DARING ROBBERY

J. F. Hendrick's Jewelry Store
the Scene of Robbery.

$2000 LOSS AND DAMAGE

Safe Blown Open--Watches, Rings and Cash Taken. No Clue to the Burglars.

On Thursday morning our village was startled by the report that J. F. Hendrick's jewelry store had been burglarized during the previous night. When the CHRONICLE reporter reached the place, he found the once well arranged store in a state of chaos. The efficient clerk, Mattie Higgins, stood in the midst of the wreck depressed and grief stricken. Miss Higgins felt the responsibility of her position more because of the absence of the proprietor who was at the time visiting near Sebawaing.

The thieves gained an entrance through a back window. A small fire proof safe which contained seventy five dollars in cash, 100 watches and other valuables was blown open and everything taken therefrom. The safe door was completely demolished and pieces of the same were hurled in every direction. A show case which stood about four feet from the safe was entirely destroyed. The handle of the safe was blown through the show case window in the front part of the store. In brief, the entire back part of the place is a total wreck. The loss in cash, watches, rings with the damage done to fixtures amounts to $2000 at least. A good many of the watches belonged to customers, some of which were very valuable.

The noise of the explosion was heard by some of the residents who live near by. G. A. Stevenson heard a loud noise about 3 o'clock in the morning. He arose from bed and looked about his place but finding everything quiet went back to bed. A. J. Knapp and his wife who were staying at the home of A. A. McKenzie also heard the report of the explosion.

Up to the time of this writing the officers have no clue of the robbers. Undertaker McKenzie who was called to Sheridan about 1 o'clock Thursday morning passed two rigs north and east of town. The men were driving at a lively gait toward town. No doubt these same parties committed the dastardly deed.

Mr. Hendrick has the sympathy of the entire community and if necessary the business men will come to his help in a substantial manner. Our citizens will see to it that he will be able to continue his business. It is hoped that the officers will leave no stone unturned in order to bring these human devils to the bar of justice.

LATER--The sheriff's posse including Marshal Ramsey and Chas. Striffler scoured the country all day yesterday and late last night. Deputy Sheriff Morris telephoned from Watrousville stating that they had a clue of the robbers. Sheriff Blinn came to Cass City today with the view of finding some clue.

A PRESBYTERIAN GATHERING

Rev. A. Torbet Reports a Very Profitable Time.

The 66th annual meeting of the Synod of Michigan was held in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Grand Rapids, Oct. 9-11. There are 261 Presbyterian churches in the state with a membership of 31,741 and a Sunday school membership of 36,863. Judging from the financial report the Presbyterian people are very liberal givers.

There was raised for benevolences last year $80,694; for congregational expenses, $412,736, making a total of $493,430 for all purposes. This makes an average of $15 per member. The Cass City church is one of the most liberal societies in the Synod, having to their credit $19.12 per member.

The report for Alma college and the Seminary for young women in Kalamazoo were very encouraging. Unusual efforts along all lines and especially for foreign missions is urged upon all who love the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. The Synod meets next October in Niles, Mich.

LECTURE COURSE.

As usual, Mr. Auten has arranged a first class lecture course. It includes Hon. G. A. Gearhart, Nov. 17; Col. F. Copeland, Dec. 1; John B. Clarke, Jan. 5; and the Ariel Ladies Sextette, Jan. 26. Tickets can be purchased at the Cass City Bank, the drug stores and the CHRONICLE office.

ROUSING RALLY

The Lincoln Club Rally at Mayville
Was a Hammer in Every Respect.

FORDNEY AND HAMILTON

Made Rousing Speeches--The People
Went Wild With Enthusiasm and Were Loath to Leave the Grounds.

The largest and most enthusiastic gathering of Republicans yet held in this county during the present campaign was that at Mayville on Friday of last week. The day opened bright and pleasant and people from all sections of the county started for Mayville and by noon the hustling little town was alive with bands, banners and a crowd of hustling wide-awake republicans. Congressman Fordney and Hamilton with other prominent leaders who were accompanied by their wives came by special train. When the speakers arrived at the grove which is most beautifully adapted for assembly purposes, they found every seat occupied and many had to stand during the exercises. The Vassar and Mayville cornet bands kept the audience in good spirits with patriotic music.

Postmaster Slocum of Caro, president of the Club, presided and promptly at 2 o'clock introduced the first speaker, Congressman J. W. Fordney. Mr. Fordney gave an inspiring speech briefly outlining the issues of the campaign giving a detailed account of the work done by last Congress as regards Porto Rico. Mr. Fordney is an adept in illustrating his points with pithy stories.

The second speaker was Congressman E. L. Hamilton of Niles. He gave a vigorous and scholarly address on imperialism and trusts. He outlined the history of the republic for the past 100 years and showed how the country had prospered under republican rule and how disastrous had been the years between '93 and '97 of democratic government. The speaker's logic was superb and at times his eloquence was irresistible. He wanted to stop several times but the people would not have it. "Go on" were the cries. He went on and before he wound up the people went wild and the unanimous verdict was that Hamilton's speech was simply immense. The meeting closed with three cheers for each one of the speakers and a rouser for McKinley and Roosevelt.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The 21st senatorial convention was held on Oct. 12th, the same day of the Lincoln Club Rally at Mayville. E. O. Roberts of Lapeer was chosen chairman and Thos. J. Reavy of Albion, secretary. The session was brief. There being no opposition to Theron W. Atwood, the rules were suspended and Mr. Atwood was made the unanimous choice of the convention. Senator Atwood is today one of the foremost men in the state. In next week's CHRONICLE we shall have occasion to comment on his life and work.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Hon. W. R. Burt and Judge J. G. Ramsdell addressed about 100 citizens at the opera house on Wednesday evening. Harry Pinney acted as chairman and introduced the speakers.

Mr. Burt is a good business man but no public speaker. Unknowingly, Mr. Burt made some excellent points in favor of the republican party and most hearers must have been impressed that there is no need of a change of administration. We think Mr. Burt's money is about the only thing to be dreaded in this campaign.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

Sometime during last Saturday night the windows of the schoolhouse of fractional district No. 6 in this township were maliciously broken by some party or parties. It is surmised that the outrage was perpetrated by the boisterous party who passed E. Jones house about 11 o'clock the same night. It seems they also appropriated a pair of three horse whiffle-trees which belonged to Nathaniel Darling. The school board is offering a ten dollar reward for the apprehension of the guilty parties.

MONEY RULES

Vassar Times and Caro Journal
Are In The Swim.

$10,000 IN TUSCOLA CO.

It Is Stated That Wellington R. Burt
Has Opened His Barrel to That Extent--Anything to Down Congressman Fordney.

The political conditions in Tuscola county during the present campaign are decidedly of an abnormal nature. Money is king. If Mr. Burt, the Saginaw millionaire and organizer of the gigantic Salt Trust, should be elected to congress it will be because of the thousands of dollars which he is putting into his campaign.

Burt and his followers, this includes the so-called anti-ring gang, are determined at all hazards to down our present congressman, Hon. W. J. Fordney. The Vassar Times, edited by an unscrupulous politician, who is head push of a lot of sore heads called independent republicans, has finally thrown aside its hypocritical cloak and declares itself in favor of Mr. Burt's candidacy. In spite of the (Times) man's periodical evasions against the republican party of Tuscola county, we still believed him to be a man of principle, but recent developments reveal him in a different light and we are compelled to say that Kent is not only a traitor to his party but has besmirched his character with bootlegging. It is a notorious fact which cries up into heaven like the sin of Esau, that Kent, who has been holding up his hands in holy horror and crying "rings, jobbery, deals," etc. is now guilty of the same despicable acts.

Only a short time ago, Mr. Kent addressed a letter to Congressman Fordney, offering his services during this campaign for the small(?) sum of $750, and because Mr. Fordney could not see the point he, Kent, has hired out to Wellington R. Burt, the democratic nominee for congress. In last week's Times, Kent's bugle gave no uncertain sound, and there isn't any doubt but what he has sold himself to millionaire Burt of Saginaw.

Because of bootlegging we were compelled to sever our connections with the Caro Journal. When the Journal was started, the proprietors promised the people an "independent and non-factional" paper. The Journal made friends. The people of the county wanted such a paper, but alas, it was of short duration. When the political campaign opened the editor proposed to open the columns of the Journal to all parties alike, but our partner was in for bootlegging and rather than be disgraced we stepped aside, making a great financial sacrifice and now the Journal is run in the interest of Wellington R. Burt, the democratic-populist candidate for congress. This may suffice. It may become necessary for us to give the Caro Journal deal some more attention in the near future.

SAD DEATH OF MRS. W. F. SEED

After a Brief Illness She Passed Away Sunday

The community was saddened last Sunday to learn of the death of Mrs. Wm. F. Seed, who made for herself many friends since she came among us two years ago. She was a daughter of T. Filmore of Hope, Midland Co. Mich., and was united in marriage to Wm. Seed, June 29, 1898. The funeral service was held in the home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Torbet of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Her parents, brothers and sisters from a distance and a large family connection here and a large company of friends were present. In the evening before the company separated, her precious babe of three months was baptized as she had planned at an early date. Mrs. Seed's sister, Mrs. Lettie Avery of Weston, Ohio, will this week take little Wm. Filmore Seed to her home and be a mother to him.

"There is none
In all this cold and hollow world, no fount
Of deep, strong, deathless love, save that Within
A mother's heart."

The whole community shares with Mr. Seed in this loss of so cheerful and helpful a woman.

ANNUAL MEETING

Board of Supervisors in Session at Caro.

MUCH BUSINESS ON HAND

Meeting Harmonious and a Spirit of Economy Maintained.

The Board of Supervisors for Tuscola county met at the court house in Caro on the 8th day of the present month. After the usual preliminaries the election for chairman was held and resulted in favor of Supervisor Meyers of Watertown. Mr. Meyers is still a young man of considerable executive ability and is well thought of by the members of the Board.

After the standing committees were appointed they took up the routine work of which we give the following synopsis.

County Clerk Gifford read a communication from Auditor General Dix relative to the apportionment of state taxes under the various acts of the legislature for this county. The total sum to be raised is $27,636.55. Last year it was $35,400.06. This means a saving to the county of $7,763.41 for the ensuing year.

We glean the following from the report of the superintendents of the poor. The poor in the several townships received for medical aid and funeral expenses during the year $2,923.94. Expenditures for miscellaneous purposes amounted to $5,491.98. The receipts of the poor farm during last year realized from the sale of products is given at $977.89 and it is estimated that this year $2,800 will be realized. It was recommended that the sum of $4,000 be raised for the poor fund for the ensuing year. The Board also ordered that a horse barn be built and the brick buildings on the farm be painted. R. L. Duclon of Tuscola was elected as superintendent of the poor for the term of three years.

The sum of $500 was set aside for the use of the Soldiers Relief Commission. During the year $234.93 was disbursed for the relief of old soldiers which leaves a balance of $14.79 in the hands of the commission. It was also ordered that cement walks be built for the court house and jail.

The petitions from the several townships relative to local option was made the special order for Wednesday. The action of the Board will be given in next week's paper.

MANY BECOME CITIZENS.

An adjourned session of the circuit court for Tuscola county was held by Judge Beach on Tuesday. The time of the court was almost entirely taken up by issuing the necessary papers to persons who became full-fledged citizens of this county.

The following persons obligated themselves to support the constitution of the United States and absolutely renounce forever all allegiance to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereign. Wm. Canfield, Richard Bayley, Duncan McArthur, Wm. Templeton, Sam'l Spencer, Wm. Paul, Chas. Rochelan, Wm. Weiler, Dugald McArthur, Dugald McLarty, Andrew Romph, Wm. Chesney, Chas. Hall, Chas. This argument was seriously made by counsel for the railroads before the legislature in 1885.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Equal Taxation and Repeal of Special Railroad Charters.

PRESENT SYSTEM CONDEMNED

And Figures Illustrative of the Injustice Are Furnished by the Governor—If Roads Were Taxed on Their Full Value Their Taxes Would be Thrilled

The most striking feature of the governor's message to the legislature, which conveyed in extraordinary session at Lansing on the 10th, is a tabulated comparison of the taxes now paid by the Ann Arbor and D. G. H. & M. roads.

"You have been called together in special session for action upon two very important tax questions."

"It is not my purpose to enter upon a thorough discussion of the two questions presented for your consideration and action.

"Under our constitution, as construed by the supreme court of Michigan, it is practically impossible to frame a law by which property of railroads, telegraph, telephone and express companies can be taxed upon its true value, unless we resort to local taxation."

According to the eighty-fourth annual report of the American Bible society, just issued, for 1899-1900, the total issues for the year at home and abroad amounted to 1,406,801 copies.

Some of the principal arguments presented in support of taxation upon actual cash value are as follows:

"I submit herewith a communication from the board of state tax commissioners containing reports of Prof. C. M. Cooley, of the engineering faculty of the University of Michigan, to supervise the valuation of real estate owned by these corporations."

"Under this authority, the board of state tax commissioners has employed Prof. C. M. Cooley, of the engineering faculty of the University of Michigan, to supervise the valuation of real estate owned by these corporations."

"The following is a table showing: (1) The full value of the tangible property of the Ann Arbor railroad at Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee road, made by Prof. Cooley; (2) 5 per cent of the full value of the tangible property of the Ann Arbor railroad at Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee road, made by Prof. Cooley; (3) amount of taxes paid for the year 1899, under the present law taxing earnings; (4) the actual rate of taxation in Michigan upon the taxable property of 65 per cent of the full cash value of the tangible property, that is being paid under the special tax upon earnings; (5) amount of taxes which the railroads would pay, at 2 per cent of the valuation of the tangible property at 65 per cent of the full cash value; and (6) amount of taxes which the railroads would pay at 2 per cent of the valuation of the full value of the tangible property."

"3. That under the system of taxing upon earnings the state is entirely at the mercy of these corporations. It is impossible for the state to know what part of the earnings from this interstate business is subject to taxation in Michigan."

no intention of charging fraud upon any of these companies which must mean that the state is compelled to trust entirely to the method of division of earnings adopted by the companies.

"That the state during the early period of railroad development encouraged the railroads by making them exempt from property and granting them valuable privileges in the nature of exemption from taxation."

surrender their respective charters and incorporate under the general railroad laws of the state of Michigan. TRAVEL IN LUXURY.

Eccentric Rich People Send Their Animals Abroad in Great Extent.

Eccentricity is to a great extent responsible for the large sums paid to the railway and steamboat companies every year in order that the pets of wealthy people shall travel as luxuriously as human beings. Special cars are frequently ordered and the owners of the four-footed passengers are content to pay high prices for their use.

No animals travel more comfortably than race horses, and splendidly fitted vans are always kept in readiness by those companies whose trains run between great sporting centers and the race courses of England. Practically speaking, it costs anything from $250 to $750 to convey a horse from Newmarket to Epsom, whereas a human passenger can cover the same distance for less than $10.

A certain Russian princess has a great fancy for dogs, and spares no expense to make them comfortable when traveling. She never has fewer than three dogs with her and whenever she crosses the channel has a cabin prepared for the reception of her pets.

The magnificent giraffe sent by an African monarch as a present to Queen Victoria some time ago proved a costly passenger to bring over, for its expenses ran nearly to $2,500. But the sender spared no expense in making the giraffe's journey a pleasant one and, with this end in view, employed a specially prepared cabin on a large liner. Unfortunately the passage was stormy and, despite these precautions, the animal died of seasickness as soon as the ship entered port.

It is not often that time is devoted to the discussion of women's fashions by an assembly of learned men, but at a recent medical congress in Berlin, no subject excited more interest than an address on the trailing outdoor skirts of women, by a doctor who had made experiments, sending a number of women into the streets wearing long skirts, with instructions to walk about for an hour. When they returned their trains were subjected to microscope observation, and whole colonies of bacteria were found on them.

The Italian minister in Pekin, Marquis Salvago Raggi, has with him his wife and only child, Paris, a boy 8 years old. He is a handsome man, about 35 years old, while his wife is beautiful to an unusual degree. She was always called "La Bella Palalincini" before her marriage.

THE OLD OAK.

His feet laid hold of the marl and earth, his head was in the sky.

He had seen a thousand bud and burst, he had seen a thousand die.

And now he knew when he began to be—of trees that grew on that ground—Lord of the wood, king of the oaks, monarch of all around.

The Diamond Drill.

BY GEORGE BEARDSLEY. (Copyrighted, 1900: Daily Story Pub. Co.) "And it was coal?" I demanded eagerly.

I was sorry to press the old man so closely for the exact truth, but I had probably a more practical interest in his narrative than anybody who had ever listened to it.

"Yes, came back satisfied we was on the right side o' the river for it." I soon noticed that he never said the word "coal" if he could avoid it.

But lately he had one other interest, come to contend with the coal hope for supremacy in his life.

"Er—well, I wasn't quite sure—an'them 'at was with me couldn't just make out for certain, so we carried it to Muzzy, the blacksmith.

When one feels like sighing and laughing both at once the proper cue is "mum." Not until after a long pause did I venture to ask, "Have you never followed it up?"

"Oh, it's no use without a diamond drill. The drill I had that time I made myself. It would take a good point to reach the—to get down to it."

After the lovers left I turned to the prospector: "The wedding will be soon?" "Christmas Eve," said he—"the little gal's idea. She says, 'I like good time heaped up thick—not spread out thin,' says she, so Christmas Eve it's to be."

I left Nebraska the next week. I had a delightful summons to the wedding, but when the holidays came it was impossible for me to leave New York. The remainder of the narrative I give as it was given me on my visit the following summer.

It seems the prospector, for years, had been secretly saving, a very few dollars each year, toward the price of a diamond drill. The fund grew with pitiful slowness; in the year of the wedding it was still several dollars short of the requisite amount.

As December came on, the young people attempted to draw the prospector out on the subject of drills. Wait thought he knew pretty well what implement was wanted, but it would not do to blunder now. Imagine their surprise to discover a new unwillingness on the old man's part to be led upon the subject.

One evening Wait and Laura returned from a walk found the old man pacing off the ten acre lot adjoining his own. Striding round his ground at the boundaries was a favorite exercise with him, but this was another man's land.

"You're off side, father!" Wait shouted. Barden halted. "Yes, yes, lad, of course," he replied, and joined them to the house in a mysterious mood.

Not long after this they came upon him at nightfall busy in the tomato garden, apparently shoveling earth. In the morning Wait noticed that the old coal shaft was filled in level with the surface.

The prospector's face these days wore a look that was at once determined, sad, joyful. "Something's up with dad," said Wait to Laura. "He's covering up all his tracks of the last ten years."

Laura beamed. "He thinks our wedding will end it, and is trying to put coal out of his mind. Won't he spread it thick, though!"

On Christmas Eve the surprise on both sides was complete. Just before the ceremony the prospector produced a deed, running to Wait and Laura, of the adjoining ten acre lot.

fearfully short notice. Barden was cut down between a Thursday and Sunday. His hands clenched the new drill to the last, they told me.

"That is the tragedy of existence," I suggested; "not death, but the ruthlessness of death. The great wish comes in reach after all, but the hand put out to grasp it is withered in the act."

Laura suddenly turned away, frightened. I had philosophized ineptly. "Yes, I am an optimist," I made haste to add. "A great many times the frost does come out of the ground in time and the wish 'comes true,' as the children say."

The young wife gave me a grateful look, and slipped her hand in Wait's. "Shall we go and show you the grave?" she said.

CHINA WAR NEWS.

Nagasaki newspapers received at Victoria, B. C., on the 9th have interviews with two Belgian journalists confirming the reports of massacres on the Amur. They say that as a result of orders received from Gen. Gripski, the Chinese in Blagovostensk were rounded up by the Cossacks and escorted to a point seven versts from the city, where they were robbed and then driven into the river.

The town of San Chun was quiet on the morning of the 8th and the stores had been reopened. The rebels who attacked Sai Wan, near San Chun, on the 6th are believed to belong to the force of triads which is proceeding westward, levying blackmail and recruiting. The missions in the hinterland are safe.

It is reported that French troops hold Lu Ko Chiao on the Lu Han railway. The Russians and Germans hold the Pei Tang forts and have also taken Tong Shan and the Kai Ping mines, thus monopolizing the coal supply in north China.

A dispatch from Canton, dated the 14th, says that the Kwang Si rebels have defeated the imperial troops on the borders of Kwang Tung, and that Gen. Su has resigned in consequence of his request for reinforcements being ignored.

Eight thousand Germans will pass the winter in Peking and 1,200 Russians. The number of British troops who will be retained has not yet been decided.

Gen. Yamaguchi will retain 10,000 Japanese troops, 2,000 of them at Peking and the others at Taku and along the line of communication.

THE TURN OF LIFE.

The Most Important Period in a Woman's Existence.—Mrs. Johnson Tells How She Was Helped Over the Trying Time.

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying, and sometimes painful symptoms.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:— I have been sick for a long time. Mar. 12, 1897. I was taken sick with flooding. All my trouble seemed to be in the womb. I ache all the time at the lower part of the womb.

"I send you this letter to publish for the benefit of others. I was sick for about nine years so that I could not do my work. For three months I could not sit up long enough to have my bed made. I had five different doctors, and all said there was no help for me.

When one stops to think about the good Mrs. Johnson derived from Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine, it seems almost beyond belief; yet it is all true as stated in her three letters published above at her own request.
