All Editors Know Him.
The Individual Who Does Not Subscribe for this Paper Because:
He has more papers now than he can read.
He has no time to read except nights and his eyes are so poor that he can't see them.
He can't afford to take all of them, so he takes none.
He doesn't think much of our paper, anyhow. "It never has no news, nor nuthin' else much."
He can get a city weekly four times as big as ours for the same price, and "it's got lots of readin' in it, too."
He doesn't like the politics of the paper.
His neighbor takes it, and he takes the other one, and they "kinder change off, you know."
He got mad at the editor seven or eight years ago, and he wouldn't take the paper if it was the last one on earth.
He likes to see a paper that has sand enough to be on one side or the other, and not on the fence all the time. "Ef I wuz runnin' a paper, by hokey, I'd—"

The death of Joseph Brown, of Cumber, Sanilac County, brother of Robert Brown, living northwest of this place, and father of Mrs. E. F. Marr, of this place, occurred on Monday last.

The deceased was born in Louisville, N. Y., October 10, 1832. He came to Michigan in 1859, and located in Sanilac county. He selected 160 acres of land on sections 19 and 30, Austin township, which has been his home ever since.

Patrons of the Vassar creamery are kicking because they were allowed 60 cents per one hundred pounds for milk instead of $1. "Not Many Like Him."
Is the High Compliment Paid Dr. P. P. L. Fritz by the Alexandria Daily Times.
The Alexandria (Ind.) Daily Times says Dr. P. L. Fritz, formerly of this place, the following flattering compliment:
"Too much credit can not be given Dr. P. L. Fritz, for the manner in which he treated the cases of small-pox in our city. He treated them a few days before he knew what it was. As soon as he discovered the nature of the disease he gave up his practice, which considering the length of time he has been in the city, was very good, and devoted his time to these cases. His careful treatment kept the dreadful disease from spreading; only one case proving fatal, which was a child only a few days old. The rest of the patients are improving rapidly and the small pox is a thing of the past. The doctor charged ten dollars a trip for his services, which is a large amount some of our citizens think. Let us ask, how many of these kickers would risk their lives for such a paltry sum. We would not have risked it for ten times that amount. Then we say, that too much praise cannot be given Dr. Fritz for his willingness to take hold of this dreaded disease. Let him be paid and well paid for his services."

"Out In The Streets."
The Caro Dramatic Club will present the melo-drama, "Out In The Streets," at the Town Hall in this place next Thursday evening, June 29. This drama was rendered at Caro last Friday evening, and was well received. The cast is a good one, and the entertainment, no doubt, will be very interesting. Bills giving full particulars, will be distributed the fore part of next week.

"ECONOMY is the road to death," is the latest version of an old saying.

It is the height of folly for the steam railroads to seriously propose the construction of electric lines.

TABERNACLE PULPIT.

DR. TALMAGE PREACHES ON A FRUITFUL SUBJECT

And They Came Unto the Brook of Eschol and Cut Down From Thence a Branch With One Cluster of Grapes.

BROOKLYN, June 18, 1893.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, in selecting a theme for to-day's sermon in the Brooklyn Tabernacle, chose one peculiarly suitable to the season.

The long bridge of the Israelites across the wide desert of the wilderness ended. They had come to the borders of the promised land.

There was a shaded chamber, a silent, watching hand, on a low couch a suffering child.

When the wrecker went down into the cabin of the lost steamer he found the mother and child in each other's arms.

But in our souls you again with the fact of your present acquaintanceship and communication with your departed friends.

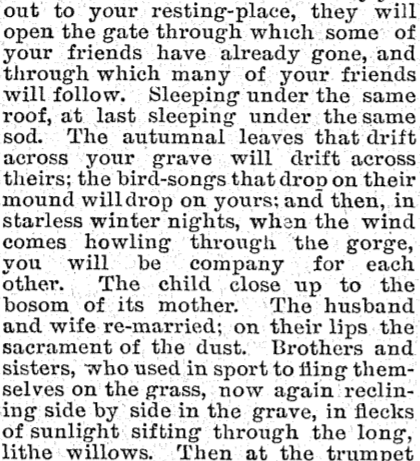

That friend of yours who died last month—do you not suppose he told all the family and you found him in good luck to the friends who are gone?

On that day you will get back your Christian dead. There is where the comfort comes in. They will come with the same entire body.

While I present these thoughts this morning, does it not seem that heaven comes very near us, as though our friends were but a short way off.

There were great quantities of those queer spirits doing the same thing.

"Oh," you say; "I would believe that if you would explain it."

Before the resurrection comes in, you are not ashamed to say that I cannot explain God, and the judgment, and the resurrection.
