JAMES KIRK.

Dear Voters:

Because of the limitations which have been placed on all of us, it may be that I have not been able to see you personally during my campaign for the Republican nomination for Representative in the Legislature. We are all cheerfully abiding by the war time order to conserve tires and gasoline, so perhaps you have not received a personal visit from me. Then, too, we farmers have a big job—to feed our soldiers and sailors, our allies and our home folks. I have felt that it was my duty first to do my part on my farm to supply this food, and this also has restricted me from an intensive campaign.

Because of these facts, I am making my solicitation in this way for your support at the primary election next Tuesday. It is the duty of all of us to vote at every election, but this duty is vastly more important during such a great national emergency as this nation now faces. When you go to the polls Tuesday, select the Republican ballot and place a cross before my name as the Republican candidate for representative. If I am nominated and elected, I promise to do my utmost in looking after your interests in the legislature, and to do all that I can to aid in bringing victory to this nation. Your state legislature plays an important part in this victory program.

I was born in Tuscola County, and I have lived in this county all my life. The people of my township, Juniata, chose me as their supervisor for 14 years in succession, and I have served you as undersheriff and sheriff. The records show how faithfully I have performed these duties, and I shall continue to serve you just as truly if I am chosen by the voters as representative in the legislature from this great county.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES KIRK.

To the voters of Tuscola County: Next Tuesday, Sept. 15, you will go to the polls, and one of the county offices for which you will select a candidate is that of County Treasurer.

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination. By means of this short message I wish to inform you of my qualifications and ask that you nominate me to this very important office. Your reading of this message will be sincerely appreciated.

I am married and have two sons. I was born in the neighborhood of Fostoria and have always made that my home. I have been a taxpayer in Tuscola County for the past 21 years, owning and operating my own farm in Section 25, Watertown Township.

Experience that is Valuable to You. I served my township as Treasurer, also served as Supervisor for four terms, before being elected as your County Treasurer which office I now hold.

The office of County Treasurer is one of great responsibility and its duties are not to be lightly assumed. During the fiscal year of 1941 over a million dollars were handled through the records of this office.

It is a belief of mine that no one should aspire to be County Treasurer unless they can assure you that they are qualified to do the job. I have had experience in township and in county government so necessary to the proper conduct of the work of County Treasurer.

Length of Service.

When I first ran for County Treasurer, I was opposing a person who was asking for a fourth term. To correct a story that is being circulated, I wish to make this statement: that nowhere in my campaign of four years ago did I state that I would not ask for as many years as my predecessors.

In 1923 the laws of the State were amended so that a County Treasurer could hold more than two terms. Since that time the three Treasurers that preceded me in office have had six years each. I believe it entirely fair to call your attention to the fact that my opponent has held a county job more years than I have been County Treasurer. She is a Secretary in the office of the County Welfare Commission, and receives as high a salary as any other clerk in the employ of the County.

It would seem a little illogical for her to ask that I be retired from County Office on the basis of length of service.

The above is written not to find fault with my opponent, merely to keep the record straight, also to call your attention to the fact that she has a good position with the county.

Honest, Efficient Administration. It has been my ambition to give to the people of this County an honest and efficient administration of the duties of this very important office.

I stand squarely on my record. I shall be entirely satisfied if you will check up with your neighbors, or anyone else who may have had business with the treasurer's office during my incumbency.

You will learn, I feel sure that the business of the office has been conducted efficiently and that all persons coming in contact with the office have been treated courteously and fairly. I believe these reasons, plus the fact that my experience is valuable to you will lead you to vote for me for your County Treasurer next Tuesday.

I Have Put Forth Every Effort. I have put forth every effort to visit each and every one of you personally, but my duties as your County Treasurer have not permitted me to do so. I hope you will consider this short message as a personal visit.

I shall be most grateful for any influence you may give in my behalf and for your vote.

I promise to serve you honestly, courteously and efficiently.

Sincerely yours,

ARTHUR M. WILLITS.

Pinney Company to Remodel Store

Keeping step with the ever progressing business section of Cass City, the Pinney Dry Goods Co. store will be completely remodeled within the next few weeks according to Bernard Ross, manager.

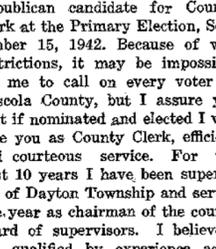

Work will start as soon as possible, depending on materials, and busy workmen will take over to enlarge and redecorate, installing new fixtures and shelving.

Before the remodeling begins, the Pinney Company is promoting a store-wide sale to clear the decks of odds and ends and surplus stocks, to make room for the new furnishings and shipments of new merchandise.

"At this time, we wish to thank our many customer-friends whose patronage has made this remodeling possible," said Mr. Ross. "When our plans are completed, we hope to give to this community one of the finest shopping centers of its kind—a streamlined, convenient, pleasant place for the whole family to do their buying, as our lines will be extended after our remodeling."

"There will be business as usual during the remodeling, and we invite everyone to come in and visit us, and see the improvements in our store as they are progressing."

To the Voters of Tuscola County: Many of you have shown in many courtesies during my campaign for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer, and I sincerely hope that you will remember your expressions of favor when you go to the polls next Tuesday to vote for County Treasurer.

This is a time when war effort should be foremost in our minds, as we have a big job and perhaps a long one ahead of us. There are many war time positions open to women in factories, in nursing and in civilian defense, which I feel I am physically unable to fill, but since I have already served as deputy County Treasurer, I feel that the office of County Treasurer is the place where I can do my share as a good citizen and a conscientious servant, helping in matters of public interest. The public has long since recognized the fact that women have and are filling positions of trust and responsibility with efficiency, that they are able and willing to meet great public emergencies.

I have lived in Tuscola County all my life, and have had a varied experience in public affairs, serving as secretary and bookkeeper to the Tuscola County Poor Commission, secretary and bookkeeper to the Tuscola County Social Welfare Commission, as well as serving as Deputy County Treasurer. For five years previous to holding these public positions, I was in private employment where I was schooled in meeting the public.

To those whom I have not personally met, I wish to say that I will be very thankful if you can see it my way, and favor me with your vote next Tuesday, Sept. 15.

If nominated and elected County Treasurer, I will conduct the affairs of this office in a courteous and efficient manner.

Sincerely yours,

JENNIE H. MANTEY.

To the voters of Tuscola County:

Due to the war restrictions on tires and gas, and other causes, it has been impossible for me to call on very many of the voters of the county, but I earnestly solicit your support and your vote for me as your representative in the State Legislature.

I was born on a farm in the Township of Millington, am a graduate of the Millington High School and the Cleary Business College, Ypsilanti, taught school three years, served my township as clerk, and your county as county clerk, and have been engaged in the hardware business in Fostoria since 1906 during which time my business has been almost entirely with the farmer. Arrangements for Scrap Drive Now Completed Here

Citizens Are Asked to Search Their Premises for All Kinds of Scrap.

Final arrangements have been completed for the junk and scrap pick-up campaign in this community which will start Monday, Sept. 14.

Each citizen is asked to search his premises for scrap, gather it up and simply leave it in a pile until the collector arrives with a truck to pick it up. He will pay a fair market price after weighing all you have collected. Elkland Township's quota is 125 tons by the time snow flies.

From the newspaper, The Scrapper, is taken the following paragraphs which explain "The 'Why' of Scrap":

"As furnaces are roaring to produce more steel for tanks, planes and guns, Uncle Sam's scrap pile is rapidly diminishing. The need for scrap and more scrap is becoming daily more critical.

"It might be asked why in this land of plenty, with its huge deposits of iron ore, there is such an urgent and unprecedented demand for scrap iron and steel. There are good reasons. Steel is made of scrap and pig iron—metal melted from iron ore. Even in normal times scrap supplies about one half the raw material for steel production—and the reason behind it is that scrap contains much valuable alloy material which is recovered in steel production. With the shortage in critical materials—such as nickel, tungsten, chromium and other metals needed for the production of weapons—such recovery becomes all the more imperative. Too, while there is abundant ore available for the production of pig iron, much labor and extensive transportation facilities

Handcarvings on Plywood Through an embossing process, exceedingly accurate reproductions of hand carving can be produced on plywood. This process includes boiling the plywood panels and then pressing them between heated embossing dies in a hydraulic press, crushing the plywood to about one-half its original volume, and forcing the wood into every indentation of the embossing die so meticulously that the smallest scratch in the die shows upon the surface of the finished embossed panel.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for September 13

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission. JOSEPH SOLD INTO SLAVERY

Does it pay to trust God? Is He really concerned about the affairs of men? Does He know the trials and the heartaches of His children?

I. Jealousy Bears Bitter Fruit (vv. 23-30). Joseph was his father's favorite and was shown that favoritism in many ways, but it was perhaps most fully expressed in the coat of many colors.

May we not learn that the darkest hour may be the time of God's deep interest and directing power. The only way strong men can be developed is by suffering hardness and trial.

II. Deceit Attempts to Conceal Sin (vv. 31-35). One of the tragic things about sin is that a wicked act does not stand alone but leads into another sin to cover the first.

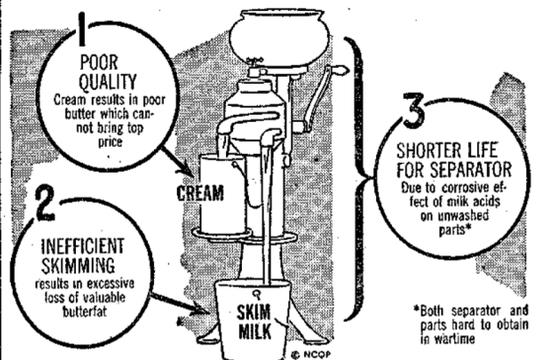

III. God Overrules Evil for Good (v. 36). It was God's plan that Joseph should come to his greatest usefulness in his place of authority in Egypt, so He directed the sale of the young slave into the home of Potiphar, a leading officer of Pharaoh.

The story of Joseph's life in Potiphar's house is one of unusual interest. Faithfulness to duty, loyalty to God and truth led to shifting experiences of imprisonment and of favor, but ultimately he came out into the place of leadership in the government of Egypt.

Since the matter of the relation of men to government is so much before us these days, it will be well to note that Scripture holds a very exalted view of the public servant.

Our lesson provides unusual opportunity for the teaching of proper family relationships, the right attitude toward government, as well as the blessed assurance and confidence which we may have who have entrusted our lives into the hands of God.

FARMER LOSES 3 WAYS FROM UNCLEAN SEPARATOR

Separating cream by any other method than with a centrifugal separator results in the loss of from 10 to 20 per cent of the butterfat, the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture has found.

Acids of the milk, habitually left to dry on an unwashed separator, have a damaging effect on the surfaces of the several parts. So treated, a separator is sure to "act up" before very long.

Good care means thorough washing and actual scalding after each use of all parts of the separator that come in contact with the milk or cream. The parts should also be rinsed again just before using.

Many farmers find it profitable to check on the efficiency of the separator once a month by a test of the skim milk. If the skim milk contains an excess of two hundredths of one per cent butterfat, the care of the separator has not been all it should be.

succeeding batches of milk and cream, lowering their quality and depriving the farmer of the higher price the best grade of cream usually brings.

George McArthur, who has been in poor health for the last eight months, is very poorly at this writing, though somewhat improved since Saturday.

J. Lis had the misfortune to lose a cow on Monday by clover bloom.

Red Clover Shortage A serious shortage of red clover, alfalfa, and sweet clover seeds for use in 1942 may develop unless farmers make extra efforts this year to produce and to harvest those seeds.

Partial Prefabrication Many prefabricators are finding it more practical to do partial prefabricating—instead of constructing and shipping entire houses—and are now producing just the portions of houses for which their plants are most fitted—wall sections, windows, doors, steps, etc.

Army Games to Stress Combat

Summer Maneuvers to Put Hard-Hitting Units into Specialized Training.

WASHINGTON.—Army maneuvers planned for the coming summer have been designed to train relatively small, hard-hitting combat teams in every type of specialized unit warfare from deserts to jungles, and particularly in night fighting.

Air and mechanized forces, as well as the highly specialized parachute troops and similar units, said Secretary Stimson, will be put through combat problems simulating as closely as possible the battles being fought in many fields throughout the world.

Armored corps units will be put through their paces at the desert training center, in the Southwest, Mr. Stimson said. Other maneuvers will be held in Louisiana, the Carolinas and Tennessee.

Thorough Training. "Army field maneuvers," an announcement read by the secretary stated, "will provide the most thorough training ever developed for American troops, stressing ground-air operations, desert fighting, jungle fighting, operations by small task forces and night maneuvers."

This year's exercises will be limited to troops within army corps, the statement said, and continued: "In this manner it is planned to save the time required for assembling field armies. Another departure from the 1941 program is that newly formed divisions will not participate in the maneuvers but will continue with their basic training schedules already devised."

The maneuvers will continue from the last week of May until the first week in November. They will be spaced so that there will be plenty of air and armored equipment available for each separate operation.

One objective of the program, it was emphasized, will be the thorough training of troops as specialists in handling their particular duties and in working with other specialists.

Operate With Air Units. "All ground units must be able to operate smoothly with air units in joint missions," it was stated, "and to operate with mechanized units of the armored force with equal effectiveness. In addition, the work is intended to toughen the troops physically and mentally for any type of combat operations."

The training will be divided between "offensive" and "defensive" warfare, the secretary said, "but with emphasis on the offensive."

"Anti-tank defenses, guerrilla warfare, street fighting, defense of rivers and night operations were listed among the special training programs.

"Physically, the progressive hardening of the individual soldier by practice marches, obstacle courses and other measures will be sought," the announcement went on. "Every unit will be required to demonstrate its ability to make a continuous foot march of 25 miles with full field equipment."

Oak Bluff Breezes.

Labor Day week-enders really had a break this year. Fishing was the best in some weeks and several catches of 30 or 40 fish were reported. The younger fry were just as successful as their elders.

Master Donald McIntyre landed several nice ones and as dusk was falling we saw Freddie Ballard go home with quite a string.

Mr. and Mrs. Howlett and son, John, occupied the Wilson cottage this week-end and Miss Christy McRae with her little niece, Kay Higgins, were guests of the Howletts.

Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Wickware returned for the holiday as did Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Foster.

Miss Gift entertained several guests at the Higgins cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ketchum entertained Mr. and Mrs. Muntz and closed their cottage for the year.

Mrs. A. A. Hitchcock occupied her cottage from Saturday until Sunday evening and Mrs. J. D. Brooker, who came with her, was a guest at the Burke cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hutchinson left Monday for Ypsilanti where Larry will coach this year. Mrs. Maholland has returned to her teaching at Highland Park High and Miss Pearl Spinks and Miss Myrtle Holmes to Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knapp with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus and Mrs. Carnegie, spent Sunday here.

Labor Day usually spells fun for the activities at Oak Bluff. However, there are still some six or eight cottages open and the fine fall week-ends see many others return for a day or two. Certainly, one can go far to find much more beauty than the autumn coloring of oaks and maples, mixed with dark pine and birch against the blue waters of the bay and the blue and white of the sunny skies.

So while the bathing beach is not such an attraction, we find the out-of-doors still calls.

COLWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. Elden Vader have moved to Caro.

Mrs. Thos. Smith took Leslie and Kathleen Smith, Leslie Peasley, Keith Little and Jeanne Muck to Lansing to attend the state 4-H Club Show. Leslie Smith and Keith Little exhibited steers.

Thos. J. Smith, who is employed in Pontiac, spent the week-end in transporting an army truck from Pontiac to Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Spence of Romeo were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Maleck.

Mrs. Thos. Smith was in Bay City Wednesday on business. Miss Genevieve Guild visited Saturday evening in Caro with Mrs. Elden Vader.

Hogs Difficulties in taking care of the millions of extra hogs expected to go on the market this fall, winter, and next spring are foreseen by packing plants.

Hawaiians Welcome Trouble
So long as the volcano's fiery liquid does not reach their fields or homes, Hawaii's natives welcome the eruptions. No one has ever been killed by Mauna Loa's blow-ups. Instead, the spectacle has provided a tourist attraction that has no equal in Hawaii for beauty and pyrotechnics, being visible as far as Honolulu, 200 miles away. In Hilo, the light is intense enough at night to read fine print. The cooled lava after a few years of weathering provides fine soil for commercial sugar cane crops.

Fresh-From-the-Vine Grapes Make Clear, Bright Jelly! (See Recipes Below.)

Meals—With Zest

Does meal after meal slip by unnoticed, eaten only because it does away with hunger? Do your meals pull their punches so to speak—look good, have proper balance, contrast in texture, etc., but still seem to lack something vital?

A dinner, lunch or breakfast that lacks a sense of completeness is like a ham sandwich without mustard, meat without seasoning, fish without a tart sauce, a pie without a flaky crust. The small things that do big things for menus are the relishes, pickles, jams and jellies, which brings me to today's topic.

Relishes such as pickles, jellies, preserves and preserves can supply that sense of completeness to a meal if you use them with a thought to flavor affinity.

For chicken try strawberry or plum jam. Goose calls for spiced peach jam or apple jelly. Orange and cherry jam or relish are tops with bland duck. Spiced grape jam or gooseberry jams are "musts" with beef just as mint or crabapple jelly are musts with lamb. Pair off that golden brown ham with plum jelly or horseradish mixed with grape jelly. Veal needs currant or blackberry jam.

If you can't get quince jelly, try cranberry jelly with pork. Liver will be extra good with tomato relish.

Think of all the plate lunches and sandwiches you are going to serve the year 'round for lunches, snacks and pack-up boxes. You'll need these:

- *Bread and Butter Pickles. (Makes 8 pints)
12 large cucumbers
4 onions, sliced
4 cups sugar
1 quart vinegar
3 cups water
4 teaspoons celery seed
4 teaspoons mustard seed
2 teaspoons tumeric

Cut cucumbers in 1/4 inch slices. Soak with onions in strong salt water for 4 hours. Combine remaining ingredients and bring to a boil. Add strained cucumber and onion slices. Bring to a boil again and boil 5 minutes. Pack into hot, sterilized jars.

Concord grapes are plentiful in the fall and make delicious jelly. You can substitute corn syrup in this one:

- *Concord Grape Jelly. (Makes 11 medium glasses)
4 cups juice
7 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

You will need about 3 pounds of grapes for four cups of juice. Wash and stem grapes and crush grapes. Add just enough water to keep from scorching, bring to a boil and sim-

Lynn Says:

The Score Card: Cantaloupe supplies for this year will be lighter because of curtailed production, but watch your markets for the "peaks" of the season as supplies come in from California, Arizona, Georgia and South Carolina.

Recently a group of prepared cereals have had their whole grain nutritive values restored or are now made from whole grains so watch labels when doing your buying.

The peach crop this year will be like last year—one of the best, according to present indications. Heavy shipments have already started coming in and production will climb up to about 50 million bushels—a new high.

Broilers and fryers will be abundant during these next few months, so don't miss out on good fried chicken or crisply browned and broiled chicken. Young chickens are abundant now because of increased war poultry production.

Canned foods will come in fewer sizes this fall and winter in the effort to cut down on use of tin.

mer 5 minutes. Strain juice through cheesecloth. Measure out 4 cups. Measure sugar and mix with juice. Bring to a boil over hottest fire, stirring constantly. Bring to a full, rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, and pour into hot, sterilized jelly glasses. Paraffin at once.

Note: 2 cups of light corn syrup may be substituted in this recipe for two cups of sugar. Use 5 1/2 cups of sugar and 2 cups light corn syrup in the recipe for Concord Grape jelly.

- *Peach and Plum Jam. (Makes 8 small glasses)
1 pound blue plums
1 1/2 pounds peaches
1 box powdered fruit pectin
4 1/2 cups sugar
Or
2 cups light corn syrup
2 1/2 cups sugar

Peel and pit peaches. Chop finely. Pit plums and chop until fine. Add powdered pectin (or pectin, sugar and corn syrup.) Mix well and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute. Remove from heat and skim. Pour into hot, sterilized glasses and seal.

Quinces come into their own in the fall and if you're fond of them, plan to put up some:

- *Quince Honey. (Makes 6 small glasses)
1 1/2 pounds quinces
2 1/2 cups water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
3 cups sugar

Wash, pare and core quinces. Add water to peelings and cook 30 minutes. Grate quinces very thin, or slice thinly.

Weigh pulp and use 1 pound. Add lemon juice and strained liquid from peelings. Cook until tender, add sugar, and cook until two drops fall from spoon at same time, or when a drop jells easily on a saucer. Pour into sterile glasses and seal.

Nothing compares to the sweet, spicy, home-like smell of the making of chili sauce:

- *Chili Sauce. (Makes 5 quarts)
1 gallon chopped, peeled tomatoes
1 cup chopped onions
1 1/2 cups chopped green peppers
1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons ground allspice
2 tablespoons cinnamon
1 1/2 teaspoons cloves

The spices loosely in cheesecloth. Boil with vegetables until mixture is reduced to half its original quantity, stirring all the while to prevent scorching. Add vinegar, salt, sugar and boil rapidly for 5 minutes. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal immediately.

- *Pickled Peaches. (Makes 8 pints)
3 cups honey
3 cups vinegar
2 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon whole cloves
2 sticks cinnamon
5 quarts peaches

Heat honey, vinegar, water and salt. Scald peaches, remove skins and insert cloves. Place a few in the boiling syrup, add cinnamon and cook until peaches are tender, and acquire a slightly transparent look. Pack in sterilized jars, cover with boiling syrup and seal.

What are your food problems? Cake making? Bread making? Pickles, jams, jellies? Children's lunches? Miss Lynn Chambers will be glad to give you expert advice on your particular problem, if you write her explaining what you want to know, at Western Newspaper Union, 210 South Desplaines Street, Chicago, Ill. Please enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for your reply.

1. The most important issue before our people today is the winning of the war. While I believe in the right to organize and bargain collectively, I am opposed to mob violence and strikes during war time. My policy will continue to be one of "Work or Fight" for the duration.

2. I have conducted the office of Sanilac County Prosecutor without favor or patronage to any person or faction. I shall continue to do so.

3. I will continue to enforce the criminal laws fairly and honestly with every protection to those accused of crime to which they are entitled.

During the four years that I have been your prosecutor there have been many difficult problems presented. In the handling of these problems there have doubtless been some mistakes, but in making decisions the best interest of Sanilac County has always been my first consideration.

HELPFUL
Hints
on taking care of your ELECTRIC RANGE

"Take good care of the things you have," reads the U. S. Government's Consumer's Pledge—and this applies with special force to many things that are irreplaceable. Your electric range must last for the duration, and to help you use it carefully and wisely, these few suggestions are offered:

- (1) Never use a stiff brush or sharp instrument to remove spilled food from heating elements. Food spilled on open surface units should be burned off. (Avoid letting spilled food dry or harden on the range.)
- (2) Roasting or broiling meat in the oven deposits grease on the oven walls. When cool, wipe the inside of the oven with a damp cloth. This should be done each time after use.
- (3) Wash outside of range with warm soapy water. On most ranges with closed-type surface units, these may be raised up so that the pan underneath can be removed for cleaning. Check manufacturer's directions.
- (4) Ventilate your oven after each baking operation by leaving the door ajar.

By following these simple rules, you will be giving your electric range the care it deserves, and your precaution may help to avert a possible breakdown or damage. Conservation of critical metals and repair materials helps the war effort. The Detroit Edison Company.

Friendly Nation Aliens
 Aliens of co-belligerent or friendly countries may be appointed officers in the army of the United States under new regulations, the war department announced recently. Such persons must have the same qualifications for appointment to commissioned grade as citizens of the United States and must be between the ages of 18 and 30 years of age. Appointments to commissioned rank may be for any grade for which the appointee is eligible and qualified.

Reason for Monsoon
 The primary cause of the monsoon—which is better developed over the Arabian sea and the Bay of Bengal than anywhere else in the world—is the difference in temperature and pressure of the air over land and sea. As the temperature rises over the land in the northern hemisphere, the air pressure there falls, since warm air is relatively light. As the temperature falls over the ocean area in the southern hemisphere, the pressure rises.

Eight-Hour Day
 In 1887 Illinois and Connecticut made eight hours a legal day unless otherwise agreed. Progress was slow, and it was 1912 when it was generally accepted without pressure. Railroads came to the eight-hour day in 1916.

Dots and Dashes Added To Grade School Study
 BOSTON.—Dots and dashes have been added to the three R's at the Oliver Wendell Holmes grade school. Five months ago Assistant Principal William F. Mahoney, an amateur radio operator, organized a club for study of radio code. Now 15 students—two girls and 13 boys ranging in age from 11 to 14—can receive dot-dash messages at a seven-word-a-minute rate. "Come to think of it, radio isn't such a far step from teaching history these days at the rate changes are being made," says Mahoney, a history teacher.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS
 The Aerial Camera for use on Scout and Observation and Reconnaissance planes is essential to both the Army and Navy air forces in planning battle formations and in obtaining information on enemy fortifications and movements. They look something like a cannon, and cost about $3,400 apiece.

Oxygen Tests for Pilots Given on Rowing Machine
 BUFFALO.—A workout on a rowing machine while breathing pure oxygen is mandatory for Curtiss-Wright test pilots planning high-altitude flights, according to latest pilot-safety developments. Pilot-supercharging, or denitrogenation, is accomplished more quickly when all the joints of the body are completely in motion, Assistant Chief Test Pilot Robert W. Fausel said.

Army Bunks
 A single minesweeper contains enough lumber to build 20 average civilian homes and an average chair represents the wood needed for an army bunk.

The aerial cameraman can plot wide territories in bold relief so that Army or Navy Intelligence can make accurate measurements of enemy territory. We need many of these cameras so necessary to the air arms of the Army and Navy. You can help buy them with your purchases of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day, and help your country go over its War Bond Quota. U. S. Treasury Department

 CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK
 TUSCOLA COUNTY
 At the Republican Primary Election September 15, 1942
 YOUR SUPPORT IN MY BEHALF WILL BE SINCERELY APPRECIATED

Born in Wells Township and have lived all my life in Tuscola County except for 17 months in the U. S. Army with 13 months overseas during World War I; father of four children with one son now battling the Japs in the Pacific Ocean with the U. S. Navy. Served Indianfields Township as clerk for six years, and believe I am qualified to act as your county clerk. Two years ago I was a candidate for the office of County Clerk but the voters saw fit to choose Ernest Haas, who died in office. Had Mr. Haas been spared to serve out the customary two terms, I would not have again asked for the nomination until 1944. His death has left the field open, and as runner-up two years ago, I believe my candidacy should merit your approval.

To the Voters of Tuscola County
 In asking to be remembered at the election on Sept. 15th, I wish it understood that I do not want the office for a life time, but would like a second term as Coroner.
 I wish to waylay a story spread by friends of my opposition that I have left the County. The fact is that I attended a school of instruction, maintained by the Government, at my own expense of time and money, in order that I would have some skill, should I be needed in a factory that is making the war material for our fine boys who are doing the flying and fighting. Thank you.

EUGENE C. COTTER
 REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE
County Clerk
 SANILAC COUNTY
 SEPTEMBER PRIMARIES

I was born in Marlette Township and lived with my parents on a farm through boyhood days. I have been a resident of Sanilac County all my life and a taxpayer for the last twenty-five years.

In 1907, I entered the service of the P. M. R. R. as clerk, was promoted to freight agent, and served in that capacity four years in Marlette and two years at Deckerville. In 1913, I resigned from the P. M. R. R. and entered the service of the D., B. C. & W. R. R., better known as the Handy line. I served as R. R. express agent and telegraph operator until 1925, resigning to take position as manager and secretary of the Snover Co-op Elevator Co., the position I still hold. I represented the Sales Tax Department of the State of Michigan as inspector and auditor in Sanilac County for one and one-half years.

The seventeen years as manager of a farmers' organization has kept me closely associated with farm problems. Two years ago I received wonderful support from the voters of the county which I greatly appreciated, as it was my first venture for any office. Under present conditions, it has been impossible for me to make an extensive campaign and meet all the people of the county; but, through this message, may I ask for your continued support.

I promise, if elected, that I will conduct the affairs of the county clerk's office in a way that you will be proud of the fact that as voters you made it possible for me to serve you.

EUGENE C. COTTER.

To Remedy Sticky Floors
If floors become sticky after repainting, the reason may be that all traces of wax or oil were not first removed. Sometimes the sticky condition may be remedied by sponging over with a weak solution of ammonia and then finishing with a thin coat of freshly cut shellac. If no stickiness is apparent, you may apply a coat of regular floor varnish.

Kathleen Norris Says:

Don't Divorce an Unfaithful Father

Bell Syndicate—WNU Features.

All this time my husband has regarded Alma as merely another child; now he wants her for his wife and has asked me for a divorce.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

IN the many years during which I have been writing these articles, one question has been asked frequently—perhaps more frequently, than any other. It is "Is infidelity a justification for divorce, when children are involved?" My answer has inevitably been "no."

The women who have no children don't ask this question. They simply get their divorces. It is when there is a small son or daughter in the family that the agonizing problem presents itself, and that a woman's decision to seek a divorce brings infinite misery to the innocent as well as the guilty.

Possibly very high spiritual and religious grounds might be cited as reasons against such divorces; but these are not the grounds upon which I base my position. It is based solely upon human happiness.

A woman, who preserves the outward dignity of her home, saves her children the spiritual disturbance of losing faith in their father, maintains her position as wife, mother and house manager, despite inward heartbreak and disillusionment, is in the end far happier than the woman who breaks all ties, pulls up roots, sears and horrifies young minds with devastating revelations of the details of marital failure.

Some Harsh Descriptions. The proof of this is all about us. To justify herself in the step she takes a woman describes her faulty spouse as nothing less than a monster. Keep check some time on the number of your divorced friends who describe their ex-husbands as fiends, mental cases, moral degenerates. Their own mothers can't stand them. Their clubs have expelled them. They ought to be in institutions.

"Ann," I said once to a friend who was in course of being divorced, "how could you tell Tommy and Ellen that Tom struck you?" "Well," she answered defensively "he might as well have struck me as he has said some of the things he did."

This is typical. The accusing woman lowers herself; she becomes vituperative, and spiteful. Only a new great love, accompanied with understanding and patience and gentleness can restore her to a normal attitude toward life. She does not often find that love; she is in no condition to find it.

So my advice to her is to stick to it. To stop suspicion, to conquer sensitiveness, to accept facts. Tom, the dear, attentive, delightful companion of only a few years past, loves another woman. That part of Mary's life is over; the joyous, beloved, confident part. She has lived only for him, adored her son and daughter partly because they were also his. It hasn't been enough; it hasn't saved her.

Nothing can save Mary from the bitter humiliation of knowing that she hasn't been able to hold her man. Divorce won't save her that; divorce will only advertise it to the whole world. Divorce hands all the trump cards to the new sweetheart; the latter grabs them easily, and a few days after the divorce is granted she marries Tom, to his enduring wretchedness and hers.

Mary is also wretched. Wretched if she lives a top-sided, lonely life with the children, sharing their cereal and applesauce at six o'clock and going to bed at nine. More wretched if she marries someone who doesn't understand them or love them.

THE LESSER EVIL

The woman who chooses divorce as the solution of her marital problems runs the risk of having to face even greater unhappiness. And if there are children, even infidelity is not sufficient cause for her to make such a choice. She must face heartbreak and suspicion and yet remain calm. She must not let the loss of the confidence and love of the man she married disturb the comfort and serenity of his home. That is, of course, asking a great deal, but by following this course rather than the other one of divorce she will avoid adding her mistake to his. The mere semblance of a happy home is bad enough, but in this case it is the lesser evil.

Today's mail brings me this letter.

"I am a woman of 34, married just ten years. I idealized Rob for years before we were married and for years afterward. We have two beautiful girls, eight and five. We four have been inseparable, loving, admiring each other, always happy together. Seven months ago there was a change.

"The girl who has taken my place in my husband's heart is only 18. She is orphaned, my husband's ward. She is very beautiful, innocent and artless in manner, and rich. To Robert the thought of possessing all this loveliness, youth, charm and the added independence is evidently acting like an intoxicating wine. He is completely bewitched. Alma makes no secret of her passionate devotion to him. Since she was very small she has been in the habit of kissing him, sitting on his knee, ruffling his hair. She continues all this. All this time, until now, he has regarded her as merely another child; but now he wants her for his wife.

It Never Lasts.

"I know the wreckage of his life that would follow this step. Alma is shallow, flirtatious, self-centered as most little beauties of her age. She loves to pout and tease; she wants to go to Hollywood to study for the films and he has promised to take her, if only Sally will be an angel and say 'yes!' His infatuation for her will last only as long as she chooses to flatter him and be sweet; then some younger man will come along, and Rob, reputation and practice destroyed, wife and children alienated, will be left in the ruins of his own life. Rob is just 40.

"The alternative to my shrieking at him, as I sometimes want to do, 'Take her and get out; I never want to see either of you idiots again!' is the bitter one of living with a silent, resentful man, whose attitude will be that I have destroyed his one chance for happiness in life. That my own life is destroyed, I know. But there are my girls, innocent and sweet and completely unconscious of all this. Until very lately their father's devotion to them, from the very hour of their birth, has been the admiration of all our friends.

"I can send Alma away; indeed it is already arranged that she is to go to a dramatic school in southern California. But what sort of a husband would I have after all this? What am I to do?"

Divorce will only bring misery to you, Sally, and in the long run to him, too.

Supplements Other Foods

Drying fruits and vegetables is recommended when there is a large quantity of surplus. These dried foods may be used to supplement canned and stored foods. Although the supply of cans and jars is not yet acute, the future may see a real need for drying fruits and vegetables to meet home needs.

U. S. Navy Spars

Spars for new minesweepers being constructed for the navy are hand-turned of selected spruce and are glued with a synthetic resin glue.

Products in larger domestic supply in the United States this year include fresh fruits and vegetables, fluid milk and cream, eggs, beef, wheat, lamb and mutton.

CLAYTON SMITH

Republican Candidate for County Clerk Sanilac County

At the present time the office of the County Clerk is the largest office in the county, and the work is of utmost importance to every person in the county. I have been deputy clerk for two years and have had charge of the office in the absence of the present clerk. With this experience, I feel that I can maintain the efficient record of this office. The importance of the records of the office and of the war work carried on through the office places a high premium on experience and efficiency.

If elected to this important office I will give the same competent service I am giving at present. I have no other business and make my home in Sandusky, where I am available at any time in case of emergency, as many milk haulers and farmers have discovered in the last few months.

I was born on a farm in Marlette Township, attended the rural school there and Marlette High School, and had an administrative course in college. For twenty years I operated a creamery business in Marlette, and feel that I have a close association with the farmer and his pressing needs during these strenuous times.

I have not been able to call on many of you since I feel that the public good demands my presence in the office.

I will appreciate your support at the polls on Tuesday.

D. Arthur Shimmin, D. O.

THOUSANDS OF MOTORISTS ADOPT NEW WARTIME METHOD OF TIRE SWITCHING!

Based on the fact that tire wear varies on each wheel

TIRE SWITCHING is a common sense practice at any time. Now it's vitally important. It's the very basis of longest life for your set of tires. For no two tires will wear at the same rate on your car, and your hope is to keep them all in service. But do you know when to switch tires... and to which position?

Have your Standard Oil Dealer supply the right answer with his new wartime method of switching tires. He will "gauge" your tires with a special measuring instrument, Standard Oil Dealers' Tire Mileage Gauge. Then he will place each tire where it will give the most service. Have this repeated every 2500 to 3000 miles (older tires at 2500) to get maximum mileage from the set.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (INDIANA)

And to make your car last long, run well, team up with these two great standbys:

STANDARD RED CROWN GASOLINE... the choice of midwest motorists by a margin of 2 to 1* over any other brand.

STANDARD'S ISO-VIS MOTOR OIL... high in protective powers, low in carbon formation, famous for giving long engine life.

YOUR STANDARD OIL DEALER IS CAR CONSERVATION HEADQUARTERS

You have seen the picture of Coronation Ormsby Madcap Fayne, the new world champion milk cow, in the newspapers, the movies, the magazines. You have read of her amazing performance, producing nearly 42,000 lbs. (about 5000 gallons) of milk in a year. You have noted her great size (weight 1750 lbs.), her unusual depth of body, her ability to convert cheap roughages into milk.

But never before, perhaps, have you seen the picture of her shown here, the picture which shows her at the most critical time of her life. This was taken before she had that size, that capacity, that almost perfect functioning of the vital organs required to produce an average of 115 lbs. (13 gallons) of milk every day for 365 days.

For the first 9 months of her life she had Calf Manna as part of her ration, and the significant thing is that many of the greatest cows, and the greatest horses, and the greatest beef cattle, and hogs, and sheep have likewise received Calf Manna in those first months when bodies and body functions are being developed.

Drop in, and let us tell you about this great product are needed to mine, purify and transport the ore to the steel mills.

"These are only a few reasons why scrap collection of the ferrous metals and other materials is essential to war production. The salvaging of scrap is a job for every man, woman and child in America. We must dig—and dig deep—in the 'mines-above-the-ground,' the rich reserve of junk which wasteful America has accumulated through the years. Those mining operations may well determine whether—and how soon—we will win the war!"

Former Cass City Boy Marries Detroit Girl

The All Saints Church in Detroit was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, Aug. 29, when at 12:30 o'clock, Rev. Fr. J. Tierney performed the ceremony for Miss Malvina Hank, who spoke her marriage vows to Richard Thomas Morgan.

Miss Hank is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hank of Larchmont Ave., Detroit. Mr. Morgan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Morgan of Lewerenz Ave., Detroit.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered to the strains of the wedding march. She wore a white satin gown, made princess style, with a very long train. Her long tulle veil was gathered at the crown to a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and gardenias.

Miss Georgella Randall was maid of honor. She was gowned in blue taffeta and her headdress consisted of blue tulle veiling, caught by an orchid. She carried pink rosebuds and white larkspur.

John Carpenter, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the young couple received many beautiful gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Southwestern High School and also Wayne University. Since the war, she has been employed as a secretary in the Owen Chemical Laboratories in the David Whitney Building.

Mr. Morgan, also a graduate of Northwestern High School and a former student of Wayne University, is now employed as engineering instructor for the Army Air Corps personnel at Willow Run. He formerly attended Cass City High School when Delmar Youngs was one of the instructors here and now occupies a desk next to that of Mr. Youngs at the Willow Run institution.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be at home at 1149 Lewerenz Ave., Detroit.
