CASS CITY BANK.

Established April 18, 1881.

Is there a mortgage on your place? - Can you save a few dollars each month and apply the same on your mortgage?
With this idea in view have you been figuring on making a loan of some Building and Loan Association?
This might be a move in the right direction if you could not do better. But when I say to you that you can do your business at your home bank on exactly the same basis and save a nice little sum for yourself it is certainly to your disadvantage to go away from home to obtain your money.

Remember I promise you every advantage which the Building and Loan Association offers, and in addition you can get their best rate and I will save you $11 on a loan of $200.
$14 on a loan of $300.
$17 on a loan of $400.
$20 on a loan of $500.
$25 on a loan of $1,000.

I can also show you one other very important feature whereby it is much better for you to borrow of this bank.
I will be pleased to explain this subject more fully to all intended borrowers if they will call at the bank.

C. W. MCPHAIL,

miles northeast of this place. He soon head, one arm and leg were badly hurt but he is rapidly recovering.

The P. O. & N. railroad will run an excursion train to Detroit Aug. 3rd, 4th and 5th, on account of the G. A. G. R. National encampment, single fare for the round trip. A special train will run Aug. 5th. and the round trip fare from this place is $2.00. These will be splendid opportunities for those wishing to visit the scene of the encampment.

Prof. Conlon arrived home last Thursday from Toronto, where he attended the International Educational Association.
He is enthusiastic in his praise of the meeting and reception accorded them by leading citizens of the city. Before returning he visited the Thousand Islands spending three days there. Other notable places were visited during his "excursion" and he enjoyed a splendid outing.

Jas. Huston, superintendent of the P. O. & N. railroad, registered at the Tennant House last Friday. Mr. Huston stated that the owners of the road were thinking strongly of building a branch from this place to Sand Beach, or a branch from Gagetown to Bay City. The road situation in this county is indeed becoming critical and something is liable to be done. Let us hope so anyway.

Mrs. Mary Sells died at her home in Cass City on Monday, July 27th. She was 44 years of age and consumption was the cause of her death. She leaves four girls and two boys, her husband being killed in a runaway near this place about a year ago. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Gilchrist officiating.
A. A. McKenzie was the undertaker in attendance.

"Why is it," asks a citizen, "that newspapers make so many misstate-ments?" "well," said the reporter of experience, "the papers have to tell, as most of the news, the stories that men like you tell them, and it is a moral impossibility for nine men out of ten to tell a thing as it really is. Some may tell it as it seemed to them, but what one man will swear to as the truth the next man will characterize as a lie."

Last Saturday Postmaster Seed stealthily entered the ENTERPRISE sanctuary while both the editors were absent and did willfully and maliciously and without just cause or provocation deposit upon the already laden desk two boxes of the largest raspberries we have ever seen. They were picked from bushes in his garden and showed the result of careful cultivation. Over 25 quarts were picked from 22 of these bushes already this season. As this is Mr. Seed's first offense, we will not arrest him for trespass, but simply extend a cordial invitation to call again.

W. J. Copeland, Deputy Great Commander of the Knights of Maccabees, was in town last Saturday, advertising the K. O. T. M. excursion to Jackson, Aug. 11th, and making arrangements with the lodge at this place to be in attendance. He desired the band to accompany them, but at this writing arrangements to that effect have not been perfected. Quite a number Cass Cityites who are not members of the lodge, contemplate going on this excursion, as the round trip is very reasonable and a good programme is being arranged for the entertainment of the visitors while there.

Bad Axe Tribune: On Tuesday of this week a very critical operation was performed upon Mrs. Fred Watrous by Dewitt C. Wade, of Holly, assisted by Drs. McDaniel, Deady and Dixon, of this place, and Dr. Corcoran, of Utley.
They removed a tumor weighing forty pounds. They began at ten o'clock in the morning and in about three quarters of an hour had the operation completed.
This is probably the most critical surgical operation ever performed in this part of the country, and much praise is due Mr. Wade for the able manner in which he performed the operation. The patient is doing well, with splendid hopes of recovery.

C. W. McPhail returned from his trip around the lakes on Monday. His animated and graphic description of the trip plainly shows that he throws the same energy into an enjoyment of this kind, that has always been his characteristic in business pursuits. Mr.
McPhail and his wife visited all the points of interest from Detroit to the Island of Mackinaw and the "Soo," and returned by way of Lake Michigan to Chicago. After spending two or three days looking over the city, they returned by rail to Detroit, where they witnessed the races to the closing. Mrs. McPhail will remain in Detroit with friends until the latter part of the week.

WANTED—A good kitchen girl at the Sheridan House.

A Greater Success Than Ever!

Will be the Second Annual Fair at this Place.—Better and More Prizes Offered.

The first fair of the Tuscola Huron & Sanilac District Fair Association was held last fall and was pronounced a grand success. Since that time numerous improvements have been made to the fair ground and track, more and complete arrangements perfected and the exhibition this fall will be ahead of that of last year in many ways.

The first day will be occupied in making entries, arranging exhibits, etc.
Admission to ground free. On Wednesday, the second day, there will be a grand cavalcade of all the stock entered for exhibition, a plowing match and other attractions. On Thursday will occur a farmers' trotting race, purse, $30; green race, purse $30; 2:40 trotting race, purse, $1.20; and on Friday a three minute trotting race, purse $80; free-for-all trotting and pacing, purse $160. Last year's races were pronouned as good as ever held in the county, and as the premiums this year are still larger we may expect better races than ever.

Other attractions are being arranged by the management and will be given later. Remember the dates: Sept. 22d, 23d, 24th and 25th, 1891.

A childrens temperance society was organized last Saturday, afternoon, in the Town Hall. Mrs. J. H. McLean was or-elected Superintendent, and Mrs. O. K.
Janes was appointed by her assistant superintendent. The other officers will be selected from the ranks of the children after a more complete organization. The meeting will be held every two weeks on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the town Hall. The next meeting occurring one week from to-morrow.

The W. C. T. U. of this place held their last monthly meeting at the home of Mrs.
Hugh Seed on Friday last at which a resolution was passed, to send a protest, to be published by the Detroit Journal against the use of wine at the coming G. A. R. encampment. Many protests have been published by this paper from similar and other societies all over the state. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm.
Withey on the fourth Friday in August.

An exchange has this to say of mankind: None are satisfied. One man is struggling to get justice, another man is flying from it. One man is saving to build a house, another is trying to sell for less than cost to get rid of his. One man is spending all the money he makes in taking his girl to the theatre and sending her flowers in hopes of eventually making her his wife, while his neighbor is spending all the gold he has got to get a divorce. The eastern man wants to go west and the western man wants to go east. The farmer wants to go into the city and the city man wants to go into the country. The man in trade wants to get out and everybody not in trade wants to be in.

E. F. Marr returned on Monday from his visit to friends in the southwestern part of the state. He gives very interesting accounts of his visit to the "poach belt" on the southwestern coast of Michigan. It fairly makes our "mouth water" to hear of the delicious peaches and berries that grow there in such profusion.
Perhaps a brief description of this peach country will be of interest to our readers.
He tells us that this region is about sixty miles long and four miles wide, extending along the coast about from Benton Harbor to Grand Haven. This region is devoted chiefly to the raising of peaches, strawberries and other small fruits. The peach orchards are under a high state of cultivation, and yield their produce a splendid profit, as their proximity to the vessel routes enables them to take advantage of the Chicago market. It is estimated that the yield this year will reach four million bushels, and average one dollar to the bushel. This number of bushels does not represent the full amount of peaches that could be produced upon the trees, as they are put through what is called a thinning process, which consists in cutting off about two thirds of the fruit while green to produce a finer quality in those that are allowed to mature.
Mr. Marr was present during the destructive fire at South Haven, which destroyed twenty buildings through poor fire protection facilities.

Steamer Burned at Caseville.

She Took Fire at Her Dock Saturday Night and Burned to the Water's Edge.

Steamer B. F. Ferris, owned by Henry Turner, and commanded by Robert Medler, who has for a month past been running between Caseville and Au-Sable, carrying freight and passengers in connection with P. O. & N. railroad, took fire at the dock at Caseville about midnight Saturday and burned to the water's edge. The crew escaped with difficulty, losing all their effects.
The boat was valued at $8,000 and was insured at $5,000, in the Milwaukee Mechanics' and Traders', of Chicago, each $1,000, Boston and Firemen's $1,500 each. It was upon this boat that the party of campers from this place intended to take a ride upon the following day. It is said that the steamer was not considered very seaworthy, although considerable repairs had been made to her last spring.

G. A. Stevenson was in Argyle yesterday.

Miss Annie Wright spent Sunday at Oak Bluff.

Mrs. S. J. Wright and daughter Pearl visited at Owendale Friday.

J. B. Corlett was taking orders in town the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pettit, of Columbiaville, were in attendance at the funeral of John Pettit last Sunday.

Merchant Green and wife, of Clifford, registered at the Tennant House Monday.
They were on their way to Sand Beach for a visit.

Elisha Fancher cut fifty two common sized bunches of timothy hay from three fourths of an acre on his farm two miles east of the village.

In regard to the proposed railroad our Ellington correspondent Patrick Henry-like exclaims. "Let it come! I repeat it sirs, let it come!" Keep cool brother, keep cool, we don't intend to stop it.

Mr. McWebb and grandson, Harry Pence, of Caro, were guests at B. M.
Ewing's the fore part of the week. Mr.
McWebb is over sixty-six years old, but makes the trip from Caro here on his bicycle with apparent ease. He is Mrs. Ewing's father.

Last week Editor Slocum of the Caro Democrat had his muling list pined.
He mentioned the accident in his paper, and his contemporary, the Advertiser, instead of extending sympathy simply criticized the way he spelt pi. Brother Lawless must be hard-hearted.

Miss Browne who has been giving instructions in dressmaking in this place for the past few months has returned to her home at Detroit. She had also been working in Mrs. Morris' shop.
Mrs. Morris will now conduct her business alone and will guarantee satisfaction in fitting and price.

Forty members of Milo Warner Post will leave Monday morning for Detroit to attend the National encampment.
A snare drum and file, played by two members of the Post, will furnish music to march by. Dr. P. Deming will be the commanding officer. We wish the "Old Vets" a safe journey and an enjoyable time.

The last quarterly meeting of the M.
E. for this conference year, will take place next Sunday. Love feast at 9 o'clock preaching at 10:30 after which the Holy Commune will be administered.
Presiding Elder Reed will preach in the evening. Quarterly conference to close up the business of the year, on Monday morning at 9:30 in the class room of the church.

We are unable as yet to give our readers any further news regarding the proposed railroad from Bay City to Pt.
Huron, via Caro, only that the Caro business men have given bonds to the amount of $500 for the carrying out of their part of the contract with the builders of the road, and the builders have also given bonds for the above amount for the performance of their part of the agreement. Now a failure on either side means a forfeiture of $500.
This is business. A meeting of the Bay City business men was called for last night to consider the proposition made to them concerning this road, and it's very likely it will be considered favorably. Bay City is very anxious to have this road built as they are fully aware that a line to Pt. Huron would prove more profitable to their interests than any other that might be constructed. We are anxiously awaiting further developments.

Notice.

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned until the 15th of August for the construction of four abutments.
One set between sections 34 and 35, and one set between sections 33 and 34.
Plans and specifications can be seen at my office in Novesta. The job will be awarded at Geo. O. Rouke's home at 10 o'clock a. m.

THOS. MCQUILLIN,
Highway Commissioner.

NOTICE!

As I am about retiring from the military business, would say to all who are indebted to me to please call and settle accounts by the 15th. of August. And oblige,

MRS. H. S. WICKWARE.

"Keep It Out of the Paper."

"Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the local newspaper publisher daily hears. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request thinks the granting scarcely worth saying "thank you" for it. A news paper is a peculiar article in the public's eye. The news gatherer is stoned as because he gets hold of one item, and is abused because he does not get another. Young men and often young women, as well as older, perform acts which become legitimate items for publication, and then rush to the newspaper office to beg the editors not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party doing the same thing; they were guilty of, forgetting, apparently, their last visit to the printing office. The subscribers expect to read the news, and there is always wonder when, for charity's sake, an item on the street and in everybody's mouth is not found in the next issue of the paper.

Politics And Crops.

Good weather out west is playing hot with politics this season. Calamities have been part of the stock in trade of politicians for generations, but the discontent that builds up party booms is fast receding before the prospects of a good harvest. Every irrigation reservoir, every mortgage and debt lifted every new building and new industry, every rise in price of farm products, every new field of labor, everything that strengthens faith, hope and charity, among men, everything that gives to people faith in the country, its resources, institutions and future—make votes for one side. The droughts, grasshoppers, mortgages, debts, strikes, h. i. storms, bankruptcies, wage-cuts, and crop failures are all opposition allies. They make doubters and discontents, cheap money theorists and British sympathizers, revolutionists and anarchists, and all that goes with politics. Whatever builds up the country morally, financially and industrially, adds strength to nation and ought to lead the spirit of true politics; but it doesn't. However, it would be a blessed good thing if good harvest could take the place of bad politics, and who knows but they may help purify them after all. Let us wait and see.

Various Topics.

The people are willing to be taxed to maintain the public school system, and they have a right to demand of boards of education the greatest and most scrupulous care for the physical as well as mental health of the school children.

The world rejoices in the progress of civilization that leads to a better appreciation of man and his nature than that held by those who gave to the ignorant no higher attribute than allowed the kine, and reserved for intelligence and culture and a blind faith the right to stand as fellows in the great brotherhood which links humanity with its Creator.

The colleges themselves are largely to blame for the existing state of things, though in this respect many of them are improving. There is little for a young man, who wishes to spend his life in practical business, to learn in college after his sophomore year that will be of benefit to him in his labors; the high school had will be several years ahead of him, in the business world, although they may be of the same age.

No duty is more incumbent on parents than that of discouraging in children a tendency to the cruel treatment of insects and other creatures of a higher order, yet helpless for defense, even against childhood. The little one that put a pin through a butterfly, or carried off a young bird from the nest, or inflicted needless pain on a cat or a dog, has learned a lesson that may have a far reaching influence upon its future life.

The life of the ordinary college student is not such as to especially fit him for business routine. If he is a "bookish man" at college he is destined for some one of the professions. If he be an athletic chap the humdrum and agonizing of office life are altogether distasteful to him. On the other hand, the training of business men begins early. While the college student is spending his time on philosophies and higher mathematics the high school youth is learning the details of business.

The following are the qualities which, according to the most advanced sanitary science, water for domestic use should always have—freedom from disagreeable odor and taste; at all seasons of the year to be well aerated and uniform in temperature; it should contain a small quantity of mineral matter in solution, but should be free from poisonous salts; suspended mineral and dead organic matter it should never have, although it may safely contain such living organisms as are essentially purifying agents.

INSTEAD of being an imbecile, the young man in the dude state is simply going through his stage of most rapid intellectual development; or perhaps it would be more accurate to say is most rapidly approximating his highest capacity for education. Instead of being stuffed up with a sense of his supreme importance, as might appear, he is feeling his own insufficiency. His wide belts and lawn tennis skirts; his shoes, patent leather or buff, as the case may be; his cravats, his cane, the whole make-up of him, are simply results of this sense of individual insufficiency.

THOUGHTFUL boys should be interested in knowing that statistics in regard to the effects of the tobacco smoking habit upon students that have been collected at Amherst college agree closely with those recently collected at Yale. The non-smokers at Amherst are of greater weight than the smokers; they are superior in chest girth to the smokers, and their lung capacity is higher. The non-smokers are more athletic than the smokers, and more successful in athletic sports. The non-smokers at Amherst, as at Yale, have also an advantage over the smokers in mental power and in scholarship. The facts recently collected in America colleges concerning the physiological and physical effects of the tobacco-smoking habit, are instructive to the young men who go to college, and also to those who do not.

EVERY English action seems to contribute to the ambition of the inhabitants of Australia to establish their autonomy. The main support of the Australian loyalists has been the belief that the mother government was always ready to help her Australian offspring out of any financial straits into which lack of experience may have plunged them. Australian colonies, Queensland, Victoria and South Australia applied for help recently. Queensland tried to float a $12,000,000 loan in London and failed by about $1,000,000. The efforts of the other two colonies were equally unsuccessful. That John Bull would rather go chasing after a lot of South American adventures with his pounds, shillings and pence than help his wild Australian children out of a hole, makes the business of apologizing very tedious to Australian loyalists.

Journalism's Golden Age.

This is the golden age of journalism in New York. Never in the history of newspaper making in that city was so much money paid by newspaper proprietors to those who make them. Journalists receive better remuneration now than ever before. Good articles from special contributors are more eagerly sought after and purchased at better rates than any other time since journalism became a profession. First class editors and reporters command nearly double the pay they did fifteen years ago. The salary of one managing editor of a leading morning newspaper is $22,000 yearly. At least five managing editors in that city are paid over $6,000 each yearly. Good City editors are paid from $3,500 to $5,500. Specialists paid from $3,000 to $5,000. A score at least of good reporters are in receipt of incomes ranging from $3,000 to $5,000. In fact all workers good and bad, in newspaperdom are better compensated now than ever before. Money is spent for news. Expense is not considered in making a great newspaper these days. It makes no difference how vast the undertaking or how distant the field, if it only promises good results, money is spent with a lavish hand. With this condition of affairs it is not surprising that the newspaper business is being eagerly studied and sought after by young men and women as a means of getting a livelihood. Not a day passes that from one to a dozen applications are not made to leading managing editors for employment. Letters from all parts of the country are sent to newspaper offices applying for places. Journalism has finally become a well paid and dignified profession, a profession in the land. And it needs new recruits. It needs new life and new blood, and men and women with originality and new ideas.—Albany Telegram.

WICKWARE.

The spring crops in this locality are good.

Threshing has begun in this part of the country.

Mr. Stevenson, of Cass City, visited our town Monday.

The Farmers' Alliance held a meeting here on Friday evening.

Say, Bro. scribe of Wilnot, what were you doing with my locals under your heading last week?

Mr. and Mrs. John Angle wish to thank their neighbors for their kindness to them during the illness of their baby.

James Reaper, of Hay Creek, while driving in from Cass City last week with his horse and cart, the horse became frightened at a threshing engine running on the road, and ran away. He lost $3.00 worth of cherries and did damage to his cart of about $3.00, also hurting himself, but not bad.

Some time ago a young man in our vicinity departed from bachelor's island and started for the river, courtship After a short trip down the river he espied a fair vessel called the —. The two sailed pleasantly down along the cozy places, stopping here and there for parts of cargo which consisted of note paper, jewelry, silk handkerchiefs, etc., until they fetched up to the end of the river where there is a lock. I think it is called wedlock—it is where they tie two vessels together. There the lock keeper Rev. Mr.— was called in. After tying the knot securely the two sailed out before a storm of rice and shoes. They are now floating serenely on the broad sea of matrimony beneath the glittering rays of the honeymoon, towards the land of cradles and babies. May their crew increase and the end of their journey be happier, if possible than the beginning.

GAGETOWN.

Mrs. William Moody's health is improving.

Frank Meyers has become a photographic student.

H. J. Mose of Detroit, came up Friday for a short stay at his old homestead.

Three of Gill Seaking's children are born with the measles.

Ternace Wallace has completed a new barn on his farm north of the county line.

The Michigan Passenger association will limit G. A. R. Encampment tickets to Sept. 20th.

Geo. Beach, our station agent, will sell G. A. R. excursion tickets from Aug. 1st to 7th, good until the 10th.

Wm. Baker has been repairing his grist mill and has got his big flourstone firmly placed and ready for business.

M. J. Bachman, of Sebeca Falls, N. Y. is here looking after his crops on his farm in Grant, formerly the O'Neal farm.

Mrs. R. B. Butland and daughter Annie, of Toronto, arrived Tuesday and are the guests of A. J. Palmer and wife.

The Beaden Bros. have made large improvements on their new homestead, Sec. 12, Elmwood, and north of Amasa Coon's.

Mrs. Miles R. King, of whom mention was made last week, has been improving since last Thursday and says she has had no pain since that day.

ELLINGTON.

Cooler Saturday and Sunday.

Last week was a busy week for the farmers.

The most of the hay has been cut and taken care of and the rest will be attended to this week.

A large amount of wheat was cut and taken care of in Ellington the past week and the balance will be cut this week.

Charles Oesterlie returned home from Akron Tuesday the 21st, bringing his sister Mrs. Julia Hutchinson home with him to visit friends here.

Charles Oesterlie took his brother Herman over to Akron the 19th. He has got over bunting the hitching post, so as to go to work again.

Boom! boom! What is that? Why the booming of the B. C. C. & P. H. railway. Let it come! I repeat it sirs, let it come! Let the bell ring and the whistle blow on the B. C. C. & P. H. road.

The Epworth League, of the M. E. Church of Ellington will meet at the house of J. W. Ostrander on the evening of July 31st. A good program will be prepared for the occasion. All are cordially invited.

Miss Milly Ostrander and Mrs. Adlia Heath are both in a very poor state of health. They are at home yet with their father J. W. Ostrander. Verily they have a large share of the sickness at their house this year.

Between the dry weather and the heavy frosts and fires of last spring, berries of all kinds are very scarce in central Ellington. Large tracts of bushes were burned up entirely and bushes with berries upon them are few indeed.

Mrs. Olive Ostrander is very feeble yet but goes out some. Last Saturday afternoon she was at the office and did some trading and was taken with a severe pain in her lungs so that she had hard work to get into her buggy to go home.

DEFORD.

Will Vance is on the sick list.

Benjamin Sharp has a sick bovine.

Mrs. Peck still suffers with the grip.

Jesse Sole is the loser of a mileh cow.

Mrs. Harmon east of here suffers with Quinsey.

Oat harvest will commence in this locality this week.

Wheat shocks up brighter in this neck of woods than we expected.

Our old "Vets" with a very few exceptions will spend next in week Detroit.

A daughter of Col. Cransons is spending the summer months here with her parents.

A brother of Mr. Crittendon, known as the "Yankee peddler," was in seller last week.

Jas. Valentine Jr. is home again from Dryden county where he has been working for some time.

You can read D. Croop's ad in last week's issue, but in deciphering "Hive" just look cross-eyed.

Simon Hartwell, of Rochester, accompanied by hisred from Pa. visited friends in this locality last week.

If we reported huckle-berries a fair strangers from far would think we were guffing, so we invite you to come and pick to your heart's content.

'Tis our privilege to have all the pleasure we can in this life, provided the sunshine of no other life is made less bright by our action.

The Caro Democrat don't say a word about the new R. R. Col Boone's he cooked and wont bite again. Bro. locum we see the Advertiser takes hold 'nighly keeful."

D. Croop proposes to make room for the largest new stock of any country in the three counties, and August, will commence a clearing sale, when goods will be sold at cost.

John McCracken accompanied by his wife has just returned from a week's visit in Southern Michigan. They spent two days at the noted summer resort "St. Joseph by the sea." Mrs. McCracken spent her girlhood days in that part of the world. The dust of a beloved mother rest here in the St. Joseph cemetery which they visited after an absence of twenty five years.

Readers of the Enterprise will see that the Ed's insist that it was our mistake in calling 500 pounds 500 tons of hay to the acre and the fertility of our soil lead them to think that the big news were all straight. Now there is just one thing in the world that surpasses Deford soil in fertility—'tis the brain of an editor in contriving how to get out of his blunders and throw the blame on the scribe who is so meek and long suffering.—Amen.

On a Long Journey.

Tramp—"Please, mum, I can't get work at me trade now anywhere around here, and wud you be so kind as to help me along on me journey to a place where I can find work?"

"Lady—"Poor man! I didn't know business was so dull. Where do you expect to find work?"

"Considerin' the time o' year mum, I'm afraid I'll have to go a long ways north of here."

"Indeed! What is your trade?"

"I'm a snow shoveler, mum."

A Bright Idea.

A New York man visited the family of a relative in the country, where he was not a welcome guest by any manner of means. After the visitor had spent a couple of weeks his much-disgusted host said one morning at the breakfast table: "Dear cousin, don't you think your family will miss you painfully? You ought not to leave them alone so much."

"By jove, that's so," exclaimed the New Yorker; "I'll telegraph them to come right on home."
