INDIAN DAVE 100 YEARS OLD

So Says the Vassar Correspondent to the Tribune.
 In a Fire Experience a Few Years Ago He Proved His Tenacious Hold on Life.
 Few people in this part of the country, says the Vassar correspondent to the Detroit Tribune, are more widely known, and it might also be said have a wider circle of friends, than "Indian Dave." His real name, the one to which he might lay claim among people of his own race, few if any in this vicinity know.
 It is stated that "Indian Dave" must be at least 100 years. On this point Indian Dave himself is non-committal, not because he would be unwilling to own up to it, but because he himself has neglected to keep any record which would enable him to speak authoritatively on the matter.
 Notwithstanding his advanced age the old man still takes long tramps about the country on hunting and fishing expeditions, and carries himself with an erectness of carriage that would do credit to a much younger man.
 His tenacious hold on life is well illustrated by an incident which occurred several years ago. He had made a trip to Mayville, where he sold a quantity of gentian root. Falling a victim to the weakness characteristic of his race, "Indian Dave" invested the proceeds of the sale in firewater, then set out on the return trip to his camp. By the time he had arrived within about half a mile of Juniata, he had absorbed most of the whiskey and was feeling pretty weary.
 The old man laid down between a couple of logs near the railway track and was soon asleep. Nearer the track some section men had started a fire. It was a cold, blustery day and some of the sparks from the fire, blown over to where "Indian Dave" lay, ignited the old fellow's clothing. He slept on imperturbably while the blaze slowly burned off his trousers, his jacket and his moccasins. Even when the flames started to burn his flesh "Indian Dave" failed to rouse up.
 James Pattengill of Vassar, then a section man in the employ of the railway, happening along, was startled when he discovered that "Indian Dave" was supplying the material for a human torch. Quickly smothering the flame, he found that all of the old man's clothing except a small piece of his shirt had burned away. One heel was partly burned off and the other leg was burned almost to the bone from the heel to the knee.
 Rousing the still almost unconscious man, Pattengill got him up, then taking off part of his own clothing, he forced the old man to put it on. Though he must have been suffering almost excruciating agony, "Indian Dave" bore the pain with a stoicism that would have done credit to a long line of chiefs.
 Pattengill placed the old fellow on his handcar and conveyed him to his home in Juniata. "Indian Dave" was quite a while recovering from his injuries but he finally did recover, and today no one would guess from his appearance that he had been so close to death. It is scarcely likely a white man would have survived.
 GOT OFF CHEAP.
 He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c at L. I. Wood & Co.'s drug store; guaranteed.

BEAULEY.
 Rev. Brians is very ill.
 Mrs. D. McPhail is very ill.
 Wm. Allison's house is vacated.
 Geo. Jennings spent Sunday at his home.
 Chas. Hartsell and wife spent Sunday in West Grant.
 John Parker of Canboro is employed by Ephraim Reader for the summer.
 Several in this vicinity are making maple syrup but it is a poor sap year.
 Roy McKenzie of Cass City spent Saturday with his cousin, Wilmot Moore.

 Cornel Burwick is about to return here to resume his business as mason. He has spent the winter in Bellaire.
 Several who were ill here last week are recovering since the appearances of spring. We are all glad to hear the robins and see the wild ducks. Everybody is ready for spring.
 Congratulations are extended by us to Chas. McDonald of Beaufort and Mary Buleigh of Canboro, who were united in marriage at the home of the bride on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Duncan Crawford of Cass City, who has the contract of doing the carpenter work on Frank Reader's new barn, is hewing the timber for it. Abe and Richard Duggan, also of Cass City, have the job of the cement foundation which is to be built as soon as the ground is fit.
 Rev. J. Harrison of Port Sanilac, assisted by his stereopticon views, conducted a week's revival services here which were entertaining and instructive. The pictures on Friday evening were very convicting and showed the lost opportunities. We hope Rev. Harrison will visit us again.

PECULIAR DISAPPEARANCE.
 J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy, for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at L. I. Wood & Co.'s drug store, price 25c.
PINGREE.
 Indications of spring.
 Hurray for the new railroad!
 Chas. Banks has purchased the farm formerly owned by Burton Bullock.
 David Agar recently returned from Canada where he has been visiting relatives and friends.
 Nathaniel, the younger son of N. Darling, nearly severed one of his fingers while using an axe.
 The Detroit Journal and the Tri-County Chronicle make a good combination for reading material, giving foreign and local news, state and governmental items of interest.
 Thomas Agar met with what might have been a serious accident while cutting feed. His hand came in contact with the knives while oiling the machinery which was in motion, making quite a severe cut.
 Much interest is shown by the farmers in this locality over the prospects of the new railroad which so far seems to be a certainty according to the liberal donations in raising the bonus in both villages and country. There is not the smallest doubt but that it will be a grand success.

ATTACKED BY A MOB.
 and beaten in a labor riot until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at L. I. Wood & Co.'s drug store.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown.
 Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.
 The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and virulent contagion results.
 Timely treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangers which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the broods of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.
