

Koepfgen Steer Heads 60 in Daily Gain Competition

Animal Averaged 2.94 lbs. a Day to Total 1,122 lbs. in Five Months

A steer which averaged a daily gain of 2.94 pounds to total 1,122 pounds in five months headed the list of 60 steers in the average rate of daily gain competition at the Michigan Beef Calf Feeding Project held in Lansing on February 13. He was owned by Don Koepfgen of Cass City and won in competition with 21 Shorthorns, 20 Herefords, 18 Angus, and one Red Polled. The steer was calved Sept. 3, 1945, and weighed in July 3 at 460 pounds. The final weight Feb. 12 was 1,122 pounds and the total gain was 662 pounds.

Billy Zinnecker of Cass City showed a steer that was sixth in the senior class of all breeds. The animal's initial weight was 460 pounds and after 226 days on feed registered a total gain of 500 pounds and an average gain of 2.212 pounds.

The Michigan Beef Calf Feeding project has gained nationwide attention in the trend of its feature class—a combination class of calf with greatest daily gains and as prime beef on the hoof.

The champion steer on the hoof was a Hereford shown by O. J. Richards of Avoca, calved January 3, 1946. He stood 18th in the relative rate of gain competition with 2.16 pounds daily gain.

Plans Made for OES Friends' Night Feb. 26

Table decorations in keeping with St. Valentine's day were in evidence last Wednesday evening when refreshments were served in the dining room following the regular meeting of Echo Chapter, O. E. S., in the Masonic Hall.

The chapter voted a contribution to the March of Dimes fund and $22.50 from the chapter and through the efforts of chapter members has been remitted to Mrs. C. L. Graham, local chairman, for the drive. To date $115.00 have been raised through a bake sale and a pay-to-play card party, and this fund, which will be added to, will be sent to the O. E. S. Villa at Adrian, a children's home.

Plans were made at the meeting for a Friends' Night on Feb. 26, when guest officers from surrounding chapters will confer the degrees of the order on four candidates. An officers' practice has been called for Monday, Feb. 24, at 8 p. m.

Father and Chum Night a Big Success

"How does he do it?" More than one youngster asked his host at the Father and Chum Night of the Cass City Community Club Tuesday and the adult sidestepped by suggesting that his guest watch the magician more closely or else referred the youngster to a neighboring adult. Magician Garry Gilbert of Port Huron presented a most entertaining program to young and old. Following this, Hayseeds and City Slickers competed in a shoe scramble and two games of floorball in which the two groups divided honors in the contests.

Adding to the delights of the evening was the dinner prepared by the pupils of the homecoming department of the high school under the capable management of Miss Marjorie Myerholts, their instructor.

Magician Garry Gilbert was introduced by Rev. M. R. Vender and the sports program was under the supervision of Arthur Paddy, Rev. Arnold Olsen, Murray DeFrain and Herbert Watkins, according to the announcement of Dr. Delbert Hanson, program chairman. President Harry Little superintended the evening's activities.

"My mind sort of went blank. I lost control of myself," Couch told officers. He says that he remembered vaguely the loading of the shotgun and the pulling of the trigger. He has not revealed any motive.

"We were always together. We did everything together," he said of his father.

The son served nine months overseas in the army, seeing action in Belgium and Central Europe. Funeral services for Geo. Couch were held Tuesday afternoon in the Deckerville Methodist Church.

BIDDY LAYS INITIALED EGG FOR ITS OWNER

Chickens, be they white or black or speckled, as a rule do not show any inclination to exhibit any particular affection for their owners. Occasionally there's an exception to the rule as in the case of David Gingrich, Greenleaf Township farmer, who was presented the other day with an egg with the initial "D" embossed on one end of the "hen fruit." The initial is quite plain, more so, says the Chronicle linotype operator, than some of the capital letters he is asked to decipher in the copy he transfers into type each week.

Mr. Gingrich has left the initialed egg on exhibition in the Chronicle office for those who may care to see it.

Ellington Grange No. 1650 will meet this (Friday) evening at the Stanley Turner home at Ellington. Potluck supper will be served at seven o'clock, followed by a business session and program.

Thelma Cook Is Bride of Chas. E. Curtis

On February 1 at 7:30 in the evening, Miss Thelma Cooke became the bride of Charles E. Curtis of Detroit. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Cooke, formerly of Cass City, and was graduated with the class of 1938 of Cass City High School. Since that time she has been employed in Detroit.

The couple was attended by Miss Ruth Smith of Rockwood, girl friend of the bride, and John Curtis, brother of the groom.

The bride was very lovely in a gown of ivory satin with lace covered skirt, sweetheart neckline and pointed sleeves. The bride's fingertip length veil was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and snapdragons. Her attendant wore a floor length dinner gown of teal blue crepe and carried a colonial bouquet of daffodils.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. William H. Nies of the Mount Zion Lutheran Church before a candle-light fireplace banked with baskets of spring flowers, in the home of the groom's sister. Only the immediate families were present.

The couple will make their home in Detroit where the groom is employed by Cadillac Motor Company.

County Poultrymen Eligible to Enter National Contest

Tuscola County poultrymen will compete with poultry breeders in 10 north central states in the 1947 phase of the nation-wide Chicken-of-Tomorrow program with more than 8,200 poultry raisers from this county eligible to enter the competition, according to D. D. Slade, chairman of the national Chicken-of-Tomorrow contest committee.

"All that is required for Tuscola County poultrymen to become a part of this important breeding program is a flock of 50 baby chicks hatched April 23," Slade said. "Poultrymen entering the contest are urged to contact J. M. Moore, extension poultryman, Michigan State College, East Lansing, chairman of the contest committee in this state."

Aimed at developing chickens with improved meat-type characteristics, the contest carries a $5,000 grand prize in 1948 provided by A&P Food Stores and $5,000 in regional prizes. The top award will go to the poultry breeder who develops the most improved meat-type chicken.

Slade urged Michigan poultrymen to continue their efforts to develop superior meat-type chickens which, he said, are paying increased dividends to the entire state. He pointed to the Chicken-of-Tomorrow contest as an outstanding example of the poultry industry's determination to provide consumers with better chicken dinners.

The importance of poultry farming in Tuscola County, Slade said, is reflected in the latest report from the Census Bureau which shows that 81 per cent of the county's farmers received income from poultry. These producers, according to the report, have more than 567,000 chickens and sell nearly 2,400,000 dozen eggs.

350 People at the Boy Scout Court Of Honor Here

Highlight of Advancement Program Was Presentation of the Eagle Award

Three hundred fifty people crowded into the Cass City High School gymnasium and overflowed into adjoining rooms to make an outstanding success of the 1947 Boy Scout potluck dinner which was held Thursday, February 13. This was the largest crowd ever to attend a Scouting function in Tuscola County and serves to emphasize how much the people appreciate the fine work the Boy Scout movement is doing in the character building and citizenship program for boys over nine years of age.

This meeting coming in Boy Scout Week was held in appreciation of the fine work the various unit leaders have done in their own communities and featured advancement awards to boys and to outstanding Scouters. The highlight of the advancement program was the presentation of the Eagle Rank to Mark Spagnuolo of Caro. Mrs. Spagnuolo pinned the badge on Mark and also received a miniature Eagle badge from her son. Mark received his award from George Klein, district commissioner of Caro. Outstanding Service Awards for Scouters were made to Robert May of Caro, chairman of the Sea Scout Ship Committee; Victor Schwab, assistant.

The evening program was closed with the customary taps being sung and hummed.

Following the program the parents and friends were invited to view the work of the Brownies and Scouts which was nicely displayed, showing talent and effort of the different troops.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served from a table decorated to suit the occasion. Mrs. Fred Pinney, Mrs. Arthur Holmberg and Mrs. Warren Wood acted as hostesses.

26,466 Street Lights
IT'S EASY ENOUGH to count street lights—and if you were to count all the street lights operated and maintained by Detroit Edison, you would find that there are at least 26,466. Keeping them all clean and lighted is considerably harder.
Regular inspection and patrolling helps, but just looking at them isn't enough. About twice a year all the lamp bulbs are replaced by ladder crews. By replacing lamps before their rated life is completed, your street lights are made just that much more dependable. Glassware on the lights is replaced at least twice a year (four times in some manufacturing localities) so that it can be washed thoroughly in our warehouse.
Automatic switches, transformers and the miles of feeding circuits need regular attention, too. Edison street light patrols cruise about after dark to report burned out or damaged lamps. Trained crews stand ready to go into action as fast as emergencies are reported.
"Vigilance Always" isn't just a fine phrase in the Edison street light program. It's all part of the 'round the clock, 'round the calendar work that makes Edison street light dependable.

MAN RAISES HIS ARMS
FIRST TIME IN YEARS

A few days ago a man said the rheumatic pains in his arms and shoulders disappeared and now he can raise his arms above his head for the first time in years. He said the pains he used to have from this rheumatism were simply awful. Sometimes his knees and hips were stiff and sore, but the pains were mostly in the back of his neck and across his shoulders. Now, however, his suffering is entirely gone and he says the change is due to taking RHU-AID. "Oh! What relief!" states this man. "Why don't other rheumatic sufferers get RHU-AID?"

RHU-AID is a new formula. It contains Three Great Ingredients, so it is almost like taking three medicines in one. It goes right to the source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get RHU-AID. McCullough Drug Store.—Advertisement G.

School Lights Own Field, Saves $15,000

Vocational Students Provide Labor for Project.

BARBERTON, OHIO. — At a saving of $15,000, Barberton high school's football stadium now is lighted by a home-made lighting plant built by high school pupils during the vacation period.

Walter Crewson, Barberton school superintendent, who made the announcement, said that it was the finest lighting system of its kind in Ohio.

An innovation in stadium lighting, the system was designed by Arthur O. Austin, Barberton electrical and radio engineer.

Manual labor on the project was provided by 12 high school vocational students working under C. C. Adams, welding instructor, and Robert Indorf, machine shop teacher.

Main feature of the system is a double row of radio-type towers 100 feet high.

"With a high tower, the lights shoot straight down on the playing field, giving better vision to the spectators," Austin said. "The old type tended to send the light straight across the field into the eyes of the fans on the opposite side."

Work on the six steel towers began in June and ended in time for the beginning of the football season. Each tower mounts 24 lights.

Crewson said that the lowest private construction bid had been $20,000.

"By using our own labor, paying high school workers 50 cents an hour, we cut the cost to $5,000 for a saving of $15,000," he said. "The project cost Barberton taxpayers nothing. The entire bill was paid from proceeds of football games."

'Gold Rush' On, but Few Find Much Gold

CRESCENT CITY, CALIF. —

Unheard of prospectors still were tumbling through Crescent City in California's latest so-called gold rush, despite the warning voiced by old hands at the game that all is not gold that glitters, and this may be no "bonanza."

State and federal mining men, rooting about for evidence of a big strike, hinted that perhaps there isn't any gold in them hills.

Thus far, they explained, the only gold in evidence is a few small pebbles displayed by Ernest Hay, city assayer. These samples were brought in from the Rattlesnake Ridge low divide country by an old prospector, Tom Cronin.

Hay put the ore through his special assay process and came up with the announcement: "This is rich stuff!"

Within a matter of hours the stampede was on.

Six New Stars Found; Weigh 1,000 Tons Per Cubic Inch

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. —

University of Minnesota reported discovery of six new white dwarfs, a group of strange stars weighing up to 1,000 tons per cubic inch.

The university's announcement came as Prof. William Luyten, university astronomer, told of the discovery in an address scheduled for delivery in Cordoba, Argentina, during the 75th anniversary celebration of the Argentine national observatory.

Luyten and Dr. Paul D. Jose of the University of Arizona made the discovery. The white dwarfs represent atoms and matter existing under conditions which cannot be duplicated in existing laboratories. Because of this, Professor Luyten was quoted, the discovery is expected to lead to important conclusions concerning atomic structure and to new knowledge of atomic energy.

Steps Out to Buy a Drink And Returns 6 Years Later

PATERSON, N. J. —

Arthur Pacific was back with his wife, Louise, and five children, six years and eight months after he "stepped out" to a corner tavern for a drink.

It was a strange odyssey for the Paterson watchmaker, for the drink which he took in January, 1940, led from the tavern to a ship which took him to Naples, Italy, and eventually he was sent to a labor camp in Potsdam, Germany.

Pacific said he was apparently "drugged" for he "came to" in Gibraltar, aboard an Italian ship. When it docked at Naples, he said, he was sent by the Italians to Germany. The Germans, he said, put him to work in a displaced persons camp in Potsdam.

Versatile Ware

Porcelain enameled ware, which is constructed of high grade glass fused on a sturdy steel base, combines the cleanliness of glass and the durability of steel. The term, triple duty, is applied to this type of ware because food may be cooked, stored and re-heated in just one utensil.

Ironing Hint

When you find you have sprinkled too many clothes for one ironing, roll them in a towel and place in the refrigerator until you are ready to iron another time. This keeps them from mildewing or becoming sour, and saves the trouble and time of sprinkling again.

COLD NO'S

No, it's no good to figure such things out after the crash. He should have known, for instance, that tests show tire chains reduce braking distance as much as 40 or 50 percent on ice and snow. So use 'em! But remember — chains won't replace brains. They will help a careful driver to avoid winter mishaps.

VETERANNEWS

From the OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS LANSING

Extra Medical Care Available for Women Vets.

Women veterans are reminded that they are entitled to the same medical care for service disabilities as male veterans. In addition, they may be treated for non-service connected disabilities either in VA hospitals or by private physicians in other hospitals when Government facilities are not available, according to the Veterans Administration. However, VA authorization must be obtained before private physicians or private hospitals may be used.

Male veterans with non-service connected disabilities, under existing laws, cannot be treated in private hospitals or by private doctors at Federal expense. They are entitled to treatment for non-service connected disabilities in VA hospitals when beds are available, and in VA clinics under certain conditions. However, the State of Michigan, Office of Veterans' Affairs operates a program of emergency hospitalization for World War II veterans. Full details are available at all Veterans' Counseling centers.

Medical care for non-service connected disabilities in private hospitals was provided for women veterans by an Executive Order issued in 1933. At that time, very few World War I women veterans were eligible for VA medical care, and it was considered more economical to authorize private treatment and hospitalization than to construct additional facilities in VA hospitals.

There were 1,339 women VA patients in VA or other hospitals under contract to VA on November 30, 1946. Of these, 890 were veterans of World War II and 449 veterans of World War I. VA also stated that 14,989 women veterans are now receiving pensions or compensation payments. Of this number, 13,533 are service-connected cases and the remaining 1,456 are non-service connected.

YOUTH GROUP DINED AT KARR'S HOME

Fourteen members of the Westminster Youth Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church, together with the Rev. M. R. Vender, W. Y. F. sponsor, and Mrs. Vender enjoyed a seven o'clock luncheon, Sunday evening, served by Mrs. Claude Karr.

Jim Wallace is reported to scarcely have had time to eat, being so busy passing things at his table, together with upholding "Blue Book" decorum with a hungry and lively group of junior highs. An incident, or accident, is reported at another table when Mr. Vender "spilled the beans" or was it some hot chili con carne?

Following the luncheon, all members participated in the devotional service based upon the theme, "Follow Me", with senior members reading, or reporting upon a chapter, "The Students' Quest", from the study book of the month, "Our Country is India".

A period of fun and mild recreation, with moments not so mild, furnished by Roger and Dale, concluded the evening with adjournment at nine. "Thanks for the good eats", "I had a swell time", "the chili was the best I ever ate", and "your cake was a real success, Marjorie", were some of the expressions recorded as good nights were said to the Karr family, hosts and hostesses.

Edward Golding, Jr., president of the W. Y. F., attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Westminster Youth Fellowship of Flint Presbytery held in Caro on Saturday. The president announced the Synod, or state-wide meeting of the W. Y. F. to be held in Bay City, April 11-12.

Mrs. Melvin R. Vender has been asked by Betty Decker, program chairman, to conclude the study on India next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The topic will be, "The Modern Scene in India and the World Implications".

after lumbering through two successful weeks of bowling to add eight big points and now have won one game more than the Gremel squad. The Gremel and Auten teams clashed in a red hot series and both teams left the alleys with the idea that Auten's group had collected three big points but a check of the score sheets afterwards showed a couple of unintentional errors in addition which favored the Gremel squad, so that the series was split with each team getting two points each.

Captain Tyrus Mzyk, the Greenleaf merchant, led his team to a complete victory over the Juhasz team. Five and along with the Parsch team were the only ones to pick up the full four points during the week. Frank Novak, who has been substituting this season, banged out the largest pin totals when he accounted for 576 he was filling in on the Krug team while Captain Dougald is away seeking other recreational exercises.

Five other bowlers knocked over enough wood to get themselves honorable mention. They are DeFrain 574, Landon 571, Wallace 560, Auten 552, Bogart 550. Games of 200 or over were registered by Auten 234-203, F. Novak 225, DeFrain 223, Landon 213, Mzyk 210, Collins 202, Wallace 201, Bogart 200.

THE SIGN OF BETTER SERVICE

MEET Mr. A-C

WHO IS HE?

As a business succeeds and grows, it requires a more complex system of management and, often, more widespread ownership.

Allis-Chalmers has grown and progressed for 99 years. Just who is Mr. A-C? Because the answer to a question like that is complex, it is easy for people to pick up mistaken impressions.

For the sake of the record, let's take Mr. A-C apart and see who he really is.

WHO IS CAPITAL?

Capital doesn't wear a silk hat at Allis-Chalmers. "Capital" consists of 23,100 stockholders who own an average of less than 110 shares each. Mr. Capital might be a grocer, a farmer, a widow, a school teacher, or YOU. He might be a company employee in the office or shop or an officer of the company.

No one individual or family owns more than 1/2 of 1 percent of the total stock of Allis-Chalmers.

This is an example of democratic ownership distinctive in the history of large corporations.

WHO IS LABOR?

The man who works in the shop is spoken of in the newspaper as "labor."

Actually he may be a part of Management by reason of some suggestion he has made to improve a process or a product.

Actually he may be a part of Capital through ownership of company stock.

The fact that he works with his hands makes him no less a part of Allis-Chalmers than the man or woman who works at a desk. The terms "Capital," "Management," and "Labor" are indefinite and overlapping. Many a man who works in the shop is actually a part of all three groups.

Introducing Mr. A-C

Who then is Mr. A-C? He is a combination of 23,100 stockholders, 23,000 employees, and more than 10,000 suppliers.

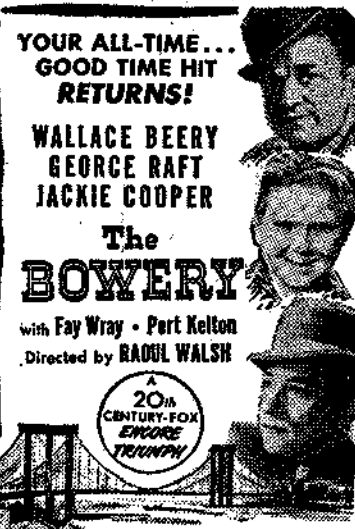

He symbolizes a company in which no individual or family owns more than 1/2 of 1 percent of total stock.

His is a company which contributes something to better living in nearly every home in America—in supplying machines to grow and process food, generate electricity, pump water, build roads, produce building materials.

Quite somebody,

Flannel Dress

This dress and jacket costume by a New York designer uses pink flannel for the dress with a simply styled high neck and short sleeves and a stitched yoke effect on the bodice. It is belted in the same pink and black wool used for the jacket printed with Peruvian charms.

Wrapping or Wallpaper May Be Used for Covering

We have all at one time or another run into wrapping papers or wall-papers which we thought would be the perfect choice for a lampshade, but somehow we never were quite able to figure out how to put them to use. Here's a foolproof plan for making these shades fit.

To make a pattern for the shade, lay some large pieces of brown wrapping paper or newspaper on the floor. Paint the edges of the lamp frame white, and while the paint is still wet, roll the frame across the newspaper.

Make certain that you turn the shade evenly, particularly if the shade is not round. The wet paint leaves a mark on the paper that can be used as a guide for cutting either paper or material lampshade.

Cut the pattern as soon as the paint dries, leaving enough at the edge so that the shade cover can be joined properly. The paper shade then may be attached to the frame and held with paper clips while you stitch the top and the bottom by overcasting or by sewing on a braiding.

Never throw away the top or bottom rings from old shades as these can be used to make fabric shades.

If you want to make a pleated paper shade, this will have to be cut in a circular shape before pleating. Fitting properly in this case is of the utmost importance. Here again, use the pattern trick described above and make sure the pattern fits before you actually cut the shade itself.

By making your own lampshades.

Fabric-Lined Shades Require Different Technique

Fabric shades should be stretched tight on the frame you use for them, but before you actually place the fabric on the frame, you must wind seam binding or a bias of the same fabric as the shade around the wires of the frame.

Another decision you must make before actually covering with fabric and cutting the shade is whether or not you want the edges finished with a double fold, decorative ribbon, fringe or braid. This will make a difference in the size of the shade itself, and you may not have fabric to waste in trimming off later.

Always assemble everything before you start to work, as the job requires concentration, and you cannot stop and look for something when you are trying to do a good job of fitting.

Fabric shades may be lined or unlined depending upon the kind of material used. If you stretch the fabric to the shade, it must always be lined. Select the lining fabric carefully as this is right next to the light, which will give any fabric a rosy glow.

As you stretch the fabric over the shade pin it carefully to both top and bottom. Make certain the fabric really stretches and use a bias cut. Pin and re-pin the shade several times until you are certain that the fabric lays smooth as silk on the frame. Then overcast the fabric to the frame as you would with a paper shade and trim as desired.

For lampshades with petticoat ruffles, use any of the dainty organdies or various printed fabrics. These in many cases may be unlined, but it's a good idea to test the fabric against the light so you will know what to expect when you have the shade made.

The ruffle which you are using must be cut three times as large as the circumference around the shade. Pleat or gather this and join the ends.

Heavier fabrics such as drapery and slipcover material also may be used for lampshades, but these are best made like the paper shades, more tailored and trim. Do not attempt to put ruffles on them.

Trim Your Fabrics

If you're doing some trimming about the household, you'd be surprised how easy it is when you have the know-how. In making pompons for hats or dresses or other purposes, use embroidery twist (thread), novelty knitting thread or yarn. Cut two circles on cardboard with a hole in the center of each. Thread needle and pass around the holes and around cardboard until a thick layer is formed all the way around. The thicker the layer, the fluffier the pompon. Cut the thread between the two cardboard, remove them, holding threads firmly in the center and tie a thread to secure them at that point. Clip edges of thread.

To make fringe, buy it by the yard or ravel threads from the material you are using. Cover the top of the fringe with tiny braiding or overcast it. Then comb to make it straight.

Fashion Flashes

You may have your gloves long or short depending upon your preference. Gauntlets with wide cuffs are especially smart for suits.

Gay little shorties as well as all lengths of the longer gloves are used for formal wear. Some of them may even be the fingerless mitts which haven't been seen since ladies used fans exclusively.

Sandals of transparent plastic look especially lovely with a gracefully draped lame gown.

If you're very feminine, wreath yourself in white silk marquisette with a modified hoopskirt and even a bustle. If you're dramatic and very smart, choose a simpler gown in a stunning color that gives you long, flowing lines.

Speed Mine Output

In many modern mines with large output, "rubber railroads" are used in the main haulageways to hurry the coal on its journey. These conveyor belts may be as much as half a mile in length, and travel at a speed of 425 feet per minute.

Round Table

One of the earliest examples of mahogany furniture that was as useful as it was beautiful, is the drum-type table with small drawers all around. Here, two centuries ago, the squire of Merry England conducted business with the tenants whose labor and rent were their support. Each tenant was assigned a drawer for the safekeeping of his papers and his money. Each drawer was equipped with two locks, much as your safety deposit box at the bank is today, with the squire in possession of one key, the tenant the other.

Cheese Consumption

An average of five pounds of cheese was consumed by each civilian in the United States during 1945.
