

For LAMB CHOPS Supreme

Mr. Fussytaste RECOMMENDS OUR Quality MEAT

There's nothing whets the appetite more than the tantalizing aroma of delicious lamb chops as they sizzle on the broiler—nothing that surpasses them for down-right good eating. Of course, much depends on how they are broiled, but then, too, quality in the chops is most essential. And that's where we come into the picture.

GAGETOWN

Heart Attack Fatal—

Arthur Rocheleau passed away early Tuesday morning at University Hospital, Ann Arbor. Mr. Rocheleau had been ailing for the past two years. Arthur Rocheleau was born on November 8, 1879, in Logan Township, Perth County, Michigan, Ontario. At the age of seven years, he came with his parents to Tuscola County where they settled on a farm and he has resided in this county since that time. On September 24, 1895, he was united in marriage with Marguerite Jacques, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Jacques of Caro. To this union were born eight children. The widow and six children survive to mourn the loss.

He leaves Alfred, Dennis, Jerome and Frank, four sons; and two daughters, Mrs. Henry LaFave of Gageton and Mrs. Carl Seland of Caro; one sister, Mrs. Elmer Cote, of Detroit; two brothers, Alex of Detroit and Eugene of Duluth, Minnesota; 24 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Rocheleau had been engaged in road construction work throughout the state for the past 26 years and held the office of village assessor at the time of his death. He was a lifelong member of St. Agatha's Church and a member of the Holy Name Society.

Funeral services were held on Saturday morning at nine o'clock in St. Agatha's Church with Rev. Fr. McCullough officiating and burial was made in the church cemetery. Relatives and friends from Detroit, Flint, Bay City, Saginaw, Crump, Linwood and Caro attended the funeral.
