomed as a member of the Rotary club at Cass City Tuesday. Attorney William G. S. Miller explained to the new member the code of ethics and the principles of the society in a neat speech.

Walter Heckroth, sales tax supervisor in Tuscola county, in a short address, advised the defeat of the proposed amendment which would remove the sales tax on food. Practically all schools in Michigan are benefited by the sales tax, $22,500,000 being paid to them from that source the past year, he said. Taking this tax off of food would create class legislation and soon the sales tax would be no more, he declared.

COMM'R. OF AGRICULTURE
SPEAKS HERE ON OCT. 20

JAMES THOMSON

will give the address at the first meeting of the autumn season of the Cass City Community club at the school auditorium Tuesday evening, October 20.

CASS CITY TRIMS SANDUSKY, 28-0

Local Squad Is Beginning to Look More Like Championship Team.

Cass City's revamped football squad began to click Friday, and even though rain slowed up the field and made ball handling difficult, the locals romped over Sandusky, 28-0. Pete Reyes playing his first full game of football showed marked power in his drives off tackle, and with the all-round playing of Arnold and Grant Reagh, assisted by Franklin Wright, who has taken over the fullback post, it looks like the followers of the Maroon and Grey will see more spectacular ball carrying.

The Cass City line also showed a much improved offensive charge. Two complete lines were used in the game, one composed of Willard Davidson, end; Harmon Smith, tackle; Floyd Kennedy, guard; Bob Gallagher, center; Clifford Ryan, guard; Frank Fort, tackle; Archie Mark, end. The other line was composed of Ivan O'Connor, end; Meredith McAlpine, tackle; Millard Ball, guard; Bernard Kelly, center; Leslie Profit, guard; James Balogh, tackle; Stanley Kloe, end. These two lines showed equal offensive ability and their fine blocking made possible some nice runs, particularly on reverse plays. Penalties on Cass City broke up several touchdown drives.

Caro will be played today (Friday) at Caro, then the locals will be home for two weeks, taking on Sebewaing, Upper Thumb champions, and Marlette, who has come back on the locals' schedule.

Caro has a green team this year and has been coming along slowly, but they seem to reach a climax when battling Cass City. Cass City will try to keep up its record against Caro, who has not won a football game from the Maroon and Grey in the last four years. Last year, however, they tied Cass City, 7-7.

TO PAY INTEREST ON DEFAULTED BONDS

Committee Plans to Refund
$50,000 Sebewaing Drain
Bonds in Default.

Tuscola county supervisors, on the opening day of their October session on Monday, voted to rescind a resolution made at a previous session of the board regarding the payment of interest of defaulted drain bonds. The action taken on Monday instructed the county clerk and county treasurer to pay all interest due on defaulted bonds from drainage funds as available. The decision came after Supervisor Keinath reported that the committee on drains and drainage were working on a proposition to refund the $50,000 of Sebewaing River Drainage bonds which are now in default by reason of delinquent taxes in that drainage district.

Three requests for appropriations voted to defer action until some time during the session when all such requests would be considered. Mrs. Margaret Adams, field secretary, presented the needs of the Starr Commonwealth and Dr. F. L. Morris those of the Michigan Aid society. A communication requesting an appropriation for the East Michigan Tourist Association was read.

Vassar village asked the supervisors to remit the county tax now due on Lots 11, 12, 13 and 14, Block 11, Vassar, to enable the village to make a public parking lot to relieve congestion on Trunk Lines No. 38 and No. 24. This request will be considered with other appropriation appeals.

Communications from Wilbur Haber regarding an appropriation to welfare work for the fiscal year and from the State Association of Superintendents of the Poor were read and placed on file.

The injured man was rushed to Pleasant Home hospital here by the Flint men where it was found that two shots had entered his body near the left knee and another in the left groin. His condition is not considered very serious and it is expected that no operation will be necessary.

Mr. Barrons was born Dec. 9, 1864, at Gainsboro, Ont., and Mrs. Barrons first saw the light of day on July 26, 1869, at South Walsingham, near Port Rowan, Ont. They resided in Canada until December, 1887, when they came to Wilmot in Tuscola county where they have since resided with the exception of a few months spent on a farm near Caro.

October 20, 1911, they celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their farm home two miles west of Wilmot.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrons have two sons and a daughter, four grandchildren and four great grandchildren. The youngest of their great grandchildren is Gerald Little, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little, of Cass City.

Extension Class Meets at Sandusky

Prof. Waugh of Ypsilanti began an extension class in political science at the court house in Sandusky Friday evening, October 9. But one subject is being given at the present so each evening counts as two meetings and the subject will be completed in seven more weeks. Opportunity is still offered to join the class which will be especially interesting at this time due to the present conditions in Europe and our own political campaign. This subject is the required course in American government.

If at any time, twenty students indicate their desire for it another class in education will be given.

TWO MEN BURNED TO DEATH TUESDAY

Truck and Coupe in Collision at Richville Pin Drivers in Burning Wreckage.

Two men were burned to death late Tuesday morning a mile east of Richville when a Chevrolet coupe and a gravel truck met in a head-on collision and were plunged into a ditch on the south side of the highway where they burst into flames. The men were William Peters of Saginaw, driver of the truck, one of a fleet of such machines operated by the Anderson Trucking Co., of Saginaw, in the transfer of gravel from Juniata township to Saginaw and Bay City, and Ray E. Harris of 4625 Davison Road, Flint, driver of the coupe, who was so badly burned that immediate identification was impossible. Trapped in their vehicles, the two drivers burned to death as the gasoline tanks caught fire. Harris leaves a wife and six children.

A witness of the accident, who was driving behind the car driven by Harris, says the coupe zigzagged down the road at 20 to 25 miles an hour, and as it approached the gravel truck it turned to the left of the highway. The truck driver then turned to the left to avoid a collision when the coupe swung to the right and the impact occurred. The witness, a Saginaw man, said the fierceness of the flames prevented him and several others who arrived on the scene directly after the accident from immediately approaching the wreckage and rescuing the two men from the fire. A fire truck from Richville was called and extinguished the blaze.

Three loud explosions occurred before the flames were subdued. Harris was dressed in hunting clothes and a single barrel shotgun was in his car.

Mrs. McGeorge Died in Oregon

The remains of Mrs. E. A. McGeorge were brought from Marshfield, Oregon, to Saginaw and laid to rest in the Oakwood mausoleum at Saginaw on Thursday morning. Mrs. McGeorge has been making her home with her son, Lewis, at Marshfield since the death of her husband. The McGeorge family were well-known in Cass City where, for many years, Mr. McGeorge was engaged in the grain business here. He entered a similar business later at Gladwin and then the family moved to Marshfield, Oregon, where father and son were engaged in a gravel enterprise. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McGeorge, in later years, returned to Michigan where Mr. McGeorge again entered the grain business at Grand Rapids. He died in that city several years ago.

TUSCOLA WILL BUILD 12 MILES OF RETREAD

Work to Start Soon on Preparing Base of 4½ Miles North of Cass City.

The road commissioners of Tuscola county, on Thursday, Oct. 8, voted to build 12½ miles of retread surface road. Four and one-half miles of this improvement in roads will run from the pavement at the north end of Cass City to the Huron county line, four miles will extend from Colwood north to the Huron county line and four miles will run from McTaggart's Corners west to a point two miles south of Fairgrove. The last named road will complete a hard surface road all the way from Caro to Fairgrove. The road from Colwood north will complete a stretch of hard surface road from M-81 to the Huron county line, while the 4½ miles of retread highway which will be built north of Cass City is the first road of that kind to be built by the county in the north-eastern section of Tuscola.

"Work on the 4½ miles north of Cass City will be commenced this fall," says G. F. Schulz, maintenance superintendent. The road now has a center of solid gravel nine feet in width. The road will be scarified on each side of the nine-foot center, the clay will be rolled back for shoulders and the 5½ feet on each side of the gravel center will be filled with pit run gravel making a solid 20-foot roadbed. Next summer the road will be hard surfaced with a layer of retread material and a soft cushion top. The 4½ miles of retread highway, Mr. Schulz estimates, will cost between $20,000 and $25,000.

During the first years of this type of road construction, Bay Port stone was used. Later, gravel was found equally satisfactory as an ingredient with the tar preparation. It is expected that a washed gravel from the pit of the Cass City Sand and Gravel company will be used on the road north of Cass City and a considerable saving will be realized because of the short haul.

A MESS

The need of a cement highway between Cass City and Caro was never emphasized more clearly—beg pardon, more mudily—than following the snowstorm early this week. M-81 was a difficult road to travel.

"I'd like to know what this community has done to the state highway department to merit such a mess as the mudhole between the cement pavements of Cass City and Caro," G. A. Striffler remarked to the Chronicle after a trip to Caro and return on Wednesday.

Doris Montei to Show Animals at Chicago

Three purebred Southdowns, the grand champion/pen of lambs in both 4-H and open competition at the 1936 Michigan State fair, will be shown for further honors at the International Live Stock exposition which will be held in Chicago this year November 28 to Dec. 5.

Doris Montei, Tuscola county 4-H club girl, will exhibit these Michigan State fair winners in the Chicago show's junior live stock feeding contest, a competition limited to the participation of farm boys and girls between the ages of ten and twenty. The lambs are being fitted on her father's farm near Caro.

New Telephone Directory Printed

The Chronicle has completed the printing of a new directory for the Cass City and Kingston exchanges of the Michigan Associated Telephone Co. The directories will be sent by mail to telephone patrons of the Cass City exchange.

The list of patrons at Cass City shows an increase in number over last year, and last year's directory contained more names than the one issued in 1934.

You have often heard the expression that "weather conditions are bad for driving." I maintain that any weather is dangerous for many drivers. The very fact that it is a nice, clear, bright, sunny day, the roads are dry, and conditions are excellent for driving does not mean that some speed maniac should tear up and down our highways and endanger the lives of a lot of law abiding citizens.

No set of drivers or individual driver has any right on our highways if he endangers the lives of pedestrians or other drivers. Ideal weather conditions should be wished for by all, but not as a means to increase our speed to uncontrollable limits. Some men can control their cars perfectly at 60 miles an hour, and others cannot control an automobile at 35 miles an hour. Physical conditions of human beings might be all out of line, even though the weather is beautiful.

Again the combination of common sense and courtesy will make it safe for all concerned on our highways.

Invisible Taxes

"We cannot buy a stitch of clothing without the government's taking in taxes a part of the money we pay out. We cannot buy an ounce of food at our grocery store without being taxed to support the government. We cannot go to a movie, or to a baseball game, or ride in an automobile without this invisible tax arm of government reaching out and taking a part of the money we spend."—Alf M. Landon at Buffalo, N. Y., August 26, 1936.

All beef isn't blue-ribbon beef. And all coal can't be top-quality coal, by a long shot.

But take a coal that comes from the famous Elkhorn District in Eastern Kentucky, like Cavalier Coal does, and you've got just about the finest coal that you'd ever want. Less than 3% ash ... more than 95% pure heat.

Another thing! Cavalier banks easily for slow heat, and flames quickly into fast heat. Order this blue-ribbon coal now — at today's price — and you'll laugh at Old Man Winter.

and Michigan Safety Council CAUTION AT NIGHTFALL.

Dusk has been called a poetic hour for lovers; but the tricky half-light of swiftly falling night is the zero hour for motor car disasters.

No one can see as well on the edge of nightfall. If the weather is bad, if winter is at hand, the hazards are doubled. Rain, snow, fog—all these add greatly to the hazards of twilight.

Be extra cautious if you are driving. Some motorists hesitate to turn on their headlights early. Others who have been driving long distances forget to reduce their speed when twilight settles down.

Watch your step, if you are a pedestrian. Many eyes are defective and adjust themselves to darkness slowly. Your eyes may be all right, it is true, but how about the driver of the next speedy car? Your dark figure cannot be seen easily on roads where there are no sidewalks. Make a habit of having something white on your person on which reflected light will gleam. Walk on the side facing traffic. It may save your life.

JUSTICE COURT.

Henry Oswald and David Sharick, Jr., both of Deford, were arrested on a breaking and entering charge on October 8 and in Justice St. Mary's court were bound over to the circuit court for trial. Bonds were fixed at $1,000 each. According to officers, the two young men entered the granary of Casper Sharick, 3½ miles west and ½ mile south of Unionville, while the owner was attending a show at Akron on the night of October 7, and stole 555 pounds of beans. The next day they motored to Detroit to take a friend to that city and on the return trip, they sold the beans at North Branch for $26.15.

William J. Winarski of Vassar, arrested on an assault charge, paid a $10 fine and $11.90 costs, in Justice McPherson's court on October 8.

Andrew Gorney of Huron county, arrested in Caro on a drunk charge on October 11, was assessed $7.50 costs by Justice Atwood.

Tom Thumb, the midget, was Darius Abner Alden, 42 inches tall, who for 40 years was known as Tom Thumb. He died September 24, 1926, at his home in Los Angeles, Calif., at the age of eighty-four. He was a glass-blower by trade and became a circus attraction when he was thirty years old.

World's Greatest Horseman

Varying opinions advance different candidates in different ages, as the world's greatest horseman, but experts are pretty much agreed that Friedrich Wilhelm Seydlitz was the greatest for the dual reason of his personal horsemanship and his ability to handle vast numbers of cavalry in the field. He served the king of Prussia in the Eighteenth century. One of his personal exploits was to ride at a windmill in motion and dash between the sails without touching. He became a lieutenant general when still under forty. It was said he could handle 10,000 cavalrymen with the same ease he handled his own mount.

Water Too Precious to Drink

Burton-on-Trent, England, is one city whose water is too precious to drink—as water, says a writer in Collier's Weekly. Its special properties make it invaluable in the brewing of ale and beer, which is the chief industry of the city. So all of it goes to the breweries while the citizens use water that is pumped into the city from an outside source.

THE HUNTING SEASON ENDS

THE very worst things come to an end at last. No matter how bad a thing is, it cannot last forever. So it was with the hunting season for Lightfoot the Deer. There came a day when the law once more protected all deer, a day when the hunters could no longer go searching for Lightfoot.

Usually there was great rejoicing among the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows when the hunting season ended and they knew that Lightfoot would be in no more danger until the next hunting season. But this year there was no rejoicing. You see, no one could find Lightfoot. The last seen of him was when he was running for his life with two hounds baying on his trail and the Green Forest filled with hunters watching for a chance to shoot him.

"I Tell You What It Is," said Sammy Jay to Bobby Coon, "Something Has Happened to Lightfoot."

Sammy Jay had hunted everywhere through the Green Forest. Blacky the Crow, whose eyes are quite as sharp as those of Sammy Jay, had joined in the search. They had found no trace of Lightfoot. Paddy the Beaver said that for three days Lightfoot had not visited his pond for a drink. Billy Mink, who travels up and down the Laughing Brook, had looked for Lightfoot's footprints in the soft earth along the banks and had found only old ones. Jumper the Hare had visited Lightfoot's favorite eating places at night, but Lightfoot had not been in any of them.

"I tell you what it is," said Sammy Jay to Bobby Coon, "something has happened to Lightfoot. Either those hounds caught him and killed him or he was shot by one of those hunters. The Green Forest will never be the same without him. I don't think I shall want to come over here very much. There isn't one of all the other people who live in the Green Forest who would be missed as Lightfoot will be."

Bobby Coon nodded. "That's true, Sammy," said he. "Without Lightfoot the Green Forest will never be the same. He never harmed anybody. Why those hunters should have been so anxious to kill one so beautiful is something I cannot understand. For that matter, I don't understand why they want to kill any of us. If they really needed us for food it would be a different matter, but they don't. Have you been up in the Old Pasture and asked Old Man Coyote if he has seen anything of Lightfoot?"

Sammy nodded. "I've been up there twice," said he. "Old Man Coyote has been lying very low during the days, but nights he has done a lot of travelling. You know, Old Man Coyote has a mighty good nose, but not once since the day those hounds chased Lightfoot has he found so much as a tiny whiff of Lightfoot's scent. I thought he might have found the place where Lightfoot was killed, but he hasn't, although he has looked for it. Well, the hunting season for Lightfoot is over, but I am afraid it has ended too late."

NEWS OF THE NEARBY SECTIONS

Happenings Here and There Garnered from the Chron- icle's Exchanges.

On Thursday, Oct. 15, a hearing was held at the Sebawaing high school auditorium on the matter of flood control in the Sebawaing river. The meeting was conducted by Col. Peterson of Detroit, in charge of the U. S. Engineering corps of this district, under the new Federal Flood Control act.

Patrons of the Elkton Coop. Farm Produce company were presented with $10,000 in patronage dividends on Friday, October 9. The large volume of trades totaling nearly one-half million dollars is the reason for the fine dividend.

Plans for the establishment of a garage in Crosswell to house maintenance equipment for the south-eastern portion of Sanilac county were revealed last week by Albert McClure, supervisor of State Highway maintenance in the southern half of Sanilac county. Negotiations are underway for the purchase of a piece of land of approximately two acres of the Michigan Sugar company property north of the sugar factory corner, on the west side of M-51.

Despondent over the death of his wife, who succumbed a year ago, Guy Balfour, 46, Meade township clerk, shot and killed himself about 5:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. A .12 gauge shotgun was the instrument of death. The body was found lying between the barn and the house. Balfour arose that morning, dressed and left for the barn, ostensibly to help the hired man with the chores. He shot himself after leaving the house. He leaves three children. Coroner Russell Paynter rendered a verdict of suicide.

Mrs. Emily K. Churchill, 88, a resident of Tuscola county for 54 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Putnam, five miles north of Caro on Monday morning. Funeral services were held at the Caro Baptist church Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. H. W. Ambrose officiating, with burial in Caro cemetery.

Rural power line extensions to serve approximately 3500 new subscribers in the Thumb section are nearing completion.

Up in Bad Axe, Huron county, slot machine operators do not fare so well as in Ogemaw county. Last week Anthony H. Giffel of Bay City was arrested on a charge of owning and operating a slot machine racket in that county. The slot machines owned by Giffel were confiscated by the sheriff at Bad Axe. He will be tried on the charge this week. The operators of slot machines in Ogemaw and Arenac counties were notified by the sheriffs of these counties to lay off the racket, September 8. Why the handling of law violators in one county with kid gloves and kindness and in another county with handcuffs? We ask—does a state law mean one thing in one community and something contrary in another?—West Branch Herald.

OBITUARY

Rosebe Clark

Rosebe Clark, 85, died at the home of his son, Mina Clark, in Wilmot on Monday, October 12, after an illness of five weeks. Funeral services were conducted in the Free Methodist church in that village on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Fred Crandell and burial was made in the Kingston cemetery. Born on a farm one mile north and two miles east of Almont, Feb. 20, 1851, Mr. Clark spent his early life in that vicinity and at Metamora and came to Tuscola county about 50 years ago. He had a pioneer reputation of being a wood chopper of championship calibre and is said to have chopped and corded one cord of wood in Lapeer county when a young man in the record time of 58 minutes. In his later life, he was a cook in northern lumber camps. Near Wilmot, he owned a good farm and had the reputation of being a hard worker during his residence there. He was a member of the Odd Fellow fraternity. Mrs. Clark died 13 years ago.

Mr. Clark's twin brother, Berose, died at Caro on April 13th last. Both men resembled one another very much even in their later years and their similarity often caused them amusement and discomfiture to others.

Mr. Clark leaves six children, Fred Clark of Niles, Mina and Charles Clark and Mrs. Roy Ashcroft, all of Wilmot, Mrs. Robert Davis of Boyne City and Mrs. Frank Moyer of Caro, 16 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

"New Teeth" for State's Gun Law

Opportunity for law-abiding citizens of Michigan to advance another stage in their battle against lawlessness will be provided at the November election when voters will have a chance to insert new

"teeth" in the state's gun law. Specifically, the voters will decide the merits of a joint resolution passed by the 1935 legislature with a view to amending the constitution so that the unreasonable search and seizure clause of the constitution "shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any court of criminal jurisdiction, or in any criminal proceeding before any magistrate or justice of the peace, any fire-arm, or any other dangerous weapon, seized by any peace officer outside the curtilage of any dwelling house in this state."

In other words, the law-abiding citizen will retain his right to maintain arms in his own home for the protection of himself and family, but the criminal found in possession of dangerous weapons, in his motor car or elsewhere outside his home, cannot hide behind the constitution, but must face the court with the seized weapons admissible as evidence against him.

If the proposal is adopted, no longer will it be possible for the criminal to carry deadly weapons in violation of the law and snap his fingers at enforcement officers. The result of the adoption of the proposed amendment will be that law-abiding citizens will have ample protection in their homes, but lawless gunmen will carry their instruments of murder at their peril. There will be no argument of counsel for defense that weapons seized on arrest were not taken "by due process of law" and therefore not admissible as evidence.

The most notable instance which shows the need of this change in the constitution and one that was carried through the supreme court, was the case against two Detroit gangsters well-known to the police. They were arrested in Detroit in 1934. Police stopped the cab in which they were riding because it was exceeding the speed limit. The men were armed in violation of the law but Judge John P. Scallen of recorder's court dismissed the charge against them on the grounds that the arresting officers had no reasonable grounds for suspicion that they were unlawfully armed. The supreme court later upheld the decision in a five to three opinion.

It was this case in particular, and a large number of similar cases, which led the 1935 legislature to pass a joint resolution submitting a constitutional amendment to remedy what nearly every law enforcement officer believes to be a defect in the basic statute. This measure was originally sponsored by the State Crime Commission and was introduced in the senate by Senators Joe Baldwin and Leon D. Case, the latter a member of the State Crime Commission.

The committee on county building reported that they had inspected the stoker installed at the county farm and found it satisfactory. It was voted that the clerk draw an order for $495, the price of the stoker.

Supervisor Massoll, chairman of committee to investigate the advisability of purchasing an addressograph machine for setting up tax rolls for supervisors and delinquent tax rolls in county treasurer's office, reported that the machine was very serviceable and desirable when descriptions are correct. The board decided that the WPA force who have been working on setting up descriptions in the county are not in position to furnish correct descriptions in time for use for 1936 tax rolls.

A telegram was received from Clinton county supervisors urging the Tuscola board to pass a resolution asking the state legislature to have welfare money apportioned to county units direct instead of through the SERA, to avoid much duplication. The telegram was referred to the committee on resolutions.

One was to consist of three members besides himself to attend a special meeting of the State Association of Supervisors to consider legislation. The other committee of three members is to attend the business meeting of the East Michigan Tourist association. The board voted that all members attend the evening session of the association.
