church, Sunday evening made reply to certain things in Rev. M. J. Crowley's sermon in the town hall, Sept. 22, and reported in the Chronicle of Sept. 27. He prefaced his address with the remark that nothing personal was intended as he cherished only christian good will toward Rev. M. J. Crowley and the people under his care. "We can be christian friends though widely differing in opinion, and the christian church may be one as a garden, though diverse in organization as the flowers." Continuing he said in part as follows: "Marvelous things are held before the intelligent public in this first year of the 20th century. Rev. M. J. The speaker then named an array of statesmen, literary men and women of whon Christendom is proud, and who have "made the centuries luminous." and influenced the vast majority of the leaders of modern progress to "scout the idea of the pope being anything but the head of a much belated and greatly deluded sect of the Christian church." And he said that while "everyone has the liberty to think as he chooses or not to think at all;" for himself he would "prefer to spend his eternity with this glorious company of defenders of the huspiritual." He continued, "we cersus Christ 'full of grace and truth,' again.

SUSTAINED PAINFUL INJURIES.

Chas. Lee, brother of F. C. Lee, and manager of Chas. Montague's store at Owendale, sustained a terrible shaking up last Monday morning. While on his way to Owendale near Gage's place in Elmwood township, the fork of his wheel broke, causing Mr. Lee to fall heavily to the ground. He was found by some passersby in an unconscious condition. His face was badly bruised and at first it was thought he was internally injured.

After Mr. Lee regained consciousless and was able to make his identity known, he was brought to the called in Dr. King under whose care a speedy recovery is looked for. On Monday evening Mrs. Lee arrived, who did not know how seriously her husband had been injured until her arrival here.

DIPHTHERIA PREVENTABLE.

In an interview, Health Officer Gilbert of Bay City says:

Diptheria, while one of the most dangerous of communicable diseases, is absolutely preventable. If all the people would keep their premises disinfected the disease would never be known. All damp places where disease germs are propagated should be liberally treated by some surface disinfectant, such as coperas or chloride of ime. THE PRESENT LAW INADEQUATE

He Invites a Discussion of the Subject and Promises Not to Get Angry even ff He Is Knocked Out.

Editor Chronicle: Some people tell us we are advancing. This may be true in some things, but not in all. For instance here is a man who has brought his wife and two small children to the fair. He immediately fills up on "distilled death" and leaves the wife to take care of the innocents which he has brought into this world. He is big enough and old enough to know how to behave, but he gets drunk and makes an ass of himself. Our present law taxes the man $10 for getting drunk. He is not burdened with this world's goods and if fined his family would suffer more than the perpetrator of the crime.

It's a law that makes the innocent suffer because they are bound to the agencies mentioned, and the living guilty. It seems to me that a whipping post would be the right stuff in such cases. Take the big, swaggering fellow out on a cross road, blow a boiling pot, will thoroughly oxidise the bugle for the people to assemble all the organic matter in a small house, and see that the job is well executed. and it may be used with impunity at Stand him up and bare his backany time. TERRIBLE ACCIDENT AT ADRIAN

A Farmer Loses His Life Trying to Save His Stock-Cyclones Work Havoc and Destroy Property-A Pitiable Case Near Mendon-Other News.

A Blow to Corunna.

Corunna was visited Wednesday night by a fire causing a heavy loss of property and serious injury to three iremen. The furniture factory of Fox & Martin was totally destroyed, the fire being first discovered in the varnish room, possibly caused by spontaneous combustion. The blaze had wenty minutes' start of the fire department. An explosion while the firenen were fighting the flames resulted n the injury of Chief Charles Wilcox. He will probably die. George Brands and William S. Eveleth were seriously injured. The men were on ladder throwing a stream into the second story window when the wall suddenly flew into a thousand pieces from an explosion within. Wilcox was buried beneath tons of brick, and was taken out bleeding and unconscious. Doctors give but little hope for his recovery. Brands was badly cut on the head by flying brick, and Eveleth was cut and bruised. The senior member of the firm, S. C. Fox, is in England, where the firm conducts a wholesale business. Geo. D. Mason, the junior member, says the factory will probably not be rebuilt until spring, which hard blow to Corunna, as 125 men will be out of employment. The factory burned four years ago, and was rebuilt by the aid of a bonus. Corunna has no water works, and a poorly equipped department. The loss is placed at $40,000, insurance $19,000.

Can They Do It?

Commenting on the reduction of the rice of sugar in the Missouri market y the sugar trust, Henry T. Oxnard, resident of the American Beet Sugar Association, defined it as a move to rush out beet sugar production in order that the trust might have no op-position. "If they can succeed in the Missouri Valley," said he, "they will then turn their attention to the beet sugar factories in Michigan and other sections, and by the power of concentrated capital crush out successive and individually the beet sugar proicers. The trust tries to deceive the public by claiming that the beet producers can still make money at the low price it is trying to establish. This is false, and if it had been true, then the trust would have tried to establish still a lower price. They are not sacrificing one-half per cent in the Missouri river markets to make a price that will still be profitable to the beet Cyclones do Damage. A cyclone struck Ed. Hubbard's clover miller, on Sam Allen's farm. four miles west of Middleville, picked it up and turned it once and a half over, and when it struck the ground completely demolished it. Wagons were overturned and teams ran away. A barn in the neighborhood was unroofed. The top was torn from a passing carriage, the horse ran away and the occupants thrown out. A heavy shower accompanied the wind.

A heavy rain and terrific wind storm struck Turner, wrecking buildings and scattering lumber and staves for a long distance. The roof of D. Dolan's house was carried away and some of the furniture cannot be found. At Maple Ridge several barns were unroofed and part of one house destroved.

Burned to Death.

John Dillon, aged 60, was burned to death in the barn on his farm in Merritt township, nine miles southeast of Bay City. Dillon was milking the Bay City. Dillon was milking the cows, and it is supposed a lantern exploded and set fire to the building, and that he died while trying to lead the cattle to safety. After the fire the neighbors found his charred body in the ruins. Dillon is survived by his widow and two small children. The The fire destroyed nearly all of Dillon's stock and well filled grain barns. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

A Triple Funeral.

The principal business streets of Kalamazoo were the scene of an impressive funeral procession Wednesday, when three funeral cars abreast moved slowly on their way to Riverside cemetery. The cars contained the remains of Isaac Van Holst, Mrs. Peter Kromdyk and Edith Wand, the victims of the sailboat accident on West lake last Sunday. The center hearse was white and the other two were black. No cars were run while the procession passed through the streets. There were hundreds of mourners in car-

A Pitiable Case.

Undertaker Schoonmaker, of Mendon, was called upon Wednesday to fulfill his duty in a very sad case. It was at a farmer's home, a few miles from here, the residence of Edward Eatinger. Huddled together in a miserable little shanty, 12x16 feet, he found the father and two children, ill unto death with typhoid fever. In the other corner lay the corpse of the wife and mother, while in. a neighbor's house another of the family was ill with the same disease.

The Lost Aeronaut,

Rather than be branded as a fakir, Mrs. A. L. Seeley, the aeronaut, of Reed City, made an ascension Wednesday evening at LaSalle, Ill., just at dusk. She was warned that it was dangerous, but the jibes of the crowd piqued her and she determined to go up. Since that time she has not been seen, although the balloon was found press. At times she was still a mystery.

Two Were Terribly Crushed. A terrible accident occurred at the west warehouse of the Page Fence Works, Adrian, Saturday. A gang of men was employed piling coils of wire some three feet in diameter bound into a mass about the size of a stove-pipe and weighing about 200 pounds each. The rows were piled on the east side and four tiers were begun on the west side. The tier next the wall was six teen feet high. The second tier was some lower; the third tier half way up, and the fourth tier about four feet high. The force was in charge of John Handgen, and the coils were piled in the same way as had been the custom always. Some were piling on to the second tier, standing on the first, and one was on a scaffold piling on the third tier. Without any warning, the wire of the first tier began slipping and immediately toppled over upon the men. Willard S. Bowen and Thomas Bee were caught and buried beneath a mass of tons of wire, both being crushed and instantly killed. Jack Maddox, or Mattox, who had been working but two days, was caught and one leg broken. Michael Fraley was slightly hurt. Frank Wickham somewhat bruised. The most intense excitement prevailed and busy hands soon removed the heavy coils from the crushed men.

Shockingly Mangled by Hogs. Mrs. Ansel Green, of Sebewa township, was attacked by hogs and so frightfully mangled she will die. Mrs. Green was hunting for eggs in the barnyard, when three hogs suddenly turned upon her and knocked her The animals apparently became frenzied and began to tear at the woman's arms and body. Mrs. Green became unconscious, and then the hogs moved away. When she regained consciousness Mrs. Green managed to get to her feet and started to run for the gate. She had taken only a few steps when she was again attacked and knocked down. Her screams finally brought help and the hogs were driven away by her son. The flesh was stripped from Mrs. Green's right arm and it had to be amputated. Her left arm and hand was also terribly torn. One side of her face was torn to shreds. The unfortunate woman's body was also shockingly mutilated. There is no hope of her recovery. Mrs. Benj. Probasco, sister of Mrs. Green, in going to the latter's bedside, was thrown from a buggy and seriously injured.

Royal Oak's Sensation. Sunday morning Harrison Long, foreman for Dr. Clawson, went nutting on the Medbury farm, one mile and a half north of Royal Oak. He noticed a cat scratching and smelling in one particular place. The cat was so peristent that he thought something must be wrong and he decided to make an nvestigation. He went to the place and scraped away the dirt, when he ound the body of a woman in an advanced stage of decomposition. It is thought she had been dead about six or eight months. There were no shoes on the corpse. The remains are in such a bad shape they cannot be iden-tified. An attempt will be made to ind out if she was the victim of foul play. It is not known that any woman in Royal Oak or vicinity is missing. The affair is shrouded in mystery.

Marriages and Divorces.

A compilation of marriages and divorces returned by county clerks for the year 1900 has been made by the secretary of state. There were 23,295 marriages in the state last year, as compared with 21,877 in 1899, and 20,-138 in 1898. The returns for the year 1900 thus show a considerable increase over the preceding years, although the large number of marriages of non-resdents returned from St. Joseph somewhat interferes with exact comparisons. Berrien county reported 1,448 marriages for 1900, 1,077 for 1899, and only 444 for 1898. The number of divorces returned also shows a cons erable increase for 1900, there being 2,418 as compared with 2,218 for 1899, and 1,808 for 1898.

MINOR MICHIGAN MATTERS.

A heavy frost fell Friday night, ice forming on ponds throughout the fruit belt.

The Marlette State Bank has been authorized to do business with a capital of $25,000.

Numerous bogus $5 silver certificates have come to light in southwestern Michigan lately. Smith, Thorndyke & Brown Co.'s big warehouse at Marinette was destroyed by fire. Loss $70,000. Syms Bros.' paper mill, Watervliet, has been absorbed by the paper trust and the factory has been closed. An effort is being made to organize a clerks' union in Houghton and Hancock. Early closing is the object. Downgiae has a mad dog scare, and the city council has ordered every canine in the place tied up for 12 days. Charles Hinson, of Big Rapids, who pleaded guilty to assaulting little Eva Moringstar, was sentenced to 20 years at Jackson. Hog cholera is working havoc among the swine in Branch county. One farmer lost 43 swine in a few days from Snow fell in both peninsulas of the state Thursday. It was quite general in Berrien, Kalamazoo, Eaton and several other counties. A company has been organized to drill for oil at Berrien Springs, where indications of the existence of the fluid have been found. John Carmer, aged 66 years, a farmer living north of Flushing, dropped dead. He attended the fair and was just leaving for home. The heavy gale destroyed the Bay City detention hospital on the outskirts. Luckily there is no smallpox in the city at the present time. The unprecedented industrial activity at Flint has created a veritable house famine, workingmen being unable to find shelter for their families. George Hilliard, aged 30, of Colfax, was fatally injured by falling in a hay M. R. Wood, general manager of the Port Huron Salt Co., has resigned and ispirations and will be in the race for the nomination next year against Gov. Bliss.

Charles A. Lidy, held by the Detroit police, may be wanted by the authorities of Scottville. A worthless check is what caused Lidy to be under suspicion there.

Edward J. Baldwin, aged 38, who has been a cripple for 20 years, took carbolic acid Friday night and killed himself. He lived alone in a shanty near Antriin. Burnett Ripley, of Muskegon, aged 60, who was suffering from a lingering disease, shot himself through the well-known pioneer. Judge Mills, of Kalamazoo, denies that he announced himself a candidate to succeed Gov. Bliss. He declares he wouldn't accept the nomination even if it were tendered him. James Murphy, of Jackson, was arrested in Toledo. He had a valise filled with tools in his possession, and could not explain in a satisfactory manner how he came by them. A. V. Freeman, of Menominee, under arrest upon a charge of embezzling $20,000, has been rearrested on a second charge of embezzling funds belonging to Raber & Wilson.

The Mason fair is a winner. The Leslie Midway Co. was simply coining wealth and an investigation of its show by the association officials caused them to order its doors closed. John Graham, the burglar who died of wounds received while attempting to rob the postoffice at Armada was buried in potter's field at Richmond, Thursday, no one claiming his body. The 8-year-old son of Fred Defren, Dwosso, is said to be suffering from hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog a few weeks ago, and at times it requires four men to hold him down. A farmer near Burr Oak rented a farm for $4 an acre and thought he was paying too big a price for the He has just sold his crop of land. potatoes for $1,200 and has 200 bushels

The city council of Niles has issued a call for a special election to be held on Oct. 18, at which time the people will vote on a proposition to bond the city for $20,000 to be expended for public improvements. The Hinchman two-story brick building on Broad street, Hillsdale, has been purchased by the publisher of the Democrat, and the office of that paper will be removed to its new home about the middle of the month. The Owosso Manufacturing Co. believes in rewarding its employes for faithful services, and President Bentley, of the firm, distributed $3,000 among them. He says the distribution will be an annual event hereafter. W. F. Ward, superintendent of the Owosso Coal Company, has discovered a good vein of coal at a gepth of 195 feet in Owosso township. The vein is about three and one-half feet in thickness and the coal is of good quality. The great "Himoid" festival opened n Grand Rapids, Monday, and will last through the week. Many attractions from the midway at the Pan-American are there, and a lively week is promised. Thursday will be Governor's day. An unusual sight may be witnessed every weekday on a farm near Union City. Happenings at Home and abroad of in terest to all Readers Briefly Summerized for these Busy October Days-The Columbia Wins Three Straight.

Columbia Wins First Race. In the closest and most soul stirring ice ever sailed for the old America' cup, the white flyer Columbia beat the British challenger over a windward and leeward course of 30 nauti cal miles by the narrow margin of 39 seconds. As Lipton's latest aspirant for cup honors must allow the defendtemple, while lying in bed. He was a square feet of canvas in her sail area, the official record, under the rules, gives her the victory by 1 min-ute and 22 seconds. As a spectacle the contest was superb. From the time the two sky-scraping racers cross-ed the starting line until they fled across the finish line four and a half hours later the result was in doubt, and the excitement aboard the excursion fleet increased until the men became frenzied and women almost hys-Columbia Wins Second Race.

> The second race for the coveted cup etween Columbia and Shamrock II. was sailed Thursday, and won by the Columbia by two minutes and one second, corrected time. The course was triangular. It was a magnificent and blood-stirring race to the first mark. They lifted the first turn as though the stakeboat itself was coming to meet them, the Shamrock still holding the lead. Both swept away on the starboard tack, Shamrock leading by about a quarter to a third of a mile. Still scudding in the strong wind, the big white racers fetched the second mark, Shamrock rounding it first, and with flattening sheets. It was the first windward work of the race, and the result of the contest depended on the respective merits of the two boats in the thrash to windward, at the end of which was the finish line. The wind was all that yachtsmen could wish, and a fair test of the merits of the two boats was made. The Third Race Won.

That silver cup is to remain in these Inited States unless Lipton or some other English yachtsman can bring over a better boat to contest for it. That the Columbia defeated the Shamock II. in three straight races, added to the fact that this is the second time she has saved the cup, does not soften the loss to the Englishmen who had real and great hopes of winning this year. The races were close, the yachts well handled, and the Columbia proved for a second time the better yacht. The first part of the race was a hummer, with a good wind, and the outer mark was turned by the Shamrock first, but when the last half was sailed the admirable handling of the Columbia, in a slightly lighter wind, told against her competitor. There was all the excitement in this third and final race that yachtsmen could wish. It was in the run before the wind in the first part of the race that the Shamrock did her best, turning the outer mark first. Then began the beat to windward, and superb work with the Columbia on this home stretch did the business.

Horrible Details Given.

The latest news from the Island of Samar gives harrowing details of the slaughter of the members of Company Ninth United States Infantry, at Balangiga. It seems that the presidente of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault in person. the Filipinos were called to commit the slaughter by the ringing of church bells at daylight. They got between the soldiers, who were breakfasting, and their quarters. On hearing of the slaughter. Col. Isaac D. Derussy, of the Eleventh Infantry, started for the scene immediately with a battalion. The body of Capt. Connell had been saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bodies have been burned in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated. Three hundred Macabebes will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legaspi, which is delayed by a typhoon. The Astrologer's Warning.

Gustave Meyer, the youthful astrologer of Hoboken, N. J., who warned President McKinley last spring to beware of an attempt to assassinate him during June or September, now issues a warning to President Roosevelt, "President Roosevelt," says Prof. Meyer, "should be very careful of himself during the next six weeks, especially on Nov. 3 and 4. An accident or sickness is indicated for him about that time, and it may be avoided by proper care. He and his advisers will be called upon to settle some important question about the latter part of October. It will concern a considerable expenditure of money and may have to do with foreign transportation."

The German Lutherans are building fine church at West Branch.

M. R. Wood, formerly manager of the Port Huron Salt Co., did not deny the rumor that he was interested in a soda ash plant to be erected in that city, and the indications are that Port Huron will have such a plant. The Ohio state board of equalization has decided that it has no power to increase the assessed valuation of the railroads of the state, and it is now up to Tom Johnson to bring mandamus proceedings, according to his original threat. Dean Victor C. Vaughan, of the University of Michigan, in a lecture before the Kalamazoo Academy of Medicine, predicted that in the next twentyfive years great disease epidemics will take place, due to the beliefs of Christian Scientists. He based this statement on the fact that they are opposed to vaccination and the principles or medicine.

Namampa Meets a Man. slowly across the great llanos that the girl. I did watch him, and saw stretched from the Coroni westward, that, instead of grieving, he was exwending his way toward the valley where the Castle of Salvarez was sit- the senorita at night. Suddenly the horseman bent his head and looked eagerly in the near distance. He saw a man afoot making toward the north with neither rapid nor steady steps.

Drawing nearer to the lonely foot traveler the horseman's eye lit up, for he had recognized the face.

"Hang me if that isn't old Namampa, the herb doctor," he said. "I saw his wizened old face at Lola's funeral and I never could forget it." Then shouting in Spanish: "Ahoy there, Namampa! Whither bound?"

The Carib-for it was really he looked askance at the stalwart fellow more than a match for him in speed, so he paused, as if hesitating.

"I do not know you, senor," he said. "You have called my name, but many know the herb-doctor of the Caribs whose, faces are not remembered by

The thin, withered lips of Namampa cracked into a smile.

"Namampaisold," he said. "He is no longer good to look upon. But as the outward beauty passes away with age, then comes the full development of the soul—the brain. No, Namampa is no longer young nor handsome, but he knows many things."

"A false estimate of your knowledge, old man," said the horseman. "I've heard it said that an Indian charmdoctor, by his arts and humbugs, can make his tribe believe he is a great medicine man, but that he could impose on men who call themselves intelligent was a surprise to me."

'Was a surprise to you!" repeated the Carib, stung with curiosity to know who the stranger was, and resentment that his own skill should be so belit-"What do you mean? Who are you that you do not believe in Namampa's skill?' "Well, as to that," replied the horseman, "my name is Tempest, and I am one of those Americans that are not over-much loved by his Royal Highness Philip the Fraud. I've just taken a canter cross country for my health, and now I'm returning to the Coroni Valley to look up my friends. What I mean by doubting your skill is this: A girl was lying ill in the Castle of Salvarez, and you, of all the people this side of the Orinoco, were chosen as the wisest medicine-man and the most likely to pull her through. Did you do No. You mumbled your prayers and charmed the men who were well, but failed to affect the girl who was ill. That's a sore point with me, old Carib; not that I loved the girl herself, but I loved her lover, and when she died his heart was broke and the light went out of his life. That was the result of your failure, Carib. I've a mind to cut your lying tongue out with this beautiful knife I stole from the fellow who calls himself king."

Namampa jingled the gold he had received from Mattazudo, and looked calmly and contemplatively at Tempest, as if considering some weighty question.

"American," he said, "the skill of Namampa is for him who pays the best. I knew nothing of your friend. It was Philip, whom they call king, who wished to marry the girl, but Philip offered no gold. There was another who-"

"Confound you!" exclaimed Tempest, leaping to the ground and springing upon the Carib. "Do you mean to say you took the gold of Gomez to murder Lola Garza '

As Jack relaxed his grip, the Indian whispered:

"Let me up! Let me up! I-I can tell you something." Tempest took the Indian by the hair and raised him to his feet.

"Tell on," he said; "and unless you tell something that pleases me better might better be saying your prayers."

"It is true I was called to the sick zenorita. I gave her the powder I make from the bark of the cinchona Englishmen would no doubt kill a tree. She got well. It has already been noticed, perhaps, that Namampa had a delightful way of telling just enough truth to suit his purpose, and strengthening it with a little skillful lying.

I'm blessed," ejaculated "Well. "Where is Lola now?" Tempest. "Look, senor. Can you see that hill far to the south?"

"Yes," said Tempest. "When the flood came the land where my poor hut stood was under water. I took Don Juan's daughter up on that hill. There is an old stone temple there, high enough to be beyond the reach of the flood. There I found an Englishman. I explained all to him, and he promised to take care of her, and I left her with him. Namampa, chuckling at his own ready wit, mounted the horse, and Tempest started off toward Carib Hill.

> CHAPTER XXVI. Another Battle.

It was quite a journey to the hill, and after Tempest had trudged awhile, he began to regret that he had allowed the Carib to take his horse. But, he reflected, if the Indian's story was true, Lola was safe enough, and there was no need to hurry. It was not as if she were again in danger and he was hurrying to her assistance.

He was rejoiced, after a tramp of several hours, to see the wooded slope of the bill before him, and in his eager hope to find Lola still unharmed and in the Englishman's care, he forgot the fatigue of the journey and hurried up the hill.

Suddenly he was startled by hearing a shot and shouts as of a skirmish. Another rifle-shot-two, three in quick succession, and the shricks of wounded Zambos.

"An attack!" said Tempest. "The scoundrels have discovered the place of refuge, and have come to recapture Lola. I wish I had a gun. But, gun or not, I must have a hand in this." Armed only with the knife, the gallant American sprang up the hill toward the sound of battle. The course he had taken brought him up in front of the ruined temple, and before his presence was ered he had ample opportunity of seeing what was going on. He saw a crowd of at least a dozen of the dirty horde under Mattazudo, led by that worthy himself, who had, true to Lord Chugmough's prediction, returned to recover his lost victim. They hid themselves behind trees or rocks, and shot into the open end of the ruin, now half barricaded with stones and logs piled up by Lord

Chugmough and William. Behind this rude for ification he could now and then catch a glimpse of a head, and the quick aiming of a rifle as one of the Zambos showed himself, thereby drawing upon him the unerring fire of the Englishmen. Mobs like that led by Mattazudo lean mostly to guerrilla warfare, and the bravest of these followers of the half-breed chose rather to shoot from ambush than in a fair fight.

But, numerous as they were, they were at a marked disadvantage when pitted against the two Englishmen, for the repeating rifles inside the ruin were aimed by men of nerve, whose hands were steady and whose eyes of Mattazudo's heroes would have hit a man in full view one hundred yards away. When a Zambo fired, he was compelled to show enough of himself to shoot at, and this mark was gener-

It did not take Mattazudo long to than what you have told already you discover that at the rate they were going the Englishmen would eventu-"Listen, then," the Carib began, ally wipe his force out of existence. It became necessary, therefore, to boldly attack the ruin in a body. The and another of the flends of Mattazudo bit the dust. His sudden advent disconcerted the Zambos and gave Lord Chugmough and William an opportunity to rehurling his enemies from him. He felt a stinging pain in his side, and knew that he was wounded, but still fought on, unmindful of the hurt. Lord Chugmough managed to get close beside him, and so well did they work together, with William's calm and experienced assistance, that eight men were lying dead and dying upon the earthen floor of the ruin, when the others, panic-stricken and defeated, fled from the place.

"William," said Lord Chugmough, calmly, with his usual drawl, as soon as the last enemy had disappeared, 'that was quite a little skirmish." Then turning to Tempest, he said: 'And our success, sir, is due to your timely-Oh, I say there, old man, brace up! William, the brandy-he has fainted.'

Tempest, who had turned to speak to Lola, who was cowering in a corner during the progress of the fight, had reeled, staggered and would have fallen to the floor had not Lord Chugmough caught him in his arms.

"It is Jack Tempest!" cried Lola. "Poor Jack! Poor fellow! Place him here on these skins. There-make him comfortable. Poor Jack! How nobly he fought!"

MEN WHO REFUSED TITLES.

Distinguished Englishmen Who Regarded Rank as an Empty Honor. Not all Englishmen are seeking ti tles of nobility. At least there have been many subjects of the crown who might have worn coronets, but declined to accept them for varying reasons that were at least sufficient to themselves. The late William Ewart Gladstone was a notable example of the latter order of humanity, for the peerage which time after time was held out to him was always rigidly rejected. Swinburne might have han a "Sir" before his name had he chosen to accept the baronetcy which was offered him some years ago, but with true democratic independence he refused to accept a title which, after all, could do little to enhance his fame. Similarily, Mr. Watts, R. A., whose pictures are known the wide world over, could have ranked with Lord Leighton had he stoutly asserted his objection to titles and elected to remain as a few "general matters," as he termed he was. Lord Tennyson, when first it, but his visit is believed to have were sure, whereas, probably, not one approached on the question of accept- more than ordinary significance, ing a peerage, was strongly opposed to the idea, but eventually succumbed to the offer on the ground that his son would inherit the title and that he was therefore justified in taking it. give Lord Chugmough something to It is rumored that the late Professor Huxley was offered a knighthood by A settlement was effected on a wage Mr. Gladstone—an offer which was politely but firmly declined. Roston, Mass., Oct. 8.—The time limit for the ransom of Miss Ellen M Stone, the missionary now held by brigands in Turkey, expires Wednesday, and every effort possible is being made to raise the $110,000 demanded to save her life. Buffalo has demonstrated her ability to care for great crowds satisfactorily, not only in hauling them to the Exposition by street car and steam railway at a fare of but 5 cents from any part of the city, but to house and feed them at prices in the reach of all. The stories of exorbitant prices were long ago shown to be fables, and every visitor who makes the slightest effort to get accommodation can do so wholly with in his means.

The Exposition itself, with its beauti ful buildings, its coloring by day, its magic lighting at night, its walks and courts, its canals and lakes, its foun tains and statuary, its exhibits and its amusements, has been a delight to the 5,000,000 visitors who have already been to the Pan-American.

The Exposition Company opened up the month of October, beginning Monday. Sept. 30, with a Carnival week of splendid events, including a baby coach parade, with 3,000 school children singing in the procession, a mon ster pageant with the floats used in the New Orleans Mardi Gras and allegorical parade and the feature of the beautiful floral parade at Saratoga These will take place on Thursday and Saturday, Oct. 3 and 5, but every day from Sept. 30 to Oct. 5 will be replete with interest. > Character of Dairy Products from Silage. Professor Henry of the Wisconsin Experiment Station writes to Hoard's Dairyman of the increased use of. silage for making milk. He says:

"The prejudice against silage-made milk has not yet entirely died out, though it is rapidly passing. The edict which went forth from one of the milk condenseries about a score of years ago that no milk from silage-fed cows would be received under any circumstances, was taken up by other condensing factories as they sprang into existence. Doubtless the proprietors regarded this as the easiest way of settling what otherwise might make trouble. This unreasonable ruling has done much to prejudice our people against silage for the dairyman. An interesting incident-almost an accident, we might say, occurred some time since, which has proved conclusively the injustice and folly of such a sweeping condemnation of an excel- Buffalo, N. The Lansing factory, first built, was not receiving sufficient milk from the farmers for full operation and was therefore eagerto secure a larger supply. The milk from a certain farm was found to be large in amount and satisfactory in quality. This farmer's milk had been repeatedly praised by those whose duty it was to watch quantity and quality. To the several years at the reindeer stations. surprise and doubtless the consternation of the officials it was one day learned that the milk from the farmer which has been so much praised for abundance and quality, was from silage-fed cows. Here was a crisis! Should this farmer be turned down? If his milk was accepted, what should be said about other farmers adopting his practice of feeding silage? Substitutes for Eggs.

An egg substitute has been manufactured from skim milk. Such material is evidently rich in protein, and, according to re- bed and for four months she lay on ports apparently reliable, is used in considerable quantities by bakers and confectioners in place of fresh eggs. Egg substitutes have been devised which consist of mixtures of animal or vegetable fats, albumen, starch or flour, coloring matter, and some leavening powder in addition to the mineral matters similar to those found in

Other egg substitutes have been marketed which contain little or no albumen, but apparently consist quite largely of starch, colored more or less with some yellow substance. An Excellent Stable Whitewash. The cow stable should frequently receive a coat of whitewash. The way in which the whitewash is made controls to a very large extent its durability. A whitewash is desired that will not easily and quickly wash away. The United States government has the same problem to face in the whitewashing of its lighthouses. These structures are exposed not only to the rains of heaven but also to the spray of the sea. Experience has evolved the following formula: Slack about half a bushel unslacked ime with boiling water, keeping covered during process. Strain it, and add one peck of salt dissolved in warm water, three pounds ground rice put in boiling water and boiled to a thin paste, half pound powdered Spanish whiting and one pound clear glue dissolved in warm water. Mix these well together and let mixture stand for several days. Keep the wash thus prepared in a kettle or portable furnace, and when used put it on as hot as possible. This will answer for either wood, brick or stone, and retain its lustre for a long time. It is a formula recommended by the U.S. Treasury Department to all lighthousekeepers. It can be colored, if desired, to any shade. A little lampblack makes a slate color; lampblack and Spanish brown, a red stone color; yellow othre or chrome yellow, a pretty cream shade.

From January 1 to July 4, 1901, there were shipped from Argentina 26,444,000 bushels of wheat and 14,904,000 bushels of corn, against 54,306,000 bushels of wheat and 11,082,000 bushels of corn during the corresponding part of 1900. It thus appears that during the first half of 1901 the exports of corn were over one-third greater than during the first half of 1900, but the exports of wheat were considerably less than half as great.

Wheat as Animal Food.

Elaborate experiments in feeding wheat to farm animals and swine have been made this year at the Kansas experiment station, and also in other states of the corn belt. The experts conclude that wheat has greater nutritive value than corn, and may be used either crushed, mixed with oats or corn, or in connection with straw in time of extreme scarcity.

Given Citizenship Papers. In New York the other day Lee Hong, a Chinaman who had been in this country twenty-six years, was given his first citizenship papers. This is thought to be a precedent of doubtful legality. At any rate the federal authorities in other cities have invariably refused similar requests by Chinamen. Of course a Chinaman born in this country becomes an American citizen without the aid of the courts, and in the west, particularly in San Francisco, there are many such. Very few of them, however, attempt to exercise the right of suffrage. The New York Chinaman who took out his first papers did so in order that, should the exclusion act ever be repealed, he might get his full citizenship papers immediately. At least he gave that reason. On the other hand the authorities here contend, says the Philadelphia Record, that the government has entered into a contract which it

Britis a Opin o of American Beets, The growing belief that the United States will shortly be able to produce from beets the $100,000,000 worth of sugar which her people now annually import seems to be shared by British Consul Wyndham, who has given the subject close attention and reported upon it to his government. The following is an extract from his report which has just reached the Treasury

Bureau of Statistics: "The production of beet sugar in the United States is rapidly increasing, and in the Chicago Consular district there are four factories in the State of Illinois, three in Nebraska, and three in Colorado; those in Nebraska and Colorado belong to the American Beet and Sugar Company, and are at Grand Junction, Rocky Ford and Sugar City, and when completed will employ thousands of hands. Statistics indicate that the United States consumes more sugar than any other nation or approximately one-quarter of the whole of the world's product. The conditions of soil, climate, and other advantages are quite as good in the United States, and especially in Colorado, Nebraska, and Illinois for the development of the beet as in any of the countries of Europe or Asia. The world's production and consumption of sugar is now about 8,250,000 tons per annum, two-thirds of which is produced from beet and only one-third from cane, whilst the normal consumption is estimated as increasing at the rate of 250,000 tons yearly.

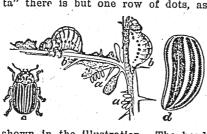

"The success attending the cultivation of sugar beet in this district has proved that it may be made a profitable and successful investment. A large factory has been built at Rocky Ford, Colorado, which cost £200,000 to build and equip. It is proposed to have it ready for the crop of the coming season. To supply it the farmers in the vicinity have contracted to grow 8,000 acres of beets a year for five years. From tests made, they estimate their beets will yield 15 to 18 per cent of sugar. The factory, when running at its full capacity, will consume daily 1,000 tons of beets, which it will convert into about 100 tons of refined sugar of the highest purity. The beets reach maturity with a high percentage, and seldom go below 15 per cent; 12 per cent is taken as the basis of buying beets at the factory.

"A general estimate of the cost of construction, cost of operation and general results to be counted upon, of beet sugar factories in this district as taken from the Rocky Ford plant places the general average of sugar in the beets at 12 per cent. So far as the Arkansas Valley in Colorado is concerned, this percentage is being largely exceeded; the minimum percentage of sugar being about 14 per cent, while the maximum has reached 23 per cent, with a co-efficient of purity ranging from 80 to 90 per cent. In stating these results, reference is especially made to the factory at 1879 Mr. Taylor severed his connection Rocky Ford, built and worked by the American Beet Sugar Company, a New has been in business for himself. He York corporation, which works two has erected fifty of the biggest and factories in California and three in Nebest buildings in the city and has done braska, the one at Rocky Ford being their fifth. The experts in charge of While planning and erecting public this last factory all express surprise at the results of this first campaign, added to the beauty and attractiveness and they have become thoroughly convinced that this valley (Arkansas Valley, Col.,) is the ideal sugar-producer, thanks to its equable climate, ample supply of water for irrigation, cheap fuel and limestone, and an un-Seth Low, who is again a candidate limited extent of available land for fences to accommodate them.—St. a few friends he set sail from New for mayor of Greater New York, this beet culture. Tumble Bugs as Barometers. Country folk are firmly of the opin ion that the tumble bug (geotrypes stercorarius) is an excellent barometer and that it takes flight only when a season of fair weather is coming. M. Fabre, a French naturalist, has investigated the question thoroughly and has come to the conclusion that this insect is, in fact, more sensitive than the best barometers, and that it can veritably be used to predict fine weather. It is to changes of electric tension that the insect is sensitive.
