A man's repentence is never genuine when it merely comes from the fact that he was discovered.

There are still four widows of revolutionary soldiers on the pension rolls of the government at Washington. At this rate the United States will be paying pensions to soldiers of the civil war or their widows well on in the last quarter of the coming century and to soldiers or their widows of the Spanish-American war nearly to the close of the first quarter of the twenty-first century. It takes a long time to close up the expense account of a war.

The English parliament recently passed a bill compelling shopkeepers to provide seats for their women clerks. Quite as effectual a relief bill was recently passed in a club of rich girls in these words: "We will not price things which we do not intend to buy; we will make our selections quickly; we will not shop on hot days nor at late hours." Whenever we blame public conditions, might we not, like these generous-hearted girls, ask ourselves who the public is?

THE QUEENS OF HOME, LAST SUNDAY'S SUBJECT.

SERMON.

From the Text, Sol. Song, 6: 8, as Follows: "There Are Three Score Queens" -Many Sympathics Stirred and Memories Recalled.

(Copyright 1899 by Louis Klopsch.) So Solomon, by one stroke, set forth the imperial character of a true Christian woman. She is not a slave, not a hireling, not a subordinate, but a queen. In a former sermon I showed you that crown and courtly attendants, Pity the man who brags. He has to snd imperial wardrobe were not necessary to make a queen; but that graces of the heart and life will give coronation to any woman. I showed The man who sells his vote probably | you at some length that woman's position was higher in the world than man's, and that although she had often been denied the right of suffrage. she always did vote and always would vote by her influence, and that her chief desire ought to be that she should have grace rightly to rule in the dominion which she has already won. I began an enumeration of some of her rights, and now I resume the subject.

In the first place, woman has the special and the superlative right of blessing and comforting the sick. What land, what street, what house, has not felt the smitings of disease? Tens of thousands of sick-beds! What shall we do with them? Shall man, with his rough hand and clumsy foot, go stumbling around the sick-room, trying to soothe the distracted nerves and alleviate the pains of the distressed patient? The young man at college may scoff at the idea of being under maternal influences, but at the first blast of typhoid fever on his cheek he says, "Where is mother?" Walter Scott wrote partly in satire and partly in compliment: O woman, in our hours of ease, Uncertain, coy and hard to please;

When pain and anguish wring the brow, A ministering angel thou.

I think the most pathetic passage in makes you cry?" Tonight while we that three-fourths of the members of there will be a light in yonder loft; there will be groaning down the dark alley; there will be cries of distress in that cellar. Men will sleep, and women will watch. Again: woman has a special right to take care of the poor. There are hundreds and thousands of them all work that men cannot do for the poor. Here comes a group of little barefoot children to the door of the Dorcas Society. They need to be clothed and provided for. Which of these directors of banks would know how many yards it would take to make that little girl a dress? Which of these masculine hands could fit a hat to that little girl's head? Which of the wise men would know how to tie on that new pair of shoes? Man sometimes gives his charity in a rough way, and it falls like the fruit of a tree in the East, which fruit comes down so heavily that it breaks the skull of the man who is trying to gather it. But woman glides so softly into the house of destitution, and finds out all the sorrows of the place, and puts so quietly the donation on the table, that all the family come out on the front steps as she departs, expecting that from under her shawl she will thrust out two wings and go right up toward heaven, from whence she seems to have come down. O, Christian young woman! if you would make yourself happy, and win the blessing of Christ, go out among the destitute. A loaf of bread or a bundle of socks may make a homely load to carry, but the angels of God will come out to watch, and the Lord

Almighty will give his messenger hosts a charge, saying, "Look after that woman; canopy her with your wings, and shelter her from all harm;" and while you are seated in the house of destitution and suffering, the little ones around the room will whisper, "Who is she?" "Ain't she beautiful!" and if you will listen right sharply, you will hear dripping down through the leaky roof, and rolling over the rotten stairs, the angel chant that shook Bethlehem: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will

to men."

Again, I have to tell you that it is a woman's specific right to comfort under the stress of dire disaster. She is called the weaker vessel; but all profane as well as sacred history attests that when the crisis comes she is better prepared than man to meet the emergency. How often have you seen woman who seemed to be a disciple men are sound asleep in our beds, churches in all Christendom are women. So God appoints them to be the chief agents for bringing this world back to God. I may stand here and say the soul is immortal. There is a man who will deny it. I may stand here and say we are lost and undone without Christ There is a man who will contradict it. I may stand here over the land. There is a kind of and say there will be a judgment day after a while. Yonder is some one who will dispute it. But a Christian woman in a Christian household, living in the faith and the consistency of Christ's gospel-nobody can refute that. The greatest sermons are not preached on celebrated platforms; they are preached with an audience of two or three, and in private home life. A consistent, consecrated Christian service is an unanswerable demonstration of God's truth.

specific rights of woman is, through the grace of Christ, finally to reach heaven. Oh, what a multitude of women in heaven! Mary, Christ's mother, in heaven! Elizabeth Fry in heaven! Some of you will have no rest in this world. It will be toil and strugcalves, but if it is fed to pigs will also gle and suffering all the way up. puts another gem in that crown, until, after a while in all the tiara there will be no room for another splendor, and God will say to his angel: "The crown is done; let her up, that she may wear it." And as the Lord of Righteousness puts the crown upon your brow, angel will cry to angel, "Who is she?" and Christ will say, "I will tell you who she is. She is the one that came up out of great tribulation, and had her robe washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb." And then God will spread a banquet and he will invite all the principalities of heaven to sit at the feast, and the tables will blush with the best clusters from the vineyards of God and crimson with the twelve manner of fruits from the Tree of Life, and waters from the fountains of the rock will flash from the golden tankards, and the old harpers of heaven will sit there, making music with their harps, and Christ will point you out, amid the celebrities of heaven, saying, "She suffered with me on earth; now we are going to be glorified together." In Holland some feeders put starch in the milk. Potato starch is the kind used there, but presumably corn starch would be as good. About one and three-quarter ounces of starch is used to every quart of skim-milk. This is placed in half the quantity of milk to be used and cooked up till the whole forms a thin paste. This paste is then mixed with the rest of the milk, and the whole forms a very acceptable ration for the calves.

and everlasting praise awaits the courage of woman. The little city of Lincoln, Ill., is singing the praise of Miss Rosie Rock, whose story of heroism and self-sacrifice is quickly told. On the fifth of August last Miss Rock, who is netite and winsome enough to attract the attention of a Frohman or a Daly, submitted herself to the tortures of a surgeon's knife, that an experiment, that might save her invalid father from life long suffering might be performed. But before going into detail a short sketch of the case in question might be given, as there are items of interest to this world of ours that has gone mad on the subject of electricity. Simon Rock, the father, who is at present anxiously awaiting the outcome of the operation, is one of the oldest citizens of Lincoln, having made the city his home since early in the fifties. His life has been that of an honored citizen and in the days of his vigor he gave his every effort to the building up of his city, and many blocks now stand as a monument to his perseverance. The city council knew him as a member for many years, and before retiring from public life he filled the chair of mayor in a way that testified to his executive ability. Some ten or twelve years ago he retired to private life, fully prepared to enjoy the fruits of his labor, little knowing the suffering that was in store for him. Mr. Rock is of the opinion that he has the point of a needle in his left foot, and being a sufferer from muscular rheumatism, began a series of visits to the spas of our country in hope of relief. Nothing of a serious nature developed until eighteen months ago, when he decided to have an X-ray picture taken of his foot, that the needle point might be located. At Peoria, Ill., he made the experiment that was then the most talked of of the year. The operator tested the bath, as he called it, with his hand, and then with his foot, but with his shoe on, before the subject. Then Mr. Rock submitted his foot to the mercies of the powerful agent several times. During the exposure of the plate he complained of a peculiar sensation in the foot and limb, but it was afterwards followed by a state of coma. Whether the powerful agent employed in taking the picture was the cause or not can only be surmised, but the victim knows that the cuticle was taken is well again, his greatest trouble dates from that but will always bear that mark of time. Mr. Rock has spent thousands of dollars investigating cures, has traveled thousands of miles but found no relief. The burn has appeared at times the same as those where persons have come in contact with live wires or have been carressed by lightning, but unlike them, has refused to heal. The careful observer knows he can form a pretty accurate opinion of a stranger by certain characteristics of the face. If the head is in good proportion to the body it shows steadiness and force of character; if too large it indicates grossness, and if too small feebleness.

People who have foreheads with prominent eyebones act on the judgment of the moment, yet err rarely, such are their gifts of intuition. These with high foreheads move more cautiously and are less imaginative and resourceful. If - the bones above the eye project so far as to make the eyebrows bristle out the possessor has great shrewdness and genius for intrigue. Bismarck had a brow like this; so has Li Hung Chang.

A forehead square on the temples and retreating on each side into the hair tells of a good memory and judgment. Such is Lord Kitchener's. Dark eyes indicate power, light eyes delicacy.

With black eyes the intellect will be powerful, the passions strong. What the owners of blue eyes may lack in power and emotional strength they may make up in subtlety and versatility. Hazel eyes show steadiness and power of affection; fascinating green eyes belong to deceitful and coquettish persons. The proper distance be tween eyes is the length of one eye.

How the World Carries Its Money. 3,000 00 To the initiated, a man's nationality is betrayed by the way he carries his money. The Englishman carries his loose in his right-hand trousers' pocket gold, silver and copper all mixed up together. He pulls a handful of the mixture out of his pocket in a large, opulent way, and selects the coins he has need of. The American carries his wad of bills in a peculiar long, narrow pocketbook, in which the greenbacks lie flat; the Frenchman makes use of a leather purse with no distinguishing characteristics, while the German uses one gaily embroidered in silks by the fair hands of some Lottchen or Mina. The half civilized capitalist from some torrid South American city carries his dollars in a belt, with cunningly devised pockets to baffle the gentlemen with the light fingers. Some of these belts are very expensive. The Italian of the poorer class ties up his little fortune in a gaily colored handkerchief secured with many knots, which he secrets in some mysterious manner about his clothes. A similar course has charms for the Spaniard; while the lower-class Russian exhibits a preference for his boots or the lining o his clothes as a hiding place for his savings.

KIDNEYS.

Which Can be Remedied by the Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

In the evening of life-after the battles are fought-why shouldn't the old folks enjoy in comfort their wellearned rest?

It is usually the kidneys which first get out of order, and cause backaches, headaches and urinary troubles. As filters of the blood the kidneys work hard to remove from the body the last trace of poisonous uric acid, but they do get tired and cause pain in the back, and unless attended to will leave foul poisons in the blood which will cause the most painful and fatal diseases Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills strike at the root of trouble by making the kidneys strong, healthy and vigorous. They cure Bright's disease, dropsy, diabetes and all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder, as well as chronic constipation. They have won the ad-miration of old people in particular, be-cause they make it possible for them to enjoy in old age the comfort and rest they have so well earned. Mr. J. D. Brightman, Ledyard, N. Y., "I am a blacksmith, and have writes had kidney disease in its worst form. At times I could not straighten up, and for five years I was never free from back-ache and terrible pains. Mr. Alexander Thomas recommended Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills so highly that I tried them, and am now entirely free from backache and kidney disease.

Weekly Crop Bulletin. The weekly weather crop bulletin says: Showers have been general in all parts of the state and the severe drouth is broken, but the rainfall in most of the lower peninsula counties was insufficient. More rain is needed for fall plowing on high land and clay soils, and is also necessary to germinate fall sown wheat and rye. Corn cutting has made rapid progress during the past seven days, and in four southern tiers of counties a large part of the crop is in shock; in more northerly connties corn cutting has been quite generally begun. The severe drouth during August has greatly shortened the yield of corn, especially late planted. The bean harvest is about completed and a much shortened crop is nearly all secured. The showers of the past week have been beneficial to State Stearns shows 2,755 deaths in pastures and late potatoes. Late potatoes have improved but indicate a light crop. Buckwheat is in very poor condition, much of it having blasted in flower, and it has filled poorly. Sugar beets need more rain, but are still in fairly good condition. Apples continue to drop very badly and will be a very light crop. Fall plowing is well advanced in the southern counties and some seeding has been done.

The 75th annual communication of the sovereign grand lodge, I. O. O. F., convenes in Detroit this week. There are no officers to elect at this time. The grand sire is elected for two years and the present incumbent came into his office at Boston last year. By the precedent of many years the deputy grand sire is advanced to the office of grand sire at the conclusion of the superior officer's term. There will be the usual grist of legislation brought before the sovereign grand lodge. There has been in times past considerable question about the admission of women delegates to the sovereign grand lodge. This question came up after the adoption of the Rebekan degree an the formation of the Rebekah lodges. The women wanted representation in the sovereign body, which legislates for them. There was a pe-

Capt. Hodgsdon Compl mented. Assistant Secretary Spaulding has paid a handsome compliment to Capt. Hodgsdon, of the revenue cutter Fessenden, at Detroit, by detailing him to command the entire fleet of revenue vessels that will take part in the ceremonies attending the welcoming of Admiral Dewey at New York. This honor is bestowed upon Capt. Hodgsdon in recognition of his services during the battle of Manila and subsequently when he commanded the cutter McCulloch which was used as a dis-

A valuable Jersey cow belonging to Robes Vanbrunt's dairy near St. Joseph died on the 13th. To satisfy the veterinary surgeons who have been doctoring the cow for the past six months a post-mortem was held, which resulted in finding a 50-pound cancer in the cow's stomach. The affected cow had not been used in connection with the dairy for the past year.

Disease in Michigan.

Surely the morals of the people of Michigan are improving, or else the law is not getting after offenders as lively as usual. From August 18 to September 7, not a single prisoner was received at the state prison at Jackson.

Six Killed in a Race Rlot.

Carterville, Ill., was the scene of a bloody riot about noon on the 17th inwhich six Negroes were killed and one fatally wounded, while two others received slight wounds. Trouble has been brewing since the militia was recalled by Gov. Tanner a week ago. The white miners of the place has refused to allow the Negro miners to come into town, always meeting them and ordering them back. On the above day, however, 13 Negroes, all armed, marched into town going to the Illinois Central depot, where they exchanged a few words with the white miners. there. Then the Negroes pulled their pistols and opened fire on the whites. who at once returned the fire. A running fight was kept up. The Transvaal adheres to the seven years' franchise law, but is willing to consider and if necessary to adopt any suggestions Great Britain may make with regard to the working of the law. In regard to the other points of Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch, the Transvaal boldly stands by the London convention. It is said that the reply is couched in polite terms. State Secre-

House Collapsed and Killed Eight.

An adobe house, five miles from Mora, N. M., collapsed on the 17th, killing Manuel Cordova and his wife and six children. It had been raining in that vicinity for several days and the dirt roof of the house having become saturated, fell on the inmates, crushing them. Only one member of the family, a boy of 10 years, escaped, Dog's Battle with a Cactus.

Otto Kleemann, who lives on Belmont street, recently acquired a beautiful cactus, which he established in his household, unmindful of the fact that his dog held the opinion that his master should have no other pets before him. Now he has no cactus and the dejected semblance of a dog. The little animal espied the plant soon after its arrival, and issued a challenge. In default of acceptance, he gave battle, but retired at the first shock to reconsider. The enemy had more teeth than a battalion of bull terriers, and all of them were newly sharpened. He was no quitter, however, and with rising anger he renewed the attack. This time his opponent came down, landing on him heavily, and with the touch of a barb-wire fence. The two rolled over and over in a death embrace, and the cactus was finally vanquished, torn into shreds and scattered about the room. But it was a costly victory. The conqueror is punctured in more places than his owner can count. He may live to fight another day, but it will not be with a cactus.-Oregonian.

Story of a Long Beard.

Cornelius Breckenridge of Taliaferro, Ky., was in town the other day and while talking to a friend he thrust his hand under his waistcoat and pulled out a snowy white beard which reached almost to his knees, says the Denver Times. "I am going to tell you an incident of my life that has never before been made public," he said. "That beard of mine is now thirty-one inches long and the cause of its length is all due to the fact that I once made a bet. When the war broke out I was one of the southerners, who enlisted and fought with the confederates. Quite naturally my feeling toward Abraham Lincoln was not of the best. When old Abe came up the second time for election I said to a friend: 'Bob, if old Abe is elected I will never again shave.' 'Well,' said Bob, 'if Abe Lincoln is not elected I will never shave.' Both of us agreed it should stand as a bet and the election day rolled around and the result is well known."

He Had Two Wives.

Andrew W. Halliday, of Flint, has just been granted a divorce from a wife whom he married in 1861, whom he thought had been dead for 30 years. Halliday celebrated the Fourth of July in 1861 by marrying Almira Hardick at Fenton, but three weeks later he went south with a regiment to fight for the union. When he returned in 1864, with an honorable discharge, he found that his wife had eloped with a eman named Sage, who left a young wife and baby. Halliday declares that The heard that his faithless wife died five years later, and says he took another wife. Recently he heard that his first was alive and still living with Sage, so he filed a bill for divorce in the circuit court and it was granted.

Michigan Coal Equals the Ohio Product. Labor Commissioner Cox has been collecting statistics regarding the coal industry in Michigan. Saginaw, Jackson and Shiawasse counties are the principal localities where coal is produced now, and Saginaw leads. The quality of the coal mined is said to be equal to the best brought up from Ohio. The aggregate capital invested in mining in Michigan, aside from the value of lands, is $2,000,000, and when the mines secure a full force of employes they will give employment to 5,000 men and the production will reach 15,000 tons per day. The output for the current year will reach 1,000,-000 tons.

STATE GOSSIP.

Late crops in Lake county were badly frozen last week.

Heavy rain in Calhoun county on the 7th did much good. Clare was visited by a $14,000 fire on the the night of the 14th. One hundred new houses have built at Ann Arbor this year. Last week's frosts destroyed the pickle crops in Allegan county. The manufacture of sugar at the Bay City factories will begin on 25th. Three Rivers expended $12,900 in the unning of her public schools last year. It is said that the last week's frost as caused a loss of 1,000,000 bushels of potatoes throughout the state.

of the fruit which have fallen from the trees before maturing. A. F. Smith, a former business man of Detroit, has gone into the industry of raising guinea pigs east of Ann Arbor for scientists to experiment on. He now has 400 of these animals, and says that raising them is far more profitable than fruit growing.

The sparrow bounty is getting to be quite a burden to the taxpayers of Gratiot county. For the month of August it amounted to $677. Many farmers are wondering if the sparrow is not, after all, a help to them instead of a pest, for since the wholesale destruction of the birds the past few years, the insect pests which annoy the farmer and destroy his crops have greatly increased in number. Possibly it may be because there are not so many sparrows nowadays to fight the bugs as there used to be. Scarlet fever is reported epidemic in Jefferson township, Hillsdale county.

The secretary of war, in response to numerous requests, cabled Gen.
