

Home Buttermaking

Easier and More Profitable with a
De Laval Cream Separator

The thrifty housewife who has the milk of three or more cows at her disposal and is making special efforts to churn a surplus of fine butter each week as possible for sale to her private customers cannot afford to be without a DE LAVAL Cream Separator. The old fashioned gravity or deep setting system of skimming milk means a daily waste of time and labor in handling ice, water, crocks and pans, and the loss of practically one-half the cream. A DE LAVAL Cream Separator will save this labor and expense, and secure all the profits. To begin with the milk is skimmed immediately after milking, and the cream alone has to be cared for, secondly, almost double the amount of cream is secured that could be under the old system. At the same time it is of any desired thickness and of greater purity, all of which means more butter of finer quality and higher market value. Furthermore, the skim-milk is left fresh and warm for the calves. With the average number of cows a DE LAVAL Cream Separator will more than pay for itself the first year of use, and is capable of lasting at least twenty years. As between the different separators, the DE LAVAL has been the world's standard for over twenty-five years, and is used exclusively by 98 per cent of all experienced separator buyers. If you haven't the ready cash you may buy a DE LAVAL on such liberal terms that it will earn its cost while you are paying for it. A free trial of one can be had in your own home upon request. Write today for descriptive catalogue and name of nearest local agent.

IMPROVING HER SKIN.

One Searcher After Beauty Tells of Her Experience.

"I wish the papers would quit publishing these articles that tell you how to be beautiful," says a young matron. "I was fairly content with myself till I began to read them. I had an average good skin, too, but I've steamed it and creamed it and massaged it till it's a wreck. I've been for two weeks trying a new beautifier for it. I've been rubbing my face with slices of onion. It makes your eyes water, and it gives you an unattractive perfume, but the article said it would produce the soft, velvety skin of a child, and I kept it up. Yesterday my husband rose in his wrath.

"What on earth makes you rub your face with onion?" he said. "Wouldn't hamburger cheese do for a change? Why wouldn't potatoes or asparagus do as well? Does it have to be onion?"

"It does," I said.

"You'll have to show me," said he. "Let me see the article that turned your brain. I don't believe it says onions. I believe it says any vegetable you happen to have in the house."

"This made me furious, and I brought out the article. What do you think it said? It didn't say onions. It said cucumbers. I knew it was something you put vinegar on. That's how I happened to get mixed. After this I'm going to let my face alone, but I shan't hear the last of that onion beautifier till I die."—Washington Post.

LANDSCAPE ART.

The Work of Le Notre, Europe's Most Famous Gardener.

Although Le Notre's life was a long and a busy one, he could not possibly have designed all the gardens with which his name is now associated, more or less correctly. The list is an astounding one, ranging as it does from Aranjuez and La Granja in Spain to Wilhelmshöhe and Oranienbourg in Germany, from the villas Alban and Pamphili in Rome to Hampton Court and Kensington gardens in England. But, directly or indirectly, he is responsible for the spirit of all these designs, as he created a school of outdoor art, which, modified and adapted to suit various conditions and climates, spread over the civilized world and is the foundation of all the landscape art of today. It was he who first revealed gardens from their mediaeval swaddling clothes, widened their narrow borders, did away with their childish decorations of fantastically clipped trees and made them instead dignified parts of a splendid whole. To some people his gardens do not now seem attractive on account of what is called their severity and coldness, but we must remember that they were entirely appropriate to the places for which they were designed and perfectly fitted for their uses and are consequently artistically admirable.—Beatrix Jones in Scribner's.

CRIMINAL INSURANCE.

Receivers of Stolen Goods Usually Carry on the Business.

"Criminal insurance," said a detective, "is the insurance that thieves and blacklegs take out in case of arrest. For instance, you are a second story man. You make about $2,500 a year, the average second story man's income, and you carry an insurance of $1,000, for which you pay the big premium of $125 a year. Now, if you are arrested, the insurance company steps forward and hands you $1,000. Thus you are able to get the best of lawyers for your defense.

"Receivers of stolen goods are usually rich, and it is these men as a rule who carry on the criminal insurance business. I know of a criminal insurance company in Philadelphia, another in New York and a third in St. Louis. The policies run from $100 up to $5,000, and the premiums are always enormous. This is because the danger of arrest is so great.

"Besides the criminal insurance concerns I know of a curious beneficial organization that is conducted among the criminals of Illinois. Each member of the organization pays in $1 a week, and in case of imprisonment his family receives $5 weekly as long as his sentence lasts."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Reminder.

It is amusing at times to notice the efforts which railway porters make to extract tips from passengers.

The following took place at a large station in the north of England: A porter had been attending to the luggage of a tourist and, not receiving the expected donation, addressed the gentleman as follows:

"Beg pardon, sir, but if any one asks what you gave me what shall I tell him?"

He got his tip.—London Mail.

Its Possibilities.

A man "who knows it all" was not in the least surprised when he heard of a motor car which could be turned at will into a bedstead or grand piano. He said he knows a man who turned a motor car into a telegraph pole, a ditch, a fence and a horse all within a few hours.

No Tick.

"Why don't you wind that clock and set it going?" asked a bad customer at a country store.

"The clock is a sign," said the grocer, and the customer studied it out for himself before he left the store.

Probably.

"Your trouble, madam," said the physician, "seems to be due to an excess of adipose tissue."

"My goodness!" exclaimed Mrs. Plumpton. "I wonder if that is what makes me so awfully fat?"

Was in Torture all the Time.
Had Pains in His Back.

Dr. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—Some six months ago a friend recommended to me your justly celebrated Kidney and Backache Cure. I was at that time suffering intensely from pains in my back.

My work daily aggravated the complaint and I was in torture all the time. After taking two bottles of your medicine I was relieved and two more completely cured me. I feel like a new man now, thanks to your Remedy, and unhesitatingly recommend it to those suffering as I was.

Sincerely yours,

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was plowing corn and feeling bad all day. In the afternoon in plowing one row I had to lay down, or fall down, three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Previously I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work considerable for an old man, 84 1/2 years old."

H. D. McGILL, Frost, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
